Evidence in support of the allegations of her complaint was adduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff, and after duly considering the same and the files and records in said action, the court finds that the allegations of said complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint.

It is therefor ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same hereby in all things are, forever dissolved, and the parties are hereby each restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff, Elnora Hilton, have, and she is hereby awarded the sole care and custody of the minor child of the parties, Daniel Lee Hilton, subject to the right of the defendant to see and visit said child at reasonable times and intervals.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff as and for the support and maintenance of said child the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per month, commencing forthwith, the first payment to be made within ten days from the entry of this decree, and continuing until said child reaches the age of eighteen years, or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

4. That the plaintiff have as her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all of the household furniture and house furnishings of the parties.

5. That the defendant have as his sole and separate property, and for his sole and separate use and benefit, one 1941 Chevrolet Sedan Delivery truck.

6. That the two-thirds interest of the parties in the crop now being harvested on 160 acres of land being farmed by the defendant near Monteview, in Jefferson County, Idaho, be divided equally between the parties after payment of the expenses of raising and harvesting the same, and that the defendant pay one-half of the net proceeds of such crop to the plaintiff as soon as such harvesting is completed and the crop sold.

ELAINE PETERSEN,

Plaintiff,

vs JUDGMENT

DALE L. PETERSEN,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came before this Court for final hearing, at Chambers of the Court, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, this 9th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Albaugh, Bloom & Hillman, and no formal appearance being made by answer by the defendant to the complaint of the plaintiff, but the defendant being personally present in Court, and it appearing that the time allowed by the Court for answering said complaint having expired, and no answer or other appearance being made by the defendant, and the default of the defendant having been entered herein by the Clerk of this Court, evidence was thereupon adduced by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of the complaint, and no evidence was offered by the defendant contrary thereto.

After duly considering the evidence and the files and records of this action, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Elaine Petersen, and the defendant Dale L. Petersen, be, and the same hereby are, in all things, dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded, the sole care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, Robert Dale Petersen, aged 5 years, and Patricia Lee Petersen, aged 2½ years, subject to the right of the defendant to see and visit said children at reasonable times and intervals, so long as the defendant shall be in full compliance and not in default in the payments hereinafter required to be made by him for the support and maintenance of said children.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff, as and for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Robert Dale Petersen, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per month, payable $12.50 on the 26th day of September, 1949, and a like sum on the second and fourth Mondays of each and every month thereafter until said child reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of this Court in the premises, and that the defendant pay to the plaintiff, as and for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Patricia Lee Petersen, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per month, payable $12.50 on the 26th day of September, 1949, and a like sum on the second and fourth Mondays of each and every month thereafter until said child reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of this Court in the premises.

4. That the defendant pay to Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, attorneys for the plaintiff, as and for plaintiff's attorneys' fees herein, the sum of One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars, payable $12.50 on the 19th day of September, 1949, and a like sum on the third Monday of each month until fully paid.

5. That the plaintiff have as her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all of the household furniture and house furnishings, except one combination radio-phonograph, but including one electric refrigerator, and that the defendant pay and keep current the payments on the unpaid balance remaining on the purchase price of said refrigerator.

6. That the defendant have as his sole and separate property, and for his sole and separate use and benefit, one 1936 Model 40 Buick automobile.

IDA MAY STAGNER, Plaintiff, -vs- JAMES RAY STAGNER, Defendant.	(COPY) DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of the above entitled Court, in chambers, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, on the 8th day of June, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person, and W. K. Naylor appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon one Edna Gillette, witness for the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and thereupon plaintiff rested and no proof whatsoever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises now finds as follows:

I

had and obtained, and John M. Sharp, counsel for the defendant, having appeared before the Court and consented that default be entered against the said defendant, the said default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law; that this Court has jurisdiction of the person of the above-named plaintiff and of the person of the above-named defendant and of the subject matter of this action; that it appears from the testimony of the plaintiff, and the Court further finds, that the plaintiff and defendant have entered into a verbal Stipulation for a settlement of their community property rights and for the custody and support of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of each and all of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant; that the allegations of plaintiff's said Complaint have been established by sufficient and competent evidence, free and clear from all legal objections and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of divorce as prayed for in her said Complaint filed herein and in accordance with and pursuant to the testimony of the plaintiff in the matter of the verbal Stipulation between plaintiff and defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Ida May Stagner, and the defendant, James Ray Stagner, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the said plaintiff and the said defendant be, and they hereby are, restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the following community property of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit, household furniture and effects mentioned or described as follows:

> Bedroom set (bed, chest of drawers, vanity), Estate Heatrola, Estate coal range, kitchen set (table, 6 chairs), Coronado radio, small table, lamp, small oil burner, hot plate, miscellaneous dishes and utensils, be, and the same is hereby awarded and decreed to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that for and in consideration of the claims and demands of the plaintiff against the defendant for alimony and in settlement of the community property rights of plaintiff and defendant that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff on or before the 1st day of December, 1949, the sum of $1000.00, lawful money of the United States, which shall be in full settlement of the community property rights of plaintiff and defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the certain 1937 Chevrolet four-door sedan automobile of plaintiff and defendant, and the following described real property, to-wit:

> Lots twenty-eight (28), twenty-nine (29) and thirty (30) in Block twenty-seven (27) of the South Park Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, be, and the same are hereby awarded and decreed to the defendant as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, provided however, that it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff shall have a lien on and against said real property as security for the said sum of $1000.00 herein awarded and decreed to the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of Sharlene Clarice Stagner, Carol Rae Stagner and Bonnie Faye Stagner, minor children of plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same is hereby awarded and decreed to the plaintiff, subject to the right of the defendant to see and visit said minor children at reasonable times and places, provided however, that the defendant shall not have the right or privilege to see or visit said minor children when he is intoxicated in any degree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, the sum of $15.00 per month for each of said children commencing on or before the 15th day of September, and continually on or before the 15th day of each and every month thereafter until said minor children, respectively, become of age, or until the further order of the Court in the premises, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $45.00, which he has been heretofore ordered by this Court to pay for the support of said minor children for the month of August, 1949, and that the defendant shall pay said sum of $45.00 to the plaintiff on or before the 1st day of December, 1949.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall pay all existing and outstanding community debts owing by the plaintiff and defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall pay to W. K. Naylor, attorney of record for the plaintiff herein, the sum of $35.00 the balance of plaintiff's attorney's fees incurred herein and that the defendant shall pay plaintiff's costs incurred herein in the sum of $17.80.

JUNE WATSON,

Plaintiff,

vs JUDGMENT

SETH WATSON,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on for final hearing before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 16th day of September, 1949, Geo. L. Barnard of the firm of Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the Summons in said action was heretofore personally served upon the defendant, together with a copy of the complaint in said action, and that the defendant has appeared generally in said cause by stipulation on file herein, under which stipulation the defendant, among other things, submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court herein, refused to demur, answer or plead further in said cause, consented that default might be entered against him withour further notice and that said cause might be heard at any time, either in open Court or in chambers, the parties expressly waiving the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and it further appearing that the time for answering said complaint provided by law has expired and the default of said defendant has been duly entered, the Court thereupon heard the evidence adduced in support of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint.

Now, after duly considering such evidence, and the files and records of said action, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint are fully sustained by the evidence and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint, subject to the terms and conditions of said stipulation entered into between the parties, which stipulation the Court finds is just and equitable under the circumstances of the parties.

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same hereby are in all things forever dissolved, and the parties are each restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the sole custody and control of the minor child of the parties, Ronald S. Watson, be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff, June Watson, subject however, to the right of the defendant to see and visit said child at reasonable times and intervals, and to have said child for a total of not to exceed two weeks during the months of June, July, and August of each year, so long as the defendant shall not be in default in any respect in the payment of the amount adjudged to be paid by him for the support, maintenance and education of said child, and provided further, that the defendant shall not take or remove said child from the State of Idaho, and provided further, that the order and decree of the Court as to the custody and control of said child shall be subject to any further order that the Court may hereafter make in the premises.

3. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, as and for the support, maintenance and education of said child, the sum of Forty Dollars per month, the first payment to be made on or before the 25th day of September, 1949, and a like payment to be made on or before the 25th day of each month thereafter until the said child reaches the age of majority or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

4. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff within thirty (30) days from the date hereof, the sum of Three Hundred Dollars, ($300.00), which sum shall be in full of any and all claims that the plaintiff may have for alimony or to any of the community property of the parties, except as hereinafter provided, and that the plaintiff may retain in her name the Certificate of Title to the 1940 Mercury automobile hereinafter awarded to be the separate property of the defendant, and may keep such Certificate of Title in her possession, as security for such payment of $300.00, and in the event the defendant shall default in the making of such payment, the full right of possession and ownership of such automobile shall thereupon automatically pass to the plaintiff.

5. That the defendant pay, forthwith, to plaintiff's attorneys, Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, the sum of One Hundred Dollars, in full settlement of any and all liability of the defendant for plaintiff's attorneys' fees and the costs and expenses of this action.

6. That the plaintiff have, as and for her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all of the household furniture and house furnishings now in her possession, not including any guns, tools, or personal effects belonging to the defendant.

7. That the plaintiff have, as and for her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, free and clear of any and every claim of the defendant, the real property and dwelling house thereon, situate in Bonneville County, State of Idaho, described as follows:

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Chambers, in the City of Idaho Falls, County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, within said Judicial District, this 23 day of September, 1949, at the hour of 10 o'clock A.M., of said day, plaintiff appearing in person and by Gilbert C. St.Clair, one of his attorneys, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for her.

The Court having examined the files of this action and finding that service of Complaint and Summons upon the defendant, Lucie M. Robinson, has been legally made, she having filed her Waiver and Appearance, specifically waiving time in which to plead and consenting that her Default be entered herein, and the Default of said defendant having been heretofore duly and regularly entered, the Court proceeded to hear the case upon the verified Complaint herein and the testimony of the plaintiff and the testimony of J. W. Kintner , a corroborating witness as to plaintiff's residence, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the defendant having submitted herself to the jurisdiction of the Court herein, and the Court having considered all the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, and it appearing that all material allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true, and the Court finding the same to be true, and all and singular, the laws and premises being by the Court considered, and the Court having jurisdiction of the matter and the parties hereto.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant herein be, and the same are hereby, dissolved and each of said parties freed from the obligations thereof and each restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED in accordance with that certain Property Agreement entered into by the parties herein and heretofore filed herein.

That the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant so long as she shall live, as and for alimony, Forty and No/100 ($40.00) Dollars, per month, on or before the 1st day of each and every month during her lifetime and that said payments shall commence on or before the 1st day of October, 1949, said alimony payments constitute and be the entire property agreement or settlement between the parties hereto., and also in accordance with the aforesaid property agreement,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that said payments as alimony, as hereinbefore set out, shall not constitute a lien or liens upon any property of which the plaintiff may be possessed from the date of this Decree and henceforth during the life of the defendant. However, in the event any of said payments are not made by the plaintiff to the defendant, as hereinbefore set out, then in order to constitute any such defaulted payments as a lien or liens as against any property which may be owned by the plaintiff, the said defendant must move the Court herein for an Order finding that such payment or payments is or are in arrears, and ordering said plaintiff to make payment thereof, and such Order must be recorded in the office of the County Recorder of Bonneville County, Idaho and in any other County where the defendant may own real property, so as to give record notice of such lien or liens, otherwise no lien or liens of any nature or kind insofar as said alimony payments are considered will be effective as against the property of the plaintiff.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard upon plaintiff's complaint on file herein, before the Court sitting in Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, on this 30th day of September, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, and it appearing that the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with process herein, and that she has filed herein an appearance submitting herself to the jurisdiction of this Court, and has refused to plead further in said cause, and has consented to an immediate hearing of this case without further notice to her, either in term time or vacation, in open Court or in Chambers, and has waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and has consented that default be entered against her, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a stipulation with respect to the division of their property, and it appearing to said Court that said stipulation is, in all respects, fair, just, and equitable, and the Court having heard the evidence and the matter having been submitted, and it appearing that all of the material allegations contained in the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of wilfull desertion, and the Court being fully advised in the premises:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and

and the same are hereby, dissolved; and the said plaintiff and defendant, and each and both of them be, and they are hereby, restored to the status of a single, unmarried, person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following life insurance policies, to-wit: Policy Numbered 21303552 and Policy numbered 21303553, in the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, for $250.00 each; Policy numbered 12636316a, in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, for $1,500.00, Policy numbered 1967236, in the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company for $2,000.00, and Policy numbered C278596 in the United Benefit Life Insurance Company of Omaha, Nebraska, for $2,500.00, be, and the same are hereby, awarded to the defendant, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, and the plaintiff be, and he is hereby, divested of all of his right, title, or interest therein, or in either or any of them.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the $600.00 cash, paid to the plaintiff by the defendant, be, and the same is awarded to the plaintiff, as his sole and separate property, and for his sole and separate use and benefit.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant deliver to the plaintiff, forthwith, the plaintiff's birth certificate, citizenship papers, and any other personal papers of the plaintiff which the defendant has in her possession.

DOROTHY WADSWORTH,

Plaintiff,

vs JUDGMENT

CLENCY WADSWORTH,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on for final hearing before the undersigned Judge of the above named District Court, this 30th day of September, 1949, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, in said District, Geo. L. Barnard of the firm of Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing on behalf of the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, except that it appears that the parties to said cause have heretofore entered into a stipulation, in writing, on file herein, under and pursuant to which the defendant, among other things, admits that he has been served with a true copy of the complaint on file herein, enters his general appearance in this action, and submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Court in this cause, refuses to demur, answer, or plead further, and waives additional time in which to plead further, and consents that default be entered against him and to an immediate hearing of this cause without further notice, waives the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and denies the allegations of plaintiff's complaint, and it further appearing that the summons and complaint have been duly and personally served upon the defendant and that the time for answering the said complaint has expired and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered herein, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence adduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her said complaint.

After duly considering such evidence, and the files and records of this action, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained by the evidence and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint, subject, however, to the terms and conditions of the stipulation of the parties, which stipulation the court finds is just and equitable under the circumstances.

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby are, in all things forever dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, Joey Wadsworth and Gordon Wadsworth, are hereby awarded to the plaintiff, provided that said defendant may be permitted to visit and see said minor children at reasonable times and intervals, so long as the defendant shall not be in default in the payments hereinafter provided for the support of said children.

3. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $25.00 each month as and for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Joey Wadsworth, payable on the first day of each and every calendar month, commencing October 1, 1949, and continuing until said child shall reach the age of majority, and the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the further sum of $25.00 each month as and for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Gordon Wadsworth, payable on the first day of each and every calendar month, commencing October 1, 1949, and continuing until said child shall reach the age of majority.

4. That the plaintiff, Dorothy Wadsworth, shall have, and she is hereby awarded for her sole and separate use and benefit and as her sole and separate property, all household goods, furniture and fixtures belonging to the parties, and the following described real property in Bonneville County, Idaho, to-wit:

Lots Nine (9) and Ten (10) in Block Seven (7) of Crow's Addition to the Original Town of Eagle Rock, now the city of Idaho Falls, Idaho, as per the recorded plat thereof, subject to all existing liens and encumbrances.

5. That the defendant, Clency Wadsworth shall have, and he is hereby awarded for his sole and separate use and benefit and as his sole and separate property, one 1947 Plymouth automobile, together with all tools belonging to the parties.

6. That the plaintiff, Dorothy Wadsworth, shall pay to the defendant, Clency Wadsworth, at the time of the entry of the decree herein, the sum of $3,221.63, in cash, lawful money of the United States.

7. That each of the parties shall pay his or her own respective costs and attorney fees herein.

DECREE

This case came on regularly to be heard on September 12th, 1949. Donald Anderson appeared as attorney for plaintiff, and defendant did not appear by counsel or otherwise.

It being made to appear to the Court that summons was duly and regularly served upon the defendant and that an affidavit showing non-military service by the defendant, and an order authorizing an entry of defendant's default for failure to appear or plead to plaintiff's complaint has been entered by this Court, and that the default of the defendant was entered more than twenty days after such service of summons,

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause was submitted to the Court, and the Court having duly considered the same, finds that the plaintiff and defendant are husband and wife, that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action, that preceding the filing of the complaint defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and that by reason thereof plaintiff is entitled to have the marriage relation existing between him and the defendant dissolved, that the plaintiff and defendant have, as the issue of their marriage, one minor child, Danny Gene Simpson, of the age of two (2) years; that said child is now living with his mother, the defendant, in the State of Oklahoma; and that the parties to this action have no community property in the State of Idaho.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Donald Anderson, Attorney for plaintiff,

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the marriage bond heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby is, cancelled and dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty on the part of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and the parties, and each of them, are free and absolutely divorced.

BARBARA E. CRAWFORD, Plaintiff, -vs- HERBERT P. CRAWFORD, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing this the 12 day of September, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not answering has been duly entered in said cause this day.

It appearing to this Court that the said defendant, Herbert P. Crawford, has been duly and regularly served with Summons in the above entitled cause according to law, and that more than twenty (20) days have elapsed since said service.

Witnesses were duly sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the Court for its decision and after due deliberation the Court finds;

That the plaintiff has filed her Affidavit as provided under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, in which plaintiff states that the defendant, Herbert P. Crawford, is not in the Military Service of the United States, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 7, 1940; that pursuant to said Affidavit, an Order Allowing Default was entered by the Court herein ordering that in case of proper service, default judgment be entered against the said defendant, Herbert P. Crawford.

That all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and supported by evidence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Payette, County of Payette, State of Idaho, on or about the 27th day of July, 1941, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than four (4) years last past, preceeding the commencement of this action, a resident of the State of Idaho.

That there are no children the issue of the marriage of said plaintiff and defendant.

That there is no community property of the plaintiff and defendant.

That the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance as more particularly set forth in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, That the marriage bonds between the plaintiff, Barbara E. Crawford, and the defendant, Herbert P. Crawford, be and the same are free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the above entitled Court on the 12th day of September, 1949, upon plaintiff's complaint, service of the same and of the summons in this action having been duly and regularly and in the manner provided by law, personally served upon the defendant E. L. Patrick; and the defendant failing to appear herein or to plead in said action within the time allowed by law, as specified in said summons, motion for the entry of the default of said defendant for failing to so appear was duly made; and it appearing to the Court that said defendant, E. L. Patrick, was not at any time during the pendency of this action in the military service of the United States of America or any of the branches or departments thereof, order was duly issued directing the clerk of this Court to enter the default of said defendant for so failing to appear and plead within the time dlowed by law, thereafter, pursuant to the coder of this Court, the default of said defendant for so failing to appear and plead within the time allowed by law was duly and regularly entered by the clerk of this court in the above entitled cause and prior to the hearing of this matter; and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Harold L. Yeamans, and the defendant not appearing in said cause the Court proceeded to the hearing thereof.

The plaintiff, Winnie Patrick, and her witnesses were called, duly sworn and testified in support of all the material allegations of the complaint; from such testimony it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true:

The Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fied resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and that she is now such bona fide resident; That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Twin Falls, Idaho, on or about the 21st of October, 1931, and that they ever since have been and now are husband and wife; That there is one minor child the issue of the marriage between planintiff and defendant, to-wit , SANDRA LEE PATRICK, age Ten (10) years; and that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody of said child; That the plaintiff and defendant are the owners of the property hereinafter described; That the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty and that she is entitled to the sole custody of the minor child above named and to the interest to the community property as hereinafter specified:

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony hertofore existing between the plaintiff, WINNIE PATRICK, and the defendant, E. L. PATRICK, are absolutely and wholly dissolved;

2. That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the sole and exclusive custody of the minor child, SANDRA LEE PATRICK, with the privelege on the part of the defendant of visiting said child at any and all reasonable times;

3. That the plaintiff be and she hereby is awarded a one-half interest in the following described real property or the proceeds thereof when and if the same are sold, to-wit;

> Lots Thirteen (13) and Fourteen (14) in Block Twenty-eight (28) of Dundee Second Subdivision of Boise City, Ada County, State of Idaho.

4. That the plaintiff is also hereby awarded all of the furniture, households goods and equipment situated in and on said premises including the following: Electrolux Vacuum Sweeper; Philco Refrigerator; Two (2) bedroom suites complete; Dining room set; living room set consisting of davenport, chair, occasional chair; upright piano; all bedding, dishes and cooking utensils; and all other furnishings of said dwelling house and premises except the personal effects of the defendant;

5. That the defendant be, and he hereby is, awarded the automobile now in his possession, to-wit- a certain 1941 Ford Four-door Sedan.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 12th day of September, 1940, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at El Dorado, Arkansas, on the 15th day of March, 1941, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff such mental suffering, pain and anguish as to constitute mental cruelty.

The Court, therefore, ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

DECREE Joan O'Malley

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 12 day of September, 1949, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Raymond, Washington, on the 9th day of September, 1944, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of her marriage vows, has deserted and abandoned the plaintiff for more than one full year immediately preceding the commencement of this action.

The Court therefore ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

John F. McConnell, Defendant.	)

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 12th day of September, 1949, before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. Plaintiff appeared personally and with Earl E. Reed, one of her attorneys. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon, the court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision; and the court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Caldwell, Idaho on or about December 15, 1945; that plaintiff and defendant have no children; that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty, and that plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to the time of the filing of her complaint; and that plaintiff's name prior to her marriage was Esther D. King.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Esther D. McConnell, and the defendant, John F. McConnell, be and the same hereby are dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree that the plaintiff's former name of Esther D. King be restored to her.

D. Powell

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled court this 13th day of September, 1949, Frank E. Meek appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint in said action under the order of this court for service of summons outside the State of Idaho, and it further appearing that said defendant is not a person in the military service of the United States of America, as defined in any act of Congress, or State legislation. And it further appearing that said defendant was personally served on the 22nd. day of July, 1949, and more than twenty days having elapsed since said service, and said defendant having failed to appear herein in person or by counsel, or to plead to said complaint within the time required by law and her default for having failed to appear or plead to said complaint having been entered on the 13th day of September, 1949;

Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and the court having heard and considered all of the evidence and testimony in this action, and it having been made to appear to the court that plaintiff and defendant inter-married at Caldwell, Idaho, on the 30th. day of April, 1930, and ever since that date have been and now are husband and wife. That the plaintiff is now, and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho. That there is no property rights to be adjudicated between the parties hereto, they having prior to the commencement of this action, divided their personal and real property.

That there has been born to said plaintiff and defendant as the issue of said marriage, two minor children, to-wit:

Ronald H. Maxwell, born August 14th., 1932;

Leon Dale Maxwell, born June 26th., 1944.

That said children now reside with a sister of plaintiff, Nona Fischer; that said Nona Fischer is a proper person to have the care and control of said children. And the court having been fully advised in the premises and being of the opinion that all material allegations contained in the complaint of the plaintiff are true and correct, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and held for naught, and that plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely divorced from each other.

2. That the care, custody and control of the said minor child, Leon Dale Maxwell, be awarded to plaintiff, without prejudice to either plaintiff or defendant on proper showing hereafter being made to have control and custody of said child modified. It being further ORDERED that either plaintiff or defendant shall have the privilege of visiting said child at all reasonable times and places. That said child be placed in the care of Nona Fischer, sister of plaintiff.

This cause came regularly on for hearing the 23RD day of September, 1949, before the Court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to plead, demur or answer to said complaint within the time required by law, has expired and her default for not so answering, pleading or appearing having been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of the said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the cause was submitted to the court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Great Falls, Montana, on the 15th day of March, 1929, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that there are two children, the issue of said marriage, to-wit:

Lloyd Allen, age 19 years, a member of the United States Air Force;

Donald Allen, of the age of 12 years.

And the Court having further found that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of her marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff great mental and physical suffering, pain and anguish and is such as to constitute extreme cruelty.

The Court ORDERED that judgment be entered for the plaintiff against the defendant, in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the custody, care and control of the minor child, Donald Allen, be awarded to the plaintiff, reserving however to the defendant a right to visit said minor child at reasonable and proper times.

DELLA STIMPSON,

Plaintiff,

vs.

BRENT HEINER STIMPSON,

Defendant.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Honorable Kels P. Lowe, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, in the court room in the court house at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 8th day of September, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Dean Kloepfer, her attorney, and the defendant failed to appear, either in person or by attorney. It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that due and legal service of summons was had upon the defendant by publication in the Burley Herald Bulletin of Burley, Idaho; that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff has expired and no appearance, answer or demurrer had been made or filed by the defendant. It further appeared to the Court that the defendant is not and for more than six months last past has not been in the military service of the United States or its allies. Thereupon, on motion of Dean Kloepfer, attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff was by the Court ordered entered.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and it appearing to the Court therefrom that all of the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff are true and have been supported by the evidence, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed for in her complaint.

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Della Stimpson, and the defendant, Brent Heiner Stimpson, be and the same are hereby dissolved and the said parties are restored to the status of single persons.

2.

That the care, custody and control of Kurt Brent Stimpson, the minor child, issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, by and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Della Stimpson, subject to the right of the defendant to visit the said child at reasonable times, upon receiving the permission from the plaintiff to so visit.

That the community property of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit:

The sum of $350.00 now in possession of the plaintiff
1 - Breakfast set (Table and 4 chairs) be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

Dated This 8th day of September, 1949.

All furniture, furnishings, fixtures and equipment that is now in the dwelling house on the above described real estate;

$3,000.00 that is owed by Homer D. Spangler to Ruby Pauline Davis and Wilford L. Davis, which said indebtedness is secured by a trust deed on Lot 10 of the Third Subdivision of John Bidwell Rancho according to the official map thereof filed for record in the Recorder's Office of Butte County, California;

$1,700.00 in Postal Savings certificates issued by the Postmaster at Burley, Idaho, to Ruby Pauline Davis, together with any interest thereon or that may hereafter accumulate thereon.

That the said defendant is hereby perpetually enjoined, estopped and restrained from making, asserting or claiming any right, title, claim or interest in or to the above described real and personal property, or any part or parcel thereof, adverse to the rights of the plaintiff.

That there is hereby given and granted to the defendant, Wilford L. Davis, as his sole and separate property, free and clear of any and all claims, demands and pretensions of the plaintiff, Ruby Pauline Davis, the following described personal property, to-wit:

One 1949 Plymouth club coupe, motor No. P18-111301, serial No. 12190606;

$2,500.00 in Postal Savings certificates issued by the Postmaster at Burley, Idaho, in the name of the defendant, Wilford L. Davis;

All mechanic's tools and equipment now owned by the said defendant; and the said plaintiff is hereby perpetually enjoined, estopped and restrained from making or asserting any right, title, claim or interest in or to the property hereby given and granted to the defendant as his sole and separate property.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT Made this 23rd day of August in the year, 1949, between MARGARET JACOBS COFER, of Burley, County of Cassia, State of Idaho, party of the first part, and CHARLES E. COFER of Burley, County of Cassia, State of Idaho, party of the second part;

WITNESSETH, Whereas the parties hereto intermarried on the 21st day of October, 1946, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife, and

WHEREAS certain marital difficulties have arisen between the parties hereto and on the 22nd day of August, 1949, the party of the first part instituted an action in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Cassia, to procure a Decree of Divorce and in order to avoid protracted and expensive litigation involving a property division of the community and separate property, that is now owned by the respective parties hereto, they are desirous of entering into an agreement for a division of the community property and an acknowledgment of the sole and sepa- property of each that can be ratified and approved by court as a fair, equal and just division between the respective parties without protracted litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, In consideration of the premises aforesaid and of the sum of One and no/100 Dollar ($1.00) lawful money of the United States of America, to each of the parties in hand paid by the other, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto do covenant and agree as follows, to-wit:

That the party of the second part pay to the party of the first part the sum of $500.00 cash, lawful money of the United States of America, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged by the party of the first part.

That it is hereby revoked, renounced and held for naught, all prior agreements or contracts or property settlements between the parties hereto, including that particular antenuptial agreement made and entered into by the parties hereto on the 18th day of October, 1946, excepting in so far as the same establishes the property ownership of the parties at the date of the making thereof; and that particular agreement made and entered into by the parties here to on the 19th day of March, 1948, wherein the party of the first part is designated as Sara Margaret Cofer.

It is hereby agreed that the party of the first part is the owner as her sole and separate property free and clear of any claim or pretense of ownership or interest therein by the party of the second part, of the following described real estate and personal property in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows, to-wit:

> Lot Four (4) in Block Fourteen (14) Miller's First Addition to Burley, as the same is platted in the official plat thereof, now of record in the office of the County Recorder of Cassia County, Idaho.

Furniture and household goods now in building located on above described premises.

It is hereby agreed that the party of the second part is the owner as his sole and separate property, free and clear of any claim or pretense of ownership or interest therein by the party of the first part, of the following described real estate and personal property in the County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, described as follows, to-wit:

East Half of the Southwest Quarter ($E\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Thirteen (13), Township Ten (10) South, Range Twenty-Two (22) East of the Boise Meridian.

Northeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter ($NE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$) and Lot Five (5) of Section Twenty-four (24), Township Ten (10) South, Range Twenty-two (22) East of the Boise Meridian.

One (1) International pick-up Truck.

One (1) Chevrolet Truck.

One 1948 Ford Tractor and tools and equipment appurtenant thereto.

Two (2) Trailers.

All crops, rents and returns grown upon the property during the year 1949.

Certain timber now in possession of the party of the second part and certain housemoving equipment now in possession of the party of the second part.

Parties do hereby covenant and agree that any money or other personal property now in their possession, including wages, rents or profits, accumulated during the coveture shall be retained by each party respectively as his or her separate property.

6.

Party of the first part agrees to accept as her share of any and all community property, and as full settlement on any interest she might have in the sole and separate property of the party of the second part, the above mentioned $500.00, which she has received prior to this date.

7.

Parties hereto further agree that each will pay his or her personal obligations, bills or accounts arising out of or in connection with his own separate property and further agrees that there are no bills or obligations owed by the community.

8.

It is further agreed by the parties hereto that upon a Divorce Decree being granted, neither will interfer, molest, hinder or in any way disturb the other party in any manner whatsoever.

9.

That in the event that the proof submitted by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint is sufficient to justify the court in awarding the plaintiff a decree of divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto, then and in such event the court shall divide the community property that is now owned by the parties hereto, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this contract, without the submission to the court of any proof that the same is community property, or sole and separate property, or of the value of the same, excepting as is stated in this contract, and this contract shall be accepted as a fair, equitable and just division between the parties hereto of their property and property rights.

The property described in this contract constitutes a full, true and correct statement of all property that has been acquired by the parties hereto since their marriage and is all of the property now owned by the parties hereto and is all of the community property that is now owned by the parties hereto, and that neither party hereto has any knowledge of any community property that is not listed or described herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals and executed these presents in triplicate the day and year first above written.

- - - - - - -

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court at chambers at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 27th day of ~~May~~ Sept, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by S. T. Lowe, her attorney, and the defendant having failed to appear either in person or by an attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due and legal constructive service of summons had been had herein upon the defendant by the publication thereof once each week for a full period of four consecutive weeks in the Burley Herald, a weekly newspaper published at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, the first such publication having been made on the 10th day of March, 1949, and the last such publication having been made on the 7th day of April, 1949, and more than twenty-six days intervened between the first and the last such publications. It further appearing to the Court that twenty days had expired since the last publication of the summons; that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States; and that the time for appearing and pleading had expired, on motion of S. T. Lowe, attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff was by the Court ordered entered.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested, and it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff were true and had been supported by the evidence, it was by the Court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant as prayed for in the complaint of the plaintiff.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Nelda June Smith, and the defendant, Edward Smith, be and the same are hereby dissolved, discharged and released, and the parties hereto are restored to the status of single persons, released and discharged of any and all obligations arising out of or in connection with the said marriage.

That the maiden name of the plaintiff, to-wit, Nelda June Ward, be restored and that from and after the entry of this decree her true and lawful name shall be Nelda June Ward.

JAMES V. HOLLAHAN,
Defendant.

- - - - - - - - - - -

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court at Burley in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 27th day of September, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Dean Kloepfer her attorney and on Motion to the Court dismissed her first cause of action contained in said complaint, and the defendant appeared by his attorney S. T. Lowe and withdrew his Demurrer heretofore filed to the Complaint of the plaintiff, refused to plead further and consented that the default of the defendant may be entered.

Thereupon on Motion of the attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant and his failure to answer the complaint of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested, and it appearing to the Court that after the institution of the said action the parties hereto had entered into a contract dividing the community property of the plaintiff and defendant, and it further appearing to the Court that the said division of the community property so made by the parties was a fair and equitable division, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment dissolving the bonds of matrimony that have heretofore and do not exist between the plaintiff and defendant and that the division of the community property made by the plaintiff and defendant be accepted, approved and confirmed.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Myrna Hollahan, and the defendant, James V. Hollahan, be and the same are hereby dissolved and discharged and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

There is hereby awarded to the plaintiff the full care, custody and control of the minor children of this marriage, James D. Hollahan and Judith Ann Hollahan, with the right of the defendant, James V. Hollahan, to visit the said children at reasonable times and places.

That the plaintiff is hereby given and granted as her sole and separate property, free and clear of any and all claims, demands, or pretentions of the defendant, James V. Hollahan, all of her parsonal clothing, clothing for the children, and all household furniture, furnishings, and equipment of whatsoever kind or nature, used in and a part of the dwelling house used by the parties hereto at Burley, Idaho; and further it is hereby awarded, given and granted to Myrna Hollahan, the plaintiff herein, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of any and all claims, demands or pretentions of the defendant, James V. Hollahan, the following described real property:

> Lot Eleven (11), Block Sixteen (16) Millers First Addition to Burley, as the same is platted in the official plat thereof, now of record in the office of the County Recorder of Cassia County, Idaho, and all improvements thereon, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, the same being subject to a certain mortgage to the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Twin Falls, Idaho.

That the defendant, James V. Hollahan is hereby given and awarded as his sole and separate property, free and clear of any and all claims, demands or pretentions of the plaintiff, the following described personal property:

> 1--certain International KB-11 Truck subject to an indebtedness owed to Richard Rombeck amounting to the sum of $2,814.00, which indebtedness is a lien upon the said truck.

That the defendant, James V. Hollahan, is hereby perpetually enjoined, restrained and estopped from making, asserting or claiming any right, title, claim or interest in or to the property that is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Myrna Hollahan.

That the plaintiff, Myrna Hollahan, is hereby perpetually enjoined, restrained and estopped from making, asserting or claiming any right, title, claim or interest of, in or to the property that is hereby awarded to the defendant, James V. Hollahan.

That the defendant, James V. Hollahan pay to the plaintiff, Myrna Hollahan, for the support and maintenance and education of the said minor children the sum of Sixty Dollars ($60.00) per month; the first payment of $60.00 to be made on the 1st day of October, 1949, and a monthly payment of $60.00 to be made on the first day of each and every month thereafter until Judith Ann Hollahan shall attain the age of 18 years, or until one of the said minor children shall marry or be deceased. Upon the minor child, Judith Ann Hollahan attaining the age of 18 years, either of the said children marrying or being deceased, the payment of $60.00 shall be reduced to $30.00, and thereafter a payment of $30.00 per month shall be made until James D. JUDGMENT

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly for hearing this 9th day of September, A.D. 1949, Frank F. Kibler, Esq., appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing by counsel or otherwise, and it appearing to the Court that summons in this cause has been heretofore duly and regularly served upon the defendant herein personally, and that the defendant has failed to answer, appear, or plead to the plaintiff's complaint herein within the time allowed by law, or at all, and on motion of Frank F. Kibler, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to so appear, plead or answer plaintiff's complaint herein was duly and regularly entered by the Court at chambers on September 9th, 1949.

WHEREUPON Witnesses were sworn and evidence introduced on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause submitted, from which it appears that all of the allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competence, admissibility and sufficiency, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for;

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Frank F. Kibler, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, that the plaintiff shall have, and she hereby is, granted a divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and that the bonds of matrimony between said plaintiff and defendant are hereby dissolved; and the parties are hereby restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in Chambers at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 9th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Donald C. Beckwith had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

And the Court further finds that upon the 6th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff Elsie M. Beckwith, who is also sometimes known as Elsie Beckwith and the defendant Donald C. Beckwith, who is also sometimes known as Don Beckwith, made and entered into one certain agreement in writing, in words and figures as follows:

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 6th day of August, 1949, by and between ELSIE BECKWITH, hereinafter designated as the first party, and DON BECKWITH, hereinafter designated as the second party, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are husband and wife and because of certain differences and disagreements which have arisen between them, they are now living separate and apart from each other, And,

WHEREAS, The said parties desire to settle and adjust certain of the differences arising between them in connection with the division and disposition of their community property, NOW, THEREFORE;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO AS FOLLOWS:

1. That the parties hereto owe the following debts and obligations, to-wit:

NAME OF CREDITOR	AMOUNT
Continental State Bank	$1900.00
Robert Wetherall	55.00

> Beginning at a point 135 feet south of the northeast corner of Lot 16 of State of Idaho Subdivision of the north half of Section 36, Township 3 South, Range 6 East, Boise Meridian, and running thence west 173 feet; thence south 25 feet; thence east 173 feet; thence north 25 feet to the point of beginning, subject to a real estate contract whereby the parties hereto are purchasing said property from Gene Tobin, upon which contract there is a balance due in the sum of $100.00.

PERSONAL PROPERTY, Described as follows:

1 Ford Pick-up, year model 1940

Miscellaneous furniture and fixtures

3. That the second party shall have and the first party hereby releases and conveys to the second party, so that the same may be held by the second party as his sole and separate property, all of the right, title, claim and interest of the first party in and to said Ford Pick-up, year model 1940, and the second party hereby assumes and agrees to pay to Pacific Finance Corporation the approximate sum of $318.00, which amount is secured by a lien upon said motor vehicle, and the second party shall indemnify and hold the first party harmless from all liability to said Pacific Finance Corporation by reason of said lien or the contract upon which said lien is based.

4. That the first party shall have and the second party hereby releases and conveys to the first party, so that the same may be held by the first party as her sole and separate property and not in any respect as community property, all of the right, title, claim and interest of the second party in and to all of the real property above described and in and to alll furniture and fixtures of the parties hereto. In consideration of the conveyance to her of the interest of the second party in and to said property, the first party hereby assumes and agrees to pay all of the debts and obligations above mentioned, save and except the debt and obligation to Pacific Finance Corporation, and the first party hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the second party harmless from all of the debts and obligations hereby assumed by her.

5. That all property hereafter acquired by either of the parties, whether by accumulation, investment or from his or her own labor, or in any other way, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear from any claim, interest or control whatsoever of the other party. Neither of the parties to this agreement shall hereafter be answerable for any debt or liability contracted by the other party for support or otherwise from and after the date of this agreement.

6. Each of the parties hereto hereby releases the other from all claims, debts and demands of every kind, name or nature whatsoever, whether for alimony, support money or otherwise, save and except for the payment of the amounts specifically mentioned in this agreement, and this agreement is and shall be construed as a full and complete determination and final settlement of all property ri hts existing between the parties hereto.

7. In the event the first party hereafter applies for a divorce from the second party, the second party agrees to pay to the first party the sum of $150.00 to be applied upon attorney's fees and costs in any such divorce action, and which amount shall be paid by the second party prior to or at the time said divorce action is completed. Subject to the approval of the Court having jurisdiction, this agreement may be incorporated into and be made a part of any decree of divorce hereafter awarded to either of the parties hereto, and the community property of the parties hereto shall be awarded to each respective party in accordance with the terms and conditions of this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The said parties have hereunto set their hand the day and year herein first above written.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in Chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 20th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Clara Mae Hicks had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of his complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

And the Court further finds that upon the 23rd day of August, 1949, the plaintiff and the defendant made and entered into an agreement in writing in words and figures as follows:

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 23rd day of August, 1949, by and between Edward F. Hicks, the above named plaintiff, hereinafter designated as the first party, and Clara Mae Hicks, the above named defendant, hereinafter designated as the second party, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are husband and wife and because of certain differences and disagreements which have arisen between them, they are now living separate and apart from each other and the first party has commenced an action for divorce against the second party, AND,

WHEREAS, The parties hereto desire to settle and adjust certain of the differences existing between them in connection with the custody of their minor child and disposition of their property, NOW, THEREFORE:

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED Between the parties hereto as follows:

1. That the following described property, all of which is situate in the County of Owyhee, State of Idaho, is the sole and separate property of the first party and the second party hereby releases and conveys to the first party all right, title, claim and interest which she may have therein, said property being described as follows:

REAL PROPERTY, Described as follows:

The south half of the southwest quarter of Section 17; the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of Section 18; the south half of the northeast quarter, the north half of the southeast quarter and the north half of the northeast quarter of Section 19; the northwest quarter and the north half of the southwest quarter of Section 20, all in Township 10 South, Range 4 east, Boise Meridian;

The southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 35 in Township 10 South and Lots 2 and 3 of Section 2 in Township 11 South, all in Range 3 East, Boise Meridian;

Together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining and together with all grazing rights and privileges appertaining to said land.

The east half of the northeast quarter of Section 24, Township 7 South, Range 4 East, Boise Meridian, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

PERSONAL PROPERTY, Described as follows:

40 Chickens
10 Head of cows
1 Pig
4 Head of horses
1 Chevrolet Sedan, year model 1934.

2. That the first party shall have and he is hereby granted the care, custody and control of Virginia Lee Hicks, minor child of the parties hereto, and that the second party shall have and she is hereby granted the right to visit said minor child at all reasonable and proper times and to have said child vist her at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time. Neither of the parties to this agreement shall do or say anything intended or calculated to alienate the affection of said minor child from the other party.

3. All property hereafter acquired by either of the parties to this agreement, whether acquired by accumulation, investment or from his or her own labor or in any other way, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear from all claims, interest or control whatsoever of the other party.

4. That this agreement is made with the intention and for the purpose of settling forever all of the property rights existing between the parties hereto in regard to all of their property, whether community or separate, and it is agreed that neither of them will ever make any claim upon the other of any kind or nature whatsoever dependent upon or growing out of their marriage relationship which now exists between them. All property belonging to either of the parties hereto may be disposed of by such party by will or deed or any other proper conveyance, free and clear of any claim on the part of the other party. Each of the parties hereto hereby releases the other from all claims, debts and demands of every kind, name or nature whatsoever, and in particular the second party hereby releases the first party from all claims for alimony, support money or otherwise, and this agreement is and shall be construed as a full and complete determination and final settlement of all their property rights.

5. That the first party has paid to the second party the sum of $50.00, in cash, lawful money of the United States of America, and the receipt of said sum is hereby acknowledged by the second party.

6. That subject to the approval of the above entitled Court, this agreement may be incorporated into and may become a part of any decree of divorce which may be entered by the Court in the above entitled action.

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, William J. Taylor, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint and the time for answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of the defendant, William J. Taylor, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint; and upon consideration of the said testimony the court finds upon the first cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of wilful desertion of the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and the court finds upon the second cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect of and towards the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant;

The court further finds that there have been no children born as issue of said marriage and that the parties have acquired no community property during the period of said marriage;

The court further finds that the plaintiff's name, prior to the said marriage between plaintiff and defendant, was Violet H. Shepard;

The court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Violet H. Taylor, and the defendant, William J. Taylor, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and set aside, and the said plaintiff be, and she is hereby, forever divorced from the defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, restored the name by which she was known prior to the said marriage between plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Violet H. Shepard.

DECREE

This action came on regularly to be heard and tried by the Court on this 20th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her Attorney, and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by Attorney.

It appears to the Court, and the Court finds, that the summons in this action and a copy of the complaint has been duly served upon the defendant and that the defendant has failed to appear or plead to plaintiff's said complaint, and that his default in that behalf has been duly and regularly entered herein.

Evidence was offered for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her said complaint and received by the Court, and from which it appears to the Court, and the Court finds, that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true.

And the matter being submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court being fully and sufficiently advised in the premises, and all and singular the law and the evidence being by the Court understood and fully considered

It is therefore by the Court Ordered, Adjudged, and Decreed:
That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Reeta Hazel Hansen, and the defendant, Marion Hansen, be, and the same are hereby, wholly dissolved, and each of the said parties are hereby released from all of the obligations thereof, and each is restored to the status of a single person;
That the plaintiff be, and is hereby, awarded the full custody and control of Gerald Hansen, the minor child of said marriage of plaintiff and defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came regularly on to be heard before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, District Judge, on the 23rd day of September, 1949 Willard C. Burton, Attorney at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff and no one appeared for the defendant. It appeared to the Court that the defendant has been regularly and duly served with summons and failed within the time allowed by law to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff, and the defendant's default for thus failing to appear and plead has been duly and regularly entered.

It further appeared to the Court that defendant is not a member of the Military or Naval Service of the United States within purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court has heretofore ordered that default be entered against her and that plaintiff be allowed to submit his proof,

Competent evidence having been introduced in support of plaintiff's complaint, and it appearing therefrom that all the material allegations thereof are true;

NOW THEREFORE, The Court being fully advised in the law and the premises, and on motion of Willard C. Burton, Attorney for the plaintiff,

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED: That a decree of divorce be, and the same is hereby, granted the plaintiff, Thomas Earl Dayton, of and from the defendant, Veva Dayton, upon the grounds of cruelty, and for fault of the defendant, and that certain marriage contracted between the parties on or about the 12th day of May, 1949 be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and the said parties are, and each of them is, restored to the status of single persons.

And it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED: That the defendant be awarded for her maintenance and support and as alimony, the sum of $50 per month, to be paid to her by the plaintiff on the first day of each and every month hereafter beginning with the first day of October, 1949, and continuing for a period of only six months.

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 2nd day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process, and that he had failed to answer within the time given by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of of the State of Idaho.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person; that the agreement, dated August 11, 1949, between plaintiff and defendant and admitted in evidence as an exhibit is hereby approved and confirmed by the court and the property of the parties is hereby distributed and awarded as provided for in said agreement; that the custody and care of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Walter Joseph Bonning II, is divided equally between the parties until said child shall have become of school age and entered school, and after he has become school age and entered school, the plaintiff shall have the custody and care of said child during said school period and the defendant shall have his custody and care during summer vacations, the plaintiff to have said custody and care from date hereof until February 11, 1950, and the defendant to have said custody and care for six months thereafter, and said custody and care shall so alternate until said child shall have become school age and entered school when the above provision shall then govern; that during the time that either party hereto has the custody and care of said child, the other party shall have the right to visit said child at reasonable times and under reasonable circumstances; that the defendant is hereby required and directed to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said child the sum of $50.00 a month during the time that she has the custody thereof; the first payment of $50.00 to be made on September 25th, 1949, and the defendant is further required and directed to also pay all necessary medical and dental expenses for said child and he shall also purchase and furnish to said child his necessary clothing.

THIS CAUSE, Having been brought on to be heard this 2nd day of September, 1949, Blaine & Ambrose appearing as counsel for the plaintiff herein, defendant not appearing in person or by counsel or otherwise; personal service of the verified complaint and summons upon said defendant in said action having been made upon said defendant in Boise, Ada County, Idaho, and the time for answering having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been filed in said cause, and the defendant having failed to make an appearance in said action, the default of the said defendant, Frederick A. McClaran, was duly entered herein, and that upon the complaint herein as confessed by said defendant, it appears that the allegations of said plaintiff are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff, Georgene B. McClaran, to the relief demanded in the complaint as prayed for; and the plaintiff herein having been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided does order, adjudge, and decree that the marriage existing between the said parties be dissolved and the said parties and each of them are released from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the legal care, custody and control of Rene Phyllis McClaran, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant be awarded to the plaintiff herein and that the said defendant may have the privilege to visit the said minor child at all reasonable and proper times and places while said minor child is under the care, custody and control of the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant herein, Frederick A. McClaran, shall pay to the plaintiff herein for the care and support of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, namely, Rene Phyllis McClaran, the sum of Fifty and no/100 ($50.00) Dollars per month.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the property settlement agreement entered into between the plaintiff and defendant is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed.

-O-

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open Court this 9TH day of September, 1949, upon the complaint of the Plaintiff herein, Kenneth Lyle Jackson, and the answer of the Defendant, Lola Frances Jackson, Randall Wallis appearing for the Plaintiff and Raymond D. Givens appearing for the Defendant. Oral and documentary evidence was introduced and the cause submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds, concludes, denies and decrees:

I.

That Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by Stipulation in writing, filed with the Clerk of this Court.

II.

That Plaintiff herein, now, and for more than six weeks last past and immediately preceding the filing of the complaint and commencement of this action, has been, a bona fide resident and domiciled within the State of Idaho; that Plaintiff during said time has been actually and physically present and domiciled in the State of Idaho.

III.

That the Plaintiff and Defendant intermarried on or about the 29th day of November, 1924, at Spencerport, New York.

IV.

That as the issue of said marriage there has been born to Plaintiff and Defendant a daughter named Patricia Ann Jackson, born October 15, 1932, and that heretofore, to-wit, on the 2nd day of September, 1949, Plaintiff and Defendant entered into an agreement in writing for the maintenance, support and education of said minor child and settling and determining the property rights, duties, and obligations of the parties to this action, which agreement is sustained by the evidence in this cause and should be approved and confirmed in this action and that an executed copy of said agreement is in evidence herein and filed in the files of this Court and cause, marked "Exhibit A" and by this reference made a part of this Decree.

V.

That during the marriage of the parties hereto the Defendant disregarded her marriage vows and obligations and without just provocation knowingly and wilfilly inflicted upon the Plaintiff grievous mental suffering which acts were calculated to and did cause the Plaintiff great grievous mental suffering.

WHEREFORE, IT IS NOW ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the Plaintiff, Kenneth Lyle Jackson, and the Defendant, Lola Frances Jackson, be, and the same are hereby, dissolved absolutely, and the said parties are, and each of them is, freed and released from the obligations thereof.

2. That said written agreement, made and entered into by and between the parties hereto on the 2nd day of September, 1949, an executed copy of which is in the files of this Court and cause, marked "Exhibit A", as hereinbefore mentioned, together with the provisions pertaining to the custody of said minor child and the obligations of the Plaintiff herein for the maintenance and support of said minor child, as therein specified be, and the same are hereby ratified, approved and confirmed by this Court and that by reference thereto are incorporated herein and made a part of this Decree, as fully and effectually as if set forth at length herein, and the custody of said minor child be, and hereby is, granted in accordance with the terms and provisions of said agreement.

This cause coming on to be heard before the Court this 14th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff being present in person and being represented by Everett B. Taylor, her attorney, the defendant being represented by Joseph McFadden , his attorney, the following proceedings were had:

It appearing to the Court that a duly verified answer had been filed in the said action by the defendant and that the said action was ready for trial; that the said parties had agreed that the said action should be tried before the Court, without a jury, at this time, and that each of the said parties were ready for trial. The Court after hearing the testimony submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, which was duly corroborated, and the issue of the plaintiff's domicile having been contested, and both sides having rested; the Court having considered the law and the evidence, now finds that all material allegations of the complaint are true and correct; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action has been a resident of Blaine County, State of Idaho, in which County she had her place of residence and domicile, and the Court having rendered its decision herein in writing, consisting of findings of fact and conclusions of law, which said decision is in favor of said plaintiff.

NOW, therefore, in accordance therewith, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff SYLVIA TRIEST, and the defendant Carl G. Triest, be dissolved and said parties and each of them is freed and released from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the separation agreement between the parties dated the 2nd day of August, 1949, marked Plaintiff's Exhibit "A", on file in this Court, providing for a settlement of their property rights between the parties and of the claims of each of them against the other, be approved, confirmed and ratified by this Court, and the parties are each hereby ordered and directed to comply with the terms and provisions thereof on his or her part to be performed with the same force and effect as if such terms and provisions were set out in haec verba as a part hereof.

The above entitled action came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session at Gooding, Idaho, after due notice, the plaintiff appearing in person and by A. F. James, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff and the defendant appearing in person and by Samuel Kaufman, Jr., of the law firm of Anderson & Thomas.

Whereupon, evidence was submitted on behalf of the plaintiff and the court being fully advised in the premises and findings of fact and conclusions of law being wived, it is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows: That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and each party be restored to the status of a single person. That the agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant on the 6 day of August, 1949, which was admitted in evidence as plaintiff's Exhibit "A" is hereby approved and confirmed by the court. That the community property consisting of various household furniture is hereby divided equally between the parties. That the custody of the minor child, namely, Steven Dale Spangler, age two years, is awarded as follows: Until said child reaches school age and commences to attend school, the defendant shall have the custody of said child one week out of every month and the plaintiff shall have its custody the remainder of the time. That the defendant's week will commence on the first Monday hereafter. Further, that the defendant shall have the custody of said child from June 20th to August 20th of each year, both before and after the child reaches school age, and provided further that the defendant shall have the custody of said child every other Christmas period from December 22nd to and including December 28th, commencing on December 22, 1950. That the defendant shall arrange for the transportation of said child back and forth between the parties. That each party shall have the right to visit said child during the time that the other party has its custody. That said child shall not be removed from the jurisdiction of this court without obtaining permission from said court and no permission shall be obtained without giving due notice to the other party of such request and after hearing on such request. That the defendant is to pay for the care, support and education of said child as follows: The sum of $20.00 per month for each month except for the months of June, July and August and payments for the months of June and August shall be pro-rated, that is, the defendant shall pay the plaintiff for the months of June and August only such portion thereof as she has the custody of said child.

OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF GOODING

JAMES E. SWAN, Plaintiff,	)
vs.	)	D E C R E E
ILSE A. SWAN, Defendant.	)

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court this 19th day of September, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff, herein, JAMES E. SWAN, and the answer of the defendant, ILSE A. SWAN, Merlin S. Young appearing for the plaintiff and Doane and Furey, Attorneys appearing for the defendant. Oral and documentary evidence was introduced and the cause submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds, concludes, decides and decrees:

I.

That findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by stipulation in writing executed by counsel for each of the parties and filed with the Clerk of this Court.

II.

That plaintiff herein is now and for more than six (6) weeks last past and immediately preceeding the filing of the complaint and commencement of this action, has been a bona fide resident and domiciled within the State of Idaho; that plaintiff during all of said time has been actually, physically and corporeally present and domiciled in the said State of Idaho.

III.

That plaintiff and defendant intermarried on the 26th day of July, 1932, at Suffren, New York, and ever since have been and are now husband and wife.

IV.

That as issue of the aforesaid marriage, there have been born to plaintiff and defendant, a son, named James Terry Swan, age 7 years, and a daughter, Ilse Tracey Swan, age 6 years; that said children are now in the defendant's custody and care, and that the custody, maintenance and support of said children has been agreed upon by the parties by agreement hereinafter referred to.

V.

That the plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart without cohabitation for a period of more than five (5) years, the particulars of which are more fully set forth in plaintiff's complaint on file herein, which this court finds to be true, and by reason thereof plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce.

VI.

That heretofore, to-wit: On the 17th day of August, 1949, plaintiff and defendant entered into an agreement in writing for the maintenance, support and education of said minor children, settling and determining the property rights, duties and obligations of the parties to this action, which agreement is sustained by the evidence in this cause and should be approved and confirmed in this action, a copy of which agreement is in evidence herein and filed in the files of this Court and cause, marked "Exhibit A", and by this reference made a part of this decree.

WHEREFORE, IT IS NOW ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff, James E. Swan, and defendant, Ilse A. Swan, be, and the same are hereby dissolved absolutely.

2. That the written agreement made and entered into on the 27th day of August, 1949, by and between the parties hereto, a copy of which is in the files of the Court, marked "Exhibit A", as hereinbefore mentioned, together with the provisions pertaining to the custody of said minor children, and the obligations contained therein for the maintenance and support of said minor children, be and the same is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed by this Court, and that by reference hereto are incorporated in and made a part of this decree as fully and effectively as if set forth at length herein.

3. That the plaintiff pay to the wife monthly beginning the first day of October, 1949, Forty and no/100 ($40.00) dollars per month for the support of each child of the parties, a total of Eighty and no/100 ($80.00) dollars per month.

Defendant.

This matter came on to be heard before the Court on this 20th day of September, 1949, at Gooding, Idaho, and the Court having examined the files in said action finds that the defendant was duly and regularly served with summons, as is required by law, and that the defendant failed to answer, plead, or demur to said complaint within the time allowed by law for so answering, pleading, or demurring.

THEREUPON, the Court entered the defendant's default for failure to answer, plead, or demur to said complaint within the time allowed by law for so appearing.

THEREUPON, the Court heard the sworn testimony of plaintiff and her corroborating witness, and from the testimony the Court finds that the plaintiff is a resident of the State of Idaho, and had been a resident of the State of Idaho, for more than six full weeks next preceding the date of the filing of this action for divorce, and the Court further finds that the following children have been born issue of said marriage, to-wit:

Walter Eugene	Age 7
Bonnie Rae	Age 6
Dale	Age 4
Denney	Age 2

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 20th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process, and that he had failed to answer within the time given by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence, duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person, and that the agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant on the 20 day of July, 1949, one copy of which was admitted as plaintiff's Exhibit "A" in the case, is hereby approved and confirmed by the

- - - - -

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 20th day of September, 1949, before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. Plaintiff appeared personally and with Mary Schmitt, one of his attorneys. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon, the court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision; and the court having found that plaintiff and defendant were married at Los Vagas, Nevada on or about August 12, 1940; that plaintiff and defendant have two minor children, Einar Gene Fritz and Lucille Robert Fritz; that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; and that plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to the time of the filing of his complaint.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Orville L. Fritz, and the defendant Jeannette Mae Fritz, be and the same hereby are dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the sole custody of said minor children, Einar Gene Fritz and Lucille Roberta Fritz, be awarded to the plaintiff, Orville L. Fritz.

Dated at Gooding, Idaho this 20th day of September, 1949.

A G R E E M E N T

THIS AGREEMENT, Made this 24th day of August, 1949, between George Grebe, party of the first part, and Cecelia Grebe, party of the second part,

WITNESSETH:

That the parties hereto are husband and wife, and differences have arisen between them which have made the continuance of that relationship burdensome and intolerable.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants, promises and agreements hereinafter contained, and the keeping and performance of the same, the parties do hereby agree to and with each other as follows:

That from the date hereof hence the parties shall live separate and apart, each choosing his or her place of domicile and abode without hindrance or interference of the other.

That the community property heretofore acquired, and now owned by them shall be divided in the manner following:

(a) Each party shall have and take that part of the household goods and personal effects which have already been divided and allotted.

(b) One RD 7 Caterpillar Tractor Bulldozer shall be sold and the proceeds thereof divided and handled as hereinafter provided.

(c) All other property, machinery, equipment and supplies of a mining nature, such as mill, crushers, engines, tools, accessories, equipment and supplies shall be the sole and separate property of the party of the first part.

(d) From the proceeds of the sale of the Bulldozer hereinbefore mentioned community obligations to the extent of $1400.00 shall be satisfied and paid; the party of the first part shall receive the sum of $50.00 in cash; the party of the second part shall have the sum of $1050.00 in cash; and the residue shall be placed in a fund (and a guardian appointed therefore, who shall be some person other than the parties hereto) and such fund shall be held and used for the legal uses and benefits of the children of the parties.

The party of the first part promises and agrees to settle all outstanding community debts from the sum of money mentioned for that purpose in paragraph 2 (d) above, or otherwise if said sum of money shall not be sufficient; and each party covenants that he, or she, will not obligate the other for any matter whatsoever in the future.

Any and all property hereafter acquired shall become and be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same, without claim thereto by the other as community property or otherwise, and neither shall attempt to assert such claim or right in any manner whatsoever.

5.

That the custody of the minor children of the parties shall remain as it now is with legal custody in both parents but subject to the express provision that actual custody and care shall be and remain in the party of the second part so long as she properly provides for their maintenance, education and keep during their minority, with the right of the first party to visit said children at any reasonable time. Provided that as the children reach the age of ten years, and if any such child so desires, and if the party of the first part shall be in position to provide proper facilities for the care and maintenance of such child or children, then he, the party of the first part, shall be entitled to have such child or children visit him in his home during summer vacation period from school, for a time not to exceed sixty days; and in such event the party of the first part agrees to furnish transportation for such child or children from the place of abode of the party of the second part and return.

Each party does hereby release the other from any and all claim or claims whatsoever except as to the matters which have caused their separation, and except as herein mentioned.

7.

Nothing herein contained shall be considered as a waiver of rights arising from the matters which have caused their separation and it is agreed that if either party shall hereafter institute an action for divorce, this agreement may be offered as evidence in such cause for the matters stated herein, and upon approval by a court of competent jurisdiction, may be made a part of any decree entered in such action.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands the day and year in this agreement first above written.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 9th day of September, 1949, at Chambers of said Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of said Court, the plaintiff appearing by Wm. P. Hemminger, her attorney, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with process, and the default of the defendant having been heretofore entered herein, the said cause was finally heard and submitted to the Court upon the plaintiff's verified complaint and the evidence submitted on behalf of the plaintiff by the following witnesses: Nelda C. Roe and Frances Clark from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by the testimony, free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency; that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her complaint; that the plaintiff was a resident of the State of Idaho at the time the suit was filed and was a resident of the State of Idaho for a period of more than six weeks immediately prior thereto.

On motion of Wm. P. Hemminger, counsel for plaintiff, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this Court, by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage between the plaintiff, Nelda C. Roe, and the defendant, Larry M. Roe, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Nelda C. Roe, be, and she is hereby decreed the following described community personal property:

One 2-piece living-room suite,
One 3-piece bedroom suite,
One dinette set consisting of one table and four chairs,
One platform rocker,
Two children's beds,
Two lamps,
One mattress and bed springs,
Dishes and cooking utensils,
And any and all other community personal property belonging to the plaintiff and the defendant and now in the possession of the plaintiff, to be held by her henceforth as her sole and separate property, released from all claims of the defendant herein of every name and nature.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, Larry M. Roe, pay and discharge the balance due on the mortgage now existing on the household goods, fixtures and equipment hereinbefore described, said mortgage being in favor of Fidelity Finance Company of Rigby, Idaho.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said plaintiff, Nelda C. Roe, be, and she is hereby granted the absolute custody, care and control of the minor children, the issue of said marriage, namely: Michael W. Roe, of the age of five (5) years, and Karen F. Roe, of the age of four (4) years.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, Larry M. Roe, pay to the plaintiff, Nelda C. Roe, for the support of said minor children, namely: Michael W. Roe and Karen F. Roe, the monthly sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00), payable each and every month beginning with the 15th day of September, 1949.

Done at Chambers of said Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before the undersigned Judge of said Court this 9th day of September, 1949.

This matter came on for hearing and determination before the undersigned judge of the above entitled Court sitting in Chambers at Twin Falls, Idaho on the 31st day of August, 1949. It appearing to the Court from the records on file in the above entitled action that due legal, timely, and sufficient service has been made upon the defendant by publication, he not being a resident of the State of Idaho, and process could not be served upon him within the State of Idaho. That such service was obtained and is based upon an affidavit of the said plaintiff and upon an order made by the Clerk of said court for service of copies of said summons and complaint upon said defendant by publication as in such cases made and provided.

Personally appearing were the plaintiff, represented by her attorney, Henry M. Hall, the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney, and it appearing to the Court that a default of his appearance has been duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled Court on account of and by reason of his not appearing and demurring as provided by law.

It further appearing to the Court that the said matter is now ready for hearing. Thereupon, the plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn according to law; testimony was introduced by her and the said witness on her behalf in support of the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint. It further appearing to the Court from the evidence introduced that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately prior to the commencement of this action which fact was duly corroborated by the witness.

The Court is of the opinion from the evidence introduced by the said plaintiff that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant as prayed for in her complaint, and that the Court should grant her a divorce from the said defendant accordingly.

WHEREFORE, it is the judgment of This Court that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant should be dissolved, and the same are by the Court hereby dissolved, and that each of the said parties are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

Dated and signed in Chambers at Twin Falls, Idaho, this 31st day of August, 1949.

THIS MATTER CAME on for hearing before the undersigned Judge sitting in chambers at Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, Idaho, on the 2nd day of September, 1949.

It appearing to the Court from the records and files in said action that the defendant acknowledged service, waiver of statutory time, and right to appear and plead to complaint and consented to an entry of default and judgment. Such service was had as shown by her acknowledgment on the 22nd day of July, 1949. That thereafter on the 23rd day of July, 1949 a default was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled Court on the account and by reason of her failure to appear, answer or demur within the time required by law. Personally appeared the said plaintiff represented by Henry M. Hall, an attorney of this Court; The defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney.

Thereupon witnesses were sworn according to law, and the Court proceeded to hear the testimony of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in his complaint and finds that all the material allegations contained in plaintiff's said complaint were duly sustained by evidence free and clear of any and all legal objections. It further appearing to the Court that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action which fact was duly corroborated by a competent witness.

NOW THEREFORE, it is the judgment of this Court that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be dissolved, and the same by the Court are hereby dissolved, and that each of the said parties are hereby restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

That the said plaintiff, Edward M. Heikkila, shall pay unto the defendant, and the Court fixes the sum of $10.00 per week payable weekly to be a reasonable sum for the plaintiff to pay to the defendant for the maintenance and support of the said two children, namely Rosella L. Heikkila, a female age seven, and Edward V. Heikkila, a male, age two years, and that such amounts are to be remitted by the said plaintiff to the said defendant weekly or until further order of the Court; and that the said defendant be awarded the community property consisting of household goods, furnishings and effects.

Dated and signed this 7th. day of September, 1949, by the undersigned Judge sitting in chambers at Rupert, Idaho.

The above matter came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in open Court in the Courtroom in the County Courthouse at Jerome, Jerome County, Idaho, on the 10th day of September, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Frank M. Rettig. The defendant entered his written appearance and filed a waiver of his right to have the statutory time to plead to plaintiff's complaint and consented to judgment being entered against him as hereinafter set forth and to his default being entered. And it appearing to the Court that said defendant has been duly and regularly served with process, and that said service was in all respects regular and that the time allowed by law for answering plaintiff's complaint has expired and that the default of said defendant has been duly entered according to law, which said default is hereby ratified and confirmed;

Witnesses on the part of plaintiff having been examined and testimony having been submitted free from objections and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by virtue of said default; and

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and that she is entitled to the relief sought in her complaint and as consented to by the defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto should be wholly dissolved and plaintiff be granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant and that she should be awarded the custody, care and control of the minor child the issue of said marriage between plaintiff and defendant, and the minor child adopted by the defendant, subject to the right of reasonable visitation by the defendant, and that plaintiff should be awarded the sum of ninety dollars ($90.00) per month for her support and the support of said minor children; and the Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that plaintiff be, and she hereby is, granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, John Harrison Longshore, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and each party is hereby released and freed from all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded and she shall have the care, custody and control of Grant B. Longshore, the issue of plaintiff and a former husband, adopted by said defendant, and Deborrah Jean Longshore, the issue of the marriage between plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said minor children at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant pay to plaintiff the sum of ninety dollars ($90.00) per month as and for the support of plaintiff and said minor children, beginning on the date hereof and continuing in monthly installments on the first day of each and every month thereafter during the minority of said children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the community property of the parties be, and the same hereby is, awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property and the title thereto is hereby transferred to plaintiff. The principal items of said property are:

One (1) bedroom suite
One (1) cedar chest
One (1) chest of drawers
One (1) bed
One (1) sewing machine

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Frank Seely,

Defendant.

SEP -8 1949

JAS. A. FOSTER

---oOo---

This action having come on regularly for hearing before the Honorable O.C.Wilson, Judge of the above entitled District Court, the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Roger G.Wearne, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented by counsel, or otherwise or at all.

The Court finds that due and personal service of summond within the State of Idaho was made upon defendant and the defendant has failed to appear or to answer as required by said summons, or otherwise or at all; and that default for failure of the defendant to so appear or to answer has been duly entered herein. That defendant is not a member of the military or Naval forces of the United States. That by reason of the foregoing all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are taken as true and confessed.

Whereupon the plaintiff submitted oral and documentary proof and evidence, free from all objections as to itscompetency sufficiency, admissability and materiality, which the Court now finds duly proved and established all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint;and the Court, being fully advised in the premises has made and filed herein FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Therefore at this time upon motion of Roger C.Wearne, attorney for plaintiff, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore connecting plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are dissolved, set aside, made and declared to be of no further forde or effectand that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them be, and each of them hereby is released and discharged from each and every of the obligations of said bonds of matrimony, and that plaintiff, Lillian May Seely, be, and hereby she is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Frank Seely, on the ground of extreme mental cruelty.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that defendant Frank Seely pay to plaintiff, Lilliam May Seely, during the months of September, October and November, 1949, the sum of one hundred dollars per month for her support, and that thereafter defendant pay plaintiff the sum of fifty dollars per month until the further order of the Court:provided, however, that defendant shall be required to make said payments only when he is physically well enough to be employed and when he is employed, and not otherwise.

DECREE

JAS. A. FOSTER

This cause having regularly come on to be heard before the undersigned Judge of the above court, in the courtroom at Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho, at the hour and date hereinafter appearing, the plaintiff and cross-defendant being represented by Mr. Robert N. Elder of Messrs. Elder, Elder & Smith, and the defendant and cross-plaintiff being represented by J. Ward Arney, the defendant and cross-plaintiff being personally present; the parties having stipulated in writing that the issues of fact and law should be presented at this time and place, whereupon the defendant and cross-plaintiff introduced competent and corroborative oral and documentary evidence, the plaintiff and cross-defendant declined to introduce any evidence. There is on file herein a written Stipulation signed and acknowledged by the parties to this action which the parties represent to be, and the Court finds and concludes to be a fair, reasonable settlement agreement; and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and the parties in open court having orally consented to waiving the making and filing of written findings of fact and conclusions of law, and such oral consent has been entered in the minutes of this court, under Sec. 10-304, I.C., now, therefore, upon motion of J. Ward Arney, attorney for the cross-plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

(1) The plaintiff and cross-defendant take nothing under his complaint; and,

(2) Cross-plaintiff, Patricia M. Parrott, is hereby granted absolute divorce from the cross-defendant, W. E. Parrott, on the grounds of extreme mental cruelty inflicted upon the cross-plaintiff by cress-defendant; and,

(3) The legal and actual custody of Gracia, the older child of the parties, is hereby vested in the cross-defendant as contemplated in the agreement between the parties; and,

(4) The legal custody of Ronnie, the son of the parties is hereby vested in the cross-plaintiff, Patricia M. Parrott. The actual custody of the child as contemplated in said agreement between the parties, is hereby sanctioned, approved and ordered, as are the fiscal, visitation, custodial and educational arrangements between the parties as set forth in the written agreement; and,

(5) Cross-plaintiff shall have as her sole and separate property, the car, the Fire Island cottage and its furnishings and equipment, together with the household goods and furniture in the Bronxville, New York, apartment with its leasehold rights, the cross-defendant to execute, acknowledge and deliver to cross-plaintiff all necessary instruments to effectuate this provision.

(6) During the lifetime or until the remarriage of the cross-plaintiff, the cross-defendant shall pay the cross-plaintiff alimony as follows:

During the first year, $350.00 a month in advance. Thereafter, $265.00 a month, provided, however, that the cross-defendant shall make such additional contribution to the cross-plaintiff in event of partial or total disability, as is contemplated, and only as is contemplated in the Stipulation between the parties.

(7) Cross-defendant shall forthwith pay to the attorney for cross-plaintiff the sum of $525.00 as the balance of fees and costs due such attorney in this action.

(8) The Court retains jurisdiction of both children during the minority or dependency of each.

DECREE

SEP 22 1949
JAS. A. FOSTER

This cause having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. KNUDSON, of the firm of WHITLA & KNUDSON, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service outside of the State of Idaho and within the State of Ohio, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That the Defendant regularly entered his appearance in this cause by the filing of a general demurrer to the Plaintiff's Complaint herein. That said demurrer was regularly presented to this Court after notice duly and regularly given and said demurrer was thereafter overruled by order regularly entered herein. That the Defendant has failed to file his Answer to the Plaintiff's Complaint herein or to further plead in this cause and that the default of the Defendant has been duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

That the Court has after hearing and considering the evidence submitted by the Plaintiff regularly made and filed herein Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law wherein it is ordered that a Decree be entered herein in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendant, which said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are specifically made a part of this Decree.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and upon motion of E. T. KNUDSON, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, EDITH A. THORSON, and the Defendant, ABNER M. THORSON, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside upon the ground of extreme cruelty on the part of the Defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that any property which remains in the hands of the Defendant, as a result of the business engaged in, carried on and conducted by these parties prior to the separation of these parties is hereby decreed to be the sole and separate property of the Plaintiff and the Defendant is hereby directed to account to the Plaintiff for such property and to deliver the same to the Plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Defendant pay to the Plaintiff, as Attorney's fees herein, the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars together with Plaintiff's costs and disbursements incurred herein in the amount of Twenty ($20.00) Dollars.

Done in open Court this 19th day of September, A. D., 1949.

DECREE

JAS. A. FOSTER

Sue Langford

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. Hamilton, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, EVERETT F. KENNEDY, and the Defendant, IRENE M. KENNEDY, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of mental cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor child of these parties, to-wit: MICHAEL FRANK KENNEDY is hereby awarded to the Defendant, with the privilege on the part of the Plaintiff of visitation with said child at all reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff pay as child support the sum of $40 per month.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned Judge of the above-entitled Court, at chambers, at Coeur d'Alene, County of Kootenai, Idaho, on the date hereof, plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by her counsel, Mr. James W. Wayne, and the defendant being in default herein as more fully appears from the records and files herein. Thereupon competent and corroborative evidence was received, substantiating the allegations of the complaint, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived, under I. C. 10-304; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND, CONCLUDED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Plaintiff has been a bona-fide resident of and domiciled in the State of Idaho for at least six (6) weeks next preceding the date of the commencement of this action.

2. That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, granted a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are dissolved and held for naught.

3. That plaintiff be, and she hereby is granted the sole care, custody and control of the three children of plaintiff and defendant, born of the intermarriage of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Ramona, Robert, and Rosalie, said last mentioned child having been born during the pendency of this action.

4. That the defendant be, and he hereby is, ordered to pay to the plaintiff the sum of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars per month for the support, maintenance and/or education of each of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, in all, the sum of Seventy-five ($75.00) Dollars per month, said payments to be made to plaintiff on or before the 15th day of each and every month hereafter, so long as such children, or any of them are under the age of eighteen (18) years and/or not otherwise emancipated.

5. That the defendant be, and he hereby is granted the right to visit said minor children upon the last Sunday of each calendar month, such visits to be limited to the period from the hour of 1 o'clock P. M. to the hour of 4 o'clock P. M. of each of said Sundays, and provided further, that such right of visitation may be exercised by said defendant only upon condition that any and all payments of support money herein ordered to be made have been fully paid by the said defendant.

SETH S. STEVENS,

Defendant.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her Attorney, E. T. KNUDSON, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service within the State of Idaho, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. KNUDSON, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, RUTH STEVENS, and the Defendant, SETH S. STEVENS, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the following described property, to-wit:

> Lots 118, 120, 122 and 124, all in Best Land Annex Subdivision, Kootenai County, Idaho, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining be, and the same hereby is decreed to be the sole and separate property of the Plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff be, and she hereby is restored to her former name, to-wit: RUTH WILSON, and to the status of an unmarried person.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court this 12 day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record, J. M. O'Donnell, and the Defendant appearing neither in person nor by attorney.

On said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that service of Summons was duly and regularly made by personal service as appears by the Affidavit of Service filed herein, and the Defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint within the time allowed by law and his time for appearing having expired and the default of said Defendant having been entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony adduced on behalf of said Plaintiff and in support of her Complaint, and the cause having been finally submitted to the Court for decision, the Court finds that the allegations stated in Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein are true and supported by the evidence.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THIS COURT AS FOLLOWS:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the above named Plaintiff, Alva Mae Cool, and the above named Defendant, Robert Cool, be, and the same hereby are dissolved and the said parties, and each of them, are free from the married relation.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on regularly for hearing on this 13 day of September, 1949, pursuant to the pleadings filed herein by the plaintiff and cross-defendant and pursuant to the Cross-Complaint filed on behalf of the defendant and cross-complainant, and the defendant appearing in person and with her counsel of record, and the plaintiff appearing through his counsel of record, the respective parties having agreed through counsel that said cause be heard upon its merits at this time.

At this hearing this defendant and cross-complainant introduced evidence in support of her answer and Cross-Complaint, the plaintiff and cross-defendant, through his attorney, declined to offer evidence in the cause. The defendant and cross-complainant having introduced evidence in support of her Cross-Complaint, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that the allegations of said Cross-Complaint are true and supported by the evidence, and the respective parties having waived Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law by the Court;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree that a Decree of Divorce absolute be, and it is hereby awarded to the defendant and cross-complainant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the custody of the minor children, James George Weninger, and Patricia Ann Weninger, be, and they are awarded to the defendant, Ann Weninger, the mother of said children, without interference from the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant have judgment against the plaintiff for payment of the sum of $100.00 per month for support and maintenance of the two minor children during their minority, and the plaintiff is hereby required to make said payments of $100.00 per month to the defendant on the 10th day of September, 1949, and the 10th day of each and every month thereafter until both of said minor children have attained their majority.

DECREE

No. 3296

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 22nd day of September, 1949, at Salmon, Idaho, upon the Complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant on the proof taken herein, and upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant herein was duly served in person with Summons herein, attached to a copy of the Complaint on file in this action; and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint of the plaintiff and the time for answering having expired, and no answer or other pleading having been filed, the default of the defendant, Levi James Meservy, was duly entered according to law, and on this day the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, C. Walker Lyon, and introduced evidence in support of said Complaint, by which it appears and the Court found;

That the plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were united in marriage on the 24th day of November, 1925, and afterward resided together as husband and wife; that the defendant is not now a member of the Military or Naval Service of the United States of America.

That it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the material allegations of the Complaint are sustained by competent testimony, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and the matters so alleged and proved were sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to have a dissolution of her marriage;

That there are four minor children, the issue of said marriage, Ruby Meservy of the age of seventeen years, Opal Meservy of the age of eleven years, Richard Meservy of the age of ten years, and Garnett Meservy of the age of seven years; that the plaintiff, Mary Cleopha Meservy, is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of said minor children, and $75.00 each and every month is a reasonable sum to be paid by the defendant, Levi James Meservy, to the plaintiff, Mary Cleopha Meservy, for such minor childrens' support and maintenance;

That the equity of the parties hereto in the real property and miscellaneous household furniture, furnishings, fixtures and accessories hereinafter described are necessary to benefit the plaintiff and her minor children, and the plaintiff is entitled thereto as her sole and separate property;

That the Chevrolet truck, two horses, one trailer, miscellaneous tools and hauling equipment are necessary to the defendant as his sole and separate property so that he may make a living for himself and contribute to the support of the minor children;

That it further appears that there are certain unpaid community accounts which should be paid by the defendant and the plaintiff absolved therefrom;

That $150.00 is a just and reasonable sum to be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff as her attorney fees in this action;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony that exist between the parties hereto be, and the same are, dissolved, returning each to the status of a single person;

2. That the plaintiff, Mary Cleopha Meservy, be awarded the custody, and she hereby is awarded the custody of the minor children, Ruby Meservy, Opal Meservy, Richard Meservy and Garnett Meservy, until further order of Court, with the privilege of the defendant, Levi James Meservy, of visiting such children at any and all reasonable times, provided he is not in default in the full payment of child support as hereinafter ordered;

3. That the defendant, Levi James Meservy, pay to the plaintiff, Mary Cleopha Meservy, the sum of SEVENTY-FIVE and NO/100 ($75.00) DOLLARS on or before the 10th day of October, 1949, and $75.00 on or before the 10th day of each and every month thereafter, for such minor childrens' support and maintenance, until further order of Court;

4. That the defendant, Levi James Meservy, shall forthwith pay any and all community indebtedness and save the plaintiff harmless therefrom, excepting, however, the mortgage indebtedness due Edgar S. Edwards;

5. That the defendant, Levi James Meservy, pay to the plaintiff, Mary Cleopha Meservy, forthwith the sum of ONE HUNDRED FIFTY and NO/100 (($150.00) DOLLARS as attorney fees, and the further sum of SEVENTEEN and NO/100 ($17.10) DOLLARS, costs incurred in this action.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the property described as follows, to-wit:

REAL PROPERTY

All of Lots Numbered Eight (8), Nine (9) and Ten (10) in Block Numbered Three (3), of and in W. H. Andres Subdivision of Salmon City Townsite, as the same appears upon the plat of said subdivision, on file and of record in Book 1 of Plats, Page 16, Records of Lemhi County, Idaho;

Together with all ditches, water and water rights thereunto belonging to said lots or used in connection therewith;

Subject to a Real Estate Mortgage to Edgar S. Edwards with a present principal balance of $2472.50;

PERSONAL PROPERTY

Miscellaneous household furniture, furnishings, fixtures and accessories;

Be, and the same hereby is adjudged to be, the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, Mary Cleopha Meservy, subject, however, to a mortgage indebtedness thereon to Edgar S. Edwards, which said property shall be free and clear of any community debts that may be placed thereon and the defendant shall hold the plaintiff harmless therefrom, and further that the defendant, Levi James Meservy, shall forthwith give immediate possession to said property and the whole thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the following described property, to-wit:

1 1947 Chevrolet 1½ ton truck, 2 horses, 1 trailer, miscellaneous tools and hauling equipment;

Be, and the same hereby is adjudged to be, the sole and separate property of the defendant, Levi James Meservy.

DECREE

No. 3279

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 23rd day of September, 1949, in Chambers at Salmon, Idaho, upon the Complaint herein by Stipulation of Donald E. Wyckoff, attorney of record for defendant, and C. Walker Lyon, attorney of record for plaintiff, and the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, C. Walker Lyon, and introduced evidence in support of said Complaint, and the defendant or his attorney failing to appear and introduce evidence, by which it appears and the Court found:

That the plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were legally married on the 24th day of October, 1944, and afterward resided together as husband and wife; that the defendant is not now a member of the Military or Naval Service of the United States of America;

That it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the material allegations of the Complaint are sustained by competent testimoney, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and the matters so alleges and proved were sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to have a dissolution of her marriage;

That there is one child the issued of said marriage, Terry Lee Lyons, of the age of two years, and that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of such minor child;

That the defendant is an able bodied man capable of contributing the sum of at least TWENTY FIVE and NO/100 ($25.00) DOLLARS per month towards the care and support of such minor child.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony that exist between the parties hereto, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, returning each to the status of a single person;

2. That the plaintiff, Eva June Lyons, be, and she hereby is, awarded the custody of the minor child, Terry Lee Lyons, with the privilege to the defendant, Robert L. Lyons, of visiting such child at any and all reasonable times provided he is not in default in the payment of child support as herein ordered.

3. That the defendant, Robert L. Lyons, pay to the plaintiff, Eva June Lyons, the sum of at least TWENTY FIVE and NO/100 ($25.00) DOLLARS on or before the 10th day of October, 1949, and a further like sum each and every month thereafter until further order of Court.

Bernice Weber Lemons. Plaintiff.

vs,

Harry Paul Lemons. Defendant.

DECREE.

On this 6th day of ~~September~~ September, 1949, this Cause coming on regularly to be heard at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Idaho. and application being made by the Plaintiff by and through her Attorney of record for final decree herein; and it duly appearing to the court, that the Defendant by publication and service by mail had been duly served with a copy of said summons and complaint which complaint was duly verified as appears of record;

And the defendant having failed to demur, or answer, or appear either in person, or by Attorney, or at all, and the time having expired and the default of the Defendant having been had and of record; and the plaintiff appearing in court in person and by Attorney, and the Defendant failing to appear in person, or by Attorney, or at all, the court proceeded to hear said cause, whereupon the plaintiff was duly sworn and examined as a Witness in her own behalf and testified therein, and thereafter Mrs Alex Weber was duly sworn and examined as a witness in behalf of the Plaintiff, and the said cause being submitted to the court for decision.

It was made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, That the Plaintiff is a Bona Fide resident of the State of Idaho, and has resided in Madison County, Idaho, for many years prior to the commencement of this action; That the Plaintiff and the Defendant intermarried at Salt Lake City Utah, on the 31st day of August, 1946, and ever since have been and now are Husband and Wife;

That during the time of said Marriage there were born to them a female child, to-wit, Linda Marie Lemons, born March 1st, 1948, and that the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of said female child;

That during the Marriage as aforesaid, there was no property acquired, and there is none at this time for the courts disposition;

That the Plaintiff and the Defendant seperated in the Month of May, 1948, and have not lived or cohabited together as Man and Wife since that time.

That the Defendant Harry Paul Lemons, is an able bodied man and is capable of earning wages sufficient to assist said Plaintiff in maintain-herself and Minor child, and that the court deems it prudent that the plaintiff be allowed alimony for such maintainance as is deemed wise and just. And it further appearing to the Court that during the Married life of the Plaintiff and the Defendant, the Defendant has been guilty of extreme Cruelty towards this Plaintiff, and has caused her grevious mental and Physicial pain as follows, to-wit;

Early in their Married life, It was quite a common thing for the Defendant to leave home, returning in the late hours of the Night smelling of Liquor, but declined to tell the Plaintiff where he had been or for what purpose he had remained so long, this was continued quite regularly during the time of the said marriage as aforesaid;

During the year 1947, the Plaintiff and the Defendant resided for a time at Murray, Utah, during this particular time spent there, the Defendant would go away and stay all night, and when asked about the matter would say he was on a twenty-four Hour shift, but he the Defendant did not bring any money home from such enforced labor, and when the Plaintiff com-plained, he the Defendant would call her a God Damned Son of A Bitch; at other times the Defendant would inflict mental and Physicial pain upon the Plaintiff by slapping her, on three different occasions giving her a good thrashing. And it further appearing to the Court, that at other times, the Defendant would take this Plaintiff to some relative and dump her down and leave her for as many as four days, much to this Plaintiffs distress and emberrassment, claiming that he was working and could not return sooner, but that his appearance would indicate that he had been consorting with Females instead of working as alledged;

That because of the many statements, this made the Plaintiff has been led to consider the Defendant dishonest and a falsifier, and that his word could not be taken seriously on any matter.

And it further appearing to the court that the Plaintiff has at all times herein mentioned has tried to be a true and faithful wife to the defend-ant, and has done what she could to make their married life a success,but is convinced that the Defendant no longer cares for her and that his attitude heretofore described has completely destroyed the Legetimate objects of Matrimony and that a continuity of the marriage relation between the Plaintiff and the Defendant can only serve to make this Plaintiff unhappy and distressed in mind and body.

And the court finding that the Equities are with the Plaintiff,and that the allegations set forth in her Verified complaint are true; that she is entitled to a Decree of Divorce totally dissolving the Bonds of matrimony now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant,and for all further proper relief as is meet in the premises,and the court having fully considered the evidence and the papers and files in said cause, and being fully advised in the premises.

It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court;
1st, that the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, be, and the same are hereby totally dissolved;
2nd.That the Plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the Minor Child,Linda Marie Lemons;
3rd,That the Plaintiff is hereby as Alimony for the Support of the said minor child,awarded the sum of $30.00 per Month during her Minority to be paid on the First of each and every Month for her maintainance and support;
4th, That the Plaintiff is entitled to her costs taxed at $27,00,

Done and dated at Chamber at Idaho Falls, Idaho, this 6th day of ~~August~~ September, 1949.

LOUISE M. FLITTON, Plaintiff
vs.	DECREE OF DIVORCE
LEONARD E. FLITTON, Defendant

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 30th day of September, 1949, at Chambers of said Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of said Court, the plaintiff appearing by Wm. P. Hemminger, her attorney, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with process, and the default of the defendant having been heretofore entered herein, the said cause was finally heard and submitted to the Court upon the plaintiff's Verified Complaint and the evidence submitted on behalf of the plaintiff by the following witnesses: Louise M. Flitton and Veanetta Boyce, from which it appears that all the material allegations of the Complaint are sustained by the testimony, free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency; that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her Complaint; that the plaintiff was a resident of the State of Idaho at the time the suit was filed and was a resident of the State of Idaho for a period of more than six full weeks immediately prior thereto.

On motion of Wm. P. Hemminger, counsel for plaintiff, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this Court, by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage between the plaintiff, Louise M. Flitton, and the defendant, Leonard E. Flitton, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said plaintiff, Louise M. Flitton, be, and she is hereby granted the absolute custody, care and control of the minor children, the issue of said marriage, namely: Vern Eldon Flitton of the age of 16 years, Robert Eugene Flitton of the age of 10 years, and Barbara Ann Flitton of the age of 5 years and allowed $20 per month each for their support.

Done at Chambers of said Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before the undersigned Judge of said Court this 30th day of September, 1949.

The above entitled matter comes to be heard in chambers in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and with witnesses and with her counsel, H. V. Creason, the defendant appearing not; and it appearing from the records and files in said cause that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered, his time of appearance having expired; and it further appearing from the records and files that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act; and it further appearing that it is a proper matter to be heard in chambers.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court after listening to all of said testimony, free of all legal objections thereto, and being fully advised in the premises, makes and enters its findings as follows:

1. The court finds that the plaintiff now is and for more than six week next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 31st day of January, 1948, and now are and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

3. The court further finds that there was born the issue of said marriage the following minor children: Harold William age 2 years, Debra Ann age 1 year, and Richard Allen age 2 months.

4. The court further finds that the said plaintiff and defendant have acquired only a small amount of household goods as community property, and a 1935 Buick Automobile.

5. The court further finds that the past year the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner in that the said defendant has at divers and numerous times slapped, cursed and abused the said plaintiff and has caused this plaintiff great mental anguish and physical suffering.

6. The court further finds that the plaintiff has the care of said minor children at the time of her action and that the plaintiff is a proper person to have the care, control and custody of said minor children, subject to the right of the defendant to see said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

7. The court further finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of her complaint, that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Pauline Mehrer, and the defendant, Harold Mehrer, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that a decree of divorce be made and entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff have the care, control and custody of the said minor children, Harold William Mehrer, Debra Ann Mehrer and Richard Allen Mehrer, subject to the right of the defendant to see said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

3. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be granted the household goods as her soul and separate property for the maintenance of herself and said minor children, and that the defendant be given the 1935 Buick automobile as his soul and separate property.

4. That the defendant be hereby restrained and enjoined from coming to the home of said plaintiff and attacking or committing violence on the person of said plaintiff and be restrained and enjoined from interfering with the peaceful occupancy of the home of said plaintiff, and interfering with the peaceful control of said minor children.

AMENDED DECREE

The above entitled matter came on for hearing under and pursuant of motion and order of the court heretofore made for further hearing in the matter.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified in said cause and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds as follows; That the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint; that the plaintiff and defendant, each of them had also been duly served with an order of this court directing further hearing in the above entitled matter and set aside its decree heretofore made and entered on the 1st day of September, 1949. Personal service have been made upon both the plaintiff and defendant.

The plaintiff appeared in person to said court order, the defendant appearing not, and the court after listening to additional testimony offered on behalf of the plaintiff finds as follows:

1. The court finds that the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 31st day of January, 1948, and now are and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

3. The court further finds that there was born the issue of said marriage the following minor children: Harold William age 2 years, Debra Ann age 1 year, and Richard Allen age 2 months.

4. The court further finds that the said plaintiff and defendant have acquired only a small amount of household goods as community property, and a 1935 Buick automobile.

5. The court further finds that the past year the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner in that the said defendant has at divers and numerous times slapped, cursed and abused the said plaintiff and has caused this plaintiff great mental anguish and physical suffering.

6. The court further finds that the plaintiff has the care of said minor children at the time of her action and that the plaintiff is a proper person to have the care, control and custody of said minor children, subject to the right of the defendant to see said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

7. The court further finds that the defendant is of able body, is gainfully employed, that the defendant earns a wage of aproximately $200.00 per month when employed, and that the sum of $60.00 per month is a reasonable sum to be allowed for the support and maintenance of the said minor children untill further order of this court.

8. The court further finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of her complaint, that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Pauline Mehrer, and the defendant, Harold Mehrer, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that a decree of divorce be made and entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff have the care, control and custody of the said minor children, Harold William Mehrer, Debra Ann Mehrer and Richard Allen Mehrer, subject to the right of the defendant to see said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

3. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be granted the household goods as her soul and separate property for the maintenance of herself and said minor children, and that the defendant be given the 1935 Buick automobile as his soul and separate property.

4. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay to the plaintiff herein the sum of $60.00 per month for the support and maintenance of the minor children, to be paid semi-monthly in payments of $30.00 each beginning on the 15th day of September, 1949, until said minor children reach the age of 18 years or further order of this court.

5. That the defendant be hereby restrained and enjoined from coming to the home of said plaintiff and attacking or committing violence on the person of said plaintiff and be restrained and enjoined from interfering with the peaceful occupancy of the home of said plaintiff, and interfering with the peaceful control of said minor children.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

-o-

This cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff on September 17, 1949 before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney and the defendant did not appear in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant was duly and personally served with summons and copy of complaint within the State of Idaho and that said defendant failed to appear or answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time limited by law, and that upon the affidavit of the plaintiff that the said defendant was not in the Military Service of the United States in any capacity whatsoever, the Clerk of said Court duly and regularly entered the default of said defendant pursuant to said affidavit and order of the court permitting said default. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the plaintiff thereupon submitted the cause to the Court for its consideration and decision and after due consideration the Court found that the material allegations of the complaint were true and that the plaintiff was entitled to the relief hereinafter awarded and granted.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Arlene Villers and the defendant, Wayne Villers, be and the same hereby are dissolved and that each of said persons be and he and she hereby are restored to the status of single persons.

2. That the plaintiff, Arlene Villers, be and she hereby is awarded the sole and exclusive custody, care and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, namely: Michael Villers.

3. That the defendant, Wayne Villers, pay to the plaintiff, Arlene Villers, the sum of $75.00 per month for the support and maintenance of the said plaintiff and minor child commencing with the 1st day of October, 1949 and a like sum on the first day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the further order of the Court, which said payments are apportioned as follows: $50.00 per calendar month for the support and maintenance of the plaintiff, Arlene Villers, and $25.00 per month for the support and maintenance of the minor child, Michael Villers.

OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR MINIDOKA COUNTY

-O-

ETHEL M. STETTLER,
Plaintiff,

vs.

NORRIS P. STETTLER,
Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

-O-

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff in open court at Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho on this 17th day of September, 1949, before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, Judge of said Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and the defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had by an instrument in writing, duly signed and acknowledged by him, admitted due and legal service of the Summons and the Complaint upon him in Minidoka County, Idaho and had expressly waived the time allowed by law for appearance in said action, had refused to appear in said action or to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's Complaint on file herein and that the Clerk of said Court upon the filing of said acceptance and waiver and after it had been made to appear to him therefrom that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, had duly and regularly entered the default of the defendant.

Witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and certain documentary evidence was offered and the plaintiff rested and the cause was submitted to the Judge for consideration and decision and it appearing to the Judge that the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint are true and are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to its competency, relevancy and admissibility and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant and to decree awarding to her the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto hereinafter named.

And it further appearing that the parties hereto had entered into an agreement settling, adjusting and dividing their property and property interests and that said agreement was reached and entered into without fraud, undue influence or coercion on the part of either thereto against the other but was entered into by the parties after due consideration and deliberation and after each party had consulted with and obtained the advice of persons of his or her selection and that said agreement was not contrary to the public policy of the State of Idaho, in all respects was fair, just, reasonable and equitable and that, in consequence thereof, at the time this action was instituted the community estate had been dissolved and no community propertypresently exists for division by this court.

WHEREFORE By reason of the law and the premises aforesaid:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Ethel M. Stettler, and the defendant, Norris P. Stettler, be and the same are hereby dissolved and that each party hereto be and each of them is hereby released from all objections thereof and that the care, custody and control of Jeanne Carolyn Stettler, a daughter, born on December 8, 1943, be and the same is hereby given and awarded to the plaintiff subject, however, to the right in the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and places and the right in the defendant to designate the person or persons with whom the child is placed during the daylight hours or other hours during which the plaintiff is employed, provided, further, however, that in the event the plaintiff remarries or otherwise removes the said child from the vicinity of Twin Falls, Idaho, then in that event, the plaintiff is to have the custody of said child only during the school months of each year and the defendant is to have the custody of said child during the non-school months of each year and that neither the plaintiff or the defendant shall remove the said child from the state of Idaho without written agreement with the other party or an order of the court authorizing the other party so to do.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That until the further order of the court in the premises the defendant pay to the plaintiff monthly, beginning on the 1st day of October, 1949, the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) per month for the maintenance and support of said child and that in addition thereto, the defendant pay such medical and other expenses as may be incurred on account of the illness or injury to said minor child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said defendant pay the community debts and obligations of the parties hereto and at all times and in all respects save and hold the plaintiff and the property decreed to her harmless therefrom.

Dated in open court at Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho, this 17th day of September, 1949.

The above-entitled cause came on regularly for trial before the Court at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 2nd day of September, 1949, at ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney, Owen L. Knowlton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the County of Nez Perce, State of Idaho, on the 9th day of August, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and she being in default, and her default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted, and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in Nez Perce County, State of Idaho, on the 9th day of August, 1949.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV and V of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein. The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

First: That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

Second: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Arvid T. Perttu, and the defendant, Ruby Poulter Perttu, be and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

Third: That defendant be restored the name of RUBY POULTER, which was the name of said defendant prior to her marriage with said plaintiff.

Fourth: That the property settlement entered into between the parties, and by reference made a part hereof, and all the terms of said settlement contained in said agreement, are approved by the Court.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Hon. Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, in Chambers, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on this 9th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having accepted service of summons and complaint in this action at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on August 9, 1949, which Acceptance of Service is in writing and duly acknowledged by the defendant, and the defendant having certified in said Acceptance of Service that he was not a member of the military service of the United States and not entitled to the rights and benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the defendant having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court, and both oral and documentary evidence having been introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised, both as to the facts and the law, FINDS:

That the allegations contained in paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI of plaintiff's complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated herein as Findings of Fact by reference as though fully set forth herein.

The Court further finds that the property settlement agreement executed between the parties hereto under date of August 9, 1949, introduced in evidence, is a fair and equitable settlement of the property rights as between the plaintiff and the defendant, and the same is hereby approved and the terms thereof incorporated herein as a part of this decree with the same force and effect as though the same were fully set forth herein;

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of David John Gusseck of the age of 8 years and Paula Rae Gusseck of the age of 7 years, the minor children of the parties to this action, both of which children are in Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, residing with the plaintiff, and are subject to the jurisdiction of this Court.

From the foregoing Findings of Fact the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty; that the plaintiff should be awarded the sole care, custody and control of the two minor children above named, and that the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties to this action under date of August 9, 1949, should be approved.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of the two minor children of the parties to this action, to-wit, David John Gusseck, now of the age of 8 years, and Paula Rae Gusseck, now of the age of 7 years, be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the right in the defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and occasions.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Lee McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court, at Ten o'clock A.M., on the 9th day of September, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorneys Paul C. Keeton and Owen L. Knevelton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho on the 25th day of July, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on the 25th day of July, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit; 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 14th day of April, 1948; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no community property; 4, that there have been no children born the issue of said marriage; 5, that the defendant has been guilty of willful neglect and non-support; and 6, that the defendant is gainfully employed and able to pay a reasonable attorney fee for procuring a divorce; and said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of willful neglect and non-support.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Sonja Proffitt, and the defendant, Leonard Proffitt, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Sonja Proffitt, be, and she hereby is awarded the sum of One Hundred Fifty ($150.00) Dollars attorney fees and costs; and the defendant, Leonard Proffitt, is hereby ordered to pay said sums to the plaintiff.

Docketed Vol. 20 Page 16

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in chambers at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court, at Ten o'clock A.M., on the 13th day of September, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the Territory of Alaska, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 5th day of August, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause at Fairbanks, Territory of Alaska, on the 5th day of August, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Grangeville, Idaho, on the 7th day of December, 1925; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no community property within the State of Idaho and the plaintiff makes no claim upon any property, real or personal, situate elsewhere; 4, that there are no minor children born the issue of said marriage whose custody it is necessary for the Court to adjudicate; and 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; that all of said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Valetha M. Ingram, and the defendant Francis L. Ingram, be, and the same are hereby wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DATED at Lewiston, Idaho, this 13th day of September, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on regularly for trial before the Court upon the stipulation of the parties; plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, J. H. Felton and William J. Jones; and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and having demurred, and having stipulated that upon hearing, if found proper by the Court, a decree should be entered herein; and the Court having heard the evidence in support of plaintiff's complaint, and, except as otherwise stipulated by the parties, having found that plaintiff's complaint is supported, and having read and approved the stipulation of the parties, and having concluded as a matter of law that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief herein given;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Virginia Kiebert, and the defendant, H. V. Kiebert, be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff is awarded an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the care, custody and control of Gail Kiebert is awarded to Virginia Kiebert, but the defendant, H. V. Kiebert, shall have the right to visit said child and to have her visit him at reasonable times and places, and the defendant, H. V. Kiebert, shall pay to Virginia Kiebert the sum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month each and every month, on or before the 10th day thereof, the first payment to be made immediately, and a payment of Forty Dollars ($40.00) to be made on or before the 10th day of each month thereafter, for the support and maintenance of the minor child, Gail Kiebert.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the "Agreement" dated the 13th day of August, 1949, by and between Virginia Kiebert and Herschel V. Kiebert, a true copy of which is attached to the "Stipulation For the Entry of Judgment" filed herein, is hereby approved, and the division of properties and the payments therein designated to be made are ordered to be made in accordance therewith.

Entered Vol. ... Page ...

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Hon. Leo McCarthy, Judge of the above entitled Court, in Open Court, on this 19th day of September, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorney of record, and the defendant having been served with process by publication of summons pursuant to the order of this Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, and the default of said defendant having been entered by the Clerk of this Court for her failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the Court having heard the evidence introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

That the defendant is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended;

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Vancouver, Washington, on December 1, 1943, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife;

That the plaintiff is now and has been all his life an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage.

RAY E. DURHAM
LAWYER
LEWISTON, IDAHO

That the plaintiff and the defendant have acquired no property and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action;

That the defendant did on Christmas Day of 1945 voluntarily leave the plaintiff with the intent to desert him; that the plaintiff has tried to effect a reconciliation, the last such attempt being in the summer of 1946, but without avail; that the defendant refuses to return to the plaintiff and live with him as his wife, and has continued to live separate and apart from this plaintiff since the summer of 1946.

From the foregoing Findings the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of wilful desertion.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial before the Court at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 23rd day of September, 1949, at ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Owen L. Knowlton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the County of Snohomish, State of Washington, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 30th day of August, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default, and his default having been entered and a Non-military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted, and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in Snohomish County, State of Washington, on the 30th day of August, 1949.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV and V of the plaintiff's complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein. The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Jane E. Denny, and the defendant, Delmer E. Denny, be and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

That the exclusive care, custody and control of Judy Ann Denny, minor child of the parties hereto, be and the same hereby is awarded to plaintiff subject to the right of defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in open court before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, on this 24th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, V. R. Clements, and no person or persons appeared for or on behalf of the defendant, Julian E. Coleman. It appeared to the Court that the defendant, Julian E. Coleman, was duly, regularly and personally served with process of Summons and Complaint, in the manner provided by law, pursuant to order of the above entitled Court, and that the said defendant has failed to appear, demur, answer or otherwise plead within the time provided by law, and it appearing to the Court upon reading and filing the affidavit of Bernice S. Coleman, the plaintiff in the above entitled action, which said affidavit is filed herein pursuant to the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Acts, from which it is found that the defendant, Julian E. Coleman, is not now in the military service of the United States of America, in accordance with the terms of said acts, and the defendant having been in default, and his default having been duly and regularly entered and filed herein, and this cause having been duly and regularly set for hearing, and evidence, oral and documentary submitted, and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court, and the Court having duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, and finding hereby:

1. That the plaintiff now is and for more than one year last past has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho

2. That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Burley, Idaho, July 14, 1925, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife

3. That there has been born and is now living as the issue of said marriage one minor child, to-wit: John Franklin Coleman, born March 9, 1941, who is now in the custody and under the control of the plaintiff who is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody and control of said minor. That the defendant is not a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child.

4. That since the marriage of the parties they have by their joint efforts and earnings accumulated the following described real property, to-wit:

   Lots Five and Six of Block Thirteen in the original townsite of Hansen, Twin Falls County, Idaho

5. That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff in that for more one year prior to July 26, 1948, he inflicted a course of extreme, cruel and inhuman treatment upon and toward plaintiff in the particulars alleged in Paragraph V of the complaint, which is hereby referred to and by reference made a part hereof, the same as though specifically set forth herein, which allegations and each of them are hereby found to be true and supported by the evidence.

NOW, THEREFORE, based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, Bernice S. Coleman, and the defendant, Julian E. Coleman, be and the same is hereby forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded and granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, and that the plaintiff and the defendant be and each of them are hereby restored to the status of single and unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded the absolute care, custody and control of John Franklin Coleman, the minor child of the parties, and that the defendant shall be required to pay for the care, maintenance, support and education of said minor child such sums as may hereafter be determined by subsequent order or decree of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that pursuant to the facts found herein, the following described real property all of which is situate, lying and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, and particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Lots Five and Six of Block Thirteen in the original townsite of Hansen, Twin Falls County, Idaho

be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Bernice S. Coleman, as her share of the community property heretofore acquired by the parties hereto, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of any right, title, claim, interest, equity and demand therein of the defendant, Julian E. Coleman.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial before the Court at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 24th day of September, 1949, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Owen L. Knowlton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the County of Sutter, State of California, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 1st day of September, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default, and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted, and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in Sutter County, State of California, on the 1st day of September, 1949.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV and V of the plaintiff's complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein. The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

First: That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

Second: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Eileen Sandlin, and the defendant, William J. Sandlin, be and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

Third: That plaintiff is awarded the care, custody and control of William J. Sandlin, Jr., minor child of the parties hereto, subject to the right of defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

Dated this 27th day of September, 1949.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing in open court on the 28th day of September, 1949, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, Russell S. Randall, and no person or persons appeared for or on behalf of the defendant Velma Marie Alexander. It appeared to the Court that the defendant, Velma Marie Alexander, was duly and regularly served with process of Summons and Complaint in Madison County, Nebraska on the 6th day of September, 1949, and that said defendant has failed to appear, demur, answer or otherwise plead within the time provided by law, and that the defendant having been in default and her default having been duly and regularly entered herein and this cause having been duly and regularly set for trial and evidence oral and documentary submitted and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court and the Court having duly considered same and it appearing to the Court that all of the allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true,

Now, therefore, based thereon.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff Louis S. Alexander is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, Velma Marie Alexander on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and said parties are, after the entry of this decree, each restored to the status of a single person.

Dated this 28th day of September, 1949.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 15th day of July, 1949, by and between Lillian Kohts of Payette, County of Payette, State of Idaho, hereinafter called the wife, and Ray Kohts of Payette, County of Payette, State of Idaho, hereinafter called the husband, WITNESSETH: That

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are now husband and wife and have been living together as such since their marriage, but unhappy and insurmountable conditions exist and will continue to exist between them making it impossible for them to so live together hereafter and for that reason they deem it best that their property interests be settled between them, both as to present property rights and also as to future interests and property rights, and for that reason and for that purpose said parties agree as follows:

1. That they shall from the date hereof henceforth live separate and apart from each other, and neither shall in anywise molest or interfere with the personal liberty of the other; that neither shall make any demands upon the other in any other way than as may be provided in this agreement.

2. That the husband shall give to the wife a Bill of Sale conveying to the wife any and all right, title, claim and interest he has or may have in and to the following described personal property:

Hotpoint electric stove
Dexter washing machine
Chromium table & 4 chairs
Coronado radio
GE refrigerator
Electrolux vacuum cleaner
Seth Parker clock
Various clothings, linens & household items
One 1948 Oldsmobile, subject to a loan of $300.00 with the Pacific Finance Corporation.

3. That the husband shall retain and keep as his sole and separate property the following:

Power saw
All Carpenter tools & wrenches
Hip boots
Winchester 12-ga pump shotgun Fishing tackle
Telescope Fly rod.

4. It is agreed that the income, earnings and accumulations of each of the parties hereto shall hereafter be the sole and separate property of the one receiving and having the same, free and clear of all rights, interests and demands of the other party.

5. It is also understood that there is now pending an action of divorce between the parties hereto in the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Payette, and it is agreeable with both parties that this Property Settlement Agreement shall be presented to the Court upon the hearing of this divorce and it shall be asked that this Property Settlement Agreement be approved by the Court; and that the wife has agreed to accept $83.75, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, as complete settlement from the husband for all costs, suit moneys and attorney fees in this action.

6. It is also agreed between these parties that so long as the son Richard Kohts, aged 14 years, is in the care, custody and control of his paternal grandparents, Richard and Anna Kohts of Aurora, Nebraska, no support moneys for his care and custody shall be required to be paid by the husband to the wife.

7. It is also agreed that the former name of the wife may be restored to her by the Court.

8. It is also agreed between both parties hereto that the husband will at this time pay all the debts which are now contracted by both or either party except for a loan of $300.00 from the Pacific Finance Corporation on the 1948 Oldsmobile sedan which has been set aside to the wife as her sole and separate property; and in the event that the husband fails to pay all the debts, the wife is not to be held responsible for the same. It is agreed that any debts which may be accumulated by either party from this time hence shall be the sole and separate debt of the party so acquiring the same and that the other party or his property shall in no wise be responsible for said obligation or obligations.

9. It is further agreed that in case either party shall hereafter request the execution of any reasonable and proper instrument by the other in order to remove question from title to property of the party requesting such instruments, or any other reasonable reason, the one so requesting for such instrument shall with due diligence execute same upon the request of the other party, but all expense thereof shall be paid by the party requesting same, and this provision shall continue in full force and effect.

10. It is also agreed that this agreement is voluntarily entered into by each party, without threat of any kind and without coercion or undue influence or misrepresentation on the part of any one or at all, and with full understanding of all the terms and conditions hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

Richard Thorne Trefren,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

Eva Marion Trefren,

Defendant.

Action No. 2712

Filed and entered
Sept. 19,1949
Lillian Wilson,
Clerk.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 19th day of September, 1949, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant, Eva Marion Trefren, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service of Another Summons upon her in the State of Oregon, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army or navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of service upon said defendant, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of the said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff, as set forth in his complaint herein, are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife as alleged in said complaint and ever since they so ceased to live together have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty in her conduct toward and treatment of the plaintiff as alleged in said complaint, without just cause on the part of the plaintiff; that the acts of the defendant toward the plaintiff caused plaintiff great mental anguish and humiliation as same were intended to do.

That there were born as the issue of said marriage three children, to-wit: Richard Thorne Trefren, Jr., aged 9 years; Timothy Nelson Trefren, aged 5 years, and Donna Reniegh Trefren, aged 3 years; which children have been with the plaintiff since the date of the separation of the parties to this action and are now with him and being taken care of by him; that plaintiff is a proper person to have the custody of said children awarded to him and that he desires to have same so awarded, and that the care, custody and control of said minor children should be so awarded to the plaintiff; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to the plaintiff and defendant herein in the State of Idaho, or elsewhere.

The Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between himself and the said defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff; that the care, custody and control of the minor children of said marriage should be awarded to the plaintiff.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Richard Thorne Trefren, and the defendant, Eva Marion Trefren, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody, control and education of the minor children of the marriage of the parties to this action, to-wit: Richard Thorne Trefren, Jr., Timothy Nelson Trefren and Donna Reniegh Trefren, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said children at any and all reasonable times and places.

The above entitled action came on to be heard at Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, before the Court on the 16th day of September, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by his Attorney, Chas. T. Cotant, and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by an attorney;

Upon said hearing, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant, Zelma Lenore Hatfield, was duly served with summons on the 25th day of September, 1949, as appears on the return of the summons on file herein, and the statutory period of twenty days having elapsed, and a Clerk's default having been duly entered, according to law and the Court having considered the law, and the evidence, and it appearing satisfactorily to the Court that each and all of the material allegations and averments in plaintiff's complaint are true;

Now therefore, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the above named plaintiff is entitled to a divorce upon the grounds stated in his complaint, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant should be dissolved.

It is therefore ORDERED that it be dissolved and that each of them, the plaintiff and the defendant are hereby restored to a single, unmarried state;

It further appearing that there are three children, the issue of the said marriage, who are now residing at Grand Island, Nebraska, it is further ORDERED and DECREED that this Court, subject to the order of the District Court of Paul County, Nebraska, gives the care and custody of the said children, namely, Janyth L. This cause came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 26th day of August, 1949, before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, District Judge, Violet M. Langlitz, plaintiff, appearing in person and by her attorney, Frank L. Stephan, Esquire, and the defendant Albert B. Langlitz having on the 8th day of August, 1949, admitted and accepted service of due and legal process in this action and having in said Acceptance of Service acknowledged that he is not now engaged in the military service of the United States of America, and having refused to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's Complaint on file herein and having consented that his default in said action might be entered forthwith, and the default of said defendant in the premises having been entered according to law, witnesses on the part of the plaintiff were regularly sworn and examined in support of the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint, and it satifactorily appearing to the Court from the evidence in the case that plaintiff and defendant are wife and husband, and that plaintiff is now and for more than four (4) years last past and immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that all of the material averments of the Complaint in said action are sustained by testimony free from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and that matters as alleged in said Complaint and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle plaintiff to a Judgment and Decree of Divorce against the defendant on the grounds of cruelty;

Now, on motion of Frank L. Stephan, Esquire, attorney for plaintiff herein;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That by virtue of the power and authority in this Court vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the marriage existing between Violet M. Langlitz, plaintiff herein, and Albert B. Langlitz, defendant herein, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said plaintiff and the said defendant are, and each of them is, hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations and disabilities thereof, and hereby restored to the status of a single or unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the community property heretofore acquired and now owned by plaintiff and defendant shall be retained by plaintiff and defendant without disturbance or prejudice to the respective rights of either of said parties in and to said property until such time or times as they shall see fit to sell or otherwise dispose of said property, at which time or times they may dispose of said property by appropriate conveyances.

Now on this 2nd day of September, 1949, this matter came on for hearing to the Court. Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., his attorney. The defendant did not appear. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff after which the matter was submitted to the Court for its decision. Upon consideration of the files and of the evidence the Court finds that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true; that The defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant; that the parties hereto have entered into an agreement between themselves and which said agreement is in evidence in this case and now before the Court; that the terms of said agreement are fair and reasonable and should be approved by the Court and that, according to the terms of said agreement, the defendant should receive as and for her share of the community property of the parties hereto the following described property, to-wit: All household goods and furniture now used by the parties in their home, and the real property described as Lot 7 in Block 8 of White and Callahan's Golden Rule Addition to the city of Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls and State of Idaho, according to the official plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the County Recorder of said Twin Falls County, Idaho. The Court further finds that, by the terms of said agreement, the plaintiff is to have as and for his share of the community property of the parties hereto the 1947 model Kaiser automobile owned by the parties hereto, trailer, all guns owned by him, the typewriter, fishing equipment, field glasses, camping equipment, pictures, his clothing and personal effects.

The Court further finds that good and sufficient service of Summons was had on the defendant; that the defendant has wholly failed to appear herein although the time for so doing has expired and that the defendant is in default and that her default has been duly taken and entered against her by the Coerk of this Court.

WHEREFORE, It is Decreed by the Court:

1. That the plaintiff be and he hereby is divorced from the defendant.

2. That the property settlement agreement between the parties hereto and in evidence herein be and the same is hereby approved.

3. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded as and for his share of the community property of the parties hereto the 1947 Kaiser automobile owned by the parties hereto, the trailer, all guns owned by the plaintiff, typewriter, fishing equipment, field glasses, camping equipment, pictures, the clothing and personal effects of the plaintiff.

4. That the defendant have as and for her share of the community property of the parties hereto all household goods and furniture now used by the parties in their present home, and, in addition the real property described as Lot 7 in Block 8 of White and Callahan's Golden Rule Addition to the City of Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, according to the official plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the County Recorder of Twin Falls County, Idaho.

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 9th day of September, 1949, before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, Esquire, and the defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney. The defendant having been duly and regularly served with copy of the complaint and summons herein and the time allowed by law for him to answer or otherwise plead having expired and no appearance or pleading of any kind having been filed by defendant, and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and witnesses in her behalf.

The Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is the owner of Lots One (1), Two (2) and Three (3) in Block Eight (8) of the Townsite of Castleford; also three (3) Guernsey cows, One (1) Guernsey heifer and the household furniture in her possession;

That the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty, as prayed in her complaint and is entitled to have the said property awarded to her as her sole and separate property.

It is therefore adjudged, ordered and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of the said parties restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; and that the property herein above described be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the

WHEREAS, The undersigned, Kenji Bob Joo, of Twin Falls, Idaho, party of the first part, and MARY M. JOO, of Twin Falls, Idaho, the party of the second part, intermarried at Twin Falls, Idaho, on June 15, 1944, and ever since said date have been and now are husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, Unhappy differences have arisen between the parties hereto and an action was commenced by the said party of the second part against the said party of the first part on or about November 15, 1948, for a divorce and a division of their property interests, together with alimony and monthly support and maintenance money for the two minor children of said parties, namely, Donna Rae Joo, a daughter, born October 5, 1945, and Martha Masaye Joo, a daughter, born October 12, 1947; and

WHEREAS, The parties hereto have agreed upon and desire to carry into effect a settlement of all of their property rights;

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 20th day of September, 1949, by and between KENJI BOB JOO, the party of the first part, and MARY M. JOO, the party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

That for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) by each of the parties hereto to the other in hand paid, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and other good and valuable considerations, and the terms, provisions, agreements and covenants hereinafter set out to be performed by the parties hereto, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

1.-The party of the second part hereby agrees to make, execute and deliver to the party of the first part appropriate conveyances conveying to the party of the first part the following described real property situate in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Northwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter (NW¼ NW¼) of Section Thirty-two (32), Township Nine (9) South, Range Seventeen (17), E. B. M., and all machinery, farming equipment, implements and tools, one motor vehicle, together with all war savings bonds, savings account standing in the name of party of the second part, checking account standing in name of party of the first part, all crops, one souvenir gun, livestock and all household furniture and equipment save and except such items as are set out on Exhibit A hereto attached and by reference thereto made a part hereof. That by said conveyances the party of the second part shall make and constitute the above described property the sole and separate property of the party of the first part, free and clear of any and all claim or claims on the part of said party of the second part.

2.-Party of the second part hereby agrees to make, execute and deliver to party of the first part such assignments and releases as may be appropriate for transferring and setting over to the party of the first part any and all insurance which may be owned by the party of the first part.

3.-The party of the first part hereby agrees to make, execute and deliver to the party of the second part appropriate conveyances transferring, conveying and setting over to the party of the second part all of the personal property set out and described on Exhibit A hereto attached, and said conveyances shall be so made as to make and constitute all of the personal property set out and described in said Exhibit A the sole and separate property and estate of the party of the second part, free and clear of any and all community or other claims on the part of the party of the first part.

4.-It is further understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that the party of the first part shall pay to the party of the second part the sum of One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars ($125.00) on the 27th day of September, 1949. It is further agreed that the party of the first part shall pay and deliver to the party of the second part in lieu of alimony the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) within thirty (30) days from the date hereof as her share and interest in the property accumulations which the parties hereto have effected since their marriage, and that beginning on October 27, 1949, the party of the first part shall pay and deliver to the party of the second part the sum of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) for the care, maintenance and support of the two minor children hereinabove named, and that a like sum shall be paid by the party of the first part for the care, maintehance and support of said children on the 27th day of each month thereafter until the oldest of said children shall have attained the age of eighteen (18) years, whereupon said monthly payments shall be reduced to Thirty-seven and 50/100 Dollars ($37.50) and monthly payments in the amount of $37.50 shall be thereafter made by party of the first part to party of the second part for the care, maintenance and support of the youngest of said children until she shall have attained the age of eighteen (18) years.

It is agreed by and between the parties hereto that in the event a divorce is granted to the party of the second part in the action now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Twin Falls, the Court may and shall retain jurisdiction over the question of support money to be paid by the party of the first part to the party of the second part for the care, maintenance and support of said minor children, and it is specifically understood that this Property Settlement Agreement shall not be regarded as a bar to the retention and exercise of such jurisdiction.

It is understood and agreed that in the event a Decree of Divorce is entered in the case now pending between the parties hereto, the party of the second part shall be awarded the custody of said minor children, and the Decree of Divorce shall so provide, it being understood and agreed, however, that party of the first part shall have the right to visit said children at reasonable times, but the party of the first part shall give the party of the second part reasonable notice of his intended visits prior to making such visits.

It is agreed by and between the parties hereto that in the event the action now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Twin Falls, hereinabove referred to, is prosecuted to final judgment, a copy of this Property Settlement Agreement shall be submitted to the Court for his consideration and approval, and that a copy hereof may be attached to and made a part of any Decree of Divorce that may be made, given and entered in said case.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first hereinabove written.

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on the _____ day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorneys, Rayborn & Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of Summons and Complaint in said action has been made upon the defendant; and that the defendant has failed and refused to appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint, and the time allowed by law to the defendant for answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired and the default of the said defendant having been heretofore duly entered; and evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of his complaint, and the matter having been fully submitted to the Court for decision. The Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant.

NOW THEREFORE, On Motion of Rayborn & Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED,

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved, and the parties forever freed from the obligations thereof.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 23rd day of September, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant made no appearance. It appears to the Court, from the files and records herein, that the defendant made an appearance by his attorney, W. L. Dunn, who filed a general demurrer to plaintiff's complaint herein; that said demurrer came on for hearing on the 9th day of September, 1949, and that defendant's attorney withdrew said demurrer and asked and was granted ten days within which to answer; it appearing further that defendant did not answer within said ten day period, or at all, and that on the 21st day of September, 1949, the Clerk of this Court entered the default of the defendant for failure to answer; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff had been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 27th day of December, 1947, and are now wife and husband; that there is no property belonging to the community consisting of plaintiff and defendant; that there is one child born of said marriage, namely, Douglas Wayne Woodson, aged twenty months; that said child is in plaintiff's custody, and that she is a fit and proper person to have the custody of said child; that defendant has at times made threats of violence against plaintiff, and that he will take said child from her by force and violence; that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering; that defendant is employed at good wages, and is ablw to pay $40.00 a month for the support of said minor child, and to pay plaintiff's attorney fee in the sum of $100.00.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that the custody of their minor child should be awarded to plaintiff; that defendant should be required to pay plaintiff the sum of $40.00 a month for the support of said minor child, and to pay her attorney fee in the sum of $100.00.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved, and that each of said parties be restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the custody of the minor child of said marriage, Douglas Wayne Woodson, be and it hereby is awarded to the plaintiff; that the defendant be and he hereby is ordered to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $40.00 a month for the support of said child during its minority, or until the further order of this Court, at the rate of $10.00 on Monday of each week, commencing September 26th, 1949; that defendant be and he hereby is ordered to pay to plaintiff's attorney, J. H. Barnes, the sum of $10.00 on Monday of each week, commencing September 26th, 1949, for a period of eight weeks; that defendant be and he hereby is restrained from in any manner interfering with plaintiff's custody of said minor child.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Entered SEP 23 1949

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 23rd day of September, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant made no appearance. It is shown to the Court that, upon proper affidavit and order, service of the summons in this action was had on the defendant by publication; that defendant has not at any time made any appearance herein, and that on the 16th day of September, 1949, the Clerk of this Court entered the default of defendant for failure to appear and plead to plaintiff's complaint; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Jerome, Idaho, on the 4th day of July, 1930, and ever since have been and now are wife and husband; that there is no property belonging to the community consisting of plaintiff and defendant; that there are two children born of said marraige, namely, Barbara Jane McConley, aged eleven years, and Deloris June McConley, aged ten years; that said children are in the custody of plaintiff, and that she is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of said minor children; that during the month of December, 1945, defendant voluntarily separated himself from plaintiff and ever since has lived separate and apart from her; that ever since said departure of defendant, his wherebouts have been to plaintiff absolutely unknown.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of wilful desertion; that the custody of said minor children must be awarded to plaintiff.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved, and that each of said parties be restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the custody of the minor children of said marriage, Barbara Jane McConley and Deloris June McConley be and it hereby is awarded to plaintiff.

Now on this 23rd day of September, 1949, this matter came on for hearing to the Court. Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., her attorney. The defendant did not appear. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff after which the matter was submitted to the Court for its decision.

Upon consideration of the files and of the evidence, the Court finds that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true; that the defendant, Ottice Edmond Spiers has been legally served with summons herein but that said defendant has wholly failed to appear herein although the time for so doing has expired and that by reason thereof said defendant is in default and that the Clerk of this Court has duly taken and entered said defendant's default against him in these proceedings. The Court further finds that since the beginning of this action the minor child of the parties hereto, Ottice Edmond Spiers, Jr., has been returned to the plaintiff by the defendant; that said child is, at the present time, in the custody of the plaintiff and within the jurisdiction of this Court; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody of said child and that the best interests of said child will be best served by giving its custody to the plaintiff herein and that the plaintiff should have the custody of said child awarded to her. The Court further finds that the community property of the parties hereto described in the complaint should be awarded to the plaintiff. The Court further finds that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff and that by reason thereof, the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant.

WHEREFORE, It is Decreed by the Court:

1. That the Plaintiff be and she hereby is divorced from the defendant.

2. That the custody of Ottice Edmond Spiers, Jr., the minor child of the parties hereto, be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

3. That the community property of the parties hereto be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for trial before the above entitled Court, at the Court Room thereof, in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, on the date at the foot hereof. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Ray D. Agee. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to the Court, and it hereby finds, that the defendant, Charles White, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action, and having failed to appear and plead to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, and the time allowed by law for pleading to said complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been made by the defendant, or filed herein, the default of the defendant, Charles White, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted, and the evidence being closed, the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, the Court hereby finds and decides: That, for a long time last past, the defendant has wilfully, wrongfully and intentionally treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty and has inflicted grievous mental suffering upon the plaintiff by his acts and conduct; that, prior to the time of her marriage with the defendant, the plaintiff's name was Violet Gossett and that she is entitled to be restored thereto; and that each and every allegation set forth or contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein is true and correct, and, being now fully advised both in the law and in the premises, the Court hereby makes and enters its judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Violet White, and the defendant, Charles White, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, restored to her former name, to wit, Violet Gossett, and that she be, and she is hereby, allowed, authorized and permitted to resume said name of Violet Gossett.

THIS ACTION Coming on for hearing before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the Judges of this Court at Twin Falls, Idaho, on September 30, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, J. H. Blandford, and it appearing to the Court that service of summons has been duly made upon defendant; that he has waived the twenty-day period within which he may appear and answer plaintiff's complaint and consented to the entry of default against him, and it further appearing to the Court that such default has been duly entered against defendant, and it further appearing that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, namely, that plaintiff and defendant were married at Yuma, Arizona, on April 9, 1935, that no children have been born to plaintiff and defendant, that all property and property rights of the parties hereto have been satisfactorily adjusted between the parties, that plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho and had been for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, that defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and that said acts of cruelty have caused plaintiff grievous mental suffering;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of J. H. Blandford, attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the marriage relation existing between plaintiff and defendant be absolutely dissolved and said parties forever freed from the obligations thereof and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be restored to the status of a single and unmarried person.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open court at Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, Idaho, before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker , judge of said court, at the hour of two o'clock p.m. on the 30th day of September,1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, Beckwith & Langley, and the defendant having been regularly served with process herein and having failed to answer or otherwise plead to the complaint, and the time allowed by law for the appearance of the defendant having expired and his default for failure to plead or appear in said suit having been duly and regularly entered:

Whereupon the Court having heard the evidence offered by the plaintiff and her witnesses and having considered the same and being advised in the premises finds that all of the material allegations of the complaint are true and plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint.

Now therefor it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and each of said parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff is a competent person to have the care, custody and control of the minor child, Pauline Slatter, and said plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of said minor child, Pauline Slatter. The defendant shall have the right to visit with said minor child at all reasonable times and places, The defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor child, the sum of thirty ($30.00) each and every calendar month, beginning with the 15th day of October,1949, and a like sum on the 15th day of each month hereafter, until said child reaches the age of eighteen years, becomes self-supporting, or marries, or until the further order of this Court.

It if further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties, on the 5th day of August,1949, and filed in Court as Plaintiff's Exhibit A, is equitable and fair, and the same is hereby confirmed and approved in full. D E C R E E .

This cause having come on regularly to be heard before the Court, with the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, presiding on the 30th day of September, 1949, at the court room of the above entitled court in Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by his counsel W.L. Dunn, Esq., and the defendant neither appearing in person or by counsel, but having theretofore caused her voluntary appearance and verified waiver to be filed in said cause, whereby she expressley waived the service of summons upon her and the statutory time within which to plead to plaintiff's complaint, submitted herself to the jurisdiction of the above entitled court and consented to a default being entered against her therein and the Clerk's default having been duly entered and the same approved by the Court, the court proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaint, and the matter being finally submitted and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty to the extent of causing plaintiff great and grievous mental and physical suffering and distress and that there are no children the issue of said marriage and no community property, and that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are are fully sustained, Wherefore, NOW, THEREFORE upon motion of W. L. Dunn, counsel for the plaintiff it is Hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 30th day of September, 1949, before Honorable HUGH A. BAKER, District Judge, Hermina Mary Pike, plaintiff, appearing in person and by her attorney, Frank L. Stephan, Esq., and the defendant Floyd L. Pike, having on the 6th day of September, 1949, admitted and accepted service of due and legal process in this action and having in said Acceptance of Service acknowledged that he is not now engaged in the military service of the United States of America, and having refused to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's Complaint on file herein and having consented that his default in said action might be entered forthwith, and the default of said defendant in the premises having been entered according to law, witnesses on the part of the plaintiff were regularly sworn and examined in support of the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court from the evidence in the case that plaintiff and defendant are wife and husband, and that plaintiff is now and for more than two (2) years last past and immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that all of the material averments of the Complaint in said action are sustained by testimony free from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and that matters so alleged in said Complaint and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle plaintiff to a Judgment and Decree of Divorce against the defendant on the grounds of cruelty.

Now, on motion of Frank L. Stephan, Esq., attorney for plaintiff herein;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That by virtue of the power and authority in this Court vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the marriage existing between Hermina Mary Pike, plaintiff herein, and Floyd L. Pike, defendant herein, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said plaintiff and the said defendant are, and each of them is, hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations and disabilities thereof, and hereby restored to the status of a single or unmarried person.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That plaintiff, Hermina Mary Pike, be, and she is hereby given the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, Linda Mae Pike, a daughter, born June 16, 1947.

THIS ACTION coming on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court sitting without a jury on the 30th day of September, 1949, the defendant having acknowledged in writing service of complaint and summons and having in writing waived statutory time within which to appear and plead to plaintiff's complaint and having consented to the entry of his default, the default of the defendant in the premises has been duly entered according to law, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Harry Benoit, Esq., and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing, testimony was introduced in behalf of said plaintiff and in support of her complaint, and the cause having been submitted, the Court having duly considered the law and the evidence, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce upon the grounds of extreme cruelty and that each and all of the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint contained are true;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same is hereby, dissolved, and that said plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be, and they hereby are, released from all obligations thereof.

The above styled cause coming on to be heard before the Court on the twenty fourth day of August, 1949 and the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney Roy E. Smith and the defendant appearing not and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that defendant has heretofore entered her general appearance for all purposes herein, consented that her default herein might be entered by the Clerk of the Court and consented that the above styled matter might at the convenience of the Court be presented and heard and determined by the Court and it further appearing that the default of defendant has been by the Clerk of the Court duly and regularly entered according to law, and witnesses being sworn and evidence submitted in behalf of the plaintiff and the Court having duly considered the same and being fully advised in the premises finds that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and that defendant did on or about July 15, 1947 without reasonable cause therefore, desert and abandon plaintiff, wilfully, and has since said time remained away from plaintiff without reasonable osuse therefor.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and the parties hereto restored to the status of single persons.

DECREE

This matter came on duly and regularly to be heard on the 22nd day of Sept, 1949, upon the complaint of plaintiff, Pete Leguineche appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant having heretofore appeared and filed his demurrer to said complaint, and such demurrer having been over-ruled and that said defendant refused to plead further to the said complaint and did waive any time to so plead and did authorize the entry of default against h im, for such failure to plead and thereupon the default of the said defendant was duly entered according to law, whereupon the said plaintiff introduced evidence, both oral and documentary, in support of her said complaint for divorce, and upon such evidence the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the said defendant and does find that the said defendant has been guilty of having treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, as a result whereof the said plaintiff is entitled to be divorced from the said defendant.

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff and defendant have resided in the State of Idaho for more than six (6) continuous weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action;

The Court further finds that plaintiff and defendant have made and entered into a Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, providing for the settlement between the parties, all of their rights to property, accumulations, support, maintenance, alimony, attorney's fees and rights of whatsoever nature and further providing for the custody, and the support and maintenance of two minor children, to-wit, Allan Lee Huskey, a boy aged eight (8) and Jerry Laverne Huskey, a boy aged five (5), and such agreement was introduced in evidence by the said plaintiff and the Court finds that such agreement and the provisions therein made in all respects are fair, equitable and proper.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and set aside and that the said plaintiff be forever divorced from the said defendant, and each the said plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to the status of a single person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said plaintiff shall have the custody and control of the said minor children, Allan Lee Huskey and Jerry Laverne Huskey, subject, however, to the rights of the said defendant to visit such children and to have such children visit him at all reasonable times and under reasonable circumstances and more particularly during, but not limited to vacations, holidays and week-ends.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said defendant shall pay to the said plaintiff for the support and maintenance of each of the said minor children the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per month until each of said minor children shall have attained the age of eighteen (18) years.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said defendant in accordance with the said Separation and Property Settlement Agreement and in exchange for the sum of Twelve Hundred ($1200.00) Dollars to the said plaintiff paid by the said defendant, shall have and is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property free and clear from any claim or right on the part of the said plaintiff that certain real and personal property, located in the County of Valley, State of Idaho, more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the intersection of the south line of Section 25, Twp. 14 N.R. 3 E.B.M. with the West bank of the North Fork of the Payette River, thence West 665 feet more or less; thence North 33° 02' west parallel to the center line of the Idaho Northern Railway and 50 feet easterly therefrom for a distance of 469 feet more or less; thence east 100 feet at right angles with said center line of said railway to the place of beginning; thence North 9° 19' W. 348.7 feet more or less; thence North 22° 38' E. 710.0 feet more or less; thence South 56° 58' W. 728 feet more or less; thence South 33° 02' W. 719 feet more or less to the place of beginning; excepting 6/100 of an acre off the Northwest corner across which the Oregon Short Line runs and all being in Lots 10 and 11 of Section 25, Twp. 14 N.R. 3 E.B.M. subject to that certain Easement to the Hallack and Howard Lumber Company dated February 2, 1942, recorded in Book 6 of Misc., page 273, records of Valley County, Idaho.
Together with household furniture and effects therein situate, said property is worth the approximate sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00).

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for trial before the court at Boise, Idaho October 3, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney. The defendant appeared by Anderson and Thomas her attorneys.

IT APPEARING TO THE COURT that due and lawful service of summons and complaint has been had and made upon the defendant personally in Ada County, Idaho for the time and in the manner provided by law, that the defendant has appeared herein and answered and cross-complained, and this case has heretofore been regularly set for trial.

THE COURT having received testimony on behalf of plaintiff, plaintiff rested his case; thereupon the defendant declined to offer proof and rested; and the court being fully advised, findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds the plaintiff entitled to decree of divorce; that the minor children, Kathleen Louise and Marcia Ann, should be kept in the care of their mother, the defendant; and that the plaintiff should contribute for their support the sum of $25.00 per month for each child during the respective minorities of said children, and that the plaintiff should have reasonable rights to visit and be visited by the said children,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, William Earl Sivey and the defendant, Catherine Louise Sivey, be and they are absolutely dissolved and the said parties are absolutely divorced.

ARIEL L. CROWLEY
ATTORNEY AT LAW

2. That the children of said marriage, towit, Kathleen Louise Sivey, and Marcia Ann Sivey, be and they are awarded into the custody and keeping of the defendant Catherine Louise Sivey, subject to the right of the plaintiff to visit and be visited by the said children at reasonable times and places.

3. That the plaintiff be and he is required to pay to the defendant for the support of said minor children, the sum of $25.00 per month for each child commencing with the month of October, 1949, and continuing during the respective minorities of the said children.

4. That the property settlement agreement between the parties dated April 20, 1949, be and the same is ratified and confirmed, and included herein by this reference.

DECREE

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open Court this 7th day of October, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff, Gladys N. Wooten; Pasco B. Carter appearing for the plaintiff and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney; that the defendant failed to appear or plead to plaintiff's complaint which was duly and regularly served on him together with a copy of the summons as required by law and his default for not appearing and pleading as aforesaid was ordered entered by the Court; that the plaintiff filed an affidavit stating that the defendant was not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity. Evidence was introduced by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, and the cause submitted to the Court for a decision and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds, concludes, decides and decrees:

1.

That the plaintiff now is, and for more then six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bone fide resident of the State of Idaho.

That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 14th day of August, 1948, and ever since have been and now are, husband and wife. That there are no children born of their marriage and they have no community property.

That for many months lest past said defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, and has inflicted upon her grievous mental suffering, which conduct has impaired plaintiff's happiness and well being and has caused her great worry and misery. That to continue to maintain marital relations with the defendant would serve no useful purpose and by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved upon the ground of defendant's extreme cruelty to the plaintiff, and that the parties are, and each of them is, freed from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, and that the plaintiff and defendant are restored to the status of single persons.

That plaintiff is hereby restored to her former name of Gladys N. Newman.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

THIS CAUSE coming on regularly to be heard on the 7th day of October, 1949, before the Court without a jury, Elam and Burke,, attorneys appearing for said plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and that the time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired, and that the default of said defendant, Harvey F. DeMyer, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered herein.

WHEREUPON evidence, duly corroborated as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and the premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby forever dissolved.

2. That the plaintiff be awarded the care and custody of the six minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Karen DeMyer, Patricia DeMyer, Phyllis DeMyer, Margaret DeMyer, Charles DeMyer, and Joanne DeMyer.

3. That the community property be awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property; said community property consists of the following:

All right, title and interest of plaintiff and defendant in Lot 3, Block 3, Fairview Acres, Subdivision No. 5 in Ada County, Idaho.

Household furniture.

Money deposited with the Continental State Bank, Boise, Idaho, in the name of defendant. Said bank is instructed to deliver said deposit to Elam and Burke, Attorneys for plaintiff.

4. That defendant shall pay to plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor children the sum of $20.00 per week until the youngest child becomes of age.

This cause came regularly on for trial on the 21st day of October, 1949, before the Court without a jury, upon the verified complaint of the plaintiff, E. P. Barnes appearing as attorney for plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person nor by counsel, the default of the defendant having been duly entered for his failure to appear and plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, after having been duly served with summons and complaint herein, as required by law, and having been personally so served with summons and complaint in Ada County, Idaho, whereupon, plaintiff and her corroborating witnesses were called, sworn and examined and oral and documentary evidence introduced in her behalf and the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision, and the Court having fully considered the same and being duly advised in all of the law and the premises, hereby finds and decides that all of the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for therein upon the ground of extreme cruelty; to have the custody of Charles Brooks Luckie, aged seven years and six months, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, awarded to her; and that the defendant be required to pay plaintiff the sum of Thirty-five & no/100 ($35.00) Dollars per month for the support, care, maintenance and education of said minor child during his minority.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

First: That the bonds of matrimony existing between said plaintiff, Minnie Louise Luckie, and the said defendant, Earl M. Luckie, be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby decreed an absolute divorce from the said defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty.

Second: That the custody of Charles Brooks Luckie, aged seven years and six months, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, be and the same is hereby awarded to Minnie Louise Luckie, the plaintiff herein, with the right in said defendant to visit said child at all appropriate and proper times and places.

This cause came on regularly for trial in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, on the 21st day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, Glenn A. Coughlan and the defendant appearing by and through his attorney, E. G. Elliott, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and Ruth Straus, being duly sworn, testified and corroborated plaintiff's testimony with regard to her residence in the State of Idaho, and a written property settlement agreement entered into between the parties having been introduced in evidence, and thereupon the plaintiff rested and the defendant submitted no proof for and in his behalf, the case was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows: That this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the person of the above named plaintiff and of the person of the above named defendant; that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for in her complaint on file herein, and that the plaintiff is entitled to have the full custody and control of the minor child of the parties; and that the defendant is entitled to visit the said minor child at any and all reasonable times; that the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties shall be approved.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED: That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Nellie M. Twiss, and the defendant, A. R. Twiss, be and the same hereby is dissolved, and that the plaintiff and defendant and each of them be and they hereby are, restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED; That the plaintiff have the full, complete and absolute custody and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, Irene Twiss, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit the said minor child at any and all reasonable times.

IT IS ALSO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED: That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the minor child of the parties the following sums in the following manner: The sum of $40.00 per month commencing the 15th day of September, 1949, and a like sum on the 15th day of each month thereafter to and including September 15, 1951, at which time payments to the said Nellie M. Twiss, for the support and maintenance of Irene Twiss, shall be $100.00 per month, beginning October 15, 1951 and continuing thereafter, payable on the 15th day of each and every month until the said Irene Twiss completes her college education, limited to four (4) years after the said Irene Twiss finishes her high school education.

IT IS ALSO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED; That the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties hereto, plaintiff's Exhibit number 1, be and the same is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed and said agreement is incorporated herein and made part hereof by reference

DECREE.

This cause came on regularly for trial by the Court without a Jury on the 28th day of October, 1949, S. D. Fairchild, appearing as attorney for the plaintiff; the defendant not appearing by attorney or at all, and it appearing to the Court from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not now in the military service of the United States of America, and is not a person in such service as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved November 17th 1940, as amended, and commonly known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, his default for failure to appear or plead in said action within the time prescribed by law was duly and regularly entered, he having bee personally served with summons in said action more than twenty days prior to the time of the entering of said default; whereupon the plaintiff and her corroborating witness was duly sworn and examined, and testified in behalf of the plaintiff, and the cause was finally submitted to the Court for consideration and decision, and the Court having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, now hereby finds and decides that all of the allegations in plaintiff's verified complaint contained are true, the same having been established by sufficient competent evidence corroborated as required by law, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree as prayed for in her verified complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony hitherto existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that said parties and each of them be, and hereby are restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, THAT THE PLAINTIFF be and hereby is restored the family name Scott, so that she may hereafter lawfully use the name Pearl Scott.

Done this 28th day of October, 1949.

This cause coming on regularly to be heard before the above entitled Court this 28th day of October, 1949, in the Courtroom of the Courthouse at Boise City, Ada County, State of Idaho, the Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Fred M. Taylor, and the Defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney, and it appearing that the Defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and that the time for his appearance to answer and plead to said Complaint has expired, and due and proper proof having been submitted, showing that the Defendant is not now in the Military Service of the United States of America, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the "Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940", or any amendment to said Act, and that the default of said Defendant has been duly entered herein, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence from which the Court finds as follows:

That the allegations contained in Plaintiff's Complaint are sustained by the evidence, and the matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the Plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for, and as herein provided.

WHEREFORE, All and singular the law and the premises being by the Court here understood and fully considered, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff, Dorothy E. Manning, and the Defendant, Melvyn E. Manning, be, and the same is hereby, dissolved, and that the said parties are, and each of them is, freed and absolutely relieved from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, and that the Plaintiff and Defendant are, and each of them is, restored to the status of a single person.

That the Plaintiff be, and she is hereby, awarded the care and custody of the minor child of the parties hereto, namely, Virginia Raye Manning, subject to the right of the Defendant to visit and be visited by said child at reasonable times and places and the right of the Defendant to have said child visit and be with him during three months of the school vacation period each summer.

That the Defendant be, and he is hereby, required to pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $30.00 per month for the support, maintenance and education of said minor child, Virginia Raye Manning, commencing with the month of November, 1949.

Done and dated in open Court at Boise, Idaho, this 28th day of October, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the Court at Boise, Idaho, October 28, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his witness and attorney, and no person appearing for or on behalf of the defendant.

It appearing to the court that due and lawful service of summons and complaint has been had and made herein for the time and in the manner provided by law, that the defendant has made no appearance whatever herein within the time limited by law; that the defendant is in no military service, and order establishing that no cause of military service exists herein precluding entry of default has heretofore been entered herein, and the default of the defendant having been duly entered,

Upon motion of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to reception of testimony on plaintiff's behalf, and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived,

THE COURT FINDS generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds the plaintiff entitled to decree of divorce.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Billie Torbert and the defendant Della Torbert be and they are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the parties hereto are absolutely divorced hereby.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this 1st day of October, 1949, before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, Judge of the above entitled court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, P. A. Mc Dermott, and the defendant neither appearing in person nor by counsel, and it appearing that the defendant was duly and regularly served with summons and complaint in this action, according to law, and that the defendant failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein;

Whereupon evidence was offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, from which it appears that the allegations of said complaint are true, and said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

JOHN DRODEN,)
Defendant.)

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 7th day of October, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That all of the community property of plaintiff and defendant be, and it is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, and the defendant has no further right, title or interest in or to the same, said property is described as follows:

One Admiral Console radio-phonograph combination
One set Stell cabinets
One set Silverware
One 1937 Tudor Pontiac

3. That the following separate property of plaintiff be and it is hereby awarded to her asher sole and separate property, and that the defendant shall have no right, title, or interest in or to the same, said property, being as follows:

REAL PROPERTY:

Starting on the Southwest corner of Lot 11, Block 160 in the City of Pocatello; thence 85 feet along the West end of Lots 11 and 12, and 25 feet of Lot 13, parallel with Ninth Avenue; thence turn at a right angle in a Northeasterly direction on Lot 13, 60 feet; thence turn at a right angle 85 feet in a Southeasterly direction across Lots 13, 12 and 11, then turn at a right angle in a Southwesterly direction 60 feet paralleled with Wyeth Street, back to the point of beginning, containing 5100 square feet, according to the official survey as returned by Surveyor of the General Land Office.

PERSONAL PROPERTY:

One living room set, one bed, two chest of drawers, set bunk beds, 3 end tables, 1 electric iron, and one toaster, 1 electric range & 1 electric refrigerator.

4. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay all outstanding community debts now due and owing, in the amount of approximately $1100.00.

5. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff or to her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho, the sum of $100.00 as attorneys fees for the prosecution of this action, and the further sum of $20.00 costs incurred in this action; said sums to be paid forthwith.

DECREE

This cause came duly on for trial before the Court in the Bannock County Court House in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 8th day of October, 1949, at 11:00 A. M. of said day, The plaintiff and the cross-defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, and the defendant and cross-complainant appearing in person, together with one corroborating witness, and together with her attorney, H. J. Swanson of Pocatello, Idaho. It appearing to this Court from the files, records, and proceedings had herein that this cause is at issue on the answer of the defendant to the plaintiff's complaint, and also that there is a cross-complaint on file herein which has been served according to law upon the plaintiff and cross-defendant; that the time within which the plaintiff and cross-defendant could answer the said cross-complaint has expired and that a Clerk's Default has been entered against the cross-defendant for his failure to answer the cross-complainant's cross-complaint. That the said cause was duly and regularly set for trial by an order entered, and that the said plaintiff and cross-defendant has had due notice of the time and place of said trial.

That the plaintiff not being present to present any evidence in support of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint, the Court finds that none of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are found to be true except insofar as they are admitted in the defendant's answer, and the Court further holds and finds that the plaintiff is not entitled any relief against the defendant by reason of the allegations contained in the plaintiff's complaint.

That thereupon the defendant and cross-complainant was duly and regularly sworn according to law, and testified in support of all the allegations contained in the defendant's cross-complaint, and also one witness was duly and regularly sworn and testified on behalf of the defendant and cross-complainant, and that from the said proof so introduced by the cross-complainant, and the same having been duly considered by this Court, the Court finds that all of the allegations of the defendant's cross-complaint are found to be true from the evidence heard and introduced herein, and that the cross-complainant is entitled to a divorce from the cross-defendant as prayed for in the cross-complaint. The Court further finds that the plaintiff and cross-defendant having failed to appear at the time and place of trial herein, that findings of fact herein are in all respects considered waived by law.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court having heard the evidence introduced by the cross-complainant in support of her cross-complaint, and having considered all of the files and the records and proceedings had herein, and all being by the Court understood and considered, it is, therefore,

ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the cross-complainant, Elmajean Fay Weeks, and the cross-defendant, Tony Weeks, be, and the same are hereby dissolved and set aside and that the parties hereto to the said proceeding on the cross-complaint be, and each hereby is freed from the duties and obligations thereof, and each is hereby restored to the status of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the automobile described in the cross-complaint, being a 1948 Studebaker Champion, be, and the same hereby is set aside and decreed to be the property of the cross-defendant, Tony Weeks, subject to the mortgage and any encumbrances thereon , but it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that all of the other personal property described in the complaint and in the cross-complaint be, and the same hereby is set aside to the cross-complainant, Elmajean Fay Weeks, to be her sole and separate property, free from any claim thereto, or right, or title therein on the part of the cross-defendant; and that said personal property is described as:

1 Norge Refrigerator
1 Combination Radio and Phonograph
1 Davenport and Chair Set
1 Lot of Cooking utensils and also including many other miscellaneous household goods.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED That the custody of the minor child, Karl Gene Weeks, the issue of the marriage of the parties hereto, one to the other, be, and the same hereby is awarded to the cross-complainant, Elmajean Fay Weeks, subject to the right of the cross-defendant to see and visit said child at all reasonable times, said visits however, to be only in the presence of the cross-complainant, the mother of the said child.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the cross-defendant, Tony Weeks, pay to the cross-complaint herein mentioned, commencing with August 26, 1949, the sum of $25.00 a week, for the support of said minor child and that said weekly payments of $25.00 a week continue to and including the 22nd day of October, 1949; and it is further ordered and decreed that thereafter, and commencing with the 23rd day of October, 1949, that the cross-defendant, Tony Weeks, pay to the cross-complainant, Elmajean Fay Weeks, for the support of said minor child the sum of $50.00 a month to continue until said child is 21 years of age, unless said child becomes self-supporting prior thereto, And until the further order of the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff take nothing by his complaint, and that the said complaint be, and the same hereby is dismissed.

DECREE ENTERED This day of October, 1949.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 8th day of October, 1949; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Carl C. Christensen, and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant has heretofore, to-wit: On the 13th day of September, 1949, been regularly served with process and has failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed herein or otherwise plead thereto, and the full legal time for so doing having expired and no answer, demurrer or other pleading having been filed or served, the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and his witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle him to the relief prayed for in his complaint, and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Carl C. Christensen, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, GENE E. RICKS, and the defendant, ALICE EDNA RICKS, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, GENE E. RICKS be and he hereby is awarded the permanent care, custody and control of Gene E. Ricks, Jr., one of the minor children of the parties to this action, with leave to the defendant to see and visit said minor child at all proper times and places, and that the defendant, ALICE EDNA RICKS be and she hereby is awarded the permanent care, custody and control of Donna Louise Ricks, one of the minor children of the parties to this action, with leave to the plaintiff to see and visit said minor child at all proper times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the sum of $25.00 per month for the care and maintenance of Donna Louise Ricks, the minor child of the parties.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Jesse McDougall, Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 11 day of ~~October~~, 1949; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Carl C. Christensen and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant has heretofore, to-wit: On the 12th day of July, 1949, been regularly served with process and thereafter, the defendant appeared and filed an answer herein and now the defendant has withdrawn said answer and filed his written refusal to plead any further in this case, and the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint, and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Carl C. Christensen, Attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, LAURA L. PARKS, and the defendant, LEONARD A. PARKS, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, LAURA L. PARKS, be and she hereby is awarded the permanent care, custody and control of Luetta Marie Parks and Leonard Lloyd Parks, the minor children of the parties to this action, with leave to the defendant to see and visit said minor children at all proper times and places, but the defendant is ordered not to seek to influence said children against the plaintiff while the children are visiting with him.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That by this decree it is not the intention of the Court to permit the children or either of them, of the parties hereto to be adopted by anyone upon petition of the plaintiff without the written consent of the defendant herein first had and obtained.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, LEONARD A. PARKS shall pay to the plaintiff, LAURA L. PARKS the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month for the care and maintenance of the minor children of the parties. Said payments shall be made in installments of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) each, payable on the first and 15th days of each month starting immediately after the date of this decree. Said payments shall continue to be made at the rate of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) twice each month until further orders of this Court. That the payments in this paragraph provided for constitute the full obligation of the defendant to the plaintiff from and after the date of entry of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, LAURA L. PARKS be and she hereby is awarded all of the community property now in her possession or under her control consisting principally of one trailer house wherein the plaintiff now lives and the household goods and furniture located in and used in connection with her occupancy of said trailer house, all as her sole and separate property, free and clear from any and all claims of the defendant, LEONARD A. PARKS therein or thereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant shall pay, and the defendant is ordered and directed to pay that certain mortgage upon the household furniture of the parties in favor of the Idaho Finance Company, Pocatello, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant shall pay to Carl C. Christensen, the attorney for the plaintiff, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) attorney's fees for services rendered by the plaintiff's counsel in this action, said sum representing an unpaid balance originally made payable on September 15, 1949, by the order for temporary attorney's fees made and entered in this Court on July 20, 1949, and the Court finds that the sum of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) has heretofore been paid by the defendant on said temporary attorney's fees.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this 11th day of October, 1949, before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, Judge of the above entitled court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, P. A. Mc Dermott, and the defendant neither appearing in person nor by counsel, and it appearing that the defendant was duly and regularly served with summons and complaint in this action, according to law, and that the defendant failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein;

Whereupon evidence was offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, from which it appears that the allegations of said complaint are true, and said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

Now, on the motion of P. A. Mc Dermott, Attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the parties freed from all obligations thereof.

This cause came on regularly to be heard this the 11th day of October, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Robert M. Terrell, and no one appearing for or on behalf of the defendant;

AND IT APPEARING TO THE COURT that the defendant has heretofore, on the 30th day of September, 1949, accepted service of Summons upon him and voluntarily entered his appearance in said action, reserving unto himself seven days from the 30th day of September, 1949, within which to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint; and,

IT FURTHER APPEARING TO THE COURT that said defendant did not answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint within the said time reserved, or otherwise, or at all, and his default for failure to answer or otherwise plead in this action having heretofore been entered;

Thereupon the Court proceeded to hear proof in support of plaintiff's Complaint; the plaintiff and Robert M. Terrell were sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and no one was sworn or testified for the defendant and all the proof being in and fully considered by the Court, from which it appears that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint have been established by legal and competent proof and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought in her complaint;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are dissolved and the plaintiff and defendant and each of them freed from all the obligations thereof and that the plaintiff and defendant and each of them be restored to the status of single persons respectively.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 15th day of October, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

IT appearing to the court that no evidence was offered for and on behalf of defendant, and evidence being offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and held for naught and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter having come on to be heard in Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, this 28th day of October, 1949, and the Plaintiff appearing in person and by Louis F. Racine, Jr., his attorney, and the Defendant appearing not, but making default, the Court has proceeded to hear the evidence from which it appears and the Court finds:

That all of the material allegations of the Complaint of Plaintiff are true and sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to it's competence, admissibility and sufficiency; that said Defendant was regularly served with Summons issued in this action and with a copy of the Complaint; that Defendant made no answer or appearance within the time prescribed by law; that the Defendant's default has been duly entered herein;

That as a conclusion of law from the foregoing facts, the Court determines that the Plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the Defendant on the ground of mental cruelty; that the parties hereto have community property consisting of certain furniture and fixtures now in the possession of the Defendant and an equity in a 1941 Chevrolet club-sedan, now in the possession of the Plaintiff; that ALL AND SINGULAR the law and the facts are by this Court understood and fully donsidered;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the Plaintiff, Arthur Deveraux, Jr., and the Defendant, Jimie Deveraux, be and is hereby dissolved on the ground of mental cruelty; that the said parties are, and each of them is free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony, and all of the obligation thereof; that the Plaintiff and the Defendant, and each of them, be and are immediately restored to the status of single persons; that the community property of the parties is awarded as follows: the furniture of the parties to the Defendant and the equity in a 1941 Chevrolet club-sedan to the Plaintiff; that the parties hereto have no children as a result of said marriage; and that the Defendant be restored to her name previous to the marriage, namely that of Jimie Moyer.

RICHARD HAMBLIN, Defendant.

This cause coming on regularly for hearing at Paris, Idaho, this 7th day of September, 1949, before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge of the Fifth Judicial District Court of the State of Idaho, in and for Bear Lake County, at Chambers, and it appearing that the defendant, Richard Hamblin, was duly and regularly served with process by personal service upon him outside the State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and the plaintiff being present in Court and represented by her attorney, G. Staudacher, and the defendant not appearing to contest this action, and the defendant's default having been duly and regularly entered, and the complaint of plaintiff taken as confessed, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence submitted by the plaintiff in support of her allegations contained in her complaint.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceeding the commencement of this action has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, County of Bear Lake; that plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Clearfield, Utah, on the 8th day of December, 1943, and ever since have been, and now are, husband and wife; and that the plaintiff herein is entitled to a divorce upon the ground of extreme cruelty as prayed for in her complaint.

That there is one minor child of said marriage, to-wit: Kathleen Hamblin, age four years, which said child is now in the care and custody of the plaintiff and now is being supported wholly by plaintiff; that plaintiff desires to have awarded to her herein the care, custody, control and education of said minor child; that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have awarded to her the care, custody, control and education of said minor child, and that said minor child should be so awarded herein; and, that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to plaintiff and defendant.

WHEREUPON, The testimony having been concluded, the case was submitted to the Court for final decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved absolutely, and that the said parties and each of them are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff be and is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the said minor child of said marriage, to-wit: Kathleen Hamblin.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant Richard Hamblin shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $_____ Dollars per month for the care, maintenance and education of the said minor child, that is, Kathleen Hamblin.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that this Court does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE that the defendant Richard Hamblin pay to the plaintiff herein the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars for her attorney's fees herein, and the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars for suit money herein.

Done in open Court this 7th day of September, 1949.

SAM DIMICO,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LOUISE DIMICO,

Defendant.

The above entitled matter came on regularly for trial before the court sitting without a jury on the 20th day of September, 1949, at St. Maries, Idaho. Carl M. Buell appeared representing the plaintiff and E. L. Miller appeared representing the defendant and cross complainant. Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law were by the parties waived. Whereupon testimony was submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and no testimony was submitted for and on behalf of the defendant and cross-complainant, and said Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law having been waived,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the plaintiff, Sam Dimico, and the defendant, Louise Dimico, intermarried and were married one to the other on the 10th day of April, 1926, at Kellogg, Idaho, and ever since said time have been and yet are husband and wife.

That for more than forty-two days past and for more than forty two days preceding the commencement of this action, the plaintiff has been and now is a bona fide resident of Benewah County, Idaho.

That there was born the issue of said marriage, four children, one deceased; Donald (18) years of age, Edward, fifteen (15) years of age, and Dale eight (8) years of age.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, be and the same are hereby wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and the plaintiff is granted and given a decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Lots seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven and twelve (7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12) of Block nineteen (19) Third West Addition, Supplemental Plat to the city of St. Maries, be and the same hereby is awarded to the plaintiff, for his sole and separate property and subject to his sole and separate disposition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the minor child, Dale, be and he hereby is awarded to the custody of the plaintiff, who shall be liable for his support, maintenance and education provided, however, that if the defendant procures a suitable home for said child this decree may be modified on application of said defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that in lieu of property awarded to the plaintiff, the said plaintiff shall pay and is hereby orderedto pay the defendant and cross-complainant the sum of $250.00 and her costs in the sum of $6.50, and said defendant is granted a judgment against the plaintiff for said sums.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF BINGHAM

WAYNE WILCOX, :

Plaintiff, :

-vs- : DECREE

GENEVA WILCOX, :

Defendant. :

In this action the above-named defendant, Geneva Wilcox, having been regularly served with process and having appeared herein personally and by her counsel, Gilbert C. St. Clair, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, and submitted herself to the jurisdiction of this Court; and said defendant having thereafter failed and refused to plead to plaintiff's complaint on file herein and having consented that default be entered against her, and the default of said defendant having been heretofore duly entered according to law, said cause came on regularly for hearing this date before the Judge of the above-entitled court, at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, said plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, H. William Furchner, and no appearance being made at said hearing by the defendant, either in person or by counsel; and the Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff, Wayne Wilcox, and of Melvin Wilcox , witness for the plaintiff, and having considered the same and certain documentary evidence, to-wit, a property settlement agreement dated September 16, 1949, made between the parties to said action and filed herein by the plaintiff, said cause was submitted to the Court for consideration and decision; and the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises, finds that each and all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are proved by evidence free from any objection as to its admissibility, relevancy and materiality, and that the facts so proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in his complaint;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Wayne Wilcox, and the defendant, Geneva Wilcox, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and that the said parties be, and they hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the property settlement agreement of the parties dated September 16, 1949, and admitted in evidence herein as Plaintiff's Exhibit "A", be and the same is hereby approved and adopted by this Court, and in accordance therewith the Court finds, adjudges and decrees that the following-described real and personal property be, and the same hereby is awarded to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property, to-wit:

Commencing at a point on the West line of Poplar Street in the City of Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, as established, 360 feet, more or less, West and 152 feet North of the Southeast corner of Lot Three, in Section Three, in Township Three South, of Range Thirty-five, East of the Boise Meridian, in Idaho, and running thence North and along the West line of Poplar Street aforesaid 458.5 feet; thence West at a right angle to said Street 250 feet; thence South parallel with said Poplar Street 458.5 feet; thence East 250 feet to the place of beginning.

Lots Four, Five, Seven, and Nine in Block One of South University Addition to the City of Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, according to the recorded plat thereof.

All right, title and interest of the parties in and to the real property mentioned and described in that certain agreement and option for sale of real estate dated June 7th, 1949, between J. Dewey Robertson and Irene Robertson, husband and wife, parties of the first part, and Wayne Wilcox, party of the second part.

One 1947 model Chevrolet pickup truck with Motor No. EBA-504,612 and Serial No. 5 EPG-5212.

An undivided one-half interest in and to one Cessna airplane and hangar for the same owned by said Wayne Wilcox and Melvin Wilcox.

All funds of the parties on hand as of the date of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the following-described real and personal property be, and the same hereby is awarded to the defendant, as her sole and separate property, to-wit:

> Commencing at the Northwest corner of Lot Four of Younie's Addition to the City of Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, and running thence due East on the Northerly line of Lot Four a distance of 65 feet for the point of beginning; thence continuing along the Northerly line of Lot Four aforementioned a distance of 60 feet; thence at right angles to the last mentioned line a distance of 200 feet; thence at right angles to the last mentioned line a distance of 60 feet; thence due North and at right angles from the last mentioned line a distance of 200 feet to the point of beginning; subject, however, to a certain contract of sale of said premises to Owen W. Peterson, dated April 26th, 1949, upon which there remains an unpaid balance of purchase price of $3,426.22, with interest.
> That certain note and mortgage dated May 1st, 1949, executed by Melvin Wilcox and Lenna Wilcox, husband and wife, to Wayne E. Wilcox for the sum of $6,562.00 bearing interest at five per cent per annum, payable monthly, said note being payable in installments of $100.00 per month on the 1st day of each month commencing May 1st, 1951, and being recorded in Book 78 of Mortgages at page 145, Records of Bingham County, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the Plaintiff, Wayne Wilcox, be, and he hereby is awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor adopted son of the parties, Thomas Wayne Wilcox, subject to the right of defendant to see and visit said child at reasonable times and places; further, that the defendant, Geneva Wilcox, be, and she hereby is awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor adopted daughter of the parties, Marsha Gayle Wilcox, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see and visit said child at reasonable times and places; further, that the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant for the support and maintenance of said Marsha Gayle Wilcox during her minority, or until her sooner marriage, the sum of $40.00 per month, on or before the first day of each month, commencing October 1st, 1949.

JEAN MARIE ALLRED, Plaintiff, vs. JOSEPH DOW ALLRED, Defendant.	JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before Honorable Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, during the May Term, 1949, thereof on this 3rd day of October, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein taken as confessed for failure of the defendant to either appear, plead or answer herein, Earl W. Cory appearing on behalf of the plaintiff as her counsel and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of process was had upon the defendant herein, that the defendant has not pleaded, answered or appeared herein, and that the time for answering to said complaint has expired and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law, the Court proceeded to hear the testimony adduced on behalf of the plaintiff from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are proved by competent evidence free from any exception or objection as to its sufficiency, competency and relevancy and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint and the Court being fully advised in the premises, WHEREUPON IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Jean Marie Allred, and the defendant, Joseph Dow Allred, be and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and said parties are, and each of them is, hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that until further order of the Court herein the custody of the four minor children of said parties, namely, Garry Allred, a boy, age ten years, Joel Allred, a boy, age seven years, Jean Allred, a girl, nearly three years of age, and Beena Allred, a girl, nearly nineteen months of age, be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, she being a fit and proper person to have such custody, with the provision, however, that the said defendant be permitted to visit the children at reasonable times, so long as he is not in default in payments specified in this decree, but that said children shall not be removed by the defendant from the jurisdiction of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, Joseph Dow Allred, pay to the plaintiff for the support, maintenance and education of said minor children, the sum of $ 25.00 per week, payable at end of each week, commencing with the first week of October, 1949, and weekly thereafter, until further order of the Court.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause, coming on regularly to be heard on the 15th day of October, 1949, before the Court without a jury, Paris Martin, counsel for the plaintiff, appearing for said plaintiff, and defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process upon said defendant had, and that time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired, and that the defendant is not within the purview of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and that the default of Ennis Courtney Austin, the defendant, for failing to answer or demur within the time presecribed by law has heretofore been duly entered herein;

Whereupon evidence duly corroborated as required by law, was introduced by plaintiff in which it appears to the Court that the allegations of the plaintiff's cause of action contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by the testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissability and sufficiency, and it further appearing that the matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to judgment and decree in accordance with the complaint, and on the grounds of desertion, and the case being closed, and the law in the premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Albert H. Austin, and the defendant, Ennis Courtney Austin, be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved, and the parties freed from the obligations thereof,

2. The said decree of divorce being based on the grounds of extreme cruelty, the community property of the parties hereto is hereby ordered distributed to, and is hereby decreed to the plaintiff. Said property is described as follows:

A purchasers equity under a contract for the purchase and sale of real estate dated April 8, 1947, between Theodore Hoff and Hannah I. Hoff, as sellers, and Albert Austin, as purchaser, and covering land in Boise County, Idaho, described as follows:

Beginning at a point that lies 436 feet south and 616 feet west of the section corner common to Sections 26, 27, 34 and 35 of Township Seven North of Range Two East, B.M., thence west 100 feet, thence north 208 feet, thence east 100 feet, thence south 208 feet to the point of beginning, all in section 34 of Township Seven North of Range Two East, B.M., containing approximately one-half acre.

GEORGE GREGORY, :

Defendant. :

This matter having come on regularly to be heard this 18 day of October, 1949, before the undersigned District Judge, the plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by her attorney, Wm. S. Hawkins, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, the defendant having admitted and acknowledged service of a true and correct copy of the Complaint and Summons herein on September 30, 1949, and his acceptance of service being on file in the above entitled Court, and having filed herein his answer and waiver of notice of time and place of hearing said action on its merits, and the plaintiff and her witness having been duly and regularly sworn and examined, testified on behalf of herself in support of the allegations of her complaint and corroborative evidence having been submitted as to the residence of said plaintiff, the Court having heard and considered all of the evidence introduced and being fully advised in the premises and having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce upon the ground of Extreme Cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant.

NOW THEREFORE on motion of Wm. S. Hawkins, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS BY THIS COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, GENEVIEVE GREGORY and the defendant GEORGE GREGORY, be, and the same are hereby vacated, dissolved and set aside upon the ground of Extreme Cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff be awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor children Roger George Gregory and Maxine Marie Gregory, subject only to the right of visitation on the part of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the property settlement agreement hereto attached, marked Exhibit A, be, and the same hereby is, allowed, approved and confirmed.

By Vivian B. Shoemaker, Deputy.

The above entitled action came on regularly to be heard and tried in Chambers at Sandpoint, Bonner County, State of Idaho, on the 4th day of October, 1949, at 2:30 O'clock P.M.. Plaintiff appeared in person and represented by her attorney, J. Alfred May. the defendant did not appear in person or by attorney and the defendant having been served with Summons and Complaint in the cause, on the 13th day of September, 1949, and he having failed to appear, demur, or answer, within time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default, his default was heretofore entered; that an affidavit was filed that said defendant was not in military service during the pendency of this action. Whereupon, testimony was submitted on behalf of the plaintiff and the Court having jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of the action and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by reason of Defendant's failure to appear, and the Court being fully advised in the premises:

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff Jane A. Winans, and the defendant, Willard W. Winans, be and the same are hereby wholly and forever dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations, except the support of the minor child, and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the custody of the minor child, namely, Susanne A. Winans, age twelve years, is awarded in accordance with the Agreement attached to the Complaint: That is, the plaintiff is to have the custody of said minor child during the school months of the year, and the defendant the custody during the summer vacation; provided, that while the child is in the custody of the mother she shall not in any way attempt to alienate the affection of the child from her father, and that while the child is in the custody of the father he shall refrain from indulging in any conduct which would tend to alienate the affection of the child from the mother.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the defendant is to pay to the plaintiff, for the support of said minor child, the sum of $50.00 per month, commencing on the first day of October, 1949, and payable on the first day of each and every month during the months of the year that school is in session; that is, $50.00 per month for each and every month said minor child is in the custody of the plaintiff, until said minor child reaches her majority, or until the further order of the Court.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing this the ~~19th~~ 4th day of ~~September~~ October, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not answering has been duly entered in said cause this day.

It appearing to this Court that the said defendant, Willie Ray Owens, has been duly and regularly served with Summons in the above entitled cause according to law, and that more than twenty (20) days have elapsed since said service.

Witnesses were duly sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the Court for its decision and after due deliberation the Court finds;

That the plaintiff has filed her Affidavit as provided under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, in which plaintiff states that the defendant, Willie Ray Owens, is not in the Military Service of the United States, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 7, 1940; that pursuant to said Affidavit, an Order Allowing Default was entered by the Court herein ordering that in case of proper service, default judgment be entered against the said defendant, Willie Ray Owens.

That all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and supported by evidence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Parma, County of Canyon, State of Idaho, on or about the 23rd day of August, 1946, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife;

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than one (1) year last past, preceeding the commencement of this action, a resident of the State of Idaho.

That there are no children the issue of the marriage of said plaintiff and defendant.

That there is no community property of the plaintiff and defendant.

That the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of desertion and wilful neglect as more particularly set forth in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, That the marriage bonds between the plaintiff, Leone Owens, and the defendant, Willie Ray Owens, be and the same are free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the plaintiff's former name be restored to her, to-wit, Leone Kearney.

DECREE

(COPY)

This cause came on regularly for trial in open court this 10th day of October, 1949, Ernest Anderson, appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, Kenneth R. Rupert, and the defendant appearing neither in person or by counsel, and having defaulted in the said action, and the default of the said defendant having been entered of record, and that an Affidavit Relative to the Military Service of the Defendant, having been filed herein, showing that the defendant is not in the military service, as defined by Section 101 (1), Act of Congress, Approved October 17, 1940, whereupon, witness were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause was then submitted to the court for its consideration and decision, and it appearing to the court, after due deliberation thereon, that the said defendant was duly and regularly served with process in this action by personal service on said defendant in the County of Willacy, State of Texas, in accordance with an order of the clerk of this Court; and it also appearing from the evidence introduced that the defendant during the month of February, 1946, at Los Angeles, California, wilfully and without just cause or reason, deserted and abandoned the plaintiff, and ever since that time has, and still continues to wilfully desert and abandon the plaintiff and to live and ~~he has~~ reside separate and apart from the plaintiff, without any sufficient cause or reason whatever, as alleged by the plaintiff's complaint; and it further appearing that there are two children, the issue of the said marriage, namely, Kenneth Raymond Rupert, a son, and Gloria Jean Rupert, a daughter, both of whom are minors, who are now in the custody of the defendant herein, and which the court deems to be to the best interest of the said children that the custody of said children be awarded to the defendant, with the right of the plaintiff to visit with the said children at all reasonable times; and it further appearing that the sum of $40.00 per month is a reasonable sum to be allowed the defendant for the support, education and maintenance of the said minor children; and it also appearing that there is no separate or community property belonging to the said parties or either of them; that findings of fact and conclusions of law have been duly waived,

WHEREFORE, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the marriage now existing between, Kenneth R. Rupert, the plaintiff, and Mary Dale Rupert, the defendant, be, and the same is hereby disolved, and a decree of divorce be awarded to the plaintiff, and that hereafter each of them is freed and absolutely released and relieved of and from the bonds of matrimony and the obligations thereof;

And it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the defendant, Mary Dale Rupert, be awarded the custody of the minor children, Kenneth Raymond Rupert, a son, and Gloria Jean Rupert, a daughter, so long as she shall live, but in the event of her death, prior to the time that the said children, or either of them, shall have reached the age of majority, then the custody of the said children shall be vested in the plaintiff; it is further ordered that the plaintiff contribute $40.00 a month for the care, support, maintenance and education of the said minor children, and that the said sum be sent to the defendant monthly hereafter.

It is further ordered that the plaintiff shall be priviledged to visit the said children at all reasonable times and places hereafter.

HOMER H. EDGINGTON, PLAINTIFF,
VS.
MARY ELIZABETH EDGINGTON, DEFENDANT.
DIVORCE DECREE.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled Court at Burley, Cassia County, state of Idaho, in the Court room thereof, upon this third day of October, 1949. The plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Guy L. Kinney, and the defendant, Mary Elizabeth Edgington, not appearing either in person or by any attorney and it appearing to the Court that the said defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and a copy of the complaint in this action and that twenty days have elapsed since said service was made, and the defendant neither appearing in person or by an attorney or filing any answer or demurrer and default of said defendant, Mary Elizabeth Edgington, in the above entitled case having been duly and regularly entered herein according to the law, whereupon witnesses on the part of plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and the evidence being closed the cause was submitted to the Court for determination and decision.

And the Court being duly advised in the premises find that each and every allegation of the plaintiff's complaint herein is true and correct and that plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and decree of this Court forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant and is further entitled to and absolute decree of divorce herein. That the defendant, Mary Elizabeth Edgington, is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of the minor child, Richard Allen Edgington; and that the plaintiff should pay to the defendant for the support and maintenance of the minor child the sum of forty dollars ($40.00) per month, until the child reaches his majority. That the plaintiff should have the right to visit the child at reasonable times and reasonable hours.

WHEREFORE by reason of the law and the premises on motion of Guy L. Kinney, attorney for the plaintiff, it is hereby ordered adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree as follows: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Homer H. Edgington, and the defendant, Mary Elizabeth Edgington be and the same are hereby wholly and absolutely dissolved, and said parties forever free from the obligations thereof and adecree of absolute divorce is hereby entered herein, in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and it is further ordered that the custody care, and control of the minor child, Richard Allen Edgington, be awarded to the defendant, Mary Elizabeth Edgington, and that the plaintiff is hereby ordered to pay to the defendant for the support and maintenance of the minor child until he reaches his majority, the sum of forty dollars ($40.00) per month. The first payment due and payable on the 15th day of October, 1949. The balance of said monthly payments to become due and payable on the 15th day of each month thereafter, until the child reaches his majority. The plaintiff is given the right to visit the child at reasonable times and hours.

Dated this 3rd day of October, 1949.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in Chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 21st day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Wallace T. Odom had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action in said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance, and upon the second cause of action in said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect of the plaintiff, and upon the third cause of action in said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have dissolved the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant;

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Bernice L. Odom and the defendant Wallace T. Odom be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby divorced from said defendant.

F I L E D
Sep 27, 1949
Lillian M. Campbell,
Clerk

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the court on the 27th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with her attorney, J. P. Reed, and the defendant making no appearance. And it appearing to the court that the defendant in this action was duly and regularly served with summons herein and that he failed to appear herein and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff, and his time for pleading having expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein, after it was duly shown to the court that a due affidavit of military status was filed herein showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America, thereupon the court heard the testimony of the plaintiff in support of her complaint in this action, and also heard testimony in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony; and from the evidence adduced the court now finds that all the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint. Therefore, pursuant to the law and the evidence, the court now renders judgment in this action as follows, to-wit:

It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff, Elizabeth Delaney, and defendant, Marion Delaney, be, and the same are, hereby absolutely dissolved; and plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to their former status as unmarried persons.

It is hereby further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that plaintiff's maiden name of Elizabeth Hunt be, and the same is, hereby restored to plaintiff; and that plaintiff may hereafter assume and use the name, Elizabeth Hunt, as her true and lawful name.

Leave of the Court having first been granted, this matter came on to be heard before the Court at Payette, Idaho, on this 17th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person, and by her attorney, C. H. Higer, and the defendant, having failed to answer, plead, or demur in said action, made no appearance; thereupon, the Court entered defendant's default for failure to answer, plead, or demur to said complaint within the time allowed by law, which said default was based upon plaintiff's affidavit to the effect that the defendant was not in the military service of the United States of America; thereupon, the Court heard the sworn testimony of the plaintiff and her corroborating witness, and from it the Court finds that the defendant has inflicted upon the plaintiff extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiffs' complaint. The Court further finds, as a result thereof, that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty; and the Court further finds that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of Steven Wayne Miller, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant; and the Court further finds that $40.00, is a reasonable sum to allow plaintiff for the support of said child during its minority.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge, and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are, hereby dissolved, and plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced from one another; it is the further judgment of the Court that the care, custody, and control of Steven Wayne

This Cause coming on to be heard before the Court this 11 th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff being present in person and being represented by Everett B. Taylor, her attorney, the defendant being represented by Joseph McFadden his attorney, the following proceedings were had:

It appearing to the Court that a duly verified answer had been filed in the said action by the defendant and that the said action was ready for trial; that the said parties had agreed that the said action should be tried before the Court, without a jury, at this time, and that each of the said parties were ready for trial. The Court after hearing the testimony submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, which was duly corroborated, and the issue of the plaintiff's domicile having been contested, and both sides having rested; the Court having considered the law and the evidence, now finds that all material allegations of the complaint are true and correct; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action has been a resident of Blaine County, State of Idaho, in which County she had her place of residence and domicile, and the Court having rendered its decision herein in writing, consisting of findings of fact and conclusions of law, which said decision is in favor of said plaintiff.

NOW, therefore, in accordance therewith, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the marriage between the plaintiff Rose P. Manne, and the defendant Jack Manne, be dissolved and said parties and each of them is freed and released from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the separation agreement between the parties dated the 22nd day of August, 1949, marked Plaintiff's Exhibit "A", on file in this Court, providing for a settlement of their property rights between the parties and of the claims of each of them against the other, be approved, confirmed and ratified by this Court, and the parties are each hereby ordered and directed to comply with the terms and provisions thereof on his or her part to be performed with the same force and effect as if such terms and provisions were set out in haec verba as a part hereof.

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in chambers in Gooding, Idaho, this 12th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further, and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process in Gooding County, Idaho, and that he had failed to appear or plead to said complaint within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to so appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of desertion and neglect as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person and that the custody of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit, Sandra Ann Wood, be and is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, and the property described in the complaint, to-wit:

CLEO LOUISE BIDWELL,
Plaintiff,

vs.

PAUL BIDWELL,
Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This case came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable D. H. Sutphen, in the above-entitled court at Gooding, Idaho, on the 21st day of October, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Claude Marcus, of Boise, Idaho.

Defendant did not appear, and upon proper showing of service the default of Defendant was ordered entered.

I

That Plaintiff is now and had been for more than six full weeks preceding the filing of this action, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That the Defendant, Paul Bidwell, is not now in the military service of the United States or of any ally in any capacity whatsoever.

III

That Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of the minor children of the marriage of Plaintiff and Defendant, whose names are:

Pauline Louise Bidwell, age 3; and John Paul Bidwell, age 1.

IV

That the separation and property division agreement, a copy of which is marked Exhibit A, filed and introduced herein, is just and equitable and should be approved.

V

That the proof of Plaintiff, free from legal objection, fully establishes the allegations of her complaint as true, and by reason thereof, Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from Defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the above findings, the court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

I

That Plaintiff, Cleo Louis Bidwell, is entitled to, and she is hereby entitled to, a full and absolute decree of divorce from Paul Bidwell upon the ground of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

II

That Plaintiff, Cleo Louise Bidwell, is hereby given the care, custody, and control of the minor children of the parties to this action, namely: subject to the right of Defendant to visit said children at reasonable times, and to have said children visit him for short periods of time provided that the Defendant has a suitable home to which said children may be taken, and pays the transportation of said child or children to his place of residence and also pays the transportation for said child or children back to the place of residence of Plaintiff at the end of such visit.

Pualine Louise Bidwell and John Paul Bidwell,

III

The court does hereby order and by this decree distributes to the Plaintiff as her sole and separate property, the following described real property at Boise, Ada County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Lots Ten (10) and Eleven (11), in Block One (1), Vaughan's Addition to Boise City, Ada County, Idaho,

Together with the appurtenances thereon and the rents, issues, and profits therefrom, and

Together with all of the furniture and household effects of the Plaintiff and Defendant, the major items of which are as follows:

1 Koolerator Refrigerator
1 Bedroom Set in bedroom
Bunk beds and dresser in another bedroom
1 Hotpoint Electric Range
Kitchen table and chairs
1 Dining Room Suite (table and chairs and buffet)
1 Desk
1 Sparks Oil Burner
1 Daveno
2 Chairs in living room
1 Overstuffed chair
1 Mirror over mantile
1 Radio

Miscellaneous tables and lamps
1 Hot Water Heater
1 Washing Machine
Rugs in both dining room and living room

The said Plaintiff to assume any contract unpaid balance on the purchase price of said real or personal property.

IV

It is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the Defendant should pay to the Plaintiff the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars per month for the support and maintenance of each of the above-named minor children until said child reaches his or her majority, said monthly payment to be made by the Defendant to Plaintiff on or before the 10th day of each and every month hereafter.

V

It is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the Defendant shall assume and pay all of the community debts and obligations incurred by the Plaintiff or Defendant prior to the 20th day of August, 1949, including doctor, hospital medical, and nursing bills incurred for the care of the Plaintiff prior to that date.

VI

It is further ordered and decreed that all provisions of the separation and property division agreement, entered into between these parties on August 20, 1949, not specifically herein above decreed, are hereby approved and affirmed.

Dated and signed this 21st day of October, 1949.

Plaintiff,

-vs-

SARAH H. JACOBSON,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a Jury, at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, upon the 27th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Sarah H. Jacobson had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of his complaint and the cause having been submitted; cause of action set out in plaintiff's complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilfull desertion of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action set out in plaintiff's complaint the court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first

And the Court further finds that upon the 20th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff and the defendant made and entered into one certain agreement in writing, in words and figures as follows:

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 20th day of September, 1949, by and between SARAH H. JACOBSON, hereinafter designated as the first party, and LYMAN W. JACOBSON, hereinafter designated as the second party, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are husband and wife and because of certain differences and disagreements which have arisen between them, they are now living separate and apart from each other, And,

WHEREAS, The parties hereto desire to settle and adjust certain of the differences existing between them in connection with the custody of their minor children and the division of their community property, NOW, THEREFORE;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED by and between the parties hereto as follows:

1. That their community property shall be divided between them in the following manner, to-wit:

a. That the first party shall have and the second party hereby conveys to her, to have and to hold the same as her sole and separate property and not in any respect as community property, all household furniture, fixtures and equipment belonging to the parties hereto, a portion of which is still encumbered by Conditional Sale Contracts, and the second party hereby assumes and agrees to pay the balance due for said property at the time the same becomes due and payable, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the first party shall have said property free and clear of all liens and encumbrances. The first party shall have and the second party hereby conveys to her, to have and to hold the same as her sole and separate property and not in any respect as community property, all personal clothing and effects of the first party and all other personal property now in her possession.

b. That the second party shall have and the first party hereby conveys to him, to have and to hold the same as his sole and separate property and not in any respect as community property, all personal clothing, effects and all other personal property now in the possession of the second party.

2. It is understood and agreed that the care, custody and control of DeLoy L. Jacobson, age 15 years, and Parcia Lee Jacobson, age 11 years, minor children of the parties hereto, shall be and the same are hereby awarded to the first party, and that, commencing on or before the 5th day of October, 1949, the second party shall pay to the first party towards the support, maintenance and education of said minor children the sum of $50.00, and shall make a like payment of $50.00 each month thereafter, on or before the 5th day of each and every month, for said purposes, and shall continue to make said monthly payments until the said Parcia Lee Jacobson attains the age of majority. The second party shall have and he is hereby granted the right to visit both of said minor children at all reasonable and proper times and to have said minor children visit him at all reasonable and proper times. Neither of the parties to this agreement shall do or say anything intended or calculated to alienate the affection of either of said minor children from the other party.

3. All property hereafter acquired by either of the parties to this agreement, whether acquired by accumulation, investment or from his or her own labor or in any other way, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear from all claims, interest or control whatsoever of the other party.

4. It is understood and agreed that this agreement is made with the intention and for the purpose of settling forever all of the property rights existing between the parties hereto in regard to all of their property, whether community or separate, and it is agreed that neither of them will make any claim upon the other of any kind or nature whatsoever dependent upon or growing out of their marriage relationship, other than to enforce the terms of this contract. All property belonging to either of the parties hereto, or conveyed to either of them hereunder, may be disposed of by such party by will or deed or any other proper conveyance, free and clear of all claim of the other party. Each of the parties hereto hereby releases the other from all claims, debts and demands of every kind, name or nature whatsoever, except as specifically provided in this agreement, and this agreement is and shall be construed as a full and complete determination and final settlement of all property rights existing between the parties hereto.

5. In the event either of the parties hereto hereafter applies for a divorce, this agreement may be incorporated into and become a part of any decree of divorce which may be entered by the court having jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The said parties have hereunto set their hands the day and year in this agreement first above written.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF GOODING.

RUBY PENNEY TAYLOR, Plaintiff, -vs- KENNETH BOWDITCH TAYLOR, JR., Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the court in the County Court House at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, on the 28th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Edith I. Miller, the attorney of record for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Kenneth Bowditch Taylor, Jr., was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed otherwise to appear and having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of said defendant, Kenneth Bowditch Taylor, Jr., for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of Ruby Penney Taylor and in support of her complaint, and the cause was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing therefrom, the court finds on the issues in the cause in the favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than six weeks next immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been, an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

The court further finds that there has been born as the issue of said marriage one minor child, to wit, a boy, Kenneth Bowditch Taylor, III, whose birth date was the 27th day of January, 1946, and that plaintiff is the fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, Ruby Penney Taylor, and the defendant, Kenneth Bowditch Taylor, Jr., be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, divorced from the defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person;

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF GOODING

MABEL G. BARK,
Plaintiff,
-vs-
FRANCIS H. BARK,
Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED CAUSE Came on to be heard and tried before the above entitled Court in the Courthouse at Gooding, County of Gooding, State of Idaho, on the 28th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff, Mabel G. Bark, appearing in person and by her attorney, Mary B. Edwards, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

AND, UPON SAID HEARING, It satisfactorily appearing to the Court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Francis H. Bark, was personally and duly served with summons herein, attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant in writing having acknowledged service of process and entered his general appearance, and admitted that he is not in the military service of the United States, and having refused to plead further and authorized the entry of default against him for his failure and refusal to plead further, and that the plaintiff by affidavit showed the necessity therefor and moved that the Court waive the twenty-day period for the defendant to plead, enter the default of the defendant, and set the matter down for hearing and permit plaintiff to enter proof on October 28, 1949, and that the above entitled court, upon order duly made and entered, so ordered, and the defendant having failed to further appear and having failedto answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein;

AND, IT APPEARING TO THE COURT From the general appearance entered by the defendant that he is not in the military service of the United States, and the default of the defendant, Francis H. Bark, having been duly entered, The Court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff, Mabel G. Bark, and in support of her said complaint; and the cause having thereupon been submitted, and upon consideration of the said testimony, the Court finds upon the cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant, and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from said defendant;

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That there are no children living as the issue of said marriage;

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That under date of August 8, 1949, the plaintiff and defendant made and entered into a Property Settlement Agreement, which said agreement is hereafter in this Decree set forth, and the Court finds said agreement in all respects just and equitable and that the same should be approved and confirmed by this Court;

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That the maiden name of the plaintiff and the name by which she was known prior to her said marriage to defendant, was Mabel G. Shade;

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That the defendant carries insurance on his life, evidenced by Policy No. 4070677, in The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff, Mabel G. Bark, be, and she hereby is, divorced from the said defendant, Francis H. Bark, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said Property Settlement Agreement by and between the plaintiff and defendant entered into as aforesaid, in words and figures as follows, to wit:

BONNIE JONES,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

HIRAM JONES,

Defendant

J U D G M E N T

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho this 29 day of OCTOBER, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the clerk of the court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in said Complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

It further appeared to the satisfaction of the court that the parties to this action have heretofore entered into a written contract settling all property and other rights involved in this action, copy of which contract is attached hereto, and the court being fuly advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between BONNIE JONES and HIRAM JONES be and the same hereby are dissolved, and each of said parties are hereby restored to the status of a single person; that the contract so entered into between the parties to this action, a copy of which is attached hereto, is hereby ratified and confirmed, and the property and property rights of the parties to this action are hereby awarded and decreed to the respective parties as in said contract specified; that the defendant be, and he is hereby ordered to pay to the plaintiff the total sum of $1200.00 in amounts equal to the payments received for rent on the real estate described in the attached contract, and the plaintiff is hereby given a lien upon the real estate described in the contract attached to secure the payment of the said $1200.00; and that the plaintiff's former name, to-wit, Bonnie Fager, be, and it is hereby restored to her.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT Made and entered into this 7th day of October, 1949, by and between BONNIE JONES, party of the first part, and HIRAM JONES, party of the second part, WITNESSETH THAT:

Whereas, the parties hereto are husband and wife, certain marital difficulties have arisen between them, they have separated and desire to make a property settlement agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, It is hereby mutually Agreed as follows:

-1-

The party of the first part is to receive all of the household goods, household furniture and furnishings and personal property except the personal effects of the party of the second part now located in the home of the parties hereto in Gooding, Idaho, together with all her personal effects and the personal effects of the child of the party of the first part.

The party of the second part is to receive the real estate owned by the parties hereto, more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

> Beginning 280 feet straight south of the southeast corner of Block 150 Woodworth Addition to the City of Gooding, Gooding County, Idaho, as per official plat of said Woodworth Addition on file in the office of the County Recorder of Gooding County, Idaho, running thence west in a straight line parallel with the south line of said Block 150 Woodworth Addition to City of Gooding 130 feet to a point, thence south at right angles 140 feet to a point, thence east at right angles 130 feet to a point, thence north in a straight line 140 feet to the place of beginning.
> (Which tract of land was Lots 21, 22, 23 and 24, Block 153 Woodworth Addition to City of Gooding, Gooding County, Idaho, and east half of alley on west of said lots and north half of street on south of said lots prior to vacation of plat of said portion of said Woodworth Addition to Gooding.)

The party of the first part agrees to execute and deliver to the party of the second part a quitclaim deed to said property.

The party of the second part agrees to pay to the party of the first part the sum of $1500.00, payable as follows: $300.00 in cash, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged; $1200.00 at such times and in such amounts as rent shall be paid for the above described premises, it being understood that the party of the second part shall immediately rent said premises and shall continue to rent said premises until said $1200.00 has been paid. The payment of said $1200.00 by the party of the second part shall be secured by a lien upon said real estate and said real estate shall be subject to the lien of said indebtedness.

The party of the first part hereby waives all claims for alimony, attorney fees and court costs in the pending divorce suit and it is understood and agreed that this is a complete settlement of all rights and claims which either party may have against the other.

DECREE

Entered & Filed
Oct 4,1949
Carl T. Reuter
Clerk of District Court.

The above entitled cause came on duly and regularly for hearing this 4th day of October, 1949, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court, in Chambers, at Lewiston, Idaho. The plaintiff appeared in person, and by her attorney of record. Neither the defendant, nor any person in his behalf appeared.

It appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly and regularly personally served with Summons and Complaint on the 12th day of September, 1949, in Idaho County, Idaho;

And it appearing to the court that the defendant has failed to appear, demur, answer or otherwise plead to said summons and complaint within the time permitted by law, and that the time for such appearance has expired, and that the defendant is in default; and it appearing from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not, and has not been egaged in the armed forces of the United States of America or of her allies since the filing of the complaint herein, and the defendant's default having been duly and regularly entered herein according to law;

And it appearing from evidence presented by and on behalf of the plaintiff that the allegations of the complaint are true, and the court having so found, and the cause having been submitted to the court, and the court being fully advised;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff, Myrtle M. Todhunter, be, and she is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Theodore Todhunter, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between them are hereby forever dissolved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the sole and exclusive custody of Terina Lee Todhunter, minor, subject to the right of Theodore Todhunter to see and visit siad child at all reasonable times. The rights hereby granted the defendant, Theodore Todhunter, are conditioned, however, upon his full and faithful performance of that certain agreement made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and the defendant, and dated September 12, 1949, and particularly with reference to the payment by the defendant to the plaintiff of the sum of $25.00 per month furing the months of December, January, February and March of each year, and the sum of $50.00 per month for the rest of the year, beginning on the 10th day of October, 1949, and continuing until said child shall become of age.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the agreement of September 12, 1949, hereinabove referred to, is a fair, just, and equitable agreement, and the same is by reference made a part hereof as if fully set forth herein.

THIS AGREEMENT, Made this 12th day of September, 1949, between THEODORE TODHUNTER, party of the first part, and MYRTLE M. TODHUNTER, party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

That the parties hereto are husband and wife, and differences have arisen between them which have rendered it impossible for the continuance of that relationship.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants, promises, and agreements hereinafter mentioned and contained, the parties do agree to and with each other as follows:

That they shall live separate and apart from and after this date, and each may choose his or her place of residence, without interference or hindrance from the other;

2.

That Myrtle M. Todhunter shall have the sole custody and care of Terina Lee Todhunter, minor daughter of the parties, who is at this time fourteen months of age; provided, however, that the party of the first part shall have the right to see and visit said child at all reasonable times, so long as he is not in default in performance of this agreement according to the terms and provisions hereof;

3.

That the party of the first part shall pay to the party of the second part for the maintenance, support and education of said minor daughter, the sum of $25.00 per month during the months of December, January, February and March, and the sum of $50.00 per month the rest of the year, from the date hereof until said child shall become of age;

4.

That the party of the first part shall pay all outstanding obligations and debts of the parties hereto, and the community of which they have heretofore belonged as husband and wife; and each promises the other that he or she will not hereafter incur any obligation which may be chargeable to the other, and each promises that he or she will not encumber, nor attempt to encumber, any of the property belonging to the other;

The community property, consisting only of personalty, has been divided between the parties, and each does hereby agree that the division is far, just, and equitable. It is especially agreed and understood that any and all property hereafter acquired by either party, shall become the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same, without claim or right of the other in or to the same, or any part thereof, and each does hereby, for himself and herself, waive all right to inherit from the estate of the other;

6.

Each party does also agree that he or she shall not attempt to coerce the other by any means to resume the relationship of the matrimonial community, but nothing herein contained shall prevent the parties from so doing if they are agreeable to such resumption;

7.

Each party does hereby release the other from any and all claims and obligations, and each does hereby waive any and all rights to claims of support, or otherwise, except as herein provided, but nothing herein contained shall be considered as condonation or excuse for the matters which arose, which made this separation agreement necessary. It is further agreed that in the event that either of the parties hereto shall institute proceedings for divorce, that this agreement may be introduced as evidence therein, and submitted to the court for approval, and upon such approval being had, the same may be made a part of any decree entered in such cause or action.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first hereinabove written.

A G R E E M E N T

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 15th day of August, 1949, between Darrel F. Farris, party of the first part, and Norma Farris, party of the second part,

WITNESSETH:

That the parties hereto are husband and wife and that differences have arisen between them which have rendered the continuance of such relationship, and the fulfullment of the natural and legal obligations of the relationship, impossible.

For the reasons herein expressed, and for and in consideration of the promises, covenants and agreements hereinafter contained, and the performance of the same by the parties, they do hereby agree to and with each other as follows:

That they shall live separate and apart and in such place as he or she may choose to so live, without hindrance or interference by or from the other; that neither shall attempt, by legal process, or otherwise to require the restitution of conjugal rights; and neither shall, fromthis date obligate the other in any manner whatsoever.

It is understood and agreed that the party of the first part shall receive from their community property, and retain the same henceforth as his sole and separate property, the following described real and personal property, to-wit:

REAL PROPERTY

Lot 5 of Block "F", Sherwin's Addition, and Lot 11 of Block "F", in the addenda to Sherwin's Addition, all in the City of Grangeville, Idaho County, Idaho,

PERSONAL PROPERTY

One electric range
One set of flowered pattern dishes

3.

It is understood and agreed that the party of the second part shall receive from their community property, and retain the same henceforth as her sole and separate property, the following described personal property, to-wit:

One dining set of table and chairs,
2 mirrors
One complete matched bedroom set and bedding
One electric refrigerator
One electric washing machine
One swing rocking chair
One foot stool
One card table
One chest of drawers
One child's crib and bedding
Misc. dishes, utensils

It is agreed that the party of the second part shall have sole custody of Steven D. Farris, age two and one-half, provided, however, that the party of the first part shall have the right to visit said child at all reasonable times, and shall have the right to have said child visit him for periods of not longer than one month but at such times as the party of the second part shall agree to; it is further understood that when the child becomes of school age, such visits shall be made during the vacation period; and, it is further understood that the right of first party to have the child for such visits shall be conditional upon the party of the first part having proper facilities and care for such child at such times.

Any property or estate hereafter acquired by the parties shall be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same without claim, right or demand existing in the other, of, in, or to said property, or any portion or interest thereof or therein.

6.

The parties hereby represent to each other, and agree, that the division of property made hereby is fair, equitable and just, and that the same has been carefully considered by them prior to execution; and that they, and each of them, will execute any necessary instruments to give effect hereto and to complete the terms hereof.

7.

The party of the first part promises and agrees to assume and to pay all legal existing community obligations as of this date; and each agrees that he, or she, will do nothing to encumber or obligate the property of the other, or permit any act of his or hers to so do, so far as such conditions may be under his or her control, hereafter.

Each party does hereby release the other from any and all duties and obligations heretofore existing between them, except as set forth in this agreement; and it is understood and agreed that if either party shall hereafter institute proceedings for divorce from the other, this this agreement may be offered and admitted in said cause as evidence of the division of their community interests and of other matters herein stated.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first hereinabove written.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF JEFFERSON

CARL R. WHITE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DELLA WHITE,

Defendant.

FINDINGS OF FACT
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND JUDGMENT

The above-entitled cause came regularaly on for trial on the 28th day of September, 1949, before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, pursuant to agreement of counsel for the parties that said cause be heard in said Bonneville County instead of Jefferson County, the parties appearing in person and by their respective attorneys, A. A. Merrill appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and Geo. L. Barnard of the firm of Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing as attorney for the defendant.

Evidence was thereupon introduced by the parties, and the cause submitted to the Court, and after duly considering the same and the files and records of this cause, the Court finds as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I

That the plaintiff and the defendant were first married to each other on the 28th day of April, 1941, and thereafter, on the 2nd day of July, 1948, in an action then pending before this Court wherein the plaintiff herein was defendant and the defendant herein was plaintiff, said marriage was dissolved by the judgment and decree of this Court.

II

That there are living as the issue of said marriage, two children, Carol Jennette White, aged eight years, and Jack White, aged six years.

III

That during such marriage, the parties acquired certain property, part community property and part separate property, and in said action, pursuant to a stipulation of the parties, it was adjudged and decreed, among other things, that the plaintiff therein should have, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all of the household furniture, fixtures and effects owned by plaintiff and defendant as community property, or by either of them separately, and that the defendant therein should have as his sole and separate property the following described property, to-wit:

Real Property

The northwest quarter of the northwest quarter (NW¼NW¼) of Section fourteen (14), in Township four (4), North of Range Thirty-nine (39), East of the Boise Meridian, in Jefferson County, Idaho, together with water and ditch rights thereto belonging; also the northeast quarter (NE¼) North of the Dry Bed in Section fifteen (15), Township four (4), North of Range thirty-nine (39), East of the Boise Meridian, in Jefferson County, Idaho, together with water and ditch rights thereto belonging.

Personal Property

7 milk cows, 4 calves, 18 chickens, all farm machinery owned by plaintiff and defendant, or either of them, and all real and personal property of every kind and character owned by plaintiff and defendant except the household furniture and effects hereinbefore mentioned, and that, in lieu of plaintiff's interest in the community property of plaintiff and defendant, and in lieu of alimony, the defendant therein should pay to the plaintiff therein, the sum of $1,000.00, payable $500.00 on or before the 1st day of September, 1948, and $500.00 on or before the 15th day of December, 1948, and to secure the payment of which it was adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff therein should have a lien upon the right, title and interest of the defendant in and to the real property so decreed to the defendant therein, and that upon full payment of said sum, the plaintiff therein should make a full release and satisfaction of said lien.

IV

That approximately five or six weeks after the entry of such decree, the parties were remarried to each other, such remarriage taking place on or about the 16th day of August, 1948.

V

That no part of the $1,000.00 adjudged to be paid the defendant cross-complainant herein was ever paid.

VI

That the evidence in this cause is insufficient to sustain the allegations of defendant's cross-complaint to the effect that the parties mutually agreed their separate properties as fixed and determined in said decree became the community property of both, and the status of such property remains the same as it was fixed and determined by said decree.

VII

That the only community property accumulated or acquired since the remarriage of the parties is the crops now growing and produced in the 1949 season, the value of which is as yet undetermined.

VIII

That the defendant Della White is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties.

IX

That the plaintiff is earning and capable of earning an income sufficient to contribute to the support, education and maintenance of the minor children of the parties, and that the sum of $30.00 per month for each child, beginning October 10, 1949, is a reasonable amount to be allowed defendant cross-complainant for their support, education and maintenance, under the financial circumstances of the parties.

X

That the evidence does not sustain the allegations of cruelty set forth in plaintiff's complaint.

XI

That the evidence sustains the allegations of cruelty set forth in defendant's cross-complaint, and the plaintiff has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the defendant as in said cross-complaint alleged.

XII

That the total sum of $150.00 is a reasonable amount to be allowed defendant cross-complainant for her attorney's services herein, to be paid by the plaintiff, in addition to her actual costs and disbursements herein.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

As conclusions of law, the Court finds that plaintiff is not entitled to any relief as prayed for in his complaint herein, and that the defendant cross-complainant is entitled to the judgment and decree of this Court, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be dissolved, and that defendant cross-complainant be awarded an absolute divorce from the plaintiff, in all things dissolving the marriage relation heretofore existing between the parties and restoring the parties to the status of single persons.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties be awarded to the defendant cross-complainant, with the privilege to the plaintiff to visit with them at reasonable times and places, and to take them on short vacations, not to exceed two whole days, except as may otherwise be agreed to by the defendant cross-complainant, provided plaintiff be not in default in any manner in the payments herein provided to be made by him for the support of said children.

3. That the plaintiff pay to the defendant cross-complainant as and for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Carol White, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month, the first payment to be made on or before October 15, 1949, and continuing until said child reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of the Court in the premises, and that said plaintiff pay to the defendant cross-complainant as and for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Jack White, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month, the first payment to be made on or before October 15, 1949, and continuing until said child reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

4. That the defendant shall have, as and for her separate property, and for her separate use and benefit, all of the household furniture, fixtures, and effects, owned by plaintiff and defendant as community property, or by either of them separately, and as determined and adjudged in the said decree of this Court made and entered on the 2nd day of July, 1948, more particularly described as follows:

> General Electric Refrigerator, 3 bed springs, and mattresses, Speed Queen Washing Machine, dining room table and chairs, davenport, pictures, dishes, cooking utensils, Majestic coal range, bedroom set, of bed, vanity and chest of drawers, and all miscellaneous items of household furniture.

5. That the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant cross-complainant one-half of the net value of all crops now growing and produced on all lands operated by him during the 1949 season, as and for defendant cross-complainant's interest in community property acquired since the last marriage of the parties, plaintiff to keep an accurate account of said crops and of the deduction for necessary expenses of growing, harvesting and marketing the same, accounting for all amounts fed to plaintiff's live stock, and making settlement for wheat and hay within fifteen days from the entry of judgment herein, and for potatoes when same are harvested and sold.

6. That plaintiff shall pay to the defendant cross-complainant the $1,000.00 adjudged to be paid to her under the prior judgment of this Court entered July 2, 1948, with interest from the dates payments became due as in said judgment specified, to-wit, on $500.00 from September 1, 1948, and on $500.00 from December 15, 1948, at the rate of six per cent per annum until paid, and upon full payment thereof, defendant shall execute and deliver to plaintiff a full release of the lien of said judgment of July 2, 1948.

7. That the plaintiff have as his sole and separate property, all of the property adjudged and set apart to him under said judgment of July 2, 1948, and any and all other property, real or personal, acquired since said judgment, except such part thereof as is awarded herein to the defendant cross-complainant.

8. That the Court specifically reserves the right to amend this decree with respect to the allowance of support at any future time, for cause shown, but that no other or further allowance for support be made at this time.

9. That plaintiff pay to defendant as and for her attorney's fees herein a total of $150.00, and her actual costs herein.

JUDGMENT

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Carl R. White, and the defendant, Della White, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and defendant cross-complainant, Della White, is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the plaintiff, in all things dissolving the marriage relation heretofore existing between the parties, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, Carol Jennette White and Jack White, be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the defendant cross-complainant, Della White, with privilege to the plaintiff to visit them at reasonable times and places, and to take them, or either of them, on short vacations, not to exceed two whole days, except as may otherwise be agreed to by the defendant cross-complainant, provided that such right of visitation shall be conditioned upon plaintiff not being in default in any manner in the payments hereinafter adjudged for the support, maintenance and education of said children.

3. That the plaintiff pay to the defendant cross-complainant as and for the support, education and maintenance of the minor child, Carol White, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month, the first payment to be made on or before October 15, 1949, and continuing until said child reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of the Court in the premises, and that said plaintiff pay to the defendant cross-complainant as and for the support, education and maintenance of the minor child, Jack White, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month, the first payment to be made on or before October 15, 1949, and continuing until said child reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

4. That the defendant cross-complainant have, and she is hereby awarded, as and for her separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all of the household furniture, fixtures, and effects, owned by the parties as community property or by either of them separately, and as was adjudged and decreed as her separate property in the decree of this Court entered on the 2nd day of July, 1948 in the prior action between the parties, which property so adjudged to the defendant cross-complainant is more particularly described as follows:

> General Electric Refrigerator, 3 bed springs and mattresses, Speed Queen washing machine, dining room table and chairs, davenport, pictures, dishes, cooking utensils, Majestic coal range, bedroom set of bed, springs, vanity and chest of drawers, and all miscellaneous items of household furniture.

5. That the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant cross-complainant one-half of the net value of all crops now growing and produced on any lands operated by him during the 1949 season, as and for defendant cross-complainant's interest in community property acquired since the last marriage of the parties, plaintiff to keep an accurate account of said crops and of the deductions of and for necessary expenses of growing, harvesting and marketing the same, and accounting to defendant for all amounts fed to plaintiff's live-stock, and making settlement for wheat and hay within fifteen days from the entry of judgment herein, and for potatoes when and as the same are harvested and sold.

6. That the plaintiff pay to the defendant cross-complainant the One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) adjudged to be paid to her under the said judgment of July 2nd, 1948 in the prior action between the parties, with interest from the due dates of the payments to be made thereon as in said judgment specified, until paid, at the rate of six per cent per annum, to-wit, on $500.00 from September 1, 1948 and on $500.00 from December 1, 1948, and upon payment thereof, defendant cross-complainant shall execute and deliver to the plaintiff a full and proper release and satisfaction of the lien of said judgment of July 2, 1948.

7. That the plaintiff shall have as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, all of the property adjudged and set apart to him as his separate property under the terms and conditions of said judgment of July 2nd, 1948, remaining in his possession at the present time, and any and all other property, real or personal, acquired since said judgment, except the property herein adjudged to the defendant cross-complainant, subject to encumbrances of record, a more particular description of the property awarded to the plaintiff being as follows:

Real Property

The northwest quarter of the northwest quarter (NW¼NW¼) of Section fourteen (14), in Township four (4), North, Range thirty-nine (39), East of the Boise Meridian, in Jefferson County, Idaho, together with the water and ditch rights thereto belonging;

Also the northeast quarter (NE¼) north of the Dry Bed in section fifteen (15), Township four (4), North of Range thirty-nine (39), East of the Boise Meridian, in Jefferson County, Idaho, together with water and ditch rights thereto belonging.

Personal Property

All live stock, all farm machinery, one-half of the 1949 crops raised on all lands operated by plaintiff, and all other real or personal property of every kind and character now owned by plaintiff and defendant except the property herein awarded to the defendant cross-complainant.

8. That the plaintiff pay to the defendant cross-complainant as and for her attorney's fees herein the total sum of $150.00, less the sum of $100.00 heretofore paid thereon pursuant to the order of the Court herein, and in addition thereto, plaintiff shall pay to the defendant her actual costs incurred herein, allowed in the sum of $32.50.

PHRONIA WILSON Plaintiff -vs- WESLEY WILSON Defendant	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause, by agreement of the respective parties, coming on regularly to be heard this 14th day of October, 1949, at Chambers of said Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of said Court, the plaintiff appearing by T. Harold Lee, her attorney, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, and it appearing that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process, and the default of the defendant has been heretofore duly entered herein, and it appearing that the said defendant has filed herein an appearance submitting himself to the jurisdiction of the Court, refusing to plead further in said cause, consenting that default be entered against him, consenting to an immediate hearing by this Court without further notice to him either in term time, or vacation, in open court, or at chambers, and waiving the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and it further appearing that the parties hereto have entered into and filed herein a Stipulation with respect to the matter of the payment of alimony, costs of suit and attorneys fees; and it appearing that said Stipulation is in all respects just and equitable, the said matter was finally heard and submitted to the Court upon the plaintiff's verified Complaint and the evidence submitted on behalf of the plaintiff by the following witnesses: Phronia Wilson and Irene Richins from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by the testimony, free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency; that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

That the plaintiff was a resident of the County of Jefferson, State of Idaho at the time the suit was filed and was a resident of the State of Idaho and County of Jefferson for a period of more than six full weeks immediately prior thereto, and on motion of T. Harold Lee, counsel for the plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the Statutes in such cases made and provided, does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage between the said plaintiff, Phronia Wilson and the defendant, Wesley Wilson, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are and each of them is freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the care, custody, control and education of the minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant, Dennis D. Wilson, be and the same is, hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Phronia Wilson, subject to the right of the defendant, Wesley Wilson, to visitsaid minor child at all reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the above named defendant, Wesley Wilson, will pay to the plaintiff, Phronia Wilson, the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars upon the entry of this Decree of Divorce. It being expressly and mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto that the above named plaintiff hereby waives any and all further demands against said defendant for alimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars per month for the support and maintenance of the minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant; that said sum be paid on the 15th day of each and every month, commencing with the 15th day of November, 1949, and continuing monthly thereafter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of Seventy-five ($75.00)

Dollars as and for attorney's fees, and costs in the sum of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars.

Dated this 14th day of October, 1949.

Defendant.

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing and final determination in Open Court, at Jerome, in the County of Jerome, State of Idaho, on this 10th. day of September, 1949, in accordance with Stipulation between the Parties hereto, that said matter might be heard on its merits and waiving findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel of record, Richard H. Seeley, and it appearing that both of the Parties hereto are minors; that George Thomas has been heretofore duly and regularly appointed as Guardian Ad Litem of the Plaintiff to represent said Plaintiff in these proceedings and that John E. Turner has been duly and regularly appointed as Guardian Ad Litem to represent the Defendant in said proceedings; and Howard E. Adkins, Attorney at Law, of Shoshone, Idaho, being present in Court as Attorney for said Defendant and his Guardian Ad Litem;

And proof having been submitted by the Plaintiff, free and clear from all objections and exceptions, from which it appears that the Plaintiff is now and for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a resident of the State of Idaho; that Plaintiff and Defendant have entered into a Property Settlement Agreement, an executed copy of which has been admitted herein as Plaintiff's

Exhibit "A"; that there is one minor child as issue of the marriage of the Parties hereto; and that Plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for on the grounds of extreme cruelty;

And the Plaintiff having rested and no evidence having been submitted by or on behalf of the Defendant and the Court having considered the matter;

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Plaintiff and Defendant be, and the same are hereby, forever dissolved and set aside; and that said Parties be, and each of them is, forever released from said bonds and from all of the obligations thereof;

That the Proberty Settlement Agreement, an executed copy of which, has been admitted as evidence herein as Plaintiff's Exhibit "A" be, and the same is hereby, approved and adopted in all respects;

That the Plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the care, custody and control of Teresa Dee Turner, minor child of the Parties hereto;

That pursuant to the provisions of the said Property Settlement Agreement, the Defendant shall pay to Plaintiff's Attorney the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and pay to Plaintiff her Court costs incurred herein in the amount of Sixteen Dollars and Sixty Cents ($16.60) and shall further pay to Plaintiff the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per month for the support of the minor child;

That the sums mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall be paid at the times and in the manner as follows:

Defendant shall pay to Plaintiff the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) on the 10th. day of September, 1949, and the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) on or before the 10th. day of each month thereafter so long as said minor lives and until she reaches her majority or becomes a married woman. The first of said monthly payments shall be applied towards the payment of Attorney's fees as hereinbefore provided and Plaintiff's costs of Court and thereafter for the support of said minor child.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in open Court in the County Courthouse at Jerome, Jerome County, Idaho. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Frank M. Rettig. The defendant entered his written appearance and filed a waiver of his right to have the statutory time to plead to plaintiff's complaint and consented to judgment being entered against him as hereinafter set forth and to his default being entered. And it appearing to the Court that said defendant has been duly and legally served with process and that said service was in all respects regular and that the time allowed by law for answering plaintiff's complaint has expired and that the default of said defendant has been duly entered according to law, which said default is hereby ratified and confirmed.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are supported by competent evidence and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought in her complaint and as consented to by the defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto should be wholly dissolved and plaintiff be granted a decree of absolute divorce, and that the real property of plaintiff, situated in the State of Idaho, hereinafter descirbed, is the separate property of plaintiff, and that the same should be declared and adjudged to be her separate property and awarded to her free and clear of any right, title, claim or interest therein by the defendant; and it further appearing that plaintiff owns as her own sole and separate property the farm machinery hereinafter described and that the same should be set aside to her as her separate property, free and clear of any right, title, claim and interest of the defendant; and it further appearing that the parties have agreed as to division of their community personal property and that the plaintiff should be awarded the household furniture, hereinafter particularly described, and bank account and postal savings account standing in her name, and that the defendant should be awarded crops grown on the above described real property during the year 1949, and should be awarded the bank account and postal savings account standing in his own name; and the Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Jack Meyers, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and each party is hereby released and free from all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff is the owner of, as her sole and separate property, the following described real property situated in Jerome County, State of Idaho, more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

> That part of the East Half of the Southeast Quarter ($E\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty (20), lying North and East of the "L" Lateral of the North Side Canal Company, Limited, as now constructed and operated over and across said land, and comprising about nineteen (19) acres; also that part of the West Half of the Southwest Quarter ($W\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-one (21) lying North of the "L" Lateral of the North Side Canal Company, Limited, and North and West of the "PD6" Ditch of the North Side Pumping Company as now constructed and operated over and across said land and comprising about 42.57 acres, ALL in Township Eight (8) South, Range Seventeen (17) East, Boise Meridian.

And the title thereto is hereby awarded to plaintiff free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant and that plaintiff's title thereto is adjudged to be quieted against all claims, liens, demands or pretentions of the defendant, who is hereby perpetually estopped and enjoined from setting up any claim, right, title or interest therein or thereto, or to any part thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all crops grown on said lands during the year 1949 are awarded to defendant free and clear of and from any and all claims of the plaintiff thereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff is the owner of, as her sole and separate property, the following described personal property, to-wit:

One (1) 1948 Chevrolet Sedan
One (1) Allis Chalmers Combine Harvester
One (1) Allis Chalmers Tractor

Plaintiff,
vs.
Elizabeth Peterson,
Defendant,

107213

DECREE.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in chambers at Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, before the undersigned Judge of the above entitled District Court upon the complaint of plaintiff herein taken as confessed by the defendant. Wayne A. Barclay appeared as counsel for plaintiff and no person appearing as counsel for defendant and the defendant not being present in Court and it appearing to the Court that legal and proper service of summons and complaint had heretofore been mad e upon said defendant; that said defendant is in default and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered, the cause proceeded to trial;

Testimony in behalf of plaintiff was presented and proofs taken herein and the testimony being closed, the matter was submitted to the Court for his decision and the Court being fully advised in the premises and it appearing to the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections and exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency and that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to enable plaintiff to obtain the relief prayed for in his complaint; that plaintiff was a bona fide resident of the state of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that there are presently living, as the issue of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant, two minor children, namely a daughter, Karen

Lee Peterson of the age of four years and a son, Ronnie Peterson of the age of two years; that plaintiff and defendant have acquired, as community property, real estate described as Lot Nine, Block Fifty-four, Jerome Townsite, Jerome County, Idaho, together with certain house-hold goods and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed in his complaint.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage of plaintiff, Arley R. Peterson, and defendant, Elizabeth Peterson, be dissolved and set aside and that the same is hereby dissolved and set aside accordingly and that the parties are and each of them is hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations thereof

That plaintiff be and he is hereby awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely Karen Lee Peterson and Ronnie Peterson. Subject to defendant's right of visitation at reasonable times.

That plaintiff be and he is hereby awarded the community real estate of plaintiff and defendant described as Lot Nine, Block Fifty-four, Jerome Townsite, Jerome County, Idaho, and the personal property mentioned in plaintiff's complaint of file herein.

Dated this 28th day of October, 1949.

BERNICE L. MATTHEWS,
Defendant.

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. Hamilton, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, Robert J. Matthews, and the Defendant, Bernice L. Matthews, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of adultery ~~extreme cruelty~~.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of two minor children, namely NAOMI MATTHEWS and DOUGLAS MATTHEWS be awarded to the Plaintiff; that the care, custody and control of the other minor child, namely ROBERT JAMES MATTHEWS, be awarded to the Defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that all of the community property, real and personal, to-wit:

vs.

THOMAS K. RIPPETOE, JR.,

Defendant.

DECREE

14369

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her Attorney, E. T. KNUDSON, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service within the State of Idaho, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. KNUDSON, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, BARBARA ANN RIPPETOE, and the Defendant, THOMAS K. RIPPETOE, JR., be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor child of these parties, to-wit: a son named THOMAS MICHAEL RIPPETOE, is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff for the maintenance and support of the minor child of these parties the sum of $50.00 per month from this date forward.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Defendant pay to the Plaintiff the additional sum of $120.00 as attorneys fees and suit money allowed herein.

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been ~~expressly~~ waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. Hamilton, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, DOROTHY JEAN RIDGWAY, and the Defendant, ROBERT S. RIDGWAY, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme mental cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor children of these parties, to-wit: ROBERT EDWARD RIDGWAY, DOROTHY LOUISE RIDGWAY and RANDI JEAN RIDGWAY are hereby awarded to the Plaintiff, with reasonable rights of visitation on the part of the Defendant, provided the Defendant is not in default in support payments.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Defendant pay as support for each child the sum of $25 per month until January 1, 1951, and thereafter $50 per month as support for each child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff be awarded the community household furniture free of liens or mortgages.

Done in open Court this 21st day of ~~September~~ October, A.D., 1949.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court this 25th day of October, 1949; plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Elder, Elder & Smith; and the defendant having appeared and filed his Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint and having filed herein a Stipulation authorizing the hearing of this cause at any time without further notice to defendant, and the matter having been set down for hearing; and the defendant is now now and has not been, during the pendency of this action, a member of the armed forces of the United States; and the court having heard the evidence of the plaintiff and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, wherein it is ordered that judgment and decree be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

I

That the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action.

II

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, VIOLA MELBY, and the defendant, OSCAR MELBY, be and the same are hereby wholly and forever dissolved, and the parties are released each from the other and from all matrimonial obligations, and the plaintiff is hereby granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant on grounds of extreme cruelty.

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her Attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service upon the Defendant outside of the State of Idaho in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army, or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, CATHERINE STAGNER and the Defendant VERNON E. STAGNER be and the same hereby are vacated dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff be and she hereby is restored to her maiden name, to-wit: CATHERINE CLYNCH and to the status of an unmarried person.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in Open Court on this 12th day of October, 1949, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having been personally served with summons and complaint and having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the plaintiff having filed an affidavit showing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the default of the defendant having been made and entered by the Clerk of this Court, and the plaintiff having submitted proof in support of the allegations contained in her complaint, and the Court being fully advised, both as to the law and the facts, FINDS:

That the defendant was personally served with summons and complaint in this action at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on September 20, 1949, as appears from the affidavit of service of summons on file herein, and that the defendant is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended;

That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Clarkston, Washington, on August 30, 1936, and ever since have been and now are, husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of the complaint in this action a bona fide resident of Nez Perce County, State of Idaho;

That there has been born as issue of said marriage one child, to-wit: Edith Ellen Thornton, aged 15 months, which child is presently residing with plaintiff's sister in Moscow, Latah County, Idaho;

That plaintiff and defendant have acquired, since their marriage, an equity by virtue of that certain contract dated February 12, 1948, between Roy Floyd, a bachelor, and plaintiff and defendant, in and to the following described real property:

> Lot Six (6), Block Five (5), University Second Addition to the City of Lewiston, Idaho, according to the recorded plat thereof. Nez Perce Co. Idaho
> Together with household furnishings which are being purchased by plaintiff and defendant under contracts to purchase

That the plaintiff needs the house upon the above described real property and the household furnishings in which to make a home for herself and the minor child of the parties to this action; that the plaintiff is unable to finish the payments upon the contracts or obligations of plaintiff and defendant for the purchase of the household furnishings; that the defendant is an able-bodied man, employed at wages in excess of $200.00 per month and is financially able to pay the balance owing on the contracts for said household furnishings; that the plaintiff is able, through part time employment, to make the payments upon the contract for the purchase of the above described real property;

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of Edith Ellen Thornton, the minor child of the parties to this action, awarded to her, with the right in the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and occasions; that the defendant is able to contribute to the support of said minor child and should be required to pay to this plaintiff for the support of said minor child the sum of $25.00 per month;

That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff in that he has continually nagged, criticized, and told this plaintiff on numerous occasions that he does not love her and has encouraged plaintiff to leave him; that the defendant has, on many occasions, remained away from home over night; that all of said acts were caused through no fault of this plaintiff; that said acts were calculated to and did cause this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering;

From the foregoing Findings the Court concludes:

1. That the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of Edith Ellen Thornton, the minor child of the parties to this action should be awarded to this plaintiff, with the right in the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and occasions.

3. That the equity of the parties to this action in and to that certain contract for the purchase of the hereinbefore described real property, and all the household furnishings of the parties to this action be set aside to this plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

4. That the defendant should be ordered to pay the balance remaining due on the contracts of purchase of the household furnishings of the parties to this action.

5. That the defendant should be ordered to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month for the support of Edith Ellen Thornton, the minor child of the parties to this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

RAY E. DURHAM
LAWYER
LEWISTON, IDAHO

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of Edith Ellen Thornton, the minor child of the parties to this action, is hereby awarded to this plaintiff, with the right in the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and occasions.

3. That the equity of the parties to this action in and to that certain contract for the purchase of the hereinbefore described real property and all the household furnishings of the parties to this action be and the same is hereby set aside to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

4. That the defendant is hereby ordered to pay the balance remaining due on the contracts of purchase of the household furnishings of the parties to this action.

5. That the defendant be and he is hereby ordered to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month for the support of Edith Ellen Thornton, the minor child of the parties to this action, which payments shall continue until said minor reaches the age of majority, or until further order of this court.

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in open court before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, on this 13th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, V. R. Clements, and no person or persons appeared for or on behalf of the defendant, Patricia M. Wren. It appeared to the Court that the defendant, Patricia M. Wren, was duly, regularly and personally served with process of Summons and Complaint, in the manner provided by law, pursuant to order of the above entitled Court, and that the said defendant has failed to appear, demur, answer or otherwise plead within the time provided by law, and it appearing to the Court upon reading and filing the affidavit of James A. Wren, the plaintiff in the above entitled action, which said affidavit is filed herein pursuant to the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Acts, from which it is found that the defendant, Patricia M. Wren, is not now in the military service of the United States of America, in accordance with the terms of said acts, and the defendant having been in default, and her default having been duly and regularly entered and filed herein, and this cause having been duly and regularly set for hearing, and evidence, oral and documentary submitted, and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court, and the Court having duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, and finding hereby:

1. That the plaintiff now is and for more than one year last past has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Elk, Washington, August 17, 1941, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

3. That there has been born and is now living as the issue of said marriage one minor child, to-wit: Bonnie Jo Wren, born September 11, 1942, who is now in the custody and under the control of the plaintiff who is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor.

4. That since the marriage of the parties they have accumulated equities in the following described property:

An undivided partnership, one-fifth (1/5) interest in a certain contract, dated November 2, 1947, executed between James F. Wren as party of the first part, and Clifford H. Wren, James A. Wren, Robert M. Wren, Patrick A. Wren, and Thomas F. Wren as parties of the second part, for the purchase of a quantity of real property in Idaho County, State of Idaho

Machinery and equipment now used in connection with the operation of the aforesaid land contract

Grain warehouse at Fenn, Idaho

One 1949 convertible Buick automobile

One 1938 Willys Jeep automobile

Various articles of household furniture and fixtures upon all of which property there is due indebtedness in excess of the approximate sum of $255,000.00.

5. That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff in that for more than one year prior to August 14, 1948, she inflicted a course of extreme, cruel and inhuman treatment upon and toward plaintiff in the particulars alleged in Paragraph V of the complaint, which is hereby referred to and by reference made a part hereof, the same as though specifically set forth herein, which allegations and each of them are hereby found to be true and supported by the evidence.

NOW, THEREFORE, based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, James A. Wren, and the defendant, Patricia M. Wren, be and the same is hereby forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff be and he is hereby awarded and granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, and that the plaintiff and the defendant be and each of them are hereby restored to the status of single and unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff be and he is hereby awarded the absolute care, custody and control of Bonnie Jo Wren, the minor child of the parties, granting unto the defendant the right to visit said child at all reasonable and proper times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that pursuant to the facts found herein all the community property of whatsoever kind and character and wheresoever situated, which is now owned and possessed by either of the parties (except the articles of household furniture, dishes, silverware and personal belongings now in the possession of the defendant) and particularly all of the community right, title, claim, interest, equity and demand of the defendant in and to the following community property of the parties, to-wit:

(a) An undivided one-fifth partnership interest in all of the property owned by that certain partnership composed of Clifford H. Wren, James A. Wren, Robert M. Wren, Patrick A. Wren and Thomas F. Wren, doing business under the firm name and style of Wren Brothers.

(b) That certain written agreement dated November 2, 1947, and executed by and between James F. Wren as party of the first part and Clifford H. Wren, James A. Wren, Robert M. Wren, Patrick A. Wren and Thomas F. Wren as parties of the second part for the purchase of a quantity of real property in Idaho County, State of Idaho, and all the real property described in said contract now owned or to be hereafter acquired by either of the parties hereto under the terms of said contract.

(c) All machinery and equipment now owned by the parties hereto and/or by reason of the partnership interest of the parties in the Wren Brothers partnership hereinbefore referred to, which machinery and equipment is now used in connection with the operation of the land contract referred to in sub-paragraph (b) hereof.

(d) The partnership interest of the parties hereto in the Wren Brothers partnership ownership of that certain leasehold interest in and to those certain portions of Lots Four (4), Five (5) and Six (6) of Block D of the railroad company's right-of-way at Fenn, Idaho, lying southerly of a line drawn parallel with and distant 8'6" southerly, measured at right angles from the center line of the most southerly tract as now constructed over and across said lots, as the same is evidenced by that certain lease made between the Camas Prairie Railroad Company, lessor, and J. A. Wren, lessee, dated October 4, 1947, together with all the privileges, improvements and appurtenances thereunto belonging and the rents, issues and profits thereof, and all machinery and equipment used in connection with the operation of the grain elevator and warehouse located upon the above-described leasehold premises.

(e) One 1949 convertible Buick automobile

(f) One 1938 Willys Jeep automobile

(g) Various articles of household furniture and fixtures now in in possession of plaintiff.

be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, James A. Wren, as his sole and separate property, free and clear of any community right, title, claim, interest, equity and demand therein of the defendant, Patricia M. Wren.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court before the Honorable Leo McCarty at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 13th day of October, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause by publication pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction or by publication; and said Summons having been published on the 24th day of August, 1949, and on each succeeding Wednesday thereafter to and until the 21st day of September, 1949; and twenty days having expired since said service, and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and she being in default and her default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and

The Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant was duly and regularly served by publication in the Lewiston Morning Tribune, by publication of said Summons on August 24, August 31, September 7, September 14, and September 21, 1949, and by mailing of a copy of Summons and Complaint to her last known post office address, being that of Route 1, Tacoma, Washington, within ten days of the first publication of said Summons, as shown herein by Affidavit of Mailing filed on behalf of the plaintiff.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though set out herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Ray C. Boone, and the defendant, Mary E. Boone, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DATED at Lewiston, Idaho, this 13th day of October, 1949.

LEO McCARTY
District Judge

I, PHILIP WEISGERBER, Clerk of the above entitled Court do hereby certify the foregoing to be a full, true and correct copy of the original Decree of Divorce in the above entitled cause as the same now appears on file and of record in my office.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, judge of the above entitled court, on the 21st day of October, 1949, at Ten o'clock. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, on the 24th day of September, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Lewiston in Nez Perce County, Idaho, on the 24th day of September, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are found by the Court to be true and by reference are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Pearl M. Wilson, and the defendant, James H. Wilson, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Pearl M. Wilson, be, and she hereby is awarded the care, custody, charge and control of the minor children of the parties, namely, Arlene Wilson, James Wilson and Sharon Wilson; and that the defendant, James H. Wilson, be, and he hereby is granted the right to visit said children at reasonable times and at reasonable places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, James H. Wilson, be, and he hereby is ordered to pay to the plaintiff the reasonable sum of Seventy Five ($75.00) Dollars per month support money for the care, maintenance and education of said minor children, commencing on the 1st day of November, 1949, with a like payment of Seventy Five ($75.00) Dollars on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter, until the further order of this Court.

DATED at Lewiston, Idaho, this 21st day of October, 1949.

LEO McCARTY
District Judge

I, PHILIP WEISGERBER, Clerk of the above entitled Court do hereby certify the foregoing to be a full, true and correct copy of the original Decree of Divorce in the above entitled cause as the same now appears on file and of record in my office.

This cause came on duly and regularly for hearing before the above entitled court on the 22nd day of October, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by Cox, Ware & Stellmon, her attorneys of record herein, and the defendant having appeared and filed a demurrer herein, and said demurrer having been overruled and the defendant having refused to further plead herein, and the default of the defendant having been duly and regularly entered by this court, and it appearing that said defendant is not now serving in the Armed Forces of the United States or any related branch thereof, and the cause having come on for hearing upon the complaint of the plaintiff, and witnesses having been called, sworn and examined, and oral and documentary evidence having been heard, submitted and considered, and the court finding that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the defendant, Earl J. Reynolds, has been and is now guilty of extreme cruelty and personal indignities toward plaintiff rendering her life burdensome and causing her great physical and mental pain and anguish and that by reason thereof plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, Premises Considered, the Court renders and enters herein its judgment and decree as follows:

IT IS CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, ADA MARIE REYNOLDS, is now and for more than six (6) weeks prior to the filing of the complaint herein was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, ADA MARIE REYNOLDS, and the defendant, EARL J. REYNOLDS, be and the same are hereby dissolved and plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in Open Court this 17 day of October, 1949, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having been personally served with summons and complaint and having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the plaintiff having filed an affidavit showing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the default of the defendant having been made and entered by the Clerk of this Court, and the plaintiff having submitted proof in support of the allegations contained in her complaint, and the Court being fully advised, both as to the law and the facts, FINDS:

That the defendant was personally served with summons and complaint in this action by the City Marshall of Juliaetta, Idaho, in Latah County, Idaho, on the 29th day of September, 1949, as appears from the affidavit of service of summons on file herein, and that the defendant is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended;

Decree Vol. 10 Page 17

That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Galax, Virginia, on April 20, 1917, and ever since have been and now are, husband and wife;

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than 25 years last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That there have been born as issue of said marriage two children, both of whom are of legal age and are married;

That the plaintiff and defendant in February, 1947, sold and disposed of all real property and other personal property which they possessed, converted the same to cash and divided all of said property equally between the plaintiff and the defendant;

That the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That the parties to this action, prior to February, 1947, owned a small acreage near Culdesac, Idaho, resided thereon and milked from 6 to 8 cows, raising the feed on said acreage; that for more than three years prior to February, 1947, the defendant would absent himself from the home and would be gone for periods of time without advising this plaintiff of his whereabouts or where he could be reached; that as a result thereof all the work involved in milking said cows and caring for said premises was placed on the plaintiff; that during said period of time and while the defendant was home he was cross and cranky and on many and diverse occasions used vile and obscene language toward this plaintiff, without just cause or provocation.

From the foregoing Findings the Court concludes:

That the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

That the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties to this action during the month of February, 1947, was fair and equitable.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

2. That the property settlement agreement entered into between the plaintiff and defendant herein during the month of February, 1947, be and the same is hereby approved.

DONE in Open Court this 11 day of October, 1949.

IVAN C. DECKER, Plaintiff, vs. JULIA DECKER, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled court, in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 6th day of October, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by her attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint was filed in the above entitled matter, and that thereupon a summons was issued; and,

It further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the said summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court, and is now on file herein, and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons and is in default therefor; and,

It further appearing that the clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the defendant's default, and the plaintiff being entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of his complaint, testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that the allegations thereof are true;

The court finds that the plaintiff has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of this complaint; that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Papillion, Nebraska, on the 10th day of June, 1946; that no children were born of said marriage; that the parties own no community property; and that during the married life of the parties hereto, the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto are hereby dissolved and set aside, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

Dated this 6th day of October, 1949.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing, before the court sitting in Chambers, without a jury, in the court-house, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho at, 11 o'clock A.M. in the forenoon of October 20, 1949. The same being the time and place set by this court for said hearing. Plaintiff appearing in person, and by and through her counsel, P.C.O'Malley. The defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel. The record in this cause showing that the defendant had been regularly and legaly served with the summons in this case, with a copy of the complaint attached, at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 28th day of September, 1949, and the record showing that full 20 days elapsed after the date of said service of said summons without defendant making any appearance what-so- ever in said cause; and the record showing that after said 20 days had elapsed; that the clerk of this court did legaly and regularly enter the Clerk'S default of the defendant in said cause . And no appearnce of defendant at this hearing. The Court proceded to hear testimony in support of plaintiffs complaint against the defendant, and from said testimony and from the records in this cause the court finds: that plaintiff and defendnat were married in Pocatello, Idaho on or about the 16th day of June, 1946, and ever since have been legal husband and wife; that plaintiff was a legal resident of the State of Idaho, more than six weeks next before the filing of this action; that there are no children the fruits of this marriage, and that no property rights of any kind or description, now exists, or ever have existed between the parties to this action; that all the allegations contained in plaintiffs complaint against the defendnat has been sustained by the testimony produced on the part of the plaintiff to this court, and this court finds that plaintiff is entitled to the relief parayed for; this court further finds that the defendant is an able bodied man steadily employed, and earning good wages, and must pay plaintiff's attorney fee in the sum of $100.00 and in addition must pay $17.00 plaintiff's cost in this action, and the court being fully a dvised in the matter renders its decree in this case in favor of plaintiff as follows:

It is, Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed, by this court; that the bond of matrimony now existing, that was made and entered into at Pocatello, Idaho, on or about the 16th day of June, 1946, by and between the plaintiff Julia Ann Peterson, and the defendant Melvin Peterson is wholly and full disolved, and that both, and each of said parties are henceforth restored to the status of single persons. And the plaintiff is restored to her former name, Julia Ann Wilkes:

It is further Ordered Adjudged and Decreeded; that the plaintiff, do have andtake judgment against the defendant for the sum of $100.00 attorney fee, and the additional sum of $17.00, plaintiff's costs incurred in this case, and, that the said defendant forthwith pay the said sum of $117,00 to plaintiff or to plaintiff's counsel, and that defendant do not bother or molest palintiff in the future; That acopy of this decree be delivered to defendant.

Dated this 20th day of October, 1949.

Plaintiff,
vs.
EMIL E. MICHAELS,
Defendant.

NO. 10938

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, the 27th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Piatt Hull, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint and that he had failed to appear, answer or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default had been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

It further appeared from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint.

Thereupon the cause was submitted to the Court, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein his Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Emma M. Michaels, and the defendant, Emil E. Michaels, are hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the complete care, control and custody of Kenneth Michaels, minor child of plaintiff and defendant, and reserving unto the defendant the right to visit said child, or have said child visit him, at reasonable times and places.

3. That the said property settlement by and between plaintiff and defendant be, and hereby is, approved and the entire right, title and interest of said parties in following real property, to-wit:

> The North forty (40) feet of Lot No. Eleven (11) and the North forty (40) feet of Lot No. Twelve (12) and the East twenty (20) feet of the South eighty (80) feet of Lot No. Eleven (11), in Block Fifteen (15) of the original Townsite of Mullan, Shoshone County, Idaho, together with all improvements thereon situated, together with all interest that either or both of said parties may hereafter acquire therein, is hereby set over, assigned and made the sole and separate property of plaintiff, Emma M. Michaels. That the personal property consisting of a certain business located at 307 Earle Avenue in the Village of Mullan, Shoshone County, Idaho, known as "Michaels Cleaners", including the equipment, machinery, supplies, cash funds, accounts receivable and miscellaneous items incident to such business, be, and hereby are, set over, assigned and made the sole and separate property of plaintiff, Emma M. Michaels.

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 28th day of October, A. D. 1949, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury upon the Complaint of the plaintiff herein, taken as confessed by the defendant by her failure to appear and answer the verified Complaint of the plaintiff on file herein. Mr. John J. Peacock appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear, and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process, and that said defendant was served with said process in Seattle, King County, State of Idaho, and that the defendant having not appeared or answered said Complaint, the default of said defendant was thereupon duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his Complaint, and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, after a brief statement by the plaintiff's counsel, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony and statement of counsel, together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and he hereby is, awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the community property of said marriage consisting of real property situated in Boundary County, Idaho, described as follows, to-wit:

> Commencing at a point twenty (20) rods South of the Northwest Corner, Section Twelve (12), Township Sixty-two (62) North Range Two (2), East Boise Meridian; thence East eighty (80) rods, thence south twenty (20) rods, thence West eighty (80) rods, thence North twenty (20) rods to place of beginning, all being in the Northwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter ($NW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$), Section Twelve (12), Township Sixty-two (62) North, Range Two (2) East Boise Meridian, Boundary County, Idaho, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff

ROLLAND B. BALER,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MARIE S. BALER,

Defendant.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for trial at Chambers at Idaho Falls, Idaho on the 7th day of October, 1949, Holden & Holden appearing for and in behalf and as the attorneys of the above named Marie S. Baler, defendant and cross-complainant, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named Rolland B. Baler, whereupon the cross-complainant, Marie S. Baler, was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon DorothyGrimmett was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the above named cross-complainant, and thereupon the above named cross-complainant rested and the above named Rolland B. Baler, having submitted no proof whatever, for or in his own behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named defendant and cross-complainant, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above named plaintiff, Rolland B. Baler, has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Cross-Complaint, filed in said Court in said cause; that by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, it is expressly agreed that the said plaintiff hereby withdraws his Complaint on file herein against the above named defendant and cross-complainant; that the defendant's Cross-Complaint filed herein, shall be deemed to be denied; that the plaintiff hereby refuses to plead further to the said defendant and cross-complainant's

Cross-Complaint, and consents that the default of the said plaintiff may be entered to the defendant's said Cross-Complaint; that this cause may be tried and final judgment rendered and entered herein, either in term time or in vacation, at Chambers at any time convenient to said Court, or the Judge thereof, without notice to the above named plaintiff; that the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law is waived; that the default of the above named plaintiff and cross-defendant, Rolland B. Baler, has been heretofore duly and regularly entered according to law; that the plaintiff and cross-defendant is not in the military service of the United States, nor in any branch of the service thereof.

That this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this suit, and of the person of the above named plaintiff, Rolland B. Baler, and of the person of the above named defendant and cross-complainant, Marie S. Baler, and of the persons of the two minor children of plaintiff and defendant; that the defendant and cross-complainant is entitled to a Decree of divorce as prayed for in her Cross-Complaint filed herein; that the defendant and cross-complainant is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant and cross-complainant.

By the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, it is agreed that the said defendant and cross-complainant shall be awarded the care, custody and control of said minor children, Kathleene Baler, age eight years, and Martin Baler, age seven years, subject to plaintiff's right to visit said children at all reasonable times and places, and that plaintiff will pay to the defendant and cross-complainant for the support and maintenance ofsaid minor children, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month each, commencing October 20, 1949, and continuing thereafter on the 20th day of each and every month until said children shall have reached the age of majority.

That by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, that the Court shall award to the defendant and cross-complainant, as her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, the following described real and personal property, situated in Teton County, Idaho, and described as follows, to-wit:

> The South Half of the Northeast Quarter ($S\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}$), and the North Half of the Southeast Quarter ($N\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}$), in Section Twenty-five (25), Township Six (6) North, Range Forty-five (45), East Boise Meridian.

That said property is being purchased under Contract of Sale with the Union Central Life Insurance Company, and the plaintiff agrees that he will assume and pay the installment payment on said Contract, which is due December 1, 1949, in the amount of $276.85, together with accrued interest, and the defendant and cross-complainant agrees to pay the real estate taxes levied and assessed against said property. Plaintiff further agrees that he will give to defendant, an Assignment of his interest in said Contract of Sale, and that the personal property to be awarded to the defendant and cross-complainant is as follows:

> Household goods and furniture described as follows: 1 dining room set, 1 bedroom set, 1 stove, 1 radio, 1 washing machine, 1 chest of drawers, cooking utensils, blankets and bedding and miscellaneous household goods and fixtures and linen.
> The following described farm equipment: 1 Ford tractor, 1 Post Mall, 1 Power Cultivator, 1 Power Scraper, and 1 Manure Loader.

It is further agreed that the plaintiff agrees to assume and pay the indebtedness against the farm machinery and equipment above described.

That by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, it is expressly agreed that the Court shall award and decree to the plaintiff, as his sole and separate property, and for his sole and separate use and benefit, the following described real and personal property, situated in Teton County, Idaho, to-wit:

The South Half ($S\frac{1}{2}$) of Section Thirty (30); the Southwest Quarter ($SW\frac{1}{4}$), the South Half of the Northwest Quarter ($S\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}$), the Northwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter ($NW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$), and the Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter ($SW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$) in Section Twenty-nine (29), Township Six (6) North, Range Forty-six (46), East of the Boise Meridian;

Together with all ditch and water rights thereunto belonging, or in any wise appertaining, however the same may be evidenced.

That the above described property is being purchased under Contract of Sale from Mark L. Weaver and Mary D. Weaver, his wife, and the defendant and cross-complainant agrees to assign to the plaintiff all of her right, title and interest in and to said Contract of Sale; that the personal property to be awarded to the plaintiff is as follows:

A one-third interest in and to a 1948 Studebaker, $1\frac{1}{2}$ ton truck, a big army truck, 1 Moline Tractor, 1 Intermountain Tractor, 1 Caterpillar, 1 new Drill, 1 new Disk, 1 new Case Separator, 1 Case Wheel Tractor, 1 saw mill, grain and other crops.

All other real and personal property of every kind and nature.

That by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, the above named defendant and cross-complainant agrees that she waives any and all claims and demands against the plaintiff of every kind and nature, excepting those that are expressly set forth in said Stipulation.

That by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, it is expressly agreed that in the event the Court grants a Decree of divorce to the defendant on her Cross-Complaint, that plaintiff will forthwith execute and deliver to the defendant and cross-complainant, an Assignment of his interest in and to said Contract of Sale, and a Quit Claim Deed to the real property, and a Bill of Sale to the personal property to be awarded to said defendant and cross-complainant, and that the said defendant and cross-complainant will likewise execute and deliver to the plaintiff an Assignment of her interest in and to said Contract of Sale, and a Quit Claim Deed to said real property, and a Bill of Sale to said personal property to be awarded to said plaintiff.

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, attorneys of record of the above named defendant and cross-complainant,

I

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named defendant and cross-complainant, Marie S. Baler, and the above named plaintiff and cross-defendant, Rolland B. Baler, be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the said defendant and cross-complainant, Marie S. Baler, and the said plaintiff and cross-defendant, Rolland B. Baler, and each of them be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said defendant and cross-complainant, have and she is hereby awarded the sole care, custody and control of Kathleene Baler, a daughter, age eight years, and Martin Baler, a son, age seven years, minor children of defendant and cross-complainant and of plaintiff and cross-defendant; that the said plaintiff and cross-defendant may visit said children at all reasonable times and places.

III

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said plaintiff and cross-defendant, Rolland B. Baler, shall pay to said defendant and cross-complainant, Marie S. Baler, for the support and maintenance of the two said minor children, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month each, commencing October 20th, 1949, and continuing thereafter on the 20th day of each and every month until said minor children shall have attained the age of majority.

IV

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND

DECREED, that the said defendant and cross-complainant, Marie S. Baler, have, and she is hereby awarded and decreed as her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, the following described real property situated in the County of Teton, State of Idaho, to-wit:

> The South Half of the Northeast Quarter ($S\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}$), and the North Half of the Southeast Quarter ($N\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}$), in Section Twenty-five (25), Township Six (6) North, Range Forty-five (45), East Boise Meridian.

That said property is being purchased under Contract of Sale, and that plaintiff and cross-defendant shall pay the installment payment due on said Sale Contract due December 1, 1949, in the amount of $276.85, with accrued interest, and that defendant and cross-complainant shall pay the real estate taxes levied and assessed against said property, and that said plaintiff and cross-defendant, Rolland B. Baler, is hereby divested of all right, title and interest in and to the above real property and the whole thereof.

IT IS HEREBY CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said defendant and cross-complainant, Marie S. Baler, is hereby awarded and decreed, as her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, the following described personal property, to-wit:

> Household goods and furniture described as follows: 1 dining room set, 1 bedroom set, 1 stove, 1 radio, 1 washing machine, 1 chest of drawers, cooking utensils, blankets and bedding and miscellaneous household goods and fixtures and linen.

and that plaintiff and cross-defendant shall pay all the indebtedness against the farm machinery and equipment above described, and that the said plaintiff and cross-defendant is hereby divested of all right, title and interest in and to said personal property and the whole thereof.

VI

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND

DECREED, that the said plaintiff and cross-defendant, Rolland B. Baler, is hereby awarded and decreed as his sole and separate property, for his sole and separate use and benefit, the following described real and personal property, situated in Teton County, Idaho, to-wit:

> The South Half ($S\frac{1}{2}$) of Section Thirty (30); the Southwest Quarter ($SW\frac{1}{4}$), the South Half of the Northwest Quarter ($S\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}$), the Northwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter ($NW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$), and the Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter ($SW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$) in Section Twenty-nine (29), Township Six (6) North, Range Forty-six (46), East of the Boise Meridian;
>
> A one-third interest in and to a 1948 Studebaker, $1\frac{1}{2}$ ton truck, a big army truck, 1 Moline Tractor, 1 Intermountain Tractor, 1 Caterpillar, 1 new Drill, 1 new Disk, 1 new Case Separator, 1 Case Wheel tractor, 1 saw mill, grain and other crops.

that the said real property is being purchased under Contract of Sale.

VII

IT IS FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that defendant and cross-complainant waives any and all further claims and demands against plaintiff and cross-defendant of every kind and nature, excepting those set forth herein.

VIII

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that plaintiff and cross-defendant shall forthwith execute and deliver to defendant and cross-complainant an Assignment of his interest in and to said Contract of Sale, and a Quit Claim Deed to said real property, and a Bill of Sale to personal property awarded to defendant and cross-complainant, and that said defendant and cross-complainant shall forthwith execute and deliver to plaintiff and cross-defendant an Assignment of her interest in and to said Contract of Sale, and a Quit Claim Deed to said real property, and

* * * * * * *

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing 2:30 PM before the Court on the 14 day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of summons and complaint in said action has been made upon the defendant; and that the defendant has failed and refused to appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint; and the time allowed by law to the defendant for answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and the default of the said defendant having been heretofore duly entered; and evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, and the matter having been fully submitted to the Court for decision; the Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant; and it further appearing from the evidence that a property settlement agreement has been entered into by and between the plaintiff and the defendant, which agreement appears to be fair and equitable.

NOW, THEREFORE, On Motion of Rayborn and Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are hereby, wholly dissolved, and the parties hereto restored to the status of single persons.

2. That that certain property settlement agreement bearing date the 15th day of August, 1949 is by the Court approved, and is marked "Exhibit A" and attached hereto, and by reference made a part of this decree of divorce.

3. That that certain 1934 Chevrolet pick-up described in the said property settlement agreement is hereby decreed to the defendant, Chester Mintun, as his sole and separate property; and that all other personal property heretofore enumerated in the said property settlement agreement is hereby decreed to the plaintiff, Virginia Mintun, as her sole and separate property.

4. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care and custody of the minor children of the plaintiff and the defendant namely, Edgar Mintun, age 12 years, Dean Mintun, age 10 years, Dale Mintun, age 5 years, and Glenn Mintun, age four years, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Virginia Mintun, with the right of visitation by the defendant at all reasonable times.

5. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the said minor children the sum of $100.00 per month, effective for the month of Nov, 1949, and each month thereafter until the further order of this Court.

Dated this 14 day of October, 1949.

AGREEMENT OF PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AND CUSTODY OF CHILDREN.

This Agreement, Made and entered into this 15 day of August, 1949, by and between Virginia Mintun, hereinafter referred to as the party of the first part, and Chester Mintun, hereinafter referred to as the party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, That the parties hereto are husband and wife one of the other, and that

WHEREAS, Unhappy and irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties hereto which make it impossible for them to continue to live together as man and wife, and they have been and will hereafter continue to live separate and apart.

That for and in consideration of the covenants and agreements herein contained the parties hereto have agreed between themselves as follows:

That there are four minor children of the parties hereto, namely, Edgar Mintun, aged 12 years, Dean Mintun, aged 10 years, Dale Mintun, aged 5 years, and Glenn Mintun, aged four years. And it is agreed by and between the parties hereto that the plaintiff, Virginia Mintun, is to have the care, custody and control of these minor children, and that the defendant is to have the right to visit said children at any and all reasonable times.

It is further agreed that the defendant is to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 per month for the support and maintenance of said minor children; the said payments to start on the first day of September, 1949, and on the first day of each and every month thereafter.

It is further agreed that the parties hereto are the owners of the following described personal property: Miscellaneous household and kitchen furniture, one National trailer house, one 1937 Ford automobile, one 1934 Chevrolet pick-up; and the parties hereto hereby agree that the plaintiff is to have all household and kitchen furniture belonging to the parties hereto, and is to have the said

National trailer house belonging to the parties hereto and the 1937 Ford automobile, as her sole and separate property; and that the defendant is to have that certain 1934 Chevrolet pick-up as his sole and separate property.

It is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that the earnings of each of the parties hereto from and after the execution of this agreement will be the sole and separate property of the one so earning same.

It is further agreed and understood that the parties hereto from and after the execution of this agreement will live separate and apart from each other and neither will molest or disturb the other in any way.

It is further agreed that divorce proceedings have been instituted in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Twin Falls, by the plaintiff, Virginia Mintun, against the defendant, Chester Mintun, and it is agreed that the terms of this agreement may be included in and made a part of the Decree of Divorce when and if one is granted in this action.

In Witness Whereof, The parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

EDWIN H. BESSETTE,	Plaintiff,
vs.		DECREE OF DIVORCE
ALBERTA V. BESSETTE,	Defendant.

THIS ACTION Coming on for hearing before Honorable Kales E. Lowe, one of the Judges of this Court at Twin Falls, Idaho, on October 14th, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, J. H. Blandford, and it appearing to the Court that service of summons has been duly made upon defendant; that defendant has failed to appear and answer said complaint within the time allowed by law and a default has been duly entered herein against her, and it appearing further that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, namely, that plaintiff and defendant were married at Santa Margarita, California, on June 27, 1943, that no children have been born to plaintiff and defendant, that all property and property rights of the parties hereto have been satisfactorily adjusted between the parties, that plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho and had been for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, that defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and that said acts of cruelty have caused plaintiff grievous mental suffering;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of J. H. Blandford, attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the marriage relation existing between plaintiff and defendant be absolutely dissolved and said parties forever freed from the obligations thereof and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be restored to the status of a single and unmarried person.

DATED at Twin Falls, Idaho, this 14th day of October, 1949.

Helen Chappelle, Plaintiff,

vs.

Fred Chappelle, Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 21st day of October, 1949, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, and defendant having in open court withdrawn his answer and refused to plead further in the matter and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted in behalf of the plaintiff by plaintiff and witnesses in her behalf. The Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter, finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant as prayed in her complaint; also that the parties hereto have settled their property rights by written agreement, as follows:

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This agreement, made and entered into this 14th day of October, 1949, by and between Fred Chappelle, party of the first part, of Buhl, Idaho, and Helen Chappelle, party of the second part, of Buhl, Idaho, witnesseth:

Whereas the said parties hereto are husband and wife and that there are not any children of the said marriage;

That unhappy differences have arisen between the said parties making it impossible for them to live together as husband and wife, and the party of the second part has instituted an action for divorce against the party of the first part in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for Twin Falls County;

And whereas the parties hereto desire to settle their mutual property rights;

It is therefore agreed between the parties that they are the owners of the following community property, to-wit:

> The Northwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section Nine (9) Township Ten (10) South Range Fourteen (14) E.B.M., together with forty shares of Capital Stock of the Twin Falls Canal Company evidencing a water right thereto, together with certain livestock, crops, farm machinery and equipment and household furniture and one Plymouth car and a Dodge truck, both of which stand in the name of the party of the first part, also crops grown on Eighty (80) acres adjoining the above described real estate.

It is further agreed that the parties have arranged for a sale of the above entitled real estate consisting of Forty (40) acres of land for the approximate sum of $5000.00; that there is a mortgage on said premises which the purchaser agrees to assume and pay in addition to the said sum of $5000.00; it is further agreed that the party of the second part is to receive out of the sale price of said real estate the sum of $4000.00, and the party of the first part is to receive the balance of $1000.00 and in addition to receive for his own and separate property all of the crops raised on the said premises and in possession of the party of the first part; and that the party of the first part is to pay all outstanding bills of the parties;

It is further understood and agreed that the party of the second part has received from the party of the first part certain household equipment and belongings which have been delivered to her by agreement between the parties hereto and which property is now in her possession;

It is understood and agreed that this agreement is intended as a full, complete and final settlement of all the property rights and mutual claims of the parties hereto and that neither party shall hereafter have any claim against the other party for any property right, attorney fees, costs or alimony or support money whatsoever and that each of the parties may engage in whatever trade, business or occupation such party desires free from any interference from or liability to the other party.

Each of the parties hereto has carefully considered the matters and has obtained legal advice as to her or his rights hereunder and that each of the parties is fully advised and satisfied with the above arrangement and excepts the same in full settlement of all claims by reason of their marriage.

In witness whereof the parties have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

Dorothy Hyder, Plaintiff,

vs.

Seward Hyder, Defendant,

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned District Judge on the 21st day of October, 1949, Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, and the defendant, having been duly and regularly served with process herein and having filed his acknowledgement of service and refusal to plead in the matter, and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and witnesses in her behalf. The court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed in her complaint and is the owner of the property described in the complaint as her sole and separate property except the furniture and household equipment which is community property.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the custody and control of Mary Lou Hyder, the minor daughter of the parties be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff with the right in the defendant to visit said daughter at reasonable times.

And the following property is hereby decreed to be the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, to-wit:

Lot Eleven (11) of the Bonnie View Subdivision, Twin Falls County, Idaho, and one 1942 Nash Sedan and also the household furniture and equipment of the parties.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Entered OCT 21 1949 2:10 PM

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 21st day of October, 1949, before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, and defendant failed to appear either in person or by attorney.

The defendant having been duly and regularly served with copy of the summons and complaint, and the time allowed by law for him to answer or otherwise plead, and no answer or other appearance having been made by him, and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and witnesses in her behalf.

The Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of cruelty, and is entitled to the custody of Wesley Eugene Smith, the minor son of the parties hereto and is entitled to receive the sum of $25.00 per month for the support of said minor child, and to have the household furniture of the parties decreed to her as her sole and separate property.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of the parties be restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the care, custody and control of the said Wesley Eugene Smith, the minor child of the parties, be, and they hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff; and that the defendant be, and he hereby is, required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month for the support of said minor child, beginning on November 1, 1949; and that the household furniture of the parties be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

COPY

Now on this 21st day of October, 1949, this matter came on for hearing to the Court. Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., his attorney. The defendant did not appear. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff, after which the matter was submitted to the Court for its decision. The Court, being fully advised in the premises and upon consideration of the files and of the evidence finds that good and sufficient service of summons has been had on the defendant, Ruthie Lea Garner; that said defendant has failed to appear or plead herein although the time for so doing has wholly expired and is in default and that the defendant's default has been duly entered against her; that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody of Linn Marlow Garner and Dean Allen Garner, the minor children of the parties hereto but that the defendant is not a fit and proper person to have the custody of said minor children; that the written agreement of the parties hereto and on

in evidence herein is not approved by the Court as to its terms and conditions with reference to the division of the custody of the minor children of the parties hereto between them but that said agreement is fair and reasonable as to the division of the community property of the parties hereto and is hereby approved by the Court and that by reason thereof the Court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to have said community property of the parties hereto awarded to him as his sole and seperate property subject, however, to all community debts.

WHEREFORE, It is Decreed by the Court:

1. That the plaintiff be and he hereby is divorced from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff have the custody of Linn Marlow Garner and Dean Allen Garner, the minor children of the parties hereto.

3. That all of the community property of the parties hereto is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property, subject, however, to all community debts.

This cause came on regularly for trial before the above entitled Court, at the court room thereof, in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, on the date at the foot hereof. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through his attorney of record, Ray D. Agee. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to the Court, and it hereby finds, that the defendant, Marshal E. Requa, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action, and having failed to appear and plead to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, and the time allowed by law for pleading to said complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been made by the defendant, or filed herein, the default of the defendant, Marshal E. Requa, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted, and the evidence being closed, the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, the Court hereby finds and decides: That, for a long time last past, the defendant has wilfully, wrongfully and intentionally treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty, and has inflicted grievous bodily injury and grievous mental suffering upon him by her acts and conduct; that all of the property, hereinafter described, and each part thereof, and each interest therein, is the sole and separate property of the plaintiff; and that each allegation set forth or contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein is true and correct, and, being now fully advised both in the law and in the premises, the Court hereby makes and enters its judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, E. C. Requa, and the defendant, Marshal E. Requa, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, E. C. Requa, is the owner of and entitled to the possession of the property, hereinafter described, and each part thereof, and each interest therein, as his sole and separate property, and that the title of the plaintiff therein and thereto is good and valid, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Marshal E. Requa, has no estate, right, title or interest whatever of, in, or to, or lien upon, said property, or any part or portion thereof, and that the title to said property, and each part thereof, and each interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, quieted in the plaintiff against all claims, demands, liens or pretensions of the defendant, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Marshal E. Requa, be, and she is hereby, forever restrained, enjoined and debarred from asserting any claim whatever of, in, or to, or lien upon, said property, or any part or portion thereof, adverse to the plaintiff. Said property is particularly described as follows:

That certain real property, lying, situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

Lot six in block five of White and Callahan's Golden Rule Addition to the City of Twin Falls, Idaho; together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

That certain personal property, situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

One 1940 Ford coupe automobile; miscellaneous household goods, furniture, fixtures and equipment; an undivided one-half interest of, in, and to the fixtures, equipment, assets and business of the Town Tavern, at Hansen, Idaho; together with any and all other personal property now in the possession of or under the control of the plaintiff.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 28th day of October, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear. It is shown to the Court that on the 19th day of September, 1949, said defendant executed his affidavit of voluntary appearance herein, in which he admitted receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint, refused to plead to said complaint, and subjected himself to the jurisdiction of this court for all purposes connected with this action; it is alos shown that on the 12th day of October, 1949, the Clerk of this Court entered the default of the defendant for failure to plead to plaintiff's complaint; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ordered that said entry of default be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint respecting the marriage of the parties, that there are no children and no community property, and that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering, are all true. The Court therefore concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, BETTY MAY WILCOX, and the defendant, DAVID L. WILCOX, be and they hereby are dissolved, and that each of said persons be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

This cause having come on regularly to be heard before the Court, on the 28th day of October, 1949, at the court room of said court in Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by his counsel W. L. Dunn, Esq., and the defendant having appeared in said cause by her counsel Ray D. Agee, Esq., but thereafter and prior to the date of this decree having by herself and hef said attorney having withdrawn her appearance and answer and cross-complaint and refused to answer further by duly verified writing filed in said cause, and said defendant being in default and the Clerk's default having been duly filed in said cause and the same approved by the court, whereupon the court proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaint and the matter being finally submitted and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty to the extent of causing plaintiff great and grievous mental and physical suffering and distress and that there are two children the issue of said marriage, to-wit: a daughter Guyla Rae Nelson age three and one-half years and a son Mark Eugene Nelson age two years both in the custody of the defendant and that she is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said children and that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained,

Wherefore, NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of W. L. Dunn counsel for plaintiff it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony.

2. This cause came on regularly for trial before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, at the Court House in the City of Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, upon this 28th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, The defendant did not appear, and it appearing to the said Judge, and he hereby finds, that the defendant, Douglas John Griggs, has been duly and regularly served with summons in said action, and having appeared therein, and having heretofore withdrawn his appearance in this action, and refused to plead further therein, and having consented that his default might be entered herein, the default of the defendant, Douglas John Griggs, in the premises has been duly and regularly entered according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff herein were duly sworn and examined, and evidence introduced and admitted, including a property and custody agreement dated the 27th day of September, 1949, made and entered into between the parties hereto, wherein it was agreed between the parties as to the custody of their minor child, and as to support for said child. And the evidence being closed, the cause was submitted to the said Judge for his consideration and decision, and the Judge finds that the defendant was guilty of extreme mental cruelty to the plaintiff and that he has inflicted grevious mental suffering upon this plaintiff by his acts and conduct. That the said minor child of the parties hereto is now and at all times since the birth of said child has been in the care and custody of the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of the said child. The said Judge hereby makes and enters his judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and the premises, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Dorthy June Griggs, and the defendant, Douglas John Griggs, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and the parties hereto restored to the status of single persons.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property and custody agreement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property and custody agreement be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and that said property and custody agreement, as contained in said agreement, be, and the same is hereby in all respects approved and confirmed.

And that said property and custody agreement, according to Exhibit A hereto attached and made a part of this Decree, is in all respects approved.

And it is further ordered that the defendant, Douglas John Griggs, pay to the plaintiff, Dorthy June Griggs, as support money for their minor child, aged one year, namely, Dorthy Yvonne Griggs, the sum of $35.00 (Thirty-five and no/100 Dollars) per month, the first payment to be made on this date; and $35.00 each month thereafter until the further order of this Court, or during the minority of said child.

And it is further ordered that the care, custody and control of the said minor child, Dorthy Yvonne Griggs, age one year, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Dorthy June Griggs.

Dated this 28 day of October, 1949.

Hulu E Lamm
District Judge.

Exhibit A

PROPERTY AND CUSTODY AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this 27th day of Sept., 1949, by and between Dorothy June Grigg, the plaintiff in that certain suit filed in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Twin Falls, wherein her name appears as Dorthy June Griggs, party of the first part, and Douglas John Grigg, the defendant in the above mentioned suit, whose name appears therein as Douglas John Griggs, party of the second part,

W I T N E S S E T H

That whereas, the party of the first part, as plaintiff, has in said action filed on the 7th day of June, 1949, as aforesaid, begun an action for divorce against the party of the second part as defendant, and for certain property division, and custody and maintenance of the minor child of the parties;

And, whereas, said parties desire to settle, and adjust amicably certain of the matters arising out of the said action, now, therefore, it is hereby mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows, to-wit:

1. That the said decree may award the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, Dorothy Yvonne Grigg, to said first party.

2. It is agreed by and between the parties that the party of the second part, Douglas John Grigg, hereby pays to the party of the first part, Dorothy June Grigg, the sum of $140.00, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, as support for said minor child of the parties hereto up to the date of the execution of this agreement. That is, the party of the first part has been supporting the child herself for the past number of months and the party of the second part desires to make and does make this payment to her for the reason that she has been supporting the child herself.

3. That second party shall and will on the day said decree is filed, and monthly thereafter, pay to said first party, solely for the support and maintenance of said minor child, the sum of Thirty-five Dollars, said payments to continue during the minority of said child but to cease upon her earlier death.

4. That said party of the second part shall have the right to visit the said minor child at reasonable and proper times.

5. That the party of the second part has paid to the plaintiff's attorneys the sum of $45.00, and the party of the second part agrees to pay the further sum of $55.00 attorneys' fees to plaintiff's attorneys, and $20.00 costs, on or before October 1st, 1949.

6. It is agreed that such personal, community property as may be in possession of first party shall be and remain the separate property of first party, and it is agreed that that certain 1936 Ford automobile, in possession of the party of the second part, shall be and remain the separate property of the second party.

7. This agreement is a full and complete settlement of all property rights between the parties hereto as husband and wife, both now and after the death of either party to this agreement, and from this time forward neither party shall have any interest of any kind or nature in or to any property, real, personal or mixed, of the other party to this agreement, whether now owned by such party or hereafter acquired.

8. Each party to this agreement acknowledges that the foregoing agreement has been entered into without influence or fraud or coercion or misrepresentation, and that each was advised by her or his respective counsel relative thereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this agreement the day and year first above written.

Vs.

JOSEPH M. DAVIS, JR. Defendant.

DECREE

On this the 3rd day of October, 1949, the above entitled action came on for trial before the Court, the plaintiff being present in person and by her attorney, Frank D. Ryan, and it appearing that the Defendant has duly accepted personal service of summons and Complaint and entered his appearance herein and he is in default in said action, on motion of Attorney for plaintiff the default of defendant is duly and regularly entered. Also it appears by the affidavit filed in said action that said defendant is not in military service of the United States of America or any other country but is engaged in civilian employement. Thereupon the plaintiff introduces her evidence and the Court finds therefrom that the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint are true and the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for, and that plaintiff and defendant have one child, a daughter, by the name of Gina Jolene Davis which said child was born on April 22nd, 1947, and is in the care and custody of plaintiff, and the Court finds that it will require $50.00 a month to provide for the reasonable maintenance and support of said child.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED. and DECREED That the said defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty toward said plaintiff as alleged in plaintiff's complaint and that the marriage existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved. and the parties restored to the status of single persons, and each party is enjoined from inheriting from or through the other. That plaintiff is decreed the care and custody of said minor child, Gina Jolene Davis, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and hours. That said defendant is ordered and decreed to pay the plaintiff or the Clerk of this Court on the 15th day of October, 1949, the sum of $50.00, and a like amount on the 15th day of each and every month thereafter during the minority of said child.

CLYDE D. MATLOCK,

Defendant.

--

THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER came on regularly for hearing before the court at Boise, Idaho, October 28, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and with her witness, and her attorney, Ariel L. Crowley. No person appeared for or on behalf of the defendant Clyde D. Matlock.

IT APPEARING to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has been regularly served with summons and complaint in Ada County, personally, and has made no appearance herein within the time limited by law, and that he is not in military service and that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein and that order establishing such fact has been entered herein, and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that the default of the defendant has been regularly entered according to law,

NOW THEREFORE, upon motion of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to reception of evidence on plaintiff's behalf and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty and that the plaintiff is entitled to confirmation and settlement of the property settlement agreement and to custody of all of the minor children of the parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Gertrude Matlock and the defendant Clyde D. Matlock, be and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and the parties are finally divorced.

2. That the plaintiff Gertrude Matlock, have and she is awarded the permanent care, custody and keeping of the minor children of the parties, towit: Marie Matlock, now aged 8 years; Nova Jean Matlock now aged 6 years; Caroline Matlock, now aged 4 years; Diana May Matlock, now aged 3 years and Douglas Matlock, now aged 16 months.

3. That the plaintiff have and there is set over to her to be her sole and separate property free and clear of all claims of the defendant all of the household goods, bedding, cooking equipment, dishes, clothing, utensils, tools and all other personal property of the parties located upon the premises hereinafter described, together with all right, title, interest and estate of the plaintiff Gertrude Matlock and the defendant Clyde D. Matlock in and to Lots 8, 9 and 10 in Block 1 of Imus Subdivision to Boise, Ada County, State of Idaho, together with the tent house located thereon.

4. That the defendant Clyde D. Matlock be and he is required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $20.00 per month for each of the children of the parties during the continuation of their respective minorities, being the present sum of $100.00 per month at the said rate of $20.00 for each of said children for each month of the minority of each of said children.

5. The defendant Clyde D. Matlock be and he is required to pay upon the occurrence of the birth of the sixth child of the parties now expected, all of the hospital and doctor bills incident to the delivery of the said child and hospitalization of the plaintiff and the sum of $20.00 per month in addition to the allowance hereinbefore made for the support of the said sixth child, if the same shall live.

6. That the defendant be and he is required to pay the outstanding debts of the marital community and in particular he is required to pay the judgment of $200.00 owing to Professional Adjustment Company and abstracted to this court constituting a lien against the said real property and that such payments shall be made in time and manner so as to prevent the said judgment from divesting the plaintiff of her interest in the real estate aforesaid set over to her hereby.

7. That the defendant be and he is required to pay as they fall due, the mortgages against the automobile and the household goods hereinbefore referred to and to hold the plaintiff Gertrude Matlock harmless with respect thereto.

8. That the defendant have and there is set over to him to be his sole and separate property subject to the mortgage against the same, the automobile of the parties.

9. The defendant Clyde D. Matlock shall, for the purpose of furnishing a home for the said minor children and the plaintiff pay all of the installments on the purchase contract covering the said real property without default and in such manner as to prevent forfeiture of the rights of the plaintiff set over to her under the said contract, and to maintain the said contract in good standing until the said property is fully paid for and vested finally in the plaintiff as her sole and separate property and estate.

10. That the defendant Clyde D. Matlock have and he is given the right to visit and be visited by the children of the parties at reasonable times and places and that the said right of visitation be and the same is limited to such periods as will not interfere with the schooling of the children and in such hours of the day as may be deemed suitable and be appointed by the plaintiff,

By B. CLYDE EAGLESON DEPUTY

This matter came on duly and regularly to be heard and tried on the 4th day of November, 1949, upon the complaint of plaintiff, the answer and the cross-complaint of defendant and the answer of plaintiff to such cross-complaint, the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Pete Leguineche and John A. Carver, Jr., of Boise, Idaho, and the said defendant appearing by his attorneys, Doane & Furey, of Boise, Idaho, and the parties having announced themselves ready , the Court thereupon proceeded to hear the case, and plaintiff presented testimony and evidence both oral and documentary and the defendant failed to present any evidence, either oral or documentary, and the parties having rested and the cause having been submitted to the Court and the Court being fully advised in the premises.

The Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the said defendant and does find that the said defendant has been guilty of having treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, as a result whereof the said plaintiff is entitled to be divorced from the said defendant;

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff and defendant have resided in the State of Idaho for more than six continuous weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

The Court further finds that plaintiff and defendant have made and entered into a property settlement agreement in words and figures as follows:

"THIS PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MADE AND ENTERED INTO this 2nd day of November, 1949, by and between GLADYS MAE OLIVER of Boise, Ada County, Idaho, hereinafter referred to as the plaintiff and FRANK G. OLIVER of Boise, Ada County, Idaho, hereinafter referred to as the defendant,

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto since the 30th day of July, 1948, have been, and now are, wife and husband and irreconcilable disputes and differences have arisen and do now exist between them as a result thereof, and the said wife as plaintiff, filed in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, an action for divorce, which said action is now pending; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to settle between themselves and on an amicable basis their respective rights to property, support and alimony;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY MUTUALLY AGREED by the parties hereto for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) to each in hand paid by the other and of the mutual promises and agreements hereinafter contained as follows:

That the said plaintiff shall receive as her sole and separate property, for her own use and benefit forever and free and clear from any claim on the part of the said defendant all of the rights of the parties hereto howsoever created and of whatsoever nature in and to that certain business located at No. 5110 Fairview Avenue, Boise, Ada County, Idaho, known as the Saddle Club, together with the fixtures, appliances, equipment and effects therein situate and together with all rights as lessee under a lease of said premises and together further with the good will thereof, and the said defendant does hereby agree that he will procure the release of a mortgage to William Henderson, which said mortgage constitutes a lien against the said premises.

The said plaintiff in consideration of her receiving the said Saddle Club as her sole and separate property does hereby agree to pay to the said William Henderson the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.00) which said sum shall be paid One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month during each of the two months hereafter and Fifty Dollars ($50.00) during the third month hereafter and the said plaintiff does further agree that she will assume and pay to the creditors of the said business the sum of Two Hundred Thirty Four Dollars ($234.00) at the rate of at least Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month hereafter until the same shall have been paid, which said item of Two Hundred Thirty Four Dollars ($234.00) represents existing obligations incurred in the operation of the said business.

The said plaintiff shall further have as her sole and separate property, free and clear of any claim on the part of the said defendant, the 1940 Chevrolet Sports Sedan which is now in her possession.

This agreement is intended as a full and complete settlement of the respective rights of the parties hereto and each of the parties hereto does accept the provisions hereof in lieu of any or further property, support money or alimony and each of the parties does hereby release the other from any and all claims to property, support money, alimony, attorney's fees or whatsoever other rights or claims that may be created or exist as a result of the marriage between the parties and neither of the parties shall have any claim or right to any property of the other by way of inheritance or otherwise and all property hereafter acquired shall be the sole and separate property of the person acquiring the same.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written."

" s/ Gladys Mae Oliver
Plaintiff

s/ Frank G. Oliver
Defendant."

and that the said agreement is in all respects fair and equitable.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and set aside and that the said plaintiff be forever divorced from the said defendant.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the property settlement agreement hereinabove set forth, shall, and the same is hereby approved, confirmed and made a part of this decree.

The above entitled cause came on for trial before the court, sitting without a jury, on the 20th day of October, 1949, the Honorable Charles F. Koelsch, District Judge, presiding. The plaintiff appeared in person and by John A. Carver, Jr., her attorney, and the defendant appeared in person and by his attorney, Eugene H. Anderson of the firm of Anderson and Thomas. The cause was thereupon tried to the court upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant. Witnesses were sworn and testimony was taken and the case was submitted to the court for decision. Thereafter, the plaintiff and defendant waived Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law by stipulation and agreement in writing.

NOW, THEREUPON, upon the consideration of the testimony, the court finds upon the first cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff, and upon the second cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the defendant.

The court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to have the care, custody and control of the minor child, Frank Pedro Echevarria, but that the defendant should be entitled to visit said child and to have such child visit him at all reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time, as more specifically hereinafter by this decree adjudged and decreed.

The court further finds that the parties hereto are the owners of community property but that the debts of the community of plaintiff and defendant are in excess of the value of such community property and finds that the major part of such property should be awarded to the defendant subject to the community debts.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED By the court as follows:

That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, awarded the custody of Frank Pedro Echevarria, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, with the right in the defendant to visit such child and to have such child visit him, at all reasonable times, and for reasonable periods of time, and particularly during vacation and holiday times from school, and more specifically that the defendant shall have the right to continue the course of conduct heretofore, since the separation of the parties hereto, followed with respect to the visitations of the defendant and such child, namely, that during days of the attendance of such child at school the defendant shall have the right to take such child and have the same visit with him during the afternoon after school each day with the obligation of returning such child to the plaintiff in the early evening of each such day and that during days when school shall not be in session, and during vacation times from school, but excepting on Sundays and Holidays, the defendant shall have the right to take such child with him and to have such child visit with him from the midmorning hours of each such day until the early evening of each such day with the obligation of returning such child to the plaintiff in the early evening of each such day.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the maintenance, support and education of such minor child of plaintiff and defendant, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per year, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments each year in the amount of Forty-one Dollars and sixty-six and two-thirds cents ($41.66-2/3), the first such payment to be made on the 10th day of November, 1949, and such payments continuing and to be made on the 1st day of each month thereafter, until such child shall attain the age of eighteen (18) years.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That there be, and there is hereby, set aside to the plaintiff as her own sole and separate property, the following described property situate in the place of residence heretofore occupied by the parties hereto, consisting as follows:

That certain bedding set aside and now stored at the said former place of residence of the parties hereto;

Those certain linens set aside at the place of residence of the parties hereto;

The bedroom set, the living room set and the washing machine at the place of residence formerly occupied by the parties hereto;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That all of the remainder of the community property of the plaintiff and defendant, including but not limited to, moneys on deposit in the bank account of the defendant doing business as Valley Feed and Fuel Company, the stock in trade of the business of Valley Feed and Fuel Company, and the 1948 Dodge pickup truck of the parties hereto, be, and the same is awarded to the defendant as his own sole and separate property, subject to all of the community debts of the plaintiff and defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That moneys of the plaintiff on deposit in The Idaho First National Bank of Boise, at Boise, Idaho, be, and the same is hereby, determined to be her separate property.

CLARA A. BROWN, #
Plaintiff, #
vs. # DECREE OF DIVORCE
NORMAN R. BROWN, #
Defendant. #

This cause came on regularly for hearing on the 4th. day of November, 1949, before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled court.

Plaintiff was represented by her attorney of record, James H. Hawley of Boise, Idaho; the defendant was not represented either by attorney or in person. It appearing that the defendant has filed in said action an Appearance and Waiver; wherein he appears and waives all rights as a member of the Armed Forces of the United States given him under, "The Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940"; that Royal Norman Brown who executed the said Appearance and Waiver in the above action is the same person as Norman R. Brown, the defendant in said action; that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered in said action.

Plaintiff introduced evidence in proof of the allegations of her complaint and from such evidence, the Court finds that all of the allegations of said complaint are true and that the matters alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for; that plaintiff has resided in Ada County, Idaho, for more than six weeks next preceding the filing of the complaint in the above action; that plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty; that plaintiff is entitled to the sole custody of the minor child of the parties; and thirty dollars a month support money for said child.

The court being fully informed in the law and the premises, makes and renders this final Judgment and Decree:-

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:-

1.-That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved and set aside and the parties hereto are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

2.-That the child of the parties hereto, Jeffery Melvin Brown, is awarded to the sole and absolute custody of plaintiff herein; that defendant pay to plaintiff the sum of thirty dollars each month hereafter for the support and maintenance of said minor child.

3.-That the Court reserves future jurisdiction of the above cause for the purpose of modifying this Decree.

Done in open Court this 4th day of November, 1949.

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the court in the County Court House at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 17th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Edith I. Miller, the attorney of record for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, LaVern Francis Sawdey, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed to appear otherwise and having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of said defendant,

LaVern Francis Sawdey, for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of Gladys Bartels Sawdey, and in support of her complaint, and the cause was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing therefrom, the court finds on the issues in the cause in the favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than six months immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff, Gladys Bartels Sawdey, be, and she hereby is, forever divorced from the said defendant, LaVern Francis Sawdey, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Gladys Bartels Sawdey, be, and she hereby is awarded the trailer house and the household furniture, fixtures and equipment owned by the plaintiff and defendant;

That the defendant, LaVern Francis Sawdey, be, and he hereby is awarded the 1949 Buick sedan automobile owned by the plaintiff and defendant;

That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $168.00 for attorney's fees and costs;

That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for her support and maintenance and as permanent alimony the sum of $ 50.00 per month, commencing on the first day of December, 1949.

#22344

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the ~~16th~~ 19th day of November, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons outside the state of Idaho, as required by law, and had failed or neglected to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to, the plaintiff's complaint filed in said action, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to said cause.

It also appearing from plaintiff's affidavit, and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not, and has not been since the commencement of this action, nor for more than one year prior thereto, in the military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of the said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff was then permitted to introduce evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that said defendant has been guilty of adultery, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the said plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant; that the parties hereto had made and entered into a separation agreement providing for the custody and support of the minor children of the said parties hereto, and that defendant was represented by her attorney in the preparation and execution of said agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(1st) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the separation agreement made and entered into by the parties hereto, and dated October 28th, 1949, be, and the same is hereby, approved and confirmed; and

(3rd) That the plaintiff be, and he is hereby, required to pay to the defendant the sum of twelve ($12.00) dollars per month toward the support and maintenance of each of said minor children of the parties hereto on the 1st day of November, 1949, and the same amount on the first day of each and every month thereafter for each such child until it reaches its majority under the laws of the state of Idaho.

THIS CAUSE, Having been brought on to be heard this 19th day of November, 1949, Blaine & Ambrose appearing as counsel for the plaintiff herein, defendant not appearing in person or by counsel or otherwise; personal service of the verified complaint and summons upon said defendant in said action having been made upon said defendant in Little Rock, Pulaski County, Arkansas, and the time for answering having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been filed in said cause, and the defendant having failed to make an appearance in said action, the default of the said defendant, Georgia L. Hoelzle, was duly entered herein, and that upon the complaint herein as confessed by said defendant, it appears that the allegations of said plaintiff are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff, Norman F. Hoelzle, to the relief demanded in the complaint as prayed for; and the plaintiff herein having been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided does order, adjudge, and decree that the marriage existing between the said parties be dissolved and the said parties and each of them are released from the bonds of matrimony.

JUDGMENT Filed 21597 A. M. NOV 22 1949 P. M.

OTTO F. PETERSON, Clerk
By E. CLYDE EAGLESON DEPUTY

THIS CAUSE Coming on regularly to be heard on the 22nd day of November, 1949, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Thornton D. Wyman, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, Valora M. Turner, for failing to appear, answer, or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered herein,

WHEREUPON, Evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free and clear from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree;

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby forever dissolved.

2. That the Property Settlement and Agreement entered into and dated July 31, 1948, executed by the parties to this action, be and the same is hereby approved by the Court as settling their property rights.

BY Marian I. Foster DEPUTY

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the court at Boise, Idaho, on the 25th day of November, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney; the defendant neither appearing in person nor otherwise at all,

IT APPEARING TO THE satisfaction of the court that due and legal service of summons and complaint has been had and made for the time and in the manner provided by law and that the defendant William E. Bloser, has made no appearance herein in form or manner as required by law, within the time limited for such appearance, and that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein and that order so establishing has been duly entered, and the default of said defendant in the premises has been duly and regularly entered,

NOW UPON, the application of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to reception of testimony on the plaintiff's behalf and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the plaintiff Vilora Heberer Bloser and the defendant William E. Bloser, be and they are absolutely divorced and restored to the status of single persons. PLAINTIFF IS RESTORED TO HER FORMER NAME OF VILORA HEBERER.

DEPUTY

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the Court at Boise, Idaho, November 25, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney Ariel L. Crowley, and the defendant neither appearing in person nor otherwise at all.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that due and lawful service of summons and complaint has been had and made for the time and in the manner provided by law, and that time for appearance on the part of the defendant has fully expired without any appearance by him, and it further appearing that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein, and that order so establishing has been duly entered, and the default of the defendant having been heretofore regularly entered,

Now, on motion of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to reception of testimony in her behalf, and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for theplaintiff and against the defendant, and finds the plaintiff entitled to divorce, to custody of the minor child Floyd John Evans, and to confirmation of the property settlement entered into between the parties. The Court being now fully advised,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court:

1. That the plaintiff Leuvinia Evans and the defendant John P. Evans be, and they are absolutely divorced hereby and restored to the status of single persons.

2. That the plaintiff Leuvinia Evans have, and she is awarded the custody of the minor child Floyd John Evans, subject to reasonable rights of visitation on the part of the defendant; and the defendant shall, and he is required hereby to pay to the plaintiff for the support of the said minor child the sum of $60.00 per month commencing with the month of November, 1949, and continuing throughout the minority of the said minor child.

3. The plaintiff Leuvinia Evans is awarded, and there is set over to her to be her sole and separate property and estate, free and clear of all claims of the defendant John P. Evans, all of the right, title, interest and estate of the parties in and to the real property described as Tax Lot No. 8, Block 25, Resseguie's Addition to Boise, Idaho, together with all of the furniture, fixtures and equipment in the same. The real property is so awarded subject to the indebtedness against the same.

4. The defendant John P. Evans shall have, and there is set over to him, to be his sole and separate property and estate, free and clear of all claims of the plaintiff, the Buick automobile of the parties, subject to the debt against the same.

5. The defendant John P. Evans shall pay, as and when the same falls due, the mortgage debt upon furniture and equipment located in the dwelling house of the parties upon the premises above described; and he shall pay, of the plaintiff's attorney's fees, the sum of $100.00.

6. The property settlement agreement received in evidence is confirmed and approved.

DECREE

This cause came regularly on to be heard by Honorable A. O. Sutton, Judge of said District Court at the Courtroom of said Court in the Adams County Courthouse, at Council, Idaho, on the 30th day of November, 1949, plaintiff appearing in proper person and by Carl H. Swanstrom, his attorney of record in this action, and from the records and files in this cause, it was made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Hazel B. Wortman had been duly and legally served with summons in this action and that said defendant had not appeared herein to plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law or at all, and it further appearing from the records and files of this action that said defendant was not engaged in any of the Armed Services of the United States or in any other service conferring upon her immunity from judicial process in civil actions, on motion of plaintiff the default of the defendant was ordered duly entered in the premises and said cause set down for hearing and determination by the Court. Witnesses were sworn and testified in behalf of plaintiff and the evidence being closed, plaintiff moved for judgment and decree of the Court in accordance with his complaint, and the Court having heard and considered the evidence and finding therefrom that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are proven and true and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in his complaint,

Now, Therefore, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff Wilbur T. Wortman and the defendant Hazel B. Wortman be, and the same are, hereby severed, dissolved and forever held for naught, and plaintiff is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from defendant upon the ground of defendant's extreme cruelty to plaintiff, and each of the parties is hereby relieved of any and all further obligation one to the other.

It is further ORDERED that subject only to the further order of this Court the permanent care, custody and control of Thomas Raymond Wortman, the minor son of plaintiff and defendant, is awarded to plaintiff subject to the right of visitation at all reasonable times and places by defendant, and the permanent care, custody and control of Ethel Lee Wortman and Jackie Lloyd Wortman, minor daughter and son of the parties to this action, is awarded to defendant subject to the right of reasonable visitation by plaintiff.

And it further appearing to the Court from the evidence submitted on the trial of this cause that the parties to this action had heretofore made adjustment of their property rights, it is ORDERED that the property settlement so made between the parties hereto be, and the same is hereby Approved.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Isaac McDougall Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 2nd day of November, 1949; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Carl C. Christensen, and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant has heretofore, to-wit: On the 12th day of October, 1949, been regularly served with process and has failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed herein or otherwise plead thereto, and the full legal time for so doing having expired and no answer, demurrer or other pleading having been filed or served, the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint, and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Carl C. Christensen, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, GLADYS TONEY, and the defendant, VIRGIL V. TONEY, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the parties hereto be and hereby are awarded as their sole and separate property, such portion of any community property belonging to the parties which the plaintiff or defendant respectively may now have in their possession or under their control on the date of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That at the time of the marriage of the parties to this action, the plaintiff, GLADYS TONEY was the owner of the following described real property, to-wit:

> Lots Numbered Thirty-five (35) and Thirty-six (36) in Block No. Eight (8) of the Fairview Townsite, now a part of the City of Alameda in Bannock County, State of Idaho.

and that during said marriage, the defendant, VIRGIL V. TONEY did not acquire or obtain any title, interest or right in or to said real property or to any part thereof, but that the same in its entirety did remain the separate and individual property of the plaintiff and did not become in any way or in any part the community property of the parties to this action.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff's name be and hereby is changed to that of Gladys Monson, that being her name before her first marriage to the defendant in this action.

Jeffery, deceased; the default of Defendant having heretofore been entered according to law, and the Defendant having by his default waived Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and the Court having heard the testimony of the Plaintiff and her witness, and being fully advised in the premises, finds the Defendant has been regularly served with summons and complaint in this case, and the Court further finds:

That all of the allegations of the Plaintiff's complaint are true and have been proven by competent testimony, and the Court further finds,

That the parties hereto have heretofore divided by agreement all community property acquired by coverture, and the Court further finds,

That the cause of action set forth in the Plaintiff's complaint arose within the State of Idaho, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, Melba Denney Hyde, and the Defendant, Wilson Everett Hyde, be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved and the parties freed from the obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody of the two minor children of this marriage, to-wit: Larry Dee Hyde and Danny Everett Hyde; and the Defendant shall have the right of reasonable visitation of the minor children, if and providing he behaves himself in a gentlemanly manner and does not molest the Plaintiff in any way;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Defendant be required to pay to the Plaintiff for the support of the two minor children of this marriage, the sum of $75.00 per month starting on the date of this Decree, and that the Defendant be required to pay as attorney's fees in this action the sum of $150.00 and costs of this action;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Defendant, Wilson Everett Hyde, has no claim whatsoever of any kind or nature against the Plaintiff, Melba Denney Hyde, for monies, property--real or personal--or anything arising out of or by reason of the said marriage relation.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable [redacted], Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this [redacted] day of November, 1949; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Carl C. Christensen, and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with process in this cause and did appear and file a demurrer by and through his attorneys, Black & Black, and that he has, through his said attorneys, withdrawn his demurrer and filed a refusal to plead any further, and the default of the said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint, and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Carl C. Christensen, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, LOIS BARRETT, and the defendant, JERRY A. BARRETT, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, LOIS BARRETT, be and she hereby is awarded the permanent care, custody and control of Sandra Lea Barrett, the minor child of the parties to this action, with leave to the defendant to see and visit said minor child at all proper times and places and to have said child visit with him at his home or some other proper place at reasonable times and places, and that the Court reserves jurisdiction to modify this decree respecting the custody of said child upon proper showing being made for such modification.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, JERRY A. BARRETT, shall pay to the plaintiff, LOIS BARRETT, the sum of $35.00 per month for the care and maintenance of the said minor child of the parties, and that the first payment of $35.00 shall be made on the 15th day of December, 1949, and a like payment shall be made on or before the 15th day of each succeeding calendar month until further orders of the Court.

JOHN R. McTEE,)

Defendant.)

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 10th day of November, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant was present and with his counsel, Bistline & Bistline of Pocatello, Idaho.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and thereafter filed his Answer, and the case was set for trial, according to Stipulation entered into between the plaintiff and the defendant.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the plaintiff having rested; no evidence was offered by the defendant; and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, that the defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to relief. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by Stipulation of the parties, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor children, namely, Lorraine Minnie McTee, now aged 9 years, John Robert McTee, now aged 7 years, and Charlene Marie McTee, now aged 3 years, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the right on the part of the defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $125.00 per month for the support, maintenance and education of said minor children, the first payment to be made January 1, 1950, and a like payment to be made on the 1st of each and every month thereafter until said children shall reach the age of majority, or until the further order of the court: Provided, that if the defendant shall earn less than $125.00 per week during any one month, said payment for child support for that month shall be reduced to the sum of $100.00 per month.

4. That the 1941 Silver Moon trailer house is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, and that the defendant has no further, right, title or interest in or to the same.

5. That allof the household goods and furniture as follows are hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, and the defendant has no further right, title or interest in or to the same, said property being as follows:

One new combination radio-phonograph
One new washing machine
One new sewing machine, and that as between the parties plaintiff shall pay any obligations currently existing against said property.

6. That the 1947 Chevrolet Tudor automobile is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate, property, and the plaintiff has no further right, title or interest in or to the same, and that as between the parties any obligation thereon shall be assumed by the defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE AND PERMANENT RESTRAINING ORDER

This cause came on for hearing before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, in the Chambers of this Court, in the Bannock County Court House in Pocatello, Idaho this 10th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and also by her attorney, H. J. Swanson, of Pocatello, Idaho. The defendant appeared not either in person or by attorney, and thereupon the Court proceeded to examine the files, records, and proceedings, had in this case, and finds that the Summons has been personally served on the defendant in Idaho, as provided for by the Laws of the State of Idaho; that the time within which the defendant may appear and plead to the complaint has expired, and that the defendant has failed to appear. That an affidavit is on file showing that the defendant is not in the military service and that the Court has ordered the Clerk to enter a Clerk's Default, and that Clerk's Default has been entered as provided by law. That the Court has jurisdiction over the parties to this action and over the subject matter thereof. That thereupon the plaintiff presented her evidence, and the Court having heard the evidence of the plaintiff and her corroborating witness, and having considered the same, finds that all of the allegations of the complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Court having heard the evidence and having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Helen M. Mitchell, and the defendant, John W. Mitchell, be, and the same are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that each of the said parties be, and each hereby is, restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED That the custody, care and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, namely Margie Kay Mitchell, be, and the same hereby is awarded to the plaintiff, Helen M. Mitchell, subject only to the right in the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the real estate and the house thereon, commonly described as 1041 E. Hayden, in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, and more particularly described as:

> The West one-half (W½) of Lots One (1) and Two (2), in Block numbered one hundred sixty (160) in the Townsite of Pocatello, in County and State above named, according to the government survey thereof made by the U. S. Surveyor General, and returned to the General Land Office, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, with the rents, issues and profits thereon, be, and the same hereby is awarded to and set aside to the plaintiff to be her sole and separate property, free from any right or title or interest therein on the part of the defendant; but subject only to the unpaid installments on the mortgage thereon, which indebtedness plaintiff assumes and agrees to pay.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED That all of the personal property described in the complaint, and particularly described as:

1 Hotpoint electric range; 1 Leonard Refrigerator; 1 Bendix Washer; 5 beds, with all necessary bedding; 1 combination radio and phonograph, with a large quantity of records; one living room suite; number of chairs; rugs, and other personal property usually found in a residence such as the above described, including all cooking utensils and dishes, be, and the same hereby is set aside and awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, free from any right, title, claim or interest therein on the part of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED That the 1947 Lincoln automobile referred to in the complaint, be, and the same hereby is set aside and awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property, and the defendant is to pay any balance due thereon.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of their minor child, namely Margie Kay Mitchell, the sum of $25.00 per month commencing with the 30 day of November, 1949, and continuing until the further order of this court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED That the temporary restraining order entered by this Court on the 18th day of October, 1949, is hereby made permanent, and the defendant, John W. Mitchell, is hereby restrained, until the further order of this court, from in any way annoying or molesting the plaintiff or the minor child of the parties hereto, namely Margie Kay Mitchell.

This cause came duly on for hearing before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, in the Chambers of this Court in the Bannock County Court House in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 16th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and also with his attorney, H. J. Swanson, of Pocatello, Idaho. The defendant appeared not, either in person or by counsel.

Thereupon the Court examined all of the files, records and proceedings had herein and finds that the Summons has been personally served on the defendant in Pocatello, as appears from her written admission found on the Summons, and further it appears that she has waived any other service of said Summons. That the time within which the defendant may appear and plead has expired and that the defendant has failed to appear in this case; that a Clerk's Default has been entered as provided for by law, and that an affidavit is on file showing that the defendant was not in the military service at the commencement of the action, and has not been in such service at any time since the commencement of the action, and that the Court has confirmed the entry of the Clerk's Default. That the Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action, and of the parties thereto.

That thereupon the plaintiff presented his evidence and the Court having heard the evidence of the plaintiff and his corroborating witness, and having considered the same, finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for in the complaint.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between Paul J. Bingham, plaintiff herein, and the defendant, Geraldine A. Bingham, be, and the same hereby are dissolved and set aside and that each of the parties be, and each is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

ENRICO V. BIONDI,)
Defendant.)

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 19 day of November, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed, within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED That the defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentarywas thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff, by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency, and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct, and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED, That, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor children, alimony, support of the minor children, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Court being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and helf for naught, and that said parties are, and each of them is restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the care, custody and control of the two minor children, namely, Gloria Marie Biondi, now aged 11 years, and Carol Ann Biondi, now aged 8 years, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff with the right on the part of the defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff, the sum of $75.00 per month, for the support, maintenance and education of said minor children, payable one half on the 15th and one half on the 1st of each month hereafter, the first payment to be made on the 15th of November, 1949, and like payments to be made each month thereafter until said children arrive at the age of majority, or until further order of the Court.

4. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff, for her support and maintenance, the sum of $35.00 per month, payable one half on the 15th and one half on the 1st of each month hereafter, the first payment to be made on the 15th of November, 1949, and like payments to be made each month thereafter until further order of the Court.

5. That there is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, the following property, to-wit:

REAL PROPERTY:

The Southwesterly 30 feet of the Northeasterly half of Lots 1 and 2 in Block 442 of the Pocatello Townsite, in Idaho, according to the Official Plat thereof, more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at the most Northerly corner of said Lot 1, run thence in a Southwesterly direction along the dividing line between said Lot 1 and Putnam Street a distance of 40 feet to the true point of beginning; Continue along said dividing line a distance of 30 feet to a point 70 feet distant from the most Westerly corner of said Lot, run thence at right angles in a Southeasterly direction a distance of 60 feet, more or less, to the dividing line between Lots 2 and 3 in said Block, run thence at right angles in a Northeasterly direction along said dividing line a distance of 30 feet, more or less, to a point 40 feet distant from the Easterly corner of Lot 2, run thence at right angles in a Northwesterly direction across Lots 2 and 1 a distance of 60 feet, more or less, to the true place of beginning, together with water line easement across grantors property to property hereby conveyed.

PERSONAL PROPERTY:

Household goods and furniture consisting of the following: 1 living room suite, 1 platform rocker, 1 Airline radio, 1 portable phonograph, 1 coal range, 1 kitchen set, 1 rollaway bed, 1 chest of drawers, two 9x12 rugs, 2 Persian throw rugs, 6 scatter rugs, 1 Singer sewing machine, 1 electric refrigerator, 1 Washing machine, 1 night stand, 1 electric iron, 1 vacuum cleaner, 1 toaster, 1 coal heatrola, 1 writing desk & chair, 1 telephone stand, 1 foot stool, 2 mirrors, 1 oak table and 4 chairs, one 22 pistol, 1 cot & mattress, 1 clothes hamper, dishes, cooking utensils, silverware, bedding, linens, and other miscellaneous household goods.

6. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff, or to her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho, the sum of $150.00 attorneys fees for the prosecution of this action, and the further sum of $25.00 costs incurred in this action, said sums to be paid forthwith.

NINA MARIE F. CHRISTOPHERSON, Plaintiff, vs. LAWRENCE LEVEEN CHRISTOPHERSON, Defendant.	D E C R E E

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled court, in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 23rd day of November, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by his attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint was filed in the above entitled matter, and that thereupon a summons was issued, and,

It further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the said summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court, and is now on file herein, and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons and is in default therefor; and

It further appearing that the clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the defendant's default, and the plaintiff being entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of his complaint, testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that the allegations thereof are true;

The court finds that the plaintiff has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of the complaint; that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Pocatello, Idaho, on September 1, 1924; that there are no minor children of the parties; that the parties own no community property; and that during the married life of the parties hereto, the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto are hereby dissolved and set aside, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

Dated this 23rd day of November, 1949.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Jesse McDougall, Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 23rd day of November, 1949; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Carl C. Christensen, and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant has heretofore, to-wit: On the 13th day of July, 1949, been regularly served with process by publication of summons and that thereafter, on the 29th day of October, 1949, the said defendant was personally served with summons in the City of Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, and has failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed herein or otherwise plead thereto, and the full legal time for so doing having expired and no answer, demurrer or other pleading having been filed or served, the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Carl C. Christensen, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, ROSALIE KELLY, and the defendant, MERLE J. KELLY, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, ROSALIE KELLY, be and she hereby is awarded the permanent care, custody and control of Linda Lee Kelly, the minor child of the parties to this action, with leave to the defendant to see and visit said minor child at all proper times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, MERLE J. KELLY, shall pay to the plaintiff, ROSALIE KELLY, the sum of $ 25.00 per month for the care and maintenance of the minor child of the parties, and that the first payment shall be made on or before the first day of December, 1949, and a like payment on or before the first day of each succeeding calendar month until further orders of the Court.

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 25th day of November, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and his witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections; that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the defendant's maiden name of Lillian Bakka be, and the same is hereby restored to her use.

Boyatt, and the defendant appearing in propria persona, as evidenced by the files of this action.

And it appearing to the Court that the said defendant was duly served with summons at Hastings, in the county of Adams, State of Nebraska on the 21st day of November, 1949, and thereafter entered his appearance, refused to plead further, and consented to trial of the above cause at this time.

Whereupon, said plaintiff and witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced upon behalf of plaintiff from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by competent, and such matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the parties hereto restored to the status of unmarried persons; and

Randall, having been duly and regularly personally served with summons within the State of Idaho, and the time allowed by law for pleading or answering herein having expired, and the defendant having failed to appear and answer or plead to plaintiff's complaint, and non-military affidavit having been filed and the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law, this cause came on regularly for hearing before Hon. Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court, this day, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the default of the defendant as aforesaid, J. H. Andersen, Esq., appearing on behalf of the plaintiff and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, the Court proceeded to hear the testimony adduced on behalf of the plaintiff from which it satisfactorily appears that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are proved by competent evidence, free from exception or objection as to its sufficiency, relevancy and admissibility, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Flora Bell Randall, and the defendant, George G. Randall, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and said parties are, and each of them is, hereby relieved from the obligations thereof and each is hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff be, and she is hereby restored to her maiden name, to-wit, Flora Bell Hall.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded all of the community property belonging to the parties as her sole and separate property, which said property is described in the complaint and is as follows:

Household furniture, consisting of bookcase, two bedsteads with mattresses, springs and bedding, one coal range; table; chairs, and various kitchen utensils and cutlery now located at Fort Hall, Idaho.

In this cause the above-named defendant, John G. Young, having been regularly served with process and said defendant having failed to Answer, Demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, and the legal time for answering having expired, and the Default of said defendant having been heretofore duly entered according to law, said cause came on regularly for hearing this day before the Judge of the above-entitled Court, at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, H. William Furchner, Esq., appearing for the plaintiff and no appearance being made by the defendant either in person or by counsel; and the Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff, Dorothy Young, and of Emma Stephens, witness for the plaintiff, the plaintiff rested, and said cause was submitted to the Court for consideration and decision; and the Court being advised in the law and the premises finds that each and all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are proved and are true, and that such allegations are proved by evidence free from any objection as to its admissibility, relevancy and materiality, and that the facts so proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her Complaint; and it further appearing to the Court from the affidavit of the plaintiff that plaintiff is unable to file an affidavit that defendant is not now in the military service of the United States;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Dorothy Young, and the defendant, John G. Young, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

DECREE.

This cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, jury waived, this 15 day of November, 1949, upon complaint of plaintiff, plaintiff being present in person and being represented by Everett B. Taylor, her attorney, the defendant having been personally and duly served with summons and complaint and has not appeared or answered the complaint and default having been entered;

Evidence was introduced and the Court finding that the allegations of the complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to divorce, and the making and rendering of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein having been waived as a matter of law;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between plaintiff, Evelyn N. Miller, and defendant, Oliver H. Miller, be dissolved, and said parties are, and each of them is, freed from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, Evelyn N. Miller, be, and is hereby, awarded custody, care, control and education of minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Virginia M. Miller, 13 years old, Letha Arlene Miller, 11 years old, and Dennis W. Miller, 6 years old, for a period of 10 months of each year; 9 months being the regular school year months and 1 month during the summer vacation until said children become of age or are sooner married. That the defendant Oliver H. Miller, shall have the care, control and custody of said minor children two months of each year, during the regular summer vacation months, until said children become of age or are sooner married. That said plaintiff and defendant be permitted to visit the said minor children at any reasonable and convenient time to the parties hereto, while in the care and custody of the other.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That said Oliver H. Miller, defendant herein, shall pay, and he hereby is required to pay, to the said plaintiff, as and for the support and maintenance of said minor children, until their majority, unless sooner married or deceased, the sum of Thirty and no/100 ($30.00) Dollars monthly for each of the said children, said payments to be made in semi-monthly installments, on the first and fifteenth days of each and every month hereafter, beginning December 1, 1949. That the defendant shall not pay the plaintiff $30.00 monthly for the support and maintenance of each of said minor children while in the care, custody and control of the defendant; the defendant is to provide for the support and maintenance of all or any one of the said minor children while in his care and custody.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Sandpoint, Idaho, before the Honorable E. V. Boughton, one of the Judges of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Bonner, on the 23rd day of November, 1949, upon the complaint of plaintiff, taken as confessed by the defendant who had been personally served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint and whose default for not appearing in the action within the time required by law had been duly entered upon the original Complaint.

Plaintiff appeared in person with a witness and one of her attorneys, O. J. Bandelin; the defendant did not appear, nor was he represented by counsel; plaintiff and witness were duly examined relative to said cause, all of which evidence proved the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by failure of the defendant to appear at the trial, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Patricia Roe, and the defendant, Fredrick Roe, be and the same are forever dissolved and plaintiff is granted a divorce upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

Together with all water and water rights, ditches and ditch rights used thereon or appurtenant thereto.

Subject to exceptions and reservations contained in Patents from the United States.

Subject to existing easements for roads, highways, or power and transmission lines.

to Ora B. Findlay, same to be the sole and seaparate property of Ora B. Findlay, and whereas there is an existing indebtedness against said real estate, the party of the second part, Ora B. Findlay hereby assumes and agrees to pay said indebtedness and further agrees to assume said liability and save said first party, James W. Findlay, from any liability whatsoever against said property.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties hereto that whereas there is certain community indebtedness consisting of open accounts of somewhere between Six Hundred ($600.00) Dollars to Nine Hundred ($900.00) Dollars, or whatever the amount, second party assumes and agrees to pay said community indebtedness and that first party is to be entirely released of making any payment thereon and first party guarantees that she will do so and pay said amounts.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties, that second party is to receive a Bill of Sale from first party, which was made and executed on October 19, 1949, covering the following described property in Bonner County, Idaho, to-wit:

> All livestock of every kind and nature whatsoever now situated on So. portion of lot 3 lying south of Cocolalla Creek 27 acres: N½NE¼SE¼ of Section 29, Township 56 N, Range 3 WBM: Tax 6, 7, 8, 9 and that portion of land lying south of Cocolalla Creek and lying West of the S. P. Railroad in Section 28, Township 56 N, Range 3 WBM; including a five horsepower Mercury motor: also all the livestock covered by that Chattel Mortgage made September 22, 1949, by James W. Findlay and Ora B. Findlay, to the United States of America in the principal sum of Eight Thousand Three Hundred Eighty and no/100 Dollars ($8,380.00), and which Chattel Mortgage was signed and recorded in the office of the county recorder of Bonner County, Idaho, on September 28, 1949, and including all the personal property, and also that certain Willys station wagon Motor U 91162, Serial 98915, License Number 7B4348 269726 and being a 1949 type station wagon: also all household furniture, machinery and all personal property of every kind or nature whatsoever located on what is known as the Fink place: also all crops harvested of unharvested of every kind or nature whatsoever located on what is known as the Fink place and on the place known as the Otto Swanstrom place, which property is the sole and seaparate property of Ora B. Findlay, subject however, to any existing mortgage, which mortgage Ora B. Findlay assumes and agrees to pay.

That the same is to become the sole and separate property of Ora B. Findlay, including the rents, issues and profits thereof, and that the said Ora B. Findlay accepts and agrees to pay the mortgage against said property and save party of the first part harmless therefrom and released of any and all liability regarding said mortgage.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties hereto that whereas the parties have borrowed from the F.H.A. approximately Eighteen Thousand Five Hundred ($18,500.00) Dollars, and whereas James W. Findlay has signed said mortgages on said accounts that party of the second part, Ora B. Findlay, hereby assumes and agrees to pay said indebtedness and save the said James W. Findlay harmless thereon and that he is to be relieved of any further liability, and party of the second part, Ora B. Findlay, agrees to pay off said indebtedness according to the terms and conditions of the said mortgages.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the said parties that whereas there is still in the hands of Dale Sanner, agent of the federal government for the F.H.A. the sum of approximately Three Thousand Two Hundred Seventy-four and 31/100 ($3274.31) Dollars, that each of said parties will sign a check in said sum on the Idaho First National Bank to Dale Sanner, agent of the United States Government for F.H.A. and that the same is to be used by the said Dale Sanner in paying for the expense of making certain other improvements on what is known as the Fink place and including a barn to be built thereon.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties hereto that whereas they are not living together at the present time as husband and wife, and in the event either party desires to secure a decree of divorce, the party filing said action hereby agrees to pay all of the expenses in connection therewith and under no circumstances is either party to be liable to the other for Attorneys fees, suit money or alimony.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF The parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Chambers, in the City of Idaho Falls, County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, within said Judicial District this day of October, 1949, at the hour of o'clock M., of said day, plaintiff appearing in person and by Gilbert C. St.Clair, one of her attorneys, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for him. Audrey Rigoulot appeared to corroborate plaintiff's residence.

The Court having examined the files of this action and finding that service of Complaint and Summons upon the defendant, William Bunce Haskell, has been legally made, and the date having expired for his appearance and the Default of said defendant having heretofore been duly and regularly entered, the Court proceeded to hear the case upon the verified Complaint herein and the testimony of plaintiff and the testimony of a corroborating witness as to residence, on behalf of said plaintiff, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment and the Court having considered all the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing that all material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and the Court finding the same to be true, the parties having waived the findings of fact and conclusions of law and all and singular the laws and premises being by the Court considered and the Court having jurisdiction of the matters and of the parties hereto.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and each of said parties freed from the obligations thereof and each restored to the status of a single person.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of the above-entitled Court, in chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 13th day of October, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and W. K. Naylor appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing not either in person or by counsel, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf and one Phyllis Garner, witness for the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff and thereupon the plaintiff rested; and no proof whatsoever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above-named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of the above-entitled Court in the within cause, together with, and attached to, a true copy of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein; that the said defendant failed to appear or plead to plaintiff's said Complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law; that this Court has jurisdiction of the person of the above-named plaintiff and of the person of the above-named defendant and of the subject matter of this action; that the allegations of plaintiff's said Complaint have been established by sufficient and competent evidence free from legal objections; that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in her said Complaint filed herein; the Court further finds that there have been no children born as the issue of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant; it appears from the evidence, and the Court further finds, that the community personal property of the plaintiff and defendant has been divided and settled between them and that there are no property rights to be adjudicated in or by this action.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Dolores R. Taylor, and the defendant, Samuel P. Taylor, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that said plaintiff and said defendant be, and they hereby are restored to the status of single persons.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for trial, in chambers, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, on the 17th day of October, 1949, L. H. Merrill appearing as counsel for plaintiff, and no one appearing for or on behalf of the defendant; whereupon, plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf and thereupon, Teressa Shore was duly and regularly sworn and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff and thereupon, the plaintiff rested, and the defendant having submitted no proof whatever for or in his behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the summons issued out of the above entitled Court in the within cause, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint filed herein; and the defendant has entered no appearance herein and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law, and the affidavit of non-military service has been duly entered,

NOW, THEREFORE, ON MOTION OF L. H. MERRILL, The attorney of record for the above named plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Beulah Musgrave, and the above named defendant, Heber Stephen Musgrave, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the plaintiff and the defendant, and each of them be, and they hereby are, restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff have and hereby is awarded the care, custody and control of the two minor children, namely, Stephen Lewis Musgrave, age seven and Charles Bruce Musgrave, age five, with the right of the defendant, Heber Stephen Musgrave, to have the care and custody of said minor children three months out of each year, during vacation period, so as not to interfere with their schooling and education.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED,ADJUDGED AND DECREED,that the defendant, Heber Stephen Musgrave, pay to the plaintiff, Beulah Musgrave, for the support and maintenance of the two said minor children, the sum of $60.00 per month, beginning November 1st, 1949, with the exception that when said defendant has the care, custody and control of said minor children during vacation period, he may be relieved from paying to the plaintiff the said $60.00 per month during the period that the children are under defendant's supervision and control.

JUDGMENT

GEORGE E. KEISER,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on for final hearing before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 17th day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, her attorneys, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the Summons in said cause has been duly served upon the defendant by publication in the manner provided by law, that the time for answering the Complaint herein has expired, and that no answer, demurrer or other appearance has been made or filed herein by the defendant and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered by the Clerk of this Court, and that an affidavit of the non-military or naval service has been filed herein, the Court finds that said defendant is not in the military or naval service of the United States and that said cause may proceed by default so far as the provisions of the Act of Congress known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, is concerned.

Evidence was thereupon adduced by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, and upon due consideration thereof, and of the files and records of this action, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Leona Keiser, and the defendant, George E. Keiser, be, and the same hereby are in all things dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff, Leona Keiser, be, and she hereby is, awarded the sole care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, Richard Keiser.

Plaintiff,

JUDGMENT

DON WILCOX,

Defendant.

The above-entitled cause came before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, for final hearing, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 4th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Albaugh, Bloem and Hillman, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that said defendant has appeared in said cause by stipulation on file herein, under and pursuant to which stipulation the defendant, among other things, admits that he has been served with a true copy of the Summons in this cause, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint filed herein, entered his general appearance in this action and submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Court, refused to demur, answer, or plead further, consents that default be entered against him and to an immediate hearing of said cause without further notice, and waived by said stipulation the making of findings of fact, and conclusions of law, it further appearing that the time for answering said complaint has expired and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

Evidence was thereupon adduced by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint in said cause, and after duly considering the same and the files and records of this action, the Court finds that the allegations of said complaint are sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint, subject to the terms and conditions of said stipulation, which stipulation the Court finds to be just and equitable under the circumstances of the parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby are, in all things dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff have as her sole and separate property, and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all the household good and furniture of the parties, and the defendant, Don Wilcox is required to assume and pay, as the same becomes due, the existing mortgage on said property held by the Pacific Finance Company, and the balance owing on the purchase price thereof.

3. That the sole care, custody and control of the minor child, Rita Jo Wilcox, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, provided, however, that the defendant shall have the right to visit said child at all reasonable times and places.

4. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, as and for the support, maintenance and education of said child, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month, commencing with the 15th day of November, 1949, and payable on the 15th day of each and every month thereafter until said child shall have reached the age of majority, or until the further order of this Court.

This cause came on regularly for trial at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, on the 10th day of November, 1949; Holden & Holden appearing for and in behalf, and as the attorneys of record for the above named plaintiff, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon Shirley Wheeler was duly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and thereupon the above named plaintiff rested and the above named defendant having submitted no proof for or in his own behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of said Court in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint filed herein; that the defendant failed to appear or answer, or otherwise plead to said plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, either in person or by counsel within the time required by law, or at all; that the time for answering having expired, the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law; that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States, nor in any branch of service thereof; that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action, and of the person of the above named plantiff and of the person of the above named defendant, and of the person of the minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant; namely, Dorothy Fletcher, age eleven years; that there are no property rights to be adjudicated in this action; that all the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein are true; that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce, as prayed for in her Complaint filed herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff:

I

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Mamie Fletcher, and the above named defendant, Anzy Fletcher, be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff, Mamie Fletcher, be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant, Dorothy Fletcher, age eleven years.

Dated and entered at Idaho Falls, Idaho, this 10th day of November, A.D. 1949.

WILLIAM ALBERT HAYS, Defendant.	)

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing this 10th day of November, 1940, the plaintiff appearing with counsel, John M. Sharp, and her witness. The defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel; and it appearing to the court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process as prescribed by law in such cases made and provided; that the time for answering having expired and defendant has failed to plead thereto; that the default of the defendant has been duly entered; and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service duly filed; the plaintiff having submitted proofs touching the allegations of the Complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises; and it further appearing that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of Wilful Desertion and it further appearing that plaintiff and defendant have entered into a written agreement regarding the settlement of the property rights of every nature existing between them and also regarding the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I.

That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above-named plaintiff, Leona Hays, and the above-named defendant, William Albert Hays, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught.

II.

That the care, custody and control of Robert Stanley, Richard Lamar and Patsy Irene Hays, the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, shall be awarded to the plaintiff, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places; subject further to the right of defendant to have the custody and control of Richard Lamar for a period of not to exceed thirty (30) days during the usual summer school vacation period, and the right to the custody and control of Patsy Irene for a period not to exceed two (2) calendar weeks during the usual summer school vacation period, provided, however, that said minor children shall not be compelled to remain with the defendant longer than they desire to remain with him, notwithstanding the provisions hereinbefore set out.

III.

That the defendant shall be required to pay to the plaintiff, for the support, maintenance and education of Richard Lamar and Patsy Irene, the sum of $25.00 each per month, until each child reaches the age of eighteen (18) years. The first payment to be made on or before the 10th day of December, 1949, and a like payment on the 10th day of each and every month thereafter.

IV.

That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $95.00, in full settlement of all claims by plaintiff against defendant for attorneys fees and court costs arising out of this action

FRANCIS KENNETH HOPFINGER, Defendant.

This cause came on regularly for trial at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 17 day of November, 1949, Holden & Holden appearing for and in behalf and as the attorneys of the above named plaintiff, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, whereupon plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon W. C. Burns was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and thereupon the above named plaintiff rested, and the above named defendant having submitted no proof whatever, for or in his own behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

I

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of said Court, in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint filed herein; that defendant has filed herein an appearance, submitting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court, and has refused to plead further in said cause, and has consented to an immediate hearing of this case without further notice to him, either in term time or vacation, in open Court or in Chambers, and has waived the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, and has consented that default be entered against him, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a Stipulation with respect to the custody of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, Gregory Cedric Hopfinger and Jeffrey Oren Hopfinger, and the payment of a certain sum each month by the defendant to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor children, and it appearing to the Court that said Stipulation is in all respects fair, just and equitable, and the Judge having heard the evidence, and the matter having been submitted, and it appearing that all the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the custody of said minor children, and to a divorce as prayed for in plaintiff's Complaint, and it further appearing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, nor in any branch of service thereof; that there are no property rights to be adjudicated herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff:

I

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Betty Mae Hopfinger, and the above named defendant, Francis Kenneth Hopfinger, be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant, and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the above named plaintiff, Betty Mae Hopfinger, be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the two minor sons of plaintiff and defendant; namely, Gregory Cedric

Hopfinger, a son, age four years, and Jeffrey Oren Hopfinger, a son, age three years; and the defendant shall have the right to see and visit said minor sons of plaintiff and defendant at reasonable times and places, provided, the said defendant pays the monthly support for said minor children as herein provided.

III

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said defendant, Francis Kenneth Hopfinger, pay to the plaintiff, Patty Mae Hopfinger, the sum of $100.00 on the 20th day of November, 1949, and the sum of $100.00 on the 20th day of each and every month thereafter for the support of said two minor sons of plaintiff and defendant, Gregory Cedric Hopfinger, age four years, and Jeffrey Oren Hopfinger, age three years, until the further order of this Court, or until said minor sons shall have attained the age of majority.

IV

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that there are no property rights, community or otherwise, to be adjudicated in this action.

BONNIE HANSEN, Plaintiff, -vs- LELAND HANSEN, Defendant.	)	FINDINGS OF FACT CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND JUDGMENT

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing this 10th day of November, 1949, upon an Order to Show Cause why defendant should not be held in contempt for failure to make monthly payments for the support of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, as required by the Decree of Divorce entered June 20, 1949; John M. Sharp appeared in behalf of plaintiff; defendant appeared in person and without counsel; upon an admission by defendant that he had been making sufficient money to support his child and that he has not done so, the court found as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

That the defendant is seven (7) months in arrears in his monthly payments for the support of his minor child, being a total of $210.00; that the defendant has failed to pay $68.00 due to plaintiff as and for her attorney fees and costs in obtaining said divorce.

That Bonnie Hansen is without funds with which to pay her attorney to represent her in this action, and that it was necessary that she be represented by counsel in this action.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

From the foregoing facts the court concludes that the defendant is in contempt of court for his failure to pay to plaintiff $30.00 per month for the past seven (7) months for support of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, and for his failure to pay to plaintiff the sum of $68.00 as and for her attorney fees and costs.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of John M. Sharp, attorney for plaintiff, IT IS HEREBY CONSIDERED, ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED, that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $210.00 as and for support of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant as monthly payments past due, together with the sum of $68.00 as and for costs of suit and attorney fees in obtaining said Divorce; that said delinquent payments be paid to plaintiff in sums of not less than $15.00 per month, in addition to current payments until the full $278.00 has been paid.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff have and recover of and from the defendant the sum of $25.00 as and for her attorney's fees for services rendered herein.

JUDGMENT

EARL G. CONWAY,

Defendant.

The above-entitled cause came on for final hearing before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at Chambers of the Court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 18th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, her attorneys, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the defendant and the plaintiff have heretofore entered into a stipulation, under and pursuant to which, the defendant, among other things, admits that he has been personally served with the Summons in this action, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint herein, enters his general appearance in this action and submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Court, refuses to answer, demur, or plead further in said cause and waives additional time within which to plead, consents that a default may be entered against him and said cause be heard at any time without further notice, either in term or vacation, in open court or in chambers, and that judgment may be entered without notice, subject to the further terms of said stipulation, the defendant waiving findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and it further appearing that the time for answering said complaint has expired and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered herein, evidence was thereupon adduced by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint.

After duly considering such evidence and the files and records of this action, including said stipulation, the terms and conditions of which stipulation the Court hereby approves as being just and equitable under the circumstances of the parties, the Court finds that the allegations of said complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby are, in all things dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff have, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all the household furniture and home furnishings of the parties, but that plaintiff shall have no other or further claim against the defendant, either as support, alimony, property rights, or otherwise.

3. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded and restored to her her maiden name of Virginia Stahl.

JUNE JENSEN,

Plaintiff,

vs JUDGMENT

DEWAYNE JENSEN,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on for trial before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, on this 18th day of November, 1949, Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing from the files and records of this action that the summons in said cause has been duly served upon the defendant, together with a true copy of the complaint, that the time for answering said complaint provided by law has expired, and that no answer, demurrer, or other appearance has been made by or for the defendant, and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered by the Clerk of this Court, and it further appearing that an affidavit of the non-military or naval service of the defendant has been duly filed herein, from which the Court finds that said defendant is not in such military or naval service, and that said cause may proceed as by default, so far as the provisions of the Act of Congress known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, are concerned.

Evidence was thereupon adduced by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, and after duly considering such evidence and the files and records of said action, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to relief as prayed for in her said complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, AS FOLLOWS:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby are in all things dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded, the sole care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, Sheryl Jensen, Larry Jensen, and Debora Jensen, subject to the right of the defendant to see and visit said children at reasonable times and intervals, so long as the defendant shall not be in default in the payments hereinafter provided to be made by him for the support of said children.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff, as and for the support of the minor child, Sheryl Jensen, the sum of Fifteen Dollars per month, the first payment to be made within ten days from the entry of this decree, and continuing until said child reaches the age of eighteen years or until the further order of the Court in the premises; that the defendant pay to the plaintiff, as and for the support of the minor child, Larry Jensen, the further sum of Fifteen Dollars per month, the first payment to be made within ten days from the entry of this decree, and continuing until said child reaches the age of eighteen years, or until the further order of the Court in the premises; that the defendant pay to the plaintiff, as and for the support of the minor child, Debora Jensen, the sum of Fifteen Dollars per month, the first payment to be made within ten days from the entry of this decree, and continuing until said child reaches the age of eighteen years, or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

4. That the plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded, as and for her sole and separate property and for her separate use and benefit, all of the household furniture and house furnishings of the parties, and that the defendant may have and retain as his sole and separate property any and all other property of the parties.

The above entitled cause coming on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, District Judge, at Chambers at Idaho Falls, County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, on the 25th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by one of his attorneys, Errol H. Hillman, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney, and it appearing that the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with process herein, and that he has filed herein an appearance submitting himself to the jurisdiction of the Court, and has refused to plead further in said cause, and has consented to an immediate hearing of this case without further notice to him, either in term time or vacation, in open Court or in Chambers, and has waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and has consented that default be entered against him, and the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a stipulation with respect to the settlement of their property rights, and it appearing to the Judge that said stipulation is in all respects fair, just, and equitable, and the Judge having heard the evidence, and the matter having been submitted, and it further appearing that all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, and the Judge being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Helen Hunter, and the defendant, Horald Hunter, be, and they hereby are, dissolved and each restored to the status of a single person.

2. That all community property of the parties hereto of whatsoever nature, either real or personal or mixed be, and the same hereby is, awarded and decreed to the defendant, Horald Hunter, as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit.

3. That the defendant, Horald Hunter, has paid to the plaintiff, Helen Hunter, the sum of $1,000.00, and has executed and delivered to the plaintiff, Helen Hunter, two promissory notes in the amount of $1,000.00 each, secured by a mortgage on real property, that are due and payable respectively, on the 15th day of November, 1950 and the 15th day of November, 1951; that the payment of the said sum of $1,000.00 and the execution and delivery of said notes and mortgage to the plaintiff, Helen Hunter, is in full and complete settlement and release of all claims and demands of every kind, name or nature against the said defendant, including all liability now or at any time hereafter existing or accruing, either on account of support, maintenance, temporary alimony or permanent alimony, and the said defendant is hereby relieved entirely from all personal claims and demands arising in any manner from the relation of husband and wife and from any and all costs, charges, and expenses incident to this action, and the said defendant is hereby released from all claim of the plaintiff of any interest whatever in any property, real or personal, community or separate, which the said defendant now may own, or that he may at any time hereafter hold or acquire.

Dated this 25th day of November, 1949.

together with any and all interest in real or personal property not hereinabove described, which the said Don Guiles may have any interest, claim or title to.

Dated this 18th day of October, 1949.

O. C. WILSON
District Judge.

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this 9th day of September, 1949, by and between J. H. McNally, general guardian and guardian ad litem of Irene Guiles, an insane person, party of the first part and Don Guiles, party of the second part,

WHEREAS, Irene Guiles and Don Guiles are husband and wife, that on the 9th day of August, 1932, Irene Guiles was adjudged to be insane and is now permanently and incurably insane and is committed to the State Hospital for the Insane at Orofino, Idaho, and

WHEREAS, Don Guiles has filed a divorce action against Irene Guiles in the District Court of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Boundary, and that Irene Guiles through her duly appointed, qualified and acting general guardian and guardian ad litem and Don Guiles are desirous of making a full and complete settlement of all their property interests, and

WHEREAS, W. J. Nixon, Prosecuting Attorney in and for Boundary County, State of Idaho has appeared for the said Irene Guiles, insane, and has made an investigation of the community interests of the parties hereto and has approved the property settlement agreement between the parties as being fair and equitable.

NOW THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH: That in settlement and adjustment of all their property rights the wife, Irene Guiles, through her general guardian and guardian ad litem does hereby sell, assign, convey, transfer and set over unto the husband, Don Guiles, all her interest in community real and personal property, which said property shall be the sole and separate estate of the husband independent of any interest of the wife; all property of either the husband or wife whether real or personal, which shall hereafter be accumulated shall be the sole and separate property of the one accumulating the same, free from all rights of the other with full power to convey or deal with the same as if each were single.

The husband, Don Guiles, shall pay to J. H. McNally, as general guardian of Irene Guiles, insane, the sum of $20,000.00 in consideration for the conveyance of the entire interest of the wife in the community property estate, which amount shall be the sole and separate property of the wife. Said sum of $20,000.00 shall be paid as follows: Promissory note in the amount of $20,000.00, payable $2,000.00 on or before the 15th day of October, 1949, and $2,000.00 each year thereafter, together with interest at the rate of 5% per annum, which interest shall be payable monthly beginning on the 15th day of November, 1949, and each month thereafter until paid in full. Said promissory note shall be secured by a real estate mortgage covering on the following described property, to-wit:

> South One Half ($S\frac{1}{2}$) of Southeast Quarter ($SE\frac{1}{4}$); Northeast Quarter ($NE\frac{1}{4}$) of Southeast Quarter ($SE\frac{1}{4}$(; Southeast Quarter ($SE\frac{1}{4}$) of Northeast Quarter ($NE\frac{1}{4}$); with riparian rights, in Section 18, Township 62 North, Range 1 EBM; Also: Northwest Quarter ($NW\frac{1}{4}$) of Southeast Quarter ($SE\frac{1}{4}$) and Lot Six (6) except proposed right of way for diking purposes of Section 18, Township 62 North, Range 1 EBM;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that Don Guiles shall have the option of paying all or any part of said note and mortgage at any time.

IT IS FURTHER MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD that each party is hereby barred from any and all other rights or claims by way of support, inheritance, descent, distribution or any rights whatsoever from the other; The wife further relinquishes all right, title claim and interest in and to said community property and accepts said sum of $20,000.00 as hereinabove provided to be paid in full and complete settlement of her community interests which shall be accepted as a complete adjustment and settlement between said parties.

IT IS FURTHER MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that all of the interest of Irene Guiles to both real and personal property may be decreed to Don Guiles as his sole and separate property subject only to the encumbrance of the mortgage hereinabove referred to. That the community real estate to be decreed to the husband is described but not limited to the following described property, to-wit:

East Half of the following described property; South east Quarter (SE¼) and Govt Lot Five (5), except West Nine (9) acres of said Govt Lot Five (5) which was previously sold to Frank A. Moens, all of said property in Section 31, Township 65 North, Range 1 WBM;

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 14th day of November, 1949, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were dully married at Payette, Idaho, on the 15th day of March, 1943, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff such mental suffering, pain and anguish as to constitute mental cruelty.

The Court therefore ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof;

That the plaintiff be awarded all of her separate property, consisting of beds and two mattresses; davenport; table and 4 chairs, dishes, bedding and other household furniture and equipment.

Defendant. :

On this 14 day of November, 1949, this cause came regularly on for trial, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Geo. H. van de Steeg, her attorney of record in the action, and the defendant appearing not at all; and it appearing to the court from the records and files of the action that said defendant was duly served with the summons in said action and that he accepted service of such summons personally according to law, and that he has failed to appear, answer or plead to the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, and that the time allowed by law so to do has now fully expired, and that said defendant is in default for want of appearance; and it further appearing to the court that said defendant is not engaged in the military and/or naval service of the United States within the provisions of the Act of Congress of 1940 known as the Soldire's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act; now therefore, on motion of counsel for said plaintiff;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said defendant is in default and judgment of default is hereby rendered against him, and the Clerk of this Court is hereby directed to enter judgment of default against said defendant upon the minutes of the court and upon the records of the court in this cause.

AND THEREUPON, the Court proceeded with the trial of the cause, and plaintiff and her witnesses were duly sworn to testify, and did testify, and documentary evidence was admitted in evidence, and the court being now fully advised in the premises, finds that the allegations contained in plaintiff's are fully substantiated by the evidence and are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from and against the defendant, and is entitled to have awarded, set over and assigned to her as her shere of the community property the real property in the complaint described, and that the defendant is entitled to have awarded to him the personal property in the complaint described, to which division of the community property the parties have mutually agreed.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties to this action be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and set at naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted a divorce from and against the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, and that her name of Beulah P. Mitchell be restored to her.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the community real property of the parties described as the South sixty and one-half feet of the North one-half of Block eighteen (18) of Pleasant Acres Addition to Nampa, Canyon County, Idaho, as shown upon the recorded Plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the ex-officio Recorder of said Canyon County, Idaho, be, and the same hereby awarded to, set over and assigned unto the plaintiff, Beulah P. Allen, as her sole and separate property; and that the personal property described in the complaint, to-wit: a Dodge Automobile Motor # DR 50702, State of Oregon license and title, together with a Roadmaster trailer house, and also one old truck, all being in the possession of the defendant, be, and the same hereby is, set over and assigned unto the defendant as and for his separate property.

This matter came on to be heard before the Court at Caldwell, Idaho, on this 17th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, C. H. Higer. The defendant having appeared in said action by filing a demurrer, then withdrew from said cause, and allowed his default to be entered; and there upon, the Court heard the sworn testimony of the plaintiff and her corroborative witness, and from it the Court finds that the defendant has inflicted upon the plaintiff extreme cruelty as alleged in said complaint; the Court further finds that there has been born issue of said marriage, one child, to-wit: Linda Kay Mason, which said child is now of the age of ___ days, having been born on October 19, 1949; the Court further finds that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of said child; the Court further finds that the sum of $20 per month is a reasonable sum for the defendant to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said minor child during its minority, or until the further order of this Court; and the Court further finds that all of the community property, which consists of miscellaneous household goods and household furnishings is property which should be awarded to the plaintiff herein.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, by the Court, and this does order, adjudge, and decree, that the bonds of matrimony, heretofore, and now existing between plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the above entitled court, this 18th day of November, 1949, Frank E. Meek appearing as counsel for the plaintiff and the defendant having been regularly and duly served with summons and complaint in said action, and it further appearing that the defendant is not a person in the military service of the United States of America, as defined by any Act of Congress, or State Legislation, and the defendant having failed to appear herein in person or by counsel, or to plead to said complaint within the time required by law, and his default for having failed to appear or plead to said complaint having been duly entered on the 18th day of November, 1949.

Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and the court having considered all the evidence and testimony in this action, and it having been made to appear to the Court that the plaintiff and defendant were inter-married at Lexington, Nebraska, on the 15th. day of July, 1934, and ever since said date have been and now are wife and husband.

That the plaintiff is now and for more than six weeks last past immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that there are no property rights to be adjudicated in this action; that there has been one child born as the issue of said marriage, to-wit, La Von Thorell, eleven years of age.

And the court being fully advised in the premises, and being of the opinion that all the material allegations contained in the complaint of the plaintiff on file herein are true and correct; that on or about the 1st. day of February, 1948, defendant wilfully and without cause deserted and abandoned plaintiff and ever since said time has continued to so wilfully and without cause desert and abandon the plaintiff and to live separate and apart from her; that defendant for more than one year last past immediately preceding the commencement of this action has wilfully neglected to provide the plaintiff with the common necessaries of life.

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, be dissolved and held for naught, and the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely divorced from each other.

That plaintiff be granted sole, custody and control of said La Von Thorell, the minor child of the parties hereto.

Done in open Court this 18 day of Nov, 1949.

* * *

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in the above entitled court, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of extreme cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; and it is further

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the care, custody and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, William Richard Saville, is awarded to the plaintiff, provided that the said defendant may visit said child during reasonable hours in the daytime; and that the defendant be required to pay the plaintiff the sum of $40.00 per month for the care and support of the said minor child of plaintiff and defendant.

JUNE N. ALBERTS,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

ELVIS N. ALBERTS,

Defendant.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled Court on the 28th day of November, 1949, CALDWELL AND ALEXANDERSON appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and defendant having failed to appear herein in person, or by counsel, and said defendant having failed to appear or plead to said Complaint within the time required by law, or at all, and his default for having failed to appear or plead to said Complaint having been duly entered, witnesses were sworn and testified;

AND THE COURT having heard and considered all of the evidence and testimony in said action and it having been made to appear to this Court that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, on or about June 1, 1949, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife; and that the plaintiff is now and for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

That since said marriage, the defendant has treated the plaintiff in such manner as to distress her to a very large degree, both mentally and physically, and to such an extent as to cause plaintiff grievous mental and physical pain and suffering, and to such an extent as to constitute extreme cruelty;

That there are no children now born, the issue of said marriage; that plaintiff is now pregnant and expects a child to be born, the child of this plaintiff and defendant, on or about March 1, 1950;

That there are no community property interests to be adjudicated between the parties hereto;

That all of the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true and are sustained by the evidence and proofs submitted upon said hearing, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her Complaint and that decree should be entered accordingly;

That all the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by the defendant by his failure to appear in said action or plead to said Complaint in said action;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, be dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties be absolutely divorced.

2. That the defendant pay to this plaintiff the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month beginning Dec-1-1949 for her care, maintenance and support and for the care, maintenance and support of said child if and when the same is born, said payments to continue until further order of this Court.

3. That the exclusive care, custody and control of the child to be born on or about March 1, 1950, if said child is born and survives, be and hereby is awarded to the plaintiff, June N Alberts, and that defendant be perpetually estopped, debarred, and enjoined from interfering with the control of said minor child; reserving, however, the right of the defendant to visit said child at proper times and places.

LE ROY C. CARPENTER,

Defendant.

- - - - - - -

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court on the 19th day of November, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, S. T. Love, and the defendant having failed to appear, either in person or by an attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due and personal service had been had upon the defendant at Los Angeles, in the State of California, on the 15th day of October, 1949; that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff had expired and no appearance, answer or demurrer had been made by the defendant to the complaint of the plaintiff; and it further appearing to the Court that the defendant is not and for a period of more than six months has not been engaged in the military service of the United States or any of its allies, on motion of S. T. Love, attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant was by the Court ordered entered.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested, and it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff were true and had been supported by the evidence; that all of the community property that is now owned by the plaintiff and defendant is beyond the jurisdiction of this Court and cannot be divided between the parties hereto, and that, by reason of the service of the summons upon the defendant in the State of California, a valid judgment cannot now be made for the support, maintenance and education of the minor children, issue of the said marriage, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment and decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant and giving and granting to the plaintiff the sole care, custody and control of the minor children, issue of the said marriage, and that the Court retain jurisdiction of this matter for the purpose of dividing the community property between the plaintiff and defendant in the event that any of the community property be brought within the jurisdiction of this Court, and for making an order and decree requiring the defendant to provide for the support, maintenance and education of the minor children, issue of the said marriage.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Donna Carpenter, and the defendant, LeRoy C. Carpenter, be and the same are hereby released, dissolved and discharged and the plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

2.

That the plaintiff, Donna Carpenter, be and she is hereby given and granted the sole care, custody and control of Terrilee Carpenter, a daughter, who is now two years old, and Carol Lynn Carpenter, a daughter, who is now one year old.

That this Court retain jurisdiction of this cause to divide the community property between the plaintiff and defendant in the event that any of the community property be brought within the jurisdiction of this Court, and to make an order and decree requiring the defendant to pay for the support, maintenance and education of the minor children, issue of the said marriage.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff in open court at Burley, Cassia County, Idaho on this 26th day of November, 1949, before the Honorable Kales Lowe, Judge of said Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and the defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had by Stipulation in writing, admitted due and legal service of the Summons and Complaint upon him and had expressly waived the time allowed by law for appearance in said action, had refused to appear in said action except as stipulated therein, and that the clerk of said court upon the filing of said stipulation had regularly entered the defeault of the defendant.

Witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and certain evidence was offered and plaintiff rested and the cause was submitted to the Judge for consideration and decision and it appearing to the Judge that the allegations contained in Plaintiff's complaint, as modified by the stipulation of the parties hereto, are true and are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to its competency, relevancy and admissibility and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant and to decree awarding to her the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto hereinafter named, findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived by the plaintiff, expressly, and by the defendant by stipulation,

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises aforesaid:

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Venola B. Smith, and the defendant, John Ernest Smith, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that each party hereto be and each of them is hereby released from all objections thereof, and that the care, custody and control of Doralei Smith , a daughter, born on the 28th day of January, 1939, be and the the same is hereby given and awarded to the plaintiff, subject to a right on the part of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times, intervals and periods.

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly for for hearing this 14th day of November, A.D. 1949, Frank F. Kibler, Esq., appearing as counselfor the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing by counsel or otherwise, and it appearing to the Court that summons in this cause has been heretofore duly and regularly served upon the defendant herein personally, and the the defendant has failed to answer, appear, or plead to the plaintiff's complaint herein within the time allowed by law, or at all, and on motion of Frank F. Kibler, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to so appear, plead or answer plaintiff's complaint herein was duly and regularly entered by the Court at chambers on November, 14th, 1949.

WHEREUPON Witnesses were sworn and evidence introduced on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause submitted, from which it appears that all of the allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competence, admissibility and sufficiency, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for;

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Frank F. Kibler, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, that the plaintiff shall have, and he hereby is, granted a divorce from the defendant on the grounds of wilful desertion, and that the bonds of matrimony between said plaintiff and defendant are hereby dissolved; and that parties are hereby restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE that the care, custody, control, and maintenance of the minor child, BONNIE LOU BEVER, age about 14 months be, and the same is hereby given, granted and awarded to the defendant, subject to the right of the plaintiff to visit with and be visited by said minor child at reasonable times and place and subject to any further order of the court hereafter in such relation.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, that the plaintiff, Ronald Keith Bever, shall pay to the defendant, Evelyn L. Bever, for the support and maintenance of said minor child the sum of $30.00 Dollars per month, commencing with the calendar month of November, 1949, such payments to be for the maintenance, support, and education of said minor child and shall continue subject to the further order of the Court hereafter, or until said child shall attain the age of legal majority, die, or otherwise become self-supporting.

James A. O'Neill
CLERK OF COURT,

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in Chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 18th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Howard Merle Beck had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action and that said defendant has filed his appearance herein and consented to the entry of default judgment against him without further notice of proceedings, and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have dissolved the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant;

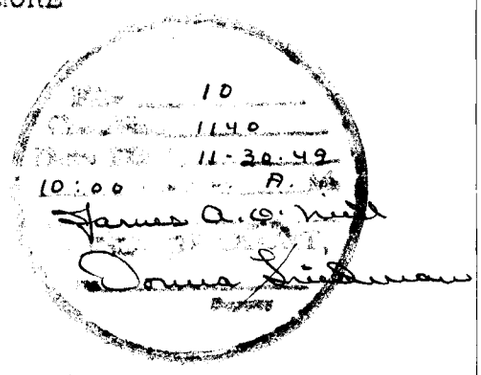
DECREE



The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 25th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Amagean Harris had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of his complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action of said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful desertion of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action of said complaint the Court finds that the plaintiff and the defendant have lived separate and apart from each other for a period of more than five consecutive years without cohabitation, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Crystal Harris and the defendant Amagean Harris be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and he is hereby divorced from said defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the care, custody and control of John Lee Harris, minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant, be and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant and that the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant towards the support and maintenance of said minor child the sum of $30.00 on or before the first day of each and every month hereafter and that the plaintiff shall continue to make such payments until such child reaches the age of majority.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came regularly on to be heard before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, District Judge, on the 21st day of October, 1949. Willard C. Burton, Attorney at Law, appeared for the plaintiff, and no one appeared for or on behalf of the defendant;

And it appearing to the Court, that the defendant, Donald Pringle was duly and regularly served with summons in this action; that thereafter he filed herein his appearance and waiver whereby he submitted himself to the jurisdiction of this court, waived his right under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, to have this action stayed during the service in the United States Army, and consented that default might be entered against him, and more than twenty days having passed since the said appearance and defendant having failed to appear and plead further or to answer plaintiff's complaint, and the time allowed by law for appearing and answering having expired, and default having been entered against him, and

Competent evidence having been introduced in support of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint,

NOW THEREFORE, The Court being fully advised in the law and the premises, and on motion of Willard C. Burton, attorney for the plaintiff,

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED: That a decree of divorce be, and the same is hereby granted the plaintiff, Mary E. Pringle, upon the grounds of cruelty, and for fault of the defendant, Donald Pringle, and that certain marriage contracted between the parties on or about the 5th day of April, 1942, be, and the same is hereby, dissolved, and the said parties are, and each of them is, restored to the status of single persons.

CLARK HUGHES,
Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This case came on regularly for hearing on the 29th day of November, 1949, before Honorable Thomas E. Buckner, Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Claude Marcus, of Boise, Idaho.

Defendant appeared by his attorney, J. P. Reed, of Emmett, Idaho.

Whereupon, testimony was introduced in behalf of Plaintiff, and no testimony was submitted in behalf of Defendant, and the court being fully advised in the premises both as to the law and to the facts, finds as follows:

I

That Plaintiff is now and has been for more than six full weeks preceding the filing of this action a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That Defendant, Clark Hughes, is not now in the military service of the United States or of any ally in any capacity whatever, but is a resident of Emmett, Idaho, and presently employed in work at Emmett, Idaho.

III

That the parties to this action were married at Nampa, Idaho, on the 8th day of December, 1945, and are now husband and wife.

IV

That no children have been born of this marriage.

V

That the Separation and Property Division Agreement entered into between these parties and introduced in evidence in this case is fair and equitable and should be approved.

VI

That the proof of Plaintiff, free from legal objection, establishes the allegations of her complaint as true, and by reason thereof, Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

NOW THEREFORE, Pursuant to the above findings, the court does hereby order, adjudge, and decree as follows:

I

That Plaintiff, Pearl O. Hughes, is entitled to, and she is hereby granted, a full and absolute Decree of Divorce from the Defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

II

That the Separation and Property Division Agreement entered into by these parties and introduced in evidence herein, marked Exhibit A, to which reference is made and by such reference incorporated herein, is hereby approved and confirmed.

III

That Plaintiff is hereby restored to her prior name of Pearl O. Jensen.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the court this 29th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with her attorney, J. P. Reed, and the defendant making no appearance. It appearing to the court that defendant was duly and personally served with summons in this action and has failed to appear herein and plead to the complaint of plaintiff within the time allowed by law or otherwise, and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered and filed herein, and that a sufficient affidavit of military status has been filed herein showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, thereupon the court heard the testimony of plaintiff in support of her complaint, and testimony in due corroboration thereof, and from such testimony the court now finds that the the matters set out in plaintiff's complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint. Wherefore, pursuant to the law and the evidence, the court now renders judgment in favor of plaintiff and against defendant as follows, to-wit:

1. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Lucy G. Bosteder, and the defendant, Richard G. Bosteder, be, and the same is, hereby absolutely dissolved, and plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to their former status of unmarried persons.

2. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court the custody of the said minor child of plaintiff and defendant, Ronald J. Bosteder, be, and the same is, hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Lucy G. Bosteder, with the right on the part of defendant to visit said minor child at reasonable times and places and under reasonable circumstances.

3. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the community personal property of plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby alloted to plaintiff and converted into her separate property, to-wit: (1) the household goods, household furniture and household equipment of plaintiff and defendant in Gem County, Idaho; and (2) one 1931 Model A Ford Sedan automobile, with motor number A3,782,635.

4. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the defendant is hereby required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month to aid plaintiff in the care, support and education of said minor child, Ronald J. Bosteder, said payments to be due on first day of each calendar month, beginning with the month of December, 1949, and to continue during the minority of said child.

5. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that plaintiff have and recover judgment against defendant for $25.00 suit money and $125.00 attorney's fees in this action, or the aggregate sum of $150.00.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard by the court this 28th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appeared with her attorney, Louie Gorrono, and the defendant made no appearance. And it appearing to the court that thatdefendant was duly served with summons in this action and has failed to appear herein and plead to the complaint of plaintiff within the time allowed by law or at all, and a proper affidavit of military status being on file herein showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America, thereupon, by order of this court, the default of the defendant was duly entered and filed herein. And said default being duly entered and filed herein, the court heard the testimony of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, together with testimony in corraboration thereof; and it appearing from the evidence that the allegations of plaintiff's said complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief therein prayed for, therefore, pursuant to the law and the evidence, the court now renders judgment as follows, to-wit:

1. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in open Court at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, upon the 10th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Johanna M. Folsom had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant has failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of his complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have dissolved the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant;

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Beuford E. Folsom and the defendant Johanna M. Folsom, be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and he is hereby divorced from said defendant.

THIS AGREEMENT, Made this 18th day of October, 1949, by and between EVELYN N. ZIMMER, first party, herein called Wife, and RICHARD G. ZIMMER, second party, herein called Husband,

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have, since November 14, 1945, been husband and wife and now are husband and wife; and,

WHEREAS, unfortunate differences have arisen between the parties hereto, as a result of which they have separated and are now living apart from each other; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to enter into an agreement for the purpose of confirming their separation and to set forth the terms of their separation which they term to be satisfactory and reasonable for the purpose of disposing of all the property in which the parties are or may become jointly interested; and to make satisfactory disposition of the custody of their minor child;

NOW, THEREFORE, In consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements of the parties herein contained;

IT IS HEREBY MUTUALLY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

That it shall be lawful for the said parties to continue to live separate and apart from each other, during the term of their natural lives; and that each of said parties shall, at all times, live separate and apart from the other as if sole and unmarried and may reside, from time to time, at such place or places and may conduct, carry on and engage in any employment, business, or trade that either shall deem fit without any control, restraint, or interference, directly or indirectly, by the other party hereto.

That neither party shall molest the other, nor compel the other to dwell with him or her, by any legal proceedings or otherwise.

That neither party shall be obligated in any respect to maintain or support the other.

Each of the parties hereto does hereby grant and convey to the other all of his or her right, title and interest respectively in and to the community property now in possession of the other.

The wife does hereby release and quit-claim any right, title and interest that she may have in and to that certain 1949 Studebaker Commander convertible automobile now in the possession of the husband.

That from and after the date hereof, the husband shall have the entire care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, to-wit, Richard E. Zimmer, age three years, and the wife shall have the right to make reasonable visitations at all reasonable times to such child and shall have the right at all reasonable times and places to have such child visit her.

The wife hereby releases the husband from all claims and demands of every character arising out of the marital status of said parties, including attorney's fees which may be incurred in any future divorce action between the parties, costs, temporary alimony, permanent alimony, support and maintenance, right of family allowance and right to inherit and all claims of every character and description held by the wife against the husband save as herein provided. It is specifically agreed and understood that this agreement comprises the complete adjustment and settlement between said parties of all claims and demands of every character and that the wife shall have no right, title or claim against the second party, save as herein provided.

The wife does and shall accept the provisions herein made for her in full satisfaction of her right to the community property of the respective parties hereto and in full satisfaction or her right to support and maintenance. The wife hereby covenants and agrees that she will not at any time hereafter contract any debts, charge or liability whatsoever for which the husband or his property or his estate shall or may be or become liable or answerable and the wife covenants and agrees that she will at all times hereafter keep the husband free and harmless from any and all debts or liabilities which may hereafter be incurred by her.

That any and all property acquired by either of the parties hereto from and after the date hereof, shall be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same, and each of the said parties hereby respectively grants to the other all such future acquisitions of property as the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same.

That each of said parties shall have an immediate right to dispose of or bequeath by will his or her respective interests in and to any and all property belonging to him or her from and after the date hereof, and that said right shall extend to all of the aforesaid property set over to either of the parties hereto under this agreement.

That said parties hereto each hereby waives any and all right to the estate of the other left at his or her death and forever quit-claim any and all right to share in the estate of the other by the laws of succession, and said parties hereby release one to the other all right to be administrator or administratrix or executor or executrix of the estate of the other and hereby release and waive all right to inherit under any will of the other and each of the said parties hereby waives any and all right of homestead in the real property of the other, and said parties hereby waive any and all right to the estate or any interest in the estate of the other for family allowance or by way of inheritance, and from the date of this agreement to the end of the world said waiver of each party in the estate of the other party shall be effective and they shall have all the rights of single persons and maintain the same relation of such towards each other.

In the event that either of the parties hereto begins an action for divorce, this agreement shall be binding and effective as to the disposition of their properties and shall be presented to such Court if such divorce is to be obtained for approval and should that Court not approve the same, then no decree of divorce shall be entered with provisions contrary to this agreement, except upon notice to the other party.

WALLACE W. CASTLE, Plaintiff, vs LILLIAN CASTLE, Defendant.	JUDGMENT AND DECREE

* * * * *

This cause coming on regularly to be heard this 15TH day of November, 1949, before the court without a jury, and it appearing that the default of the defendant, Lillian Castle, having heretofore been entered, and having failed to appear, answer, demur, or otherwise plead to the Complaint on file herein, and an order having heretofore been entered herein ordering that depositions be taken in the above-entitled matter, and the said depositions having been returned to the Clerk of the Court, and the same having been published as prescribed by law, and the court having duly considered the evidence introduced by plaintiff, whereby it appears that the allegations of plaintiff's cause of action contained in plaintiff's Complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all prejudice as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it further appearing that the matters so alleged and proved by the evidence are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said Complaint, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and the cause having been submitted to the court for its consideration and decision, and the case being closed and the laws in the premises being fully understood by the court, the court at this time makes and renders its final decision, judgment and decree.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, And this does order, adjudge and decree:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Wallace W. Castle, and the defendant, Lillian Castle, be forever dissolved.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF GOODING.

C. R. Gardner,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Pearl Gardner,

Defendant.

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session at Gooding, Idaho, this 15th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing by her guardian ad litem, M. F. Ryan, heretofore duly appointed by the court as guardian ad litem to represent the defendant. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and personally served in the State of Wyoming pursuant to an order of the court. Whereupon evidence duly corroborated was introduced and admitted on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his complaint and witnesses for the plaintiff were cross-examined by the said guardian ad litem, who is an attorney of this court, and the making of finding of fact and conclusions of law were expressly waived by said guardian ad litem. Wherefore the court finds the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart without cohabitation continuously since September, 1935, and further that the plaintiff is and for much more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

WHEREFORE, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND this 15th day of November, 1949.

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 15th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and personally served with process and that he had failed to appear or plead to said complaint within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to so appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of habitual intemperance as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person, that the sole custody, care and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Robert

MILDRED TURNER, Plaintiff, vs. CHARLES TURNER, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly to be heard this day before the Court in open Court, Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Davison & Davison, and Defendant appearing not, either in person, by attorney or otherwise; and it appearing to the Court from the records and files herein that the Defendant filed in this action an acknowledgement of service of Summons, and the Defendant having failed to appear and plead further in said action within the time provided by law or at all, and the Court having heretofore ordered the default of the Defendant entered, and said default having been duly entered; and

The Court having heard the evidence and proof submitted by Plaintiff and on her behalf in support of Plaintiff's Complaint, and after having duly considered the same and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that all of the allegations of Plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that Defendant has willfully and without cause deserted and abandoned Plaintiff for more than one year immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and that Defendant is guilty of willfull desertion of Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Plaintiff and Defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and each of the parties hereto freed from the obligations of said marriage.

2. That Plaintiff shall have sole custody of the minor children of said marriage, namely: Joyce Turner, born September 10, 1933; Donna Turner, born February 27, 1938; and Charles Turner, born June 11, 1940, provided that Defendant shall have the right to visit such children at reasonable times.

3. That Defendant shall pay to Plaintiff for the care, maintenance and support of said minor children during their minority, the sum of One Hundred Dollars each month not later than the 5th day of the month.

4. That the agreement made and entered into under date of February 18th, 1946 is hereby approved.

BLANCHE BARIL DUBUC, Plaintiff, -vs- JOSEPH A. DUBUC, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the court in the County Court House at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, on the 15th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Edith I. Miller, the attorney of record for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Joseph A. Dubuc, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed otherwise to appear and having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of said defendant, Joseph A. Dubuc, for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of Blanche Baril Dubuc and in support of her complaint, and the cause was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing therefrom, the court finds on the issues in the cause in the favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than six weeks next immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been, an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, Blanche Baril Dubuc, and the defendant, Joseph A. Dubuc, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, divorced from the defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

THIS CAUSE, Having been brought on to be heard this 15TH day of November, 1949, Blaine & Ambrose appearing as counsel for the plaintiff her in, defendant not appearing in person or by counsel or otherwise; personal service of the verified complaint and summons upon said defendant in said action having been made upon said defendant in Venice, Los Angeles County, California and the time for answering having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been filed in said cause, and the defendant having failed to make an appearance in said action, the default of the said defendant, Bert M. Robertson, was duly entered herein, and that upon the complaint herein as confessed by said defendant, it appears that the allegations of said plaintiff are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff, Martha Robertson, to the relief demanded in the complaint as prayed for; and the plaintiff herein having been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; does order, adjudge, and decree that the marriage existing beetween the said parties be dissolved and the said parties and each of them are released from the bonds of matrimony.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the property settlement agreement entered into between the plaintiff and the defendant is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the legal care, custody and control of Diana L. Robertson, the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, be awarded to the plaintiff with the proviso that the defendant shall have the right, during the three summer months of each year, to have said minor child live with him and be under his care and control.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant herein shall pay to the plaintiff herein for the care and support of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant the sum of five ($5.00) dollars per week during such time as the said child is in the care, custody and control of the plaintiff.

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 25th day of November, 1940, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Winnemucca, Nevada in April, 1946, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of her marriage vows has deserted and abandoned the plaintiff for more than one full year immediately preceding the commencement of this action.

The Court therefore ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

Hubert Neil O'Dell,

Defendant.

This cause coming on regularly for trial before D. H. Sutphen, Judge of the above court and the trial thereof having been regularly had and the court having heard the testimony and evidence introduced and being fully advised in the premises finds that the defendant, Hubert Neil O'Dell was convicted of a felony on or about the 13th day of January, 1949 in the above entitled court and sentenced to serve a term not more than two years in the penitentiary of the State of Idaho and ever since has been and now is confined in said penitentiary. The court further finds that the defendant is guilty of cruelty as charged in the complaint in this action. That by reason of the above the plaintiff should be granted a divorce from the defendant.

NOW THEREFORE it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby permanently dissolved. The plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Hubert Neil O'Dell, Jr. and Kenneth Charles O'Dell the minor children of plaintiff and defendant. The plaintiff is hereby awarded as her separate property all household goods, furniture and household equipment, bedding, dishes, stoves and fruit jars, and other personal property now in her possession. The defendant is hereby awarded as his separate property the 1934 Chevrolet Pickup and trailerhouse referred to in the complaint.

This cause coming on to be heard before the Court this 30th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff being present in person and being represented by Joseph McFadden, her attorney, the defendant being represented by Everett B. Taylor, his attorney, the following proceedings were had:

It appearing to the Court that a duly verified answer had been filed in the said action by the defendant and that the said action was ready for trial; that the said parties had agreed that the said action should be tried before the Court, without a jury, at this time, and that each of the said parties were ready for trial. The Court after hearing the testimony submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, with the issue of the plaintiff's domicile having been contested, and corroborative evidence submitted thereon, and both sides having rested; the Court having considered the law and the evidence, now finds that all material allegations of the complaint are true and correct; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action has been a bona fide resident of Blaine County, State of Idaho, in which County she had place of residence and domicile, and the Court having rendered its decision herein in writing, consisting of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, which said decision is in favor of said plaintiff,

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance therewith, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff Diana Wing Williams and the defendant, John K. By Bob J. Waite Deputy

The above entitled cause came on duly and regularly for hearing on the 9th day of November, 1949, at Chambers in Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney of record, Paul G. Eimers; neither the defendant, nor any person or persons in his behalf, appeared.

It appearing to the court that the defendant was duly and regularly personally served with summons and complaint in Idaho County, State of Idaho, on the 17th day of October, 1949, and that he, the defendant, has not answered, demurred, or otherwise appeared in said cause, and that the time for such appearance has expired, and the defendant is now in default;

It appearing also from the files herein, and particularly from plaintiff's affidavit, that the defendant is not, nor has he been at any time since the filing of the complaint in this cause, engaged in the military service of the United States of America or her allies, and evidence having been presented by and on behalf of the plaintiff, and it appearing therefrom that the allegations of the complaint filed herein are true; and said cause having been submitted to the court, and the court being fully advised;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

vs.	)
LAURA NEWMAN,	)
Defendant.	)

The above entitled cause came on duly and regularly for hearing on this 23rd day of November, 1949, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney of record; neither the defendant, nor any person or persons in her behalf, appeared.

It appearing to the court that the defendant was duly and regularly personally served with summons and complaint in the County of Pend Oreille, State of Washington, on the 1st day of October, 1949, pursuant to an order of this court for personal service of summons and complaint outside the State of Idaho, in lieu of publication of summons, and that the defendant has failed to appear, answer, demur, or otherwise plead to said summons and complaint within the time allowed by law, and that she is in default, the time for such appearance having expired, and the default of the defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein;

It appearing also from the files herein, and particularly from plaintiff's affidavit, that the defendant is not, nor has she been at any time since the filing of the complaint in this cause, engaged in the military service of the United States of America or her allies, and evidence having been presented by and on behalf of the plaintiff, and it appearing therefrom that the allegations

THIS AGREEMENT, Made this 21st day of October, 1949, between PAUL NEWMAN, party of the first part, and LAURA NEWMAN, party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

That the parties hereto are husband and wife, having been married at Newport, Washington on September 13, 1937; and whereas differences have arisen between them which have made it impossible for them to continue the relationship of husband and wife, and to live together as such, and the parties are desirous of establishing and defining certain rights between them.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises, covenants, and agreements hereinafter contained, and the keeping and performing of the same by the parties hereto, they do agree to and with each other as follows:

It is understood that the party of the first part has heretofore established his residence in the State of Idaho, and that he has instituted an action praying for divorce from the defendant in the District Court of the Tenth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Idaho, and that due service of summons and complaint therein has been made upon the party of the second part, which she does hereby acknowledge. It is further agreed and understood that in such action this agreement shall be introduced in evidence, and upon approval hereof by the court, shall be made a part of any decree entered in such action. It is specifically provided and understood, however, that by reason of this agreement, the party of the second part makes no admissions with respect to the divorce complaint hereinbefore referred to, and nothing herein contained shall be considered as a consent to judgment, but to the contrary, that the plaintiff shall be put to strict proof in his presentation of his cause in such action.

That regardless of the filing or the completion of the action hereinbefore referred to, the parties do agree that they shall henceforth live separate and apart, and neither shall attempt by any legal action or otherwise, to force a restoration of conjugal rights, or to require the other to resume cohabitation as husband or wife.

3.

Each does hereby release the other from all obligations and duties as wife or husband, except such obligations and duties as are preserved by this agreement, and each does promise and agree that he or she shall not in the future obligate the other for or on account of any thing or purpose whatsoever except as may be determined to be an obligation by this agreement.

4.

The party of the second part shall have and retain actual custody and control of the minor children of the parties, whose names and ages are as follows, to-wit:

Sharon Sue Newman, age 10,
Sharla Ann Newman, age 7, provided, however, the party of the first part shall lose no legal rights as father to said children, except as to the actual custody and control herein provided for, provided further, that he shall pay to the party of the second part for the maintenance, support and education of said minor children, the sum of $37.50 each month for each of said children, during their respective minorities. Such payments shall begin on the 5th day of November, 1949, and continue until said children, respectively, shall reach the age of majority. These payments, the party of the first part promises and agrees to well and truly make as herein provided. Conditioned upon the making of the payments just mentioned, the party of the first part shall have the right to visit and see said children at any and all reasonable times, but such right shall not be the right to remove said children from the mother's actual custody and supervision, without her consent first having been obtained.

Each of the parties does hereby relieve the other of all claims, obligations, duties and liabilities heretofore existing, including the right of maintenance and support, and the right of inheritance, except that nothing herein contained shall be construed as condoning any conduct or action, upon which the complaint hereinbefore referred to is based, nor the conduct or action the party of the second part might use as a basis for defending said action, or bringing a cross-complaint therein.

It is understood and agreed that the primary intent of this agreement is to provide for the future welfare of the minor children hereinbefore named.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, on the day and year set opposite their signatures.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in open court at the county courthouse at Jerome, Jerome County, Idaho, on this 14th day of November, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Frank M. Rettig. The defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that defendant has been duly and legally served with process and that he has failed to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint, and that the time allowed by law for so appearing and answering plaintiff's complaint has expired and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law, which said default is hereby ratified and confirmed.

Witnesses on the part of plaintiff having been examined and testimony having been submitted free from objection, and findings of fact and conclusion of law having been waived by virtue of said default; and

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are supported by competent evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought in her complaint, and that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto should be wholly dissolved and plaintiff be granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant and that plaintiff should be awarded the absolute custody, care and control of Terry Alan Fluharty, the minor child of said parties, and that she should have judgment against the defendant for the sum of forty dollars ($40) per month for the support, care and maintenance of said minor child, and that the property settlement between the parties should be ratified and confirmed and the provisions thereof incorporated herein; and the Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Richard C. Fluharty, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and each party is hereby released and freed from all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded, and she shall have, the sole and absolute custody, care and control of Terry Alan Fluharty, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and places, so long as he complies with the provisions of this Decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that plaintiff have judgment against the defendant and she is hereby awarded, and the defendant is hereby ordered to pay to plaintiff as and for the support and maintenance of said minor child during the minority of said child, the sum of forty dollars ($40) a month, beginning on the 15th day of November, 1949, and continuing in monthly installments on said day each and every month thereafter during the minority of said child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the property settlement made and entered into between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby is, in all respects ratified and confirmed and plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property all the household furniture and furnishings, dishes, bedding, silverware and kitchen ware, and the title thereto is hereby awarded to plaintiff free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, who is hereby perpetually estopped and enjoined from setting up any claim, right, title or interest therein or thereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that defendant have, and he is hereby awarded, one (1) 1947 Ford Sedan and the title thereto is hereby awarded to defendant as his sole and separate property free and clear of and from any claim, right, title or interest of the plaintiff.

NOV 16 1949

DECREE

Sue Langford

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his Attorney, E. T. KNUDSON, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service within the State of Idaho, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. KNUDSON, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, ROBERT D. MONROE, and the Defendant, JACQUNIE F. MONROE, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

MARIAM AILEEN TETER,) Plaintiff)
vs) DECREE
SAMUEL ELMER TETER, III,)
Defendant)

This action having come regularly on for hearing, this day, upon the complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not appearing has been duly entered herein; the court finds that due and proper service has been made upon the defendant in accordance with the statute in such cases made and provided and due proof of such service has been duly made and filed herein. That the defendant did not appear or answer within the time required by law, or at all, and an affidavit in due form showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States has been duly filed herein, and after the filing of said affidavit and after the time allowed by law for the defendant to appear having expired, the clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant. The plaintiff appeared with her attorneys, Whitla & Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were specifically waived and after hearing the evidence introduced, the Court finds and adjudges:

I.

That it has due jurisdiction of the defendant and due and full jurisdiction to enter the Decree as prayed for and that due service has been made upon the defendant, who has not appeared within the time allowed by law, or at all and that the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant after the time provided by law had expired and a due and sufficient affidavit showing no military service of the defendant was filed herein.

II.

That plaintiff and defendant were married March 26, 1941 and ever since have been husband and wife, and plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action.

That there was born of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant three children, namely

Cherie Mariam Teter, daughter, age 8 years November 3, 1949
Terry Norwin Teter, son, age 6 years May 20, 1949
William Boyd Teter, son, age 4 years October 29, 1949

III.

That the defendant during the month of March 1947 without cause or excuse, and against the will and consent of the plaintiff, left and deserted the plaintiff with intention of deserting her and since said time has remained continuously absent from the plaintiff and his whereabouts are to the plaintiff unknown.

That prior to the time the defendant deserted the plaintiff they had taken out insurance policy No. 5272660 with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, New York an intermediate whole life policy on the life of Samuel T. Teter III for the sum of $1,000 payable to the plaintiff and Cherie Mariam Teter and later changed to include the child Terry Norwin Teter, which policy has been kept paid up by the plaintiff since the plaintiff was deserted by the defendant and kept in full force and effect and the defendant also took out Certificate N14952986 upon his life for the sum of $10,000 payable to this plaintiff, while he was in the service of the United States, which said policy became effective as of November 17, 1943, but that the defendant ceased the service of the United States on or about the month of August 1944 and has never been in the military service of the United States since said time. That the defendant ceased to keep up the premiums required by said certificate and the plaintiff has kept the premiums paid at all times on said policy and by reason thereof has kept and retained said insurance policy in full force and effect and by reason thereof she is the owner of said policy and each and all thereof.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff Mariam Aileen Teter, be and she hereby is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Samuel Elmer Teter, III, on the grounds of desertion, and that she be, and she hereby is awarded the full and sole custody and control of the children, Cherie Mariam Teter, Terry Norwin Teter, and William Boyd Teter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff be, and she hereby is awarded and adjudged to be the owner of the insurance policies mentioned in said complaint:

> Insurance Policy No. 5272660 with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, N. Y. an intermediate whole life policy on the life of Samuel T.Teter III.for the sum of $1,000 now payable to the plaintiff and to the children Cherie Mariam Teter and Terry Norwin Teter, and also > Certificate N14952986 upon the life of the defendant for the sum of $10,000 payable to the plaintiff by the United States of America, subject, however to whatever vested interest the children have in said policy of insurance.

No. 14537

DEC 14 1949

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on for hearing this day before the undersigned Judge of the above entitled Court, defendant having been duly and regularly served with process herein and having failed to appear, plead, answer or demur to the complaint of plaintiff within the time provided by law, or at all, and the default of said defendant for such failure to appear, plead, answer or demur having been duly and regularly entered herein, plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, McFarland & McFarland, and no one for defendant; whereupon witnesses were sworn and testified and documentary evidence introduced on behalf of plaintiff, and I, the undersigned Judge of the above entitled Court having made and entered my Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein; now, therefore,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

I.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be set aside and plaintiff, W. Earl Somers, be, and he is hereby, granted an absolute divorce from the said defendant.

II.

That the original agreement of the parties, dated August 24, 1949 and made a part of plaintiff's complaint, and the supplemental agreement of the parties, dated November 4, 1949, a true and correct copy of which was introduced upon the hearing herein, be, and the same are hereby, approved and confirmed.

III.

That, subject to the lien hereinafter mentioned, the following property shall be and is awarded to the plaintiff as his separate property, to-wit:

> Lots One (1) and Two (2), Block Seven (7), Coeur d' Alene and King's Addition, Kootenai County, Idaho; 3313 shares of stock in plaintiff's name in the Coeur d'Alene Lakeside Development Company, a corporation; the grand piano; 1 - 1940 Oldsmobile car; and all other stocks and securities issued in the name of plaintiff and held by him.

The following property shall be, and is hereby, awarded to the defendant as her separate property:

> All of the household furnishings with the exception of the said grand piano; 1 1949 Chevrolet deluxe coupe; Lot Thirteen (13), Block Twelve (12), O'Brien's Second Addition to Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho.

IV.

That the last mentioned property is mortgaged in the sum of about $4,000.00, and, to assist the defendant in retiring this mortgage, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the sum of $2,000.00 in monthly installments of $25.00 or more on or before the 24th day of each calendar month, as provided in said agreement of August 24, 1949, and to pay interest thereon at the rate of 4½% per annum, as provided in said agreement.

V.

That, additionally, the defendant is hereby awarded, and the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant, the sum of $150.00 per month during the natural life of the defendant, such payments to be made on or before the 24th day of each calendar month hereafter, such payments being for the support of defendant and as provided for in said written agreements, and, as soon as he is able so to do, plaintiff shall purchase for the defendant a life annuity with some standard reputable company, which by the terms thereof shall pay her the sum of $150.00 per month until her death; that upon sale by the plaintiff of Lots 1 and 2, Block 7, Town of Coeur d'Alene and King's Addition thereto, Kootenai County, Idaho, or any part thereof, plaintiff shall at once with all the proceeds of such sale purchase an annuity policy for defendant, payable to her in monthly installments during the remainder of her lifetime, and thereafter the said monthly payments of $150.00 per month shall be decreased by the amount defendant receives under such annuity policy, and upon the purchase of an additional annuity policy or policies, which, together with said policy so purchased from the sale of said real estate, will pay the defendant the full sum of $150.00 per month, the plaintiff shall be relieved of any further payments for the support of the defendant but this shall in no manner affect the award for $2,000.00 granted the defendant in paragraph IV herein.

VI.

That until such time as the plaintiff shall purchase an annuity policy or annuity policies paying to the defendant the full sum of $150.00 per month during her lifetime, she shall have, and she is hereby given, a lien upon the above described real estate hereby awarded to plaintiff, i. e.:

> Lots One (1) and Two (2), Block Seven (7), Town of Coeur d'Alene and King's Addition thereto, Kootenai County, Idaho, together with all improvements thereon and incidents thereto, and upon the 3313 shares of stock in the Coeur d'Alene Lakeside Development Company awarded plaintiff herein to secure the payment to defendant of the said sum of $150.00 per month. And the plaintiff is hereby directed and ordered to cause a notice of such lien to be forthwith filed with the said corporation and recorded in the proper stock and other records of the corporation. And should the plaintiff fail to make any of the payments provided in said written agreements and in this judgment, the defendant may, at her option, declare immediately due the full sum necessary to purchase an annuity policy or policies paying her during her lifetime the sum of $150.00 per month and take such steps as may be necessary and proper to foreclose said lien upon the said property of the plaintiff. Provided, however, that, as provided in said supplemental agreement, she shall, before declaring such acceleration, in writing notify the plaintiff of her intention and he shall have ten (10) days from the time he receives such notification in which to comply with the terms of said agreement and of this judgment.

VII.

That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the following life insurance policies taken upon his life in the following companies, to-wit:

> Policy No. 2277136 - Prudential Life Insurance Company of America in the sum of $1,000.00; Policy No. 6803494 - in the Prudential Life Insurance Company of America in the amount of $1000.00; Policy No. 720487 in the amount of $4000.00 in the Guarantee Fund Life Association; Policy No. 1136253 - in the Occidental Life Insurance Company (of California) in the amount of $5000.00; Policy No. 1481246 in the Occidental Life Insurance Company of California in the amount of $2,500.00.

In these policies the defendant is named as beneficiary. Should the plaintiff die before an annuity policy is purchased paying the full $150.00 per month to the defendant during her life, as aforesaid, the proceeds of these policies shall be applied to the purchase of such annuity, and should there remain any sum over and above that necessary to provide such annuity policy, the surplus shall be paid to the estate of the plaintiff. When the plaintiff has purchased the annuity policy or policies provided the full sum of $150.00 per month to the defendant during her natural life, the defendant shall execute all necessary instruments to enable the plaintiff to change the beneficiary in said insurance policies should he so desire, but until that time the plaintiff shall not change the beneficiary in any of said policies and shall keep such policies in full force and effect and make all premium payments thereon before delinquency. Copies of this decree shall be filed with each of said insurance companies and the plaintiff shall make such endorsements as such companies may require in order to enforce the provisions of this decree, and until such endorsements are made said policies shall be placed in escrow, together with a copy of this decree, in the Idaho First National Bank, Coeur d'Alene Branch, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court this 1st day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record, J. M. O'Donnell, and the Defendant appearing neither in person nor by attorney.

On said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that service of Summons was duly and regularly made by personal service as appears by the Acknowledgment of Service filed herein, and the Defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint within the time allowed by law and his time for appearing having expired and the default of said Defendant having been entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony adduced on behalf of said Plaintiff and in support of her Complaint, and the cause having been finally submitted to the Court for decision, the Court finds that the allegations stated in Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein are true and supported by the evidence.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THIS COURT AS FOLLOWS:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the above named Plaintiff, Ida Greenwood, and the above named Defendant, Charles Greenwood, be, and the same hereby are

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF LEMHI

GEORGE L. CASTLEBERRY,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DOROTHY CASTLEBERRY,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 2nd day of November, 1949, in Salmon, Idaho, upon the complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant on the proof taken herein, and upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant herein was duly served in person with Summons herein, attached to a copy of the Complaint on file in this action; and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said complaint of the plaintiff and the time for answering having expired, and no answer or other pleading having been filed, the default of the defendant, Dorothy Castleberry, was duly entered according to law, and on this day the plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, C. Walker Lyon, and introduced evidence in support of said complaint, by which it appears and the Court found:

That the plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were legally married on the 29th day of March, 1942,, and afterward resided together as husband and wife; that the defendant is not now a member of the Military or Naval Service of the United States of America;

mony, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency; that the plaintiff and the defendant have continuously lived for more than five years immediately preceeding the filing of this action, and are now living, separate and apart.

That there is one child the issue of said marriage, William Leslie Castleberry, of the age of five years, and it further appearing that both parents are fit and proper persons to have the care and custody of such minor child, and that it is for the best interest of such child that he be in the custody of the plaintiff until the month of September, 1950, and that thereafter said child be in the care and custody of the defendant from said September, 1950, and during the nine-month school term of that year and each and every year thereafter until further order of Court, with such child being in the care and custody of the plaintiff during the summer vacation term of each and every year after said September, 1950, and that each party shall have the right and privilege to visit the child while in the custody of the other at any and all reasonable times.

That $25.00 is a reasonable sum for the plaintiff to pay the defendant each and every month that said minor child is in her custody under this Decree.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony that exist between the parties hereto, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, returning each to the status of a single person.

2. That the minor child, William Leslie Castleberry, be in the custody of the plaintiff, George L. Castleberry, until September, 1950; that thereafter the said child be in the care and custody of the defendant, Dorothy Castleberry, during the nine-month school term of each and every year; that such child be in the care and custody of the plaintiff, George L. Castleberry, during the summer vacation term of each and every year thereafter; all until further order of Court and with the right and privilege to each party to visit such child at any and all reasonable times while in the custody of the other.

3. That the plaintiff pay the sum of TWENTY-FIVE and NO/100 ($25.00) DOLLARS towards the care and support of such minor child per each and every month that such child is in the defendant's care and custody.

IT FURTHER APPEARING that the Defendant herein, HUBERT WELDON EDWARDS, was regularly served with Summons attached to a copy of the Complaint on file in this cause; that the said Defendant, having failed to appear and answer said Complaint, and the time for answering having expires, and no answer or demurrer having been filed; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that an Affidavit in the above entitled cause, as required by the provisions of the Soldier's and Sailor's Act of 1949, as amended, has been filed showing that the Defendant is not in military service as defined by said Act; and the default of said Defendant, Hubert Weldon Edwards, having been duly entered according to law;

AND IT FURTHER APPEARING that no children have been born as the issue of this marriage, and that the Plaintiff and Defendant have no community property except one 1938 Chrysler Sedan, now in the possession of the Plaintiff.

AND evidence having been introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff on the hearing of this cause, and the Court having heard the testimony of the Plaintiff and other witnesses, and it fully and satisfactorily appearing to the Court, and the Court finding that all material allegations in the Complaint are true and are sustained by testimony, free from all legal exceptions, as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency and that a divorce should be granted as prayed for in said Complaint; and written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Charles Herndon, Attorney for Plaintiff, it is considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

1. That the marriage between the Plaintiff, Metta Virginia Edwards, and Defendant, Hubert Weldon Edwards be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and the parties are, and each of them is, free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

2. That the 1938 Chrysler Sedan be awarded to the Plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

Done in Open Court this 31st day of October, 1949.

Defendant.

DECREE

The above entitled matter come on for hearing before me, Hugh A. Baker, one of the Judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Minidoka, at my chambers in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and with witnesses, the defendant appearing not; and it appearing from the records and files in said cause that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered, his time of appearance having expired; and it further appearing from the records and files that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act; and it further appearing that it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court after listening to all of said testimony, free of all legal objections thereto, and being fully advised in the premises, makes and enters its findings as follows:

1. The court finds that the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 25th day of February, 1943, and now are and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

3. The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have not acquired any community property and that no issue was born of said marriage.

4. The court further finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of her complaint, that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce in favor of the plaintiff, Easter Lane and against the defendant, John Lane.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Easter Lane, and the defendant, John Lane, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that a decree of divorce be made and entered in favor of the plaintiff, Easter Lane and against the defendant, John Lane.

Made and entered in my chambers this 15th day of October, 1949, in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho.

DECREE

The above entitled matter came on to be heard on the opening day of the November term of Court on the 14th day of November, 1949, in open court.

The Court being fully advised in the premises and after examining the records and files of said cause, the Court finds the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and default of defendant has been duly and regularly entered, and said cause having been called for trial on this date and the defendant having appeared neither by person nor by answer and the matter came on regularly to be heard.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court after listening to all of said testimony, free of all legal objections thereto, and being fully advised in the premises, makes and enters its findings as follows:

1. The court finds that the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 23rd day of April, 1922, and now are and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

3. The court finds that there is no minor children born the issue of said marriage.

4. The court finds that the said plaintiff and defendant have not acquired any community property, but that the plaintiff is the owner of a small amount of household goods acquired by said plaintiff by her separate earnings and that said household goods is the separate property of said plaintiff.

5. The court finds that the defendant more than ten years next preceding plaintiff's action, did abandon, desert and leave this plaintiff and has not lived with said plaintiff nor furnished said plaintiff with the necessities of life for a period of more than ten years next preceding the filing of plaintiff's complaint. All of which the Court finds is due to no fault of this plaintiff.

6. The court finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of her complaint, that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Zelda Craig, and the defendant, George H. Craig, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that a decree of divorce be made and entered in favor of the plaintiff, Zelda Craig, and against the defendant, George H. Craig.

2. That it be further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the household goods now in possession of said plaintiff be and hereby decreed to the plaintiff, Zelda Craig, as her sole, separate property and estate and any claim of title or interest of the defendant, George H. Craig, be and is hereby quieted in the plaintiff, Zelda Craig.

WILLIAM G. MARKLAND,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MARY B. MARKLAND,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

-O-

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff in open court at Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho on the 15th day of November, 1949, before the Honorable H. A. Baker, Judge of the said court. Both the plaintiff and the defendant appeared in person and the plaintiff appeared also by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had by an instrument in writing, duly signed and acknowledged by her, admitted due and legal service of summons and complaint upon her in Minidoka County, Idaho and had expressly waived the time allowed by law for appearance in said action.

Witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and certain documentary evidence was offered and the plaintiff rested and the defendant was sworn and examined and the cause was submitted to the Judge for consideration and decision and it appearing to the Judge that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to its competency, relevancy and admissibility and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant and to decree awarding to him the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto hereinafter named.

And it further appearing that the parties hereto had entered into an agreement settling, adjusting and dividing their property and property interests and that said agreement was reached and entered into without fraud, undue influence or coercion on the part of either thereto against the other but was entered into by the parties after due consideration and deliberation and after each party had consulted with and obtained the advice of persons of his or her selection and that said agreement is not contrary to the public policy of the State of Idaho, is in all respects fair, just, reasonable and equitable and should in all respects be ratified, approved and adopted by the decree of this court.

WHEREFORE By reason of the law and the promises aforesaid:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, William G. Markland, and the defendant, Mary B. Markland, be and the same are hereby dissolved and that each party thereto be and each of them is hereby released of all objections thereof and that the care, custody and control of William Gale Markland, a son, now eighteen years of age, be and the same is hereby given and awarded to the plaintiff subject to a right on the part of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times, intervals and periods and subject also to a right on the part of the defendant to have the said child visit with her whenever, and for that period or periods of time, that the said child so desires.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the agreement so made and entered between the parties hereto for the settlement, adjustment and division of their property and property rights and interests, a copy of which is attached to plaintiff's complaint on file herein, be and the same is hereby in all respects approved, ratified and adopted as a fair, just, reasonable and equitable settlement and division of the property rights and interests of the parties hereto and by the way of enforcing and based upon said agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff, William G. Markland, be and he is hereby decreed to be owner of and is hereby given and awarded as his separate property and estate free and clear of all claims, interests or estate on the part of the defendant, the following described real property located in Minidoka County, Idaho, to-wit:

> Lots numbered Seven (7) and Eight (8) of Block Twenty-five (25) of the Original Townsite of the City of Rupert, Idaho, according to the official plat thereof, now on file in the office of the County Recroder of Minidoka County, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff, William G. Markland, be and he is hereby decreed to be owner of and is hereby given and awarded as his separate property and estate free and clear of all claims, interests or estate on the part of the defendant, except as hereinafter specifically provided, the following described personal property, to-wit:

All household furniture, furnishings, draperies, kitchen utensils and all other personal property of every kind or nature used in connection with the home which the parties hereto have maintained on the above described real estate, excepting clothing and personal effects of the defendant, including any jewelry belonging to her, and he shall also receive the following listed property:

> One 1948 Buick passenger automobile, Serial No. _____ Motor No. _____.
> All money now on deposit in the Idaho First National Bank, Rupert Branch, in a savings account in the name of the parties hereto, amounting to approximately $3,200.00, together with all interest that has accrued or may accrue thereon, whether the same has or has not been credited to said account.
>
> All money now on deposit in the Idaho First National Bank, Rupert Branch, in a checking account in the names of the parties hereto, after deducting therefrom the sum of $10,000.00, to be paid to the wife, leaving a balance of approximately $4,000.00.
> One life insurance policy upon the life of the plaintiff, issued by the Businessmen's Assurance Company of America, for the sum of $5,000.00.

One life insurance policy issued by the Equitable Life Insurance Company of America upon the life of the plaintiff for the sum of $2,000.00.

The merchandise, furniture, fixtures, apparatus, and equipment, business and good-will of the candy, popcorn store and soft drinks parlor located at 606 Fremont Avenue, Rupert, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That in addition to the property which the defendant shall receive as ordered, adjudged and decreed hereinbefore, the plaintiff will pay, and it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that he do pay, to the defendant during any unmarried period of her lifetime that the plaintiff shall own and hold all or any part of the above specified interests in the partnerships or all or any of the above specified stock in the corporations, one-third (1/3) of any dividends and earnings received by him for his interests in the corporations and partnerships, mentioned herein before, after the 1st day of January, 1950; Provided however, that the amount to be paid by the plaintiff, from theearnings of the partnerships and corporations shall not exceed in any year one-third of his proportion thereof as shown by the Federal income tax returns of such partnerships and corporations, to be verified by the plaintiff furnishing to the defendant a copy of Federal Form 1099. Such proportion of the income as specified herein to be paid by him to the defendant within a reasonable time after he received the same. It being the intent and purpose of this order that the said defendant shall receive such proportion of the income that is received by the plaintiff therefrom so long as the defendant is single. In the event that the defendant shall at any time remarry and such marriage shall be dissolved by divorce or death, upon the dissolution of such marriage, she shall receive one-third of the income and profits received by the plaintiff from the corporations and partnerships aforesaid after such dissolution, if the plaintiff shall then be living, and the owner of any interests in the corporation or partnerships.

Should the defendant remarry at any time after the signing of this decree, then while such marriage exists, the plaintiff will set aside for her future use, one-third of the profits and income received by him from the partnerships and corporations hereinbefore mentioned after such marriage, and during the existence of such marriage, to be paid to her upon such future marriage being dissolved by divorce, death or otherwise, provided, however, the plaintiff may at his discretion pay over to the defendant all or any portion of the said one-third of the net income received by him during the existence of such future marriage. Such payment or payments, if made by the plaintiff during the existence of such future marriage, shall not be or constitute, or be construed to be an election on the part of the plaintiff to pay to the defendant during the existence of such future marriage any other portion of the said earnings and shall not entitle her to receive additional payments and shall not constitute a breach, alteration or modification of this contract.

It is expressly understood and agreed that this paragraph does not apply to any interest that the plaintiff had in the said corporations or partnerships prior to the marriage of the parties hereto, or to any interest that the plaintiff may acquire in the corporations or partnerships after the date of the execution of this decree.

Nothing contained in this decree shall give to the defendant any interest in the said corporations and partnerships or any of the accumulations or earnings thereof, and she shall only be entitled to receive one-third of such net profits or earnings that are by the corporations and partnerships distributed or paid to the plaintiff.

In the event of the death of the defendant before she shall receive the accumulations of money set aside for her future use as provided for herein, then all of the accumulations so set aside for the use of the defendant, shall be by the plaintiff paid to their son, William Dale Markland.

The defendant shall not have the right to anticipate the said payments, to sell, assign or transfer the same or any part thereof, or to sell, a sign or transfer her interest in the accumulations that may be set aside for her use and benefit.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the plaintiff from selling, transferring, or conveying his interest in and to any or all of the partnerships above specified, or any of his stock in the corporations above enumerated. Provided, however, that the said plaintiff hereby declares and represents that he does not presently contemplate the sale of said stock and will not sell the same unless such sale is reasonable and proper for business purposes, or necessitated by sickness or ill health of the said plaintiff, and not made to defraud the said wife.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That any property that is acquired by either of the parties hereto, after the date of the execution of this decree, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear from any and all claims, demands or pretensions of the other party, and in the event that it shall become necessary for either party to procure the signature of the other to any instruments or documents to carry into effect any and all of the terms, conditions and provisions of this decree, the party whose signature is required will sign such instruments or documents that shall be or become necessary to be signed, in order to carry out all of the terms and conditions and provisions of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said plaintiff pay the community debts and obligations of the parties hereto and at all times and in all respects save and hold the defendant and the property decreed to her harmless therefrom.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial before the Court at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 1st. day of November, 1949, at ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney, Owen L. Knowlton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the County of Nez Perce, State of Idaho, on the 7th day of February, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and she being in default, and her default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted, and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in Nez Perce County, State of Idaho, on the 7th day of February, 1949.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI of the plaintiff's complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

First: That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

Second: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Walter W. West, and the defendant, Edna M. West, be and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations; and that plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Hon. Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on this 2nd day of November, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorney of record, and the defendant having been served with process by publication of summons pursuant to the order of this Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, and the default of said defendant having been entered by the Clerk of the Court for her failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the Court having heard the evidence introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

That the defendant is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended;

That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Walla Walla, Washington, during the year 1925, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife;

That the plaintiff is now and was for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of this action a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage;

The above entitled action came on regularly for trial in open court before the Honorable Leo McCarty at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 2nd day of November, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause by publication pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service by publication; and said Summons having been published on the 14th day of September, 1949, and on each succeeding Wednesday thereafter to and until the 12th day of October, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and The Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant was duly and regularly served by publication in the Lewiston Morning Tribune, by publication of said Summons on September 14, September 21, September 28, October 5 and October 12, 1949, and by mailing of a copy of Summons and Complaint to his last known post office address, being that of 521½ Chestnut, Long Beach, California, within ten days of the first publication of said Summons, as shown herein by Affidavit of Mailing filed on behalf of the plaintiff.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though set out herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of desertion and wilful neglect and non-support.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Idla C. Hopewell, and the defendant, Charles E. Hopewell, Jr., be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DATED this 2nd day of November, 1949, at Lewiston, Idaho.

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in Open Court on this 4th day of November, 1949, before the Hon. Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having accepted service of summons and complaint on October 12, 1949, in which Acceptance of Service the defendant certified that he is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity and not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the said defendant having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered for his failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint, and the Court having heard the evidence, both oral and documentary, FINDS:

That the defendant accepted service of summons and complaint in this action by an instrument in writing, duly acknowledged by the defendant on October 12, 1949; that the said defendant certified in said acceptance of service that he was not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended; that the defendant failed to appear within the time allowed by law, or at all, to answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint, and that his default was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court for his failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint;

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Los Angeles, California, on January 8, 1945, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife;

That the plaintiff is now and was for more than six weeks immediately prior to the commencement of this action a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That there has been born as issue of said marriage one child, to-wit, Harold Russell MacDonald, of the age of three years, which child is presently with plaintiff; that there will be another child born as issue of said marriage this month;

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties to this action and also that of the unborn child;

That the plaintiff and the defendant have acquired no community property and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action;

That during the existence of said marriage the defendant has treated this plaintiff in a cruel manner, to-wit:

> That defendant has failed and refused to support this plaintiff during the past ten months, so that she has been forced to seek employment for the support of herself and the minor child of the parties to this action; that the defendant has been guilty of cruelty upon the body and person of the plaintiff upon several occasions and has cursed this plaintiff, using vile and obscene names on numerous occasions; that said defendant has openly associated with other women, all of which acts were calculated to and did cause this plaintiff grievous mental and physical suffering.

From the foregoing Findings the Court concludes:

1. That the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

2. That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties to this action and also that of the unborn child.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of Harold Russell MacDonald, the minor son of the parties to this action, and that of the unborn child, is hereby awarded to this plaintiff.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, judge of the above entitled court, on the 26th day of November, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, on the 24th day of October, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted, including a property settlement agreement; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Elk City in Idaho County, Idaho, on the 24th day of October, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are found by the Court to be true and by reference are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact.

That the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties and submitted to the Court in this cause is fair and equitable and that the same should be approved by the Court.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Eileen Leist, and the defendant, Alvin Leist, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Property Settlement Agreement heretofore entered into between the parties, a copy of which is attached hereto, incorporated herein and made a part hereof, is hereby approved by the Court; and the property rights of the parties are settled in accordance with said agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Eileen Leist, be, and she hereby is awarded the care, custody, charge and control of the minor children of the parties, namely, Bartlett Leist and Dennis Leist; and that the defendant, Alvin Leist, be, and he hereby is granted the right to visit said children at reasonable times and at reasonable places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, Alvin Leist, be, and he hereby is ordered to pay to the plaintiff the reasonable sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars per month support money for the care, maintenance and education of said minor children, commencing on the 1st day of December, 1949, with a like payment of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter, until the further order of this Court.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly for hearing in open Court at Payette, Idaho, this 21st day of November, 1949, Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys of record, Norris & Norris; the defendant failing to appear in person, by attorney, or at all, the Court examined the records and files herein from which it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has been heretofore duly, regularly and legally served with Summons and Complaint herein and that the time allowed by law for the defendant to appear and plead to the Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein has fully expired, and the default of the said defendant for failure to appear and/or plead to Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein has been duly and regularly entered herein by the Order of the Court according to law, and that a proper affidavit of non-military service has been filed herein, the Court then proceeded to hear the testimony and documentary evidence introduced by the Plaintiff in support of her cause on file herein;

And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the said testimony and evidence so adduced that all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint herein are true; that the Plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho, and of the County of Payette therein, for more than six (6) full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, and that Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for in her Complaint on file herein; and that the minor children, Janette Raye Allison, age 2 years 8 months, and Ida Mae Allison, age 1 year 6 months are now, and have continuously been, at and since the commencement of this action, in the custody of the Plaintiff in Payette County, Idaho; and the Court having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, in writing herein;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the Plaintiff, Teresina Olive Allison, and the Defendant, James Douglas Allison, be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, and that the Plaintiff, be, and she is hereby granted a decree of divorce against the Defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty as prayed for in her Complaint, and that the Plaintiff and the Defendant are hereby restored to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the Plaintiff, Teresina Olive Allison, be, and she is hereby adjudged to be a fit and proper person to be awarded the complete care, custody and control of the said minor children of the parties hereto, to-wit: Janette Raye Allison and Ida Mae Allison, and the Plaintiff, Teresina Olive Allison, be, and she is hereby awarded the complete care, custody and control of the said minor children of the parties hereto, Janette Raye Allison and Ida Mae Allison.

It Is Further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed, That the interest or equity of the parties, in and to that certain 1938 Model Ford Tudor Sedan, Motor Number 184271465 which the parties had been purchasing under and by virtue of a Conditional Sales Contract which is being financed by General Motors Acceptance Corporation be, and the same is hereby awarded and decreed to the Defendant, James Douglas Allison as his sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the wearing apparel and personal effects of the Plaintiff be, and the same are hereby awarded and decreed to the Plaintiff as her sole separate property.

23 C 2
Nov. 16 - 49
Equal Stark
Helen Snell

The above entitled cause came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 14th day of November, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney.

It appears to the court that a duly verified complaint was filed herein by the plaintiff, which said complaint stated a cause of action in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant. That a summons was duly issued and service thereof made upon the defendant.

That thereafter the defendant by his attorneys, Zener and Peterson, filed herein a demurrer.

That thereafter the said demurrer was withdrawn and the defendant having failed to plead further upon a stipulation duly entered, the defendant refused to plead further, and his default therein was duly entered.

The defendant being in default because of his failure to answer the complaint, the court proceeded to hear the evidence of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint. The plaintiff and one witness having been duly sworn and having testified and from said testimony it appears as follows:

That for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of the complaint herein the plaintiff was and still is an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the parties were married May 9, 1947, at Idaho Falls, Idaho; that no children have been born of said marriage; that the parties have entered into an agreement relative to the disposition of the community property and said settlement is hereby approved; that during the existence of the marriage the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; that the maiden name of the plaintiff is Marian Amundsen; that the defendant has paid to the plaintiff all sums due to the plaintiff in full settlement of the community property rights existing between the parties, and each of the parties is free from any and all obligations to the other on account of said marriage and the community property of the parties hereto; that in addition to the settlement of the community property rights of the parties hereto, the defendant has paid the attorney for the plaintiff and the court costs. And the court having found the facts as above set out finds that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the said complaint, except as herein set out, and it is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed:

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto be and the same hereby are dissolved and set aside, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons; and the maiden name of the plaintiff, Marian Amundsen, is restored to the plaintiff.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on for hearing the 26th day of November, 1949, in the above entitled court, plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel B.W. Davis, and the defendant failing to appear in person or otherwise, the default of the defendant having been entered for his failure to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint and the court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff supported by a competent witness as to her residence, and the defendant, by his failure to appear, having waived Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

And it appearing to the Court and the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident or Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and each of the parties thereto relieved from all obligations thereof, and each of them be and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons and the plaintiff is restored to her maiden name of Lillian Maxine Hill.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard upon the 26th day of November, 1949, before the undersigned, one of the District Judges of the above entitled court, sitting as Judge thereof, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Hugh Maguire, Jr., the defendant appearing by his attorney Louis F. Racine, Jr., and the parties announced that they were ready for trial.

Whereupon, the court proceeded to take evidence. The plaintiff in the action testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and her witness Dorothy Uhrich was duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations in the complaint. A Marriage Settlement Agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant was offered and received in evidence. The defendant refused to offer evidence in support of his answer, and the court after hearing the testimony and examining the evidence offered and received, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in said complaint.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, both parties having waived findings of fact and conclusions of law, and the Court being fully advised herein,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the marriage heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved, and that each of the parties herein be, and they are, granted an absolute divorce and restored to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Marriage Settlement Agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant dated November 16, 1949 be, and the same is hereby, approved and plaintiff awarded as her sole and separate property the piano, desk and file, refrigerator, daveno, dryer and $300.00 cash. The defendant is awarded as his sole and separate property the 1935 Plymouth automobile, projector and films, duplicator, juicer and certain personal belongings such as books and theological equipment.

WILMA HOWARD, Plaintiff,	)	NO. 10912
DEWEY E. HOWARD, Defendant.	)

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, the 21st day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Piatt Hull, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been regularly served with Summons and Complaint and that he had failed to appear, answer or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default had been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

It further appeared from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint.

Thereupon the cause was submitted to the Court, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Wilma Howard, and the defendant, Dewey E. Howard, are hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the permanent care, control and custody of Michael Howard, minor child of plaintiff and defendant, reserving to the defendant the right of visitation at reasonable times and places.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, the 15th day of November, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Piatt Hull, and the defendant appeared by his attorney, Eugene F. McCann.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint and that he had failed herein an answer to plaintiff's complaint.

It further appeared from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint; no testimony was introduced on behalf of the defendant, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff, Florence Johnson, and the defendant, Robert K. Johnson, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the permanent care and custody of Phillip Richard Johnson, reserving unto the defendant the right to visit said child and have it visit him, at reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant be, and he hereby is, required to contribute to the support of said child by payment in the monthly sum of $45.00, payable on the first day of each and every month.

4. That the defendant be, and he hereby is, required to pay plaintiff's counsel fees incurred herein in the sum of $100.00, together with costs of this action.

Mr. John J. Peacock appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court, that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process, and that said service was personal service in the County of Shoshone, State of Idaho, and the defendant having not appeared or answered said Complaint, the default of said defendant was thereupon duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his Complaint, and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, after a brief statement by the plaintiff's counsel, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony and statement of counsel, together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and he hereby is, awarded an absolute divorce.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the property settlement heretofore entered into between the parties hereto be, and the same is hereby allowed, approved and confirmed.

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 29th day of November , A. D. 1949, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury upon a Complaint of the plaintiff herein, taken as confessed by the defendant by his failure to appear and answer the verified Complaint of the plaintiff on file herein. Mr. John J. Peacock appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court, that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process, and that said service was personal service in the County of Shoshone, State of Idaho, and the defendant having not appeared or answered said Complaint, the default of said defendant was thereupon duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her Complaint, and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, after a brief statement by the plaintiff's counsel, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony and statement of counsel, together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded an absolute divorce.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That all the right, title, equity and interest of the defendant in and to that certain agreement entered into on the 18th day of December, 1948, between Elsie Nyborg and Harold S. Sisk and Violet E. Sisk, wherein the plaintiff and defendant herein are purchasing from the said Elsie Nyborg certain real estate and personal property, and all of the defendant's right, title, interest and equity in and to the following described real property is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, and in nowise community property:

> Lot Twenty-two (22) and the South two (2') feet of Lot Twenty-one (21), Block Sixteen (16) of the original Townsite (now City) of Kellogg, County of Shoshone, State of Idaho, according to the official and recorded plat thereof and that appurtenant Right of Way easement to said Lot Twenty-two (22) over Lot Twenty-three (23) of said Block Sixteen (16) of the said original Townsite (now City) of Kellogg, which easement is for roadway purposes with right of ingress and egress and which exists in conjunction with a subservient Right of Way easement hereinafter described over said Lot Twenty-two (22); that the Right of Way easement over said Lot Twenty-three (23) is described as follows, to-wit:
> Commencing at the Northwest corner of Lot Twenty-three (23); thence South along the West End Line of said lot a distance of four (4') feet; thence East along a line parallel to the North line of said Lot Twenty-three (23) to a point Forty-five (45') feet West of the East End Line of said lot; thence North Four (4') feet to the North Side Line of said Lot Twenty-three (23); thence West along North Side Line to the Northwest corner thereof and the place of beginning. Especially excepting and reserving from said Lot Twenty-two (22) that subservient Right of Way easement for roadway purposes with right of ingress and egress, described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a point Four (4') feet North of the Southwest corner of said Lot Twenty-two (22); thence East along a line parallel to the South line of Lot Twenty-two (22) to a point West of the East End Line of said Lot; thence South to the South line of said Lot Twenty-two (22); thence West along the South Side Line of said Lot to the Southwest corner thereof; thence North along the End Line of said lot to the place of beginning, which easement and Right of Way is appurtenant to Lot Twenty-three (23), Block Sixteen (16), of said original Townsite (now City) of Kellogg.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS CAUSE came on regularly for hearing on the 4th day of October, 1949, before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, sitting in open court, the plaintiff being represented by her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel.

And it appearing to the Court that the defendant, Guy S. Turner, has heretofore been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in the above entitled action, and has filed herein his appearance, and has refused to plead to or answer plaintiff's complaint and has consented that his default may be entered herein, and that the default of the said defendant for such failure to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint has been duly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled Court according to law; and a property settlement agreement having been entered into between the parties hereto;

Thereupon evidence was introduced and admitted from which it appears that each and all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint have been established by competent evidence and the allegations of plaintiff's complaint as to her residence have been duly corroborated by competent testimony;

And the Court, being fully advised in the premises, on Motion of attorneys for plaintiff;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows, to-wit:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Susie Turner, and the defendant, Guy S. Turner, be, and they are hereby dissolved, and the parties hereto are restored to the status of unmarried persons.

2. That the said property settlement agreement, a copy of which is hereto attached and marked "Exhibit A", is hereby duly approved and confirmed and made a part of this Decree of Divorce.

3. That the plaintiff, Susie Turner, is hereby restored to her former name of Susie Soele, as prayed in her Complaint.

DATED This 4th day of October, 1949.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this fourth day of October, 1949, by and between Susie Turner, hereinafter referred to as the party of the first part, and Guy S. Turner, hereinafter referred to as the party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

That whereas, the parties hereto are man and wife one of the other; and that they were married on the 30th day of April, 1949.

And, whereas, certain unhappy differences have arisen between the parties hereto, which make it impossible for them to continue to live together as man and wife; and that they are separating; and that they desire to make a settlement of their property rights and adjust and settle in an amiable manner their property between them.

I.

IT IS AGREED Between the parties that the party of the second part had certain separate property before the marriage of the parties hereto, and that since their marriage they have accumulated certain properties as community property, consisting of farm crops raised during the crop season of 1949;

AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED AND UNDERSTOOD That there are certain debts for labor and expenses on said crops; and the parties have agreed and do agree between themselves that the party of the second part is to pay to the party of the first part the sum of $800.00 in cash, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged; and that in consideration of said payment the party of the first part agrees to and does hereby waive all rights to any of the community property belonging to the parties hereto; and further, that the party of the first part agrees to release the party of the second part from all demands and claims of every kind and nature by reason of their marriage, and to make no claim for alimony, support money, or any other claim against the party of the second part hereafter.

And it is further agreed that each of the parties is to have his or her own personal effects and belongings.

And it is further agreed and understood that this is a full and complete settlement of all property rights between the parties hereto, and that the property earned by either of the parties from this date forward is to be the sole and separate property of the one so earning same, and that the other shall have no claim thereto.

It is further agreed that if divorce proceedings are instituted by the party of the first part against the party of the second part that no demand or claim will be made against the party of the second part for attorneys fees or costs, or for any other demands.

And each of the parties to this agreement acknowledges that the foregoing agreement has been entered into without influence or misrepresentation, and that each of the parties freely and voluntarily as their own free act has this day signed this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereunto execute this agreement the day and year first above written.

DECREE.

The above entitled cause coming on to be heard before the Court on the second day of September 1949, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney Roy E.Smith and the defendant appearing not and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and copy of complaint herein according to law and has failed to answer or otherwise plead to said complaint and the time allowed by law within whichto appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint having expired and the default of defendant having been by the Clerk of the Court duly and regularly entered, witnesses were sworn and oral testimony and written evidence offered in behalf of the plaintiff in support of his complaint and a written agreement purporting to have been entered into between the plaintiff and defendant wherein they undertook to agree as between themselves as to the custody of their children and to settle as between themselves their rights in and to certain real and personal propertyoowned by them was submitted to the Court for consideration, and the Court having heard the testimony and examined the written agreement offered thereupon took the matter under advisement until the Sixteenth day of September, 1949. NOV 28 1949 9:10 am

That thereafter on the Sixteenth day of September,1949 the matter again coming before the Court to be determined and the Court having fully considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises finds that the material allegations of plaintiffs complaint are true; that defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty in her treatment of the plaintiff; that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant and that plaintiff is a proper party to have awarded to him the care and custody of the children of plaintiff and defendant.

The Court having fully considered the written agreement of the parties in which they attempt to adjust their respective rights to the custody of their children and their respective rights in and to certain real and personal property owned by them finds that the provision of said agreement wherein it is agreed that plaintiff shall have the care and custody of the minor children of the parties with the right of visitation in the defendant and the provision that plaintiff shall have one 1935 Model Chevrolet 1½ ton Truck,one Model 1939 Chrysler Sedan Automobile and his carpenter tools and wordworking equipment as his sole and absolute property are fair and equitable in their nature and to that extent the said property settlement agreement is approved.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are, dissolved.

2. The sole care and custody of the minor children of the parties,namely Alleen Jeannine Lynch, Norma Jean Lynch, John Robert Lynch and Howard Lee Lynch is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, the plaintiff to be liable for the support and care of said children entirely, and the defendant to have the right to visit said children at all reasonable times and to have the right to have said children visit her in her home at reasonable times and intervals.

3. There is hereby awarded to plaintiff as his sole and separate property one 1933 model Chevrolet 1½ ton Truck,one 1939 model Chrysler Sedan Automobile and the carpenter tools and woodworking equipment as described in the complaint and agreement.

4. That the real property owned by the parties, described as Lot Six(6) of Allen Park, a subdivision in Kimberly,Twin Falls County,Idaho, together with the furnishings,household goods and household equipment therein be and the same hereby are awarded and decreed to the parties in equal shares and as equal owners, the plaintiff to have the right to posession of the same and to use and occupy the same as a home for plaintiff and the aforesaid children of the parties, and to retain possession for as long as said property is so used, provided that plaintiff shall pay all taxes on said property before the same become delinquent, shall keep said property insured against loss or damage by fire and pay for such insurance, shall maintain said property in a good state of repair and shall pay off the existing encumbrance on said real property as it becomes due provided further that one-half of the amount of the encumbrance on said real property so paid by plaintiff shall be a lien in favor of plaintiff upon the undivided one half interest of defendant in such real property.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 4th day of November, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear. It is shown to the Court that personal service of the summons and complaint in this action was made on the defendant in Twin Falls County on the 11th day of October, 1949; that he made no appearance herein within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that more than twenty days after said service the Clerk of this Court entered the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead. Now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ordered that said entry of default be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and examined, and a witness was sworn and testified in support of plaintiff's testimony as to length of residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint as to residence, the marriage of the parties, that there are no children and no community property, and as to the cruel treatment of plaintiff by defendant, are all true. From this, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved, and that each of the parties hereto be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the defendant be and he hereby is restrained from in any manner molesting plaintiff and from making threats against her and her small daughter by a former marriage.

DECREE.

This cause came on regularly for trial before the above entitled Court, at the court room thereof, in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, on the date at the foot hereof. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Ray D. Agee. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to the Court, and it hereby finds, that the defendant, Theodore S. Forsberg, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action, and having failed to appear and plead to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, and the time allowed by law for pleading to said complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been made by the defendant, or filed herein, the default of the defendant, Theodore S. Forsberg, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted, and the evidence being closed, the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, the Court hereby finds and decides: That, for a long time last past, the defendant has wilfully, wrongfully and intentionally treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty, and has inflicted grievous bodily injury and grievous mental suffering upon her by his acts and conduct; that all of the property, hereinafter described, and each part thereof, and each interest therein, is the sole and separate property of the plaintiff; and that each allegation set forth or contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein is true and correct, and, being now fully advised both in the law and in the premises, the Court hereby makes and enters its judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Viola B. Forsberg, and the defendant, Theodore S. Forsberg, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Theodore S. Forsberg, be, and he is hereby, ordered, directed and required to pay to the plaintiff, Viola B. Forsberg, the sum of seventy-five dollars per month each and every month hereafter for the support and maintenance of said plaintiff, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the first of said payments shall be made on or before the 10th day of December, 1949, and that a like payment shall be made on or before the 10th day of each succeeding calendar month thereafter.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, Viola B. Forsberg, is the owner of and entitled to the possession of the property, hereinafter described, and each part thereof, and each interest therein, as her sole and separate property, and that the title of the plaintiff therein and thereto is good and valid, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Theodore S. Forsberg, has no estate, right, title or interest whatever of, in, or to, or lien upon, said property, or any part or portion thereof, and that the title to said property, and each part thereof, and each interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, quieted in the plaintiff against all claims, demands, liens or pretensions of the defendant, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Theodore S. Forsberg, be, and he is hereby, forever restrained, enjoined and debarred from asserting any claim whatever of, in, or to, or lien upon, said property, or any part or portion thereof, adverse to the plaintiff. Said property is particularly described as follows:

That certain real property, lying, situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

Lot seventeen of Davidson's Subdivision; together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

That certain personal property, now situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

One steam table; one waffle iron; one small refrigerator; one dish washer; one walk-in ice box; one gas grill; one oil heating stove; one gas cooking stove; one French fryer; miscellaneous dishes, cooking utensils and restaurant equipment; together with the trade name and good will of the New Model Cafe, which is situated in the City of Twin Falls, Idaho; together with all other property of every kind, character and/or description belonging to or owned by said New Model Cafe.

One washing machine; one davenport and chair; one occasional chair; one dining room set; two single beds; one double bed; one electric refrigerator; one electric stove; miscellaneous bedding; miscellaneous household appliances, furniture, supplies, dishes and equipment; together with all other personal property now in the possession of or under the control of the plaintiff.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, restored to her former name, to wit, Viola B. Smith, and that she be, and she is hereby, allowed, authorized and permitted to resume said name of Viola B. Smith.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 21st day of October, 1949, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. Entered NOV 18 1949 11:30 A.M. before the undersigned District Judge. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, and the defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney. The defendant having heretofore filed his acknowledgment of service of the summons and complaint herein, and consented that his default be entered forthwith and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by and on behalf of the plaintiff. The Court being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that she is entitled to a decree of divorce on the ground of cruelty, as prayed in her complaint.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of the said parties is restored to the status of a single, unmarried person, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the custody of Janice McDaris, Nina McDaris and Ruby McDaris, the minor children of the parties hereto, be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff, with the right in the defendant, however, to visit said children at reasonable times.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for the support of said minor children, the said payments to begin on the 1st day of December, 1949.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 28th day of October, 1949, before Honorable Kales E. Lowe, District Judge, Ann M. Titmus, plaintiff, appearing in person and by her attorney, Frank L. Stephan, Esquire; and the defendant, John L. Titmus, appearing neither in person nor by attorney and it appearing to the Court from the records and files in the above entitled action and from the proofs adduced at said hearing that the defendant, John L. Titmus, was served with due and legal process in said action and said defendant having failed to appear and plead in said action within the time allowed by law, or at all, the default of said defendant in the premises having been entered according to law, witnesses on the part of the plaintiff were regularly sworn and examined in support of the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court from the evidence in the case that plaintiff and defendant are husband and wife, and that plaintiff is now and for more than six weeks last past and immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that all of the material averments of the Complaint in said action are sustained by testimony free from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency and that matters so alleged in said

Complaint and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle plaintiff to a judgment and decree of divorce against the defendant on the grounds of cruelty;

NOW, ON MOTION of Frank L. Stephan, Esquire, attorney for plaintiff herein,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That by virtue of the power and authority in this Court vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the marriage existing between Ann M. Titmus, plaintiff herein, and John L. Titmus, defendant herein, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and said plaintiff and said defendant are, and each of them is, hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations and disabilities thereof and hereby restored to the status of a single or unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That that certain Property Settlement Agreement made and entered into by and between said plaintiff, Ann M. Titmus, as party of the first part, and said defendant, John L. Titmus, as party of the second part, under date of October 20, 1949, be and the same hereby is in all respects, approved and confirmed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That plaintiff, Ann M. Titmus, be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody, control and education of the minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit, Barbara Ann Titmus, born August 23, 1939, subject to the right of defendant to visit said Barbara Ann Titmus at reasonable times; and that defendant, John L. Titmus, be, and he is hereby awarded the care, custody, control and education of the minor son of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit, Gene Leonard Titmus, born May 31, 1936, subject however, to the right of plaintiff to visit said Gene Leonard Titmus at reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That defendant, John L. Titmus, be and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per month for the support and maintenance of said Barbara Ann Titmus until she shall have attained her majority, but the defendant shall not be required to pay said support and maintenance money during such periods of time as the said Barbara Ann Titmus shall reside with the defendant, John L. Titmus.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said Ann M. Titmus, plaintiff herein, is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property and estate, free from any community interest of defendant, one radio and one vacuum cleaner, and the said defendant, John L. Titmus, is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property, free from any community interest of said plaintiff, all other items of personal property in and about the home of the parties hereto and one automobile.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That said defendant, John L. Titmus, be and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff's attorney, Frank L. Stephan, Esquire, the sum of One Hundred Twenty Dollars ($120.00) as a reasonable attorney fee and costs of suit in the above entitled action.

This matter come on regularly for hearing on the 18th day of November, 1949, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M. before the undersigned District Judge sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, and the defendant failed to appear, either in person or by attorney. Defendant having been duly and regularly served with copies of the complaint and summons herein and the time for appearance allowed by law having passed and no appearance of any kind having been made by or on behalf of the defendant, and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by plaintiff and witnesses in her behalf, and the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty as prayed in her complaint, and plaintiff is also entitled to the care, custody and control of Gerald Smith Frock, the minor son of the parties hereto.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of the said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; That the care, custody and control of Gerald Smith Frock, the minor child of the parties, be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff, with a right in the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times; and the defendant is hereby permanently enjoined from interfering with plaintiff's custody of said minor child;

It is further ordered that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $30.00 per month, beginning on the 1st day of December, 1949, and continuing until said minor child shall have reached the age of minority; it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant be, and he hereby is, enjoined from enterfering with plaintiff's custody of said minor child, but that he may visit said minor child at reasonable times provided he has kept up the said payments of $30.00 per month.

Dated November 18, 1949.

This cause coming on to heard before me Kales E. Lowe, Judge of the District Court in and for Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, on this 18th day of November, 1949, a regular Court day of the September term of said Court, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein and proof that the defendant was duly served in person with a copy of the Summons together with a copy of the Complaint in this cause, on the 16th day of September, 1949 in the State of Arkansas; and the defendant having failed to answer or appear in Court in said cause within twenty days of the service and that the said defendant being wholly in default; and that said default having been entered by the Clerk of this Court, upon the application of plaintiff on October _____. 1949 and the Court having ordered that the allegations contained in said Complaint be taken as confessed and true, and having heard the oral testimony of witnesses, sworn and examined in open Court and submitted to the Court by plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and on consideration thereof finds that all material facts alleged in plaintiff's complaint are true; and that the plaintiff at time of filing said complaint was and had been an actual resident in good faith of this State for more than five years next preceding the filing of said complaint, and was at the time of filing the complaint a resident of this State; and that the parties in this action were married, as in the complaint set forth.

The Court further finds that said defendant wilfully and without cause abandoned, deserted and neglected plaintiff and her minor children for more than one year next preceding the filing of said complaint, and that said wilfull abandonment, desertion, and neglect was continuous for more than one year prior to the filing of this suit; and that the plaintiff in the cause is without fault.

The Court further finds that there is community property, consisting of household furniture in the possession of the plaintiff of the value of $500.00; and that by reason of the acts of the defendant and the faults of the defendant, plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by this Court that the marriage relationship heretofore existing between the said Lola Presley, the plaintiff, and the said Eugene Presley, the defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and both parties are restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the care, custody and education of Charlotte Presley, born September 2, 1941, and Shirley Presley, born April 7, 1943, the minor children of said plaintiff and defendant, now in the care and custody of the plaintiff, Lola Presley, be and the same are given to the care of plaintiff, Lola Presley, exclusively, permanently and absolutely.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the defendant is hereby enjoined from interfering with said minor children or with plaintiff in her custody of said children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the household furniture now in the possession of the plaintiff, be adjudged and decreed to belong to plaintiff solely and absolutely.

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on this 25 day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of summons and complaint in said action has been made upon said defendant; and that the defendant has failed and refused to appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint, and the time allowed by law to the defendant for answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of the said defendant having been heretofore duly entered; and evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, including a property and custody agreement dated the 16th day of November, 1949, made and entered into between the parties hereto, wherein it was agreed between the parties as to the custody and support of the two minor children, and wherein it was agreed between the parties that their property rights have been settled and adjusted as hereinafter set forth and decreed. And the matter having been fully submitted to the Court for decision, the Court, having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises, and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the said defendant.

WHEREFORE, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Evelyn Merchant, and the defendant, Clyde C. Merchant, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property settlement agreement be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and that said property settlement, as contained in said agreement, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects, approved and confirmed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of said minor children, Claude Merchant, son, age 13 years, and Judith Merchant, daughter, age 10 years, be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff, Evelyn Merchant, with the right of the defendant, Clyde C. Merchant, to visit said children at any and all reasonable times, and with his right to tak the children with him for visits with the consent of the plaintiff, Evelyn Merchant.

And it is further ordered that the defendant, Clyde C. Merchant pay to the plaintiff, Evelyn Merchant, as support money for said minor children, the sum of $75.00 per month, until such time as they shall become of legal age; the first payment to be made on the 25 day of December, 1949, and $75.00 each month thereafter until the further order of this Court, or during the minority of said children.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described property be, and the same is hereby, decreed to the plaintiff and the defendant herein as joint owners, each to have a one-half interest in said property, described as follows, to-wit:

That certain real property lying, situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

Lots 14, 15, 16 and 17 in Block 10 of the Hansen Townsite, Hansen, Twin Falls County, Idaho.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that that certain 1937 Chevrolet automobile belonging to the parties hereto is hereby awarded to the defendant, Clyde C. Merchant, as his sole and separate property.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the household and kitchen furniture belonging to the parties hereto is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Evelyn Merchant, as her sole and separate property.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the two small cabins located on the hereinbefore described premises are awarded to the plaintiff and defendant herein as joint owners, each to have a one-half interest in said property.

ORDER MODIFYING DECREE OF DIVORCE.

The Court's order to show cause in the above entitled action came on to be heard before the Honorable Keles E. Lowe, one of the judges of said court, on the 25th day of November, 1949. Plaintiff petitioner appeared by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant appeared in person and by his attorney, W. L. Dunn; the defendant served and filed a counter-affidavit, which, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, was amended by striking therefrom the words "pay any support money to the defendant" (meaning the plaintiff), for the reason that the decree of divorce made and entered herein on the 23rd day of September, 1949, does not require the defendant to pay any alimony or support monty to the wife, but only for the support of the infant child. The plaintiff informed the Court that there was no objection to a modification of the the divorce decree as set out in defendant's counter-affidavit, as amended.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that our decree of divorce made and entered herein on the 23rd day of September, 1949, by and the same hereby is modified as follows: That the defendant be and he hereby is ordered to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $21.00 a month for the support of the minor child of said parties, commencing December 10th, 1949, and continuing during the minority of said child, or until the further order of this Court; that the defendant be and he hereby is ordered to pay to plaintiff's attorney, J. H. Barnes, the sum of $20.00 a month, commencing December 10th, 1949, for a period of four months in all, or until the sum of $80.00 is paid.

THIS CAUSE, having been brought on to be heard this 2d day of December, 1949, Blaine & Ambrose appearing as counsel for the plaintiff herein; the defendant having first appeared by his counsel, Davison & Davison, and defendant's said counsel having withdrawn of record on the 7th day of November, 1949; and defendant having been duly and properly served with notice to appear in person or to appoint another attorney to act for him; personal service of the verified complaint and summons upon said defendant in said action having been made upon said defendant in Ada County, Idaho, on the 9th day of September, 1949, and the time for answering having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been filed in said cause, and the defendant having failed to make an appearance in said action, the default of the said defendant, Jess H. Lakey, was duly entered herein, and that upon the complaint herein as confessed by said defendant, it appears that the allegations of said plaintiff are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff, Bessie Lakey, to the relief demanded in the complaint as prayed for; and the plaintiff herein having been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided does order, adjudge, and decree that the marriage existing between the said parties be dissolved and the said parties and each of them are released from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the legal care, custody and control of Filbur Jess Lakey and Spencer Alan Lakey, the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, be awarded to the plaintiff herein and that said defendant may have the privilege to visit the said minor children at all reasonable and proper times and places while said minor children are under the care, custody and control of the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant herein, Jess H. Lakey, shall pay to the plaintiff herein for the care and support of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, namely, Filbur Jess Lakey and Spencer Alan Lakey, the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) Dollars, per month, for each child, for a total of $50.00 per month.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That all the right, title, and interest of the defendant, Jess H. Lakey, in and to the following described real property, to-wit:

> Equity in that certain contract dated July 22, 1948 between Paul L. Owens and Grace E. Owens, sellers, and Jess H. Lakey and Bessie M. Lakey, buyers, said contract assigned to Harry S. Kessler and Julia Kessler by the sellers on July 26, 1948, said contract being held in escrow in the Idaho First National Bank, Boise, Idaho, balance due on said contract being the sum of $999.00, covering the following described property:
>
> Lot Four (4) of Walnut Grove Subdivision, according to the official plat thereof now on file and of record in the office of the County Recorder of Ada County, Idaho, together with all water and water rights and ditch and ditch rights appurtenant or belonging to said lot.
> Household furniture and fixtures located in the above described premises.

AGREEMENT

Between: WARREN D. WALLACE of Boise, Ada County, Idaho,

First Party,

and,

GOLDA MARIE WALLACE of Boise, Ada County, Idaho,

Second Party.

THIS AGREEMENT, Made this 1st day of December, 1949, by and between WARREN D. WALLACE, herein called "first party", and GOLDA MARIE WALLACE, herein called "second party",

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto, since the 27th day of December, 1944, have been husband and wife and now are husband and wife; and,

WHEREAS, unfortunate differences have arisen between the parties hereto as a result of which they have separated, and are now living separate and apart from each other; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to enter into an agreement for the purpose of confirming their separation, and to set forth their agreement which they term to be satisfactory and reasonable for the purpose of disposing of all the property in which the parties are jointly interested, and adjusting the custody of the minor child of the parties;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements of the parties herein contained,

IT IS HEREBY MUTUALLY AGREED as follows:

That it shall be lawful for said parties to continue to live separate and apart from each other during the term of their natural lives; and that each of said parties shall at all times live separate and apart from the other as if ~~sole~~ single and unmarried and may reside from time to time at such place or places, and may conduct, carry on and engage in any employment, business or trade that either shall deem fit, without any control, restraint or interference, directly or indirectly, by the other party herein;

That neither party shall molest the other nor compel the other to dwell with him or her by any legal proceedings or otherwise;

That neither party shall be obligated in any respect to maintain or support the other;

That from and after the date hereof, the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, namely, Harold Dean Wallace, age 3 years, shall be divided between the parties hereto as follows:

1. The second party shall be entitled to the care, custody and control of said minor child for one year, beginning December 1, 1949 and ending November 30, 1950, subject, however, to the following rights of the first party:

   A. First party to have the right to have the child with him for two consecutive days out of each week, said two days to be selected and determined by first party;

   B. First party to have the right to have said child during all of his annual vacation period during said year, said period not to exceed three weeks;

   C. First party to have the child from 8:00 o'clock the morning of December 25th until 8:00 o'clock the morning of December 26th;

2. Beginning December 1, 1950, first party to have the entire care, custody and control of said minor child for one year, ending November 30, 1951; provided, however, that second party shall have the same rights to custody and visitation during said year as were awarded to first party in paragraph 1 above.

3. The parties to continue alternating the custody, care, and control of said minor child in the years following December 1, 1951, in strict accordance with the schedule set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.

That first party shall pay to the second party, during the first year of this agreement and the years thereafter during which second party has the entire care, custody and control of said minor child, the sum of $15.00 per month on or before the 5th day of each month of said years for the support and maintenance of said child for as long as said child remains a minor.

Each party agrees that in the event said child becomes sick while in his or her possession, to the extent that it is necessary to call a doctor, that said party will immediately notify and consult with the other party with regard to how the child's sickness shall be cared for.

IT IS FURTHER EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED between the parties hereto that the child is in need of immediate care for the purpose of treating a bone disease in his legs, and that both parties will cooperate with each other in seeing that said child receives the best medical care and attention possible as soon as possible after the date of this agreement.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD that first party presently carries Blue Cross and Blue Shield Medical and Hospital Insurance and IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that said insurance program will be used to the fullest extent possible to pay any and all medical expenses incurred on behalf of said minor child.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that the parties shall divide equally any hospital, surgical or medical bills not covered by said hospital and medical insurance plans and each will pay his proportionate share of such excess.

The first party hereby grants and conveys unto the second party all his right, title and interest in and to the household furniture, together with his interest in any community property of the parties hereto, save and except the personal effects of first party (including a certain radio now in possession of first party and certain bedding now in possession of first party), and save and except for that certain 1937 Pontiac car which is now in the possession of the first party. Second party hereby grants and conveys unto first party all her right, title and interest in and to said 1937 Pontiac car and said radio and bedding now in possession of first party.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD that first party has heretofore instituted an action of divorce against second party; and,

IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that this agreement shall be binding and effective as to the disposition of their properties and the custody of said child and shall be presented to the Court wherein such action is instituted for the approval of said court and that in the event said Court should not approve the same, then no decree of divorce shall be entered with provisions contrary to the agreement, except upon notice to the other party.

The second party hereby releases the first party from all claims and demands of every character arising out of the marital status of said parties, including attorney's fees, which have been or may be incurred in said divorce action between the parties, costs, temporary alimony, permanent alimony, support and maintenance (except as provided herein), right of family allowance and right to inherit and all claims of every character and description held by second party against the first party, save as herein provided.

IT IS SPECIFICALLY AGREED AND UNDERSTOOD that this agreement comprises the complete adjustment and settlement between the said parties of all claims and demands of every character and that the second party shall have no right to or claim against the first party, save as herein provided.

The second party does and shall accept the provisions herein made for her in full satisfaction of her right to the community property of the respective parties hereto and in full satisfaction of her right to support and maintenance, and of the support and maintenance of said minor child, as herein provided.

The second party hereby covenants and agrees that she will not at any time hereafter contract any debts, charge or liability whatsoever for which the first party or his property or his estate shall or may be or become liable, and the second party covenants and agrees that she will at all times hereafter keep the first party free and harmless from any and all debts or liabilities which may hereafter been incurred by her, subject always to the provisions of this agreement.

That any and all property acquired by either of the parties hereto from and after the date hereof, shall be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same, and each of the said parties hereby respectively grants to the other all such future acquisitions of property as the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same.

That each of said parties shall have an immediate right to dispose of or bequeath by Will his or her respective interests in and to any and all property belonging to him or her from and after the date hereof, and that said right shall extend to all of the aforesaid property, set over to either of the parties hereto under this agreement.

That said parties hereto each hereby waive any and all right to the estate of the other left at his or her death and forever quit-claim any and all right to share in the estate of the other by the laws of succession, and said parties hereby release one to the other all right to be administrator or administratrix or executor or executrix of the estate of the other and hereby release and waive all right to inherit under any Will of the other, and said parties hereby waive any and all right to the estate or any interest in the estate of the other for family allowance or by way of inheritance, and from the date of this agreement to the end of the world, said waiver of each party in the estate of the other party shall be effective and they shall have all the rights of single persons and maintain the same relation of such toward each other.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 2nd day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Anderson and Thomas, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, George Lewis Ripley, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint and the time for answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of the defendant, George Lewis Ripley, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint; and upon consideration of the said testimony the court finds upon the first cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of the said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds upon the second cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant;

The court further finds that there has been born to the plaintiff and defendant as the issue of said marriage two children, namely, Wanda Ripley, a daughter, which said daughter reached the age of 18 years on the 27th day of November, 1949, and Fred Howard Ripley, a son, now of the age of 12 years; that said minor son is now in the care and custody of plaintiff;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than two years immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been, an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

The court further finds that there exists certain real and personal property which is the community property of plaintiff and defendant and that under date of the 21st day of November, 1949, the parties hereto made and entered into a separation agreement disposing of such community property, among other things, which said separation agreement is in words and figures as follows, towit:

SEPARATION AGREEMENT

Between: GEORGE LEWIS RIPLEY, of Boise, Idaho, as

FIRST PARTY,

and

MARGARET LOUISE RIPLEY, of Boise, Idaho, as

SECOND PARTY.

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 21st day of November, 1949, by and between GEORGE LEWIS RIPLEY, sometimes otherwise known as George L. Ripley, and sometimes otherwise known as G. L. Ripley, of Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, herein called the first party, and MARGARET LOUISE RIPLEY, sometimes otherwise known as Margaret L. Ripley, and sometimes otherwise known as Margaret Ripley, of Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, herein called the second party,

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the first party and second party were married, each to the other, on the 1st day of July, 1930, and ever since have been, and now are, husband and wife; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto separated on or about the 30th day of September, 1949, and have ever since lived separate and apart from each other; and,

WHEREAS, on or about the 27th day of September, 1949, the second party instituted an action against the first party in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, for divorce; and,

WHEREAS, the said action is still pending and undetermined; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have two minor children, namely, Wanda Ripley, a daughter, now of the age of 17 years, and Fred Howard Ripley, a son, now of the age of 12 years, and the parties have mutually agreed with respect to the custody of such children and upon reasonable provision for the contribution by the first party for the support, maintenance and education of such minor children; and,

WHEREAS, the first party has agreed to make reasonable contribution to second party for the support and maintenance of second party; and,

WHEREAS, the said parties have agreed upon a satisfactory and reasonable and just disposal of all of the property in which the parties are jointly interested; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have contracted certain debts as hereinafter set forth, and the parties have agreed upon provision for the payment thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, In consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements of the parties herein contained, it is mutually agreed as follows:

That it shall be lawful for the said parties to continue to live separate and apart from each other, during the term of their natural lives; and, that each of the said parties shall, at all times, live separate and apart from the other as if sole and unmarried, and may reside, from time to time, at such place or places, and may conduct, carry on, and engage in any employment, business or trade that either shall see fit, without any control, restraint, or interference, directly or indirectly, by the other party hereto.

That neither party shall molest the other, nor compel the other to dwell with him, or her, by any legal proceedings or otherwise.

That from and after the day and date hereof, the second party shall have the custody, care and control of the said minor children of the parties hereto.

That the first party shall have the right to visit such children at reasonable times and places and to have such children visit him at reasonable times and places and for reasonable periods of time.

That the first party shall pay to the second party, for her care, support and maintenance the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month until such time as second party remarries, payments to be made in the amounts of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) on the 1st and 15th days of each month, commencing December 1st, 1949; that the first party shall pay to the second party, for the care, support, maintenance and education of the said minor child, Fred Howard Ripley, the sum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month until such child shall have attained his majority or married, whichever first occurs, such payments to be made in the amounts of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) on the 1st and 15th days of each month, commencing December 1st, 1949.

Provision for the support, care, maintenance and education of the said minor child, Wanda Ripley, is specifically excluded, since the said minor child, Wanda Ripley, will have reached the age of 18 years on the 27th day of November, 1949.

That each of the parties hereto shall keep the other informed of his or her present address at all times.

In the event of illness or sickness of either or both of the said children, requiring the attendance of a physician or surgeon, the party in whose custody said child or children may then be shall cause prompt notice to be given to the other party either by mail, telegram or telephone, of such illness or sickness, and, each party shall have the right to consult any attending physician or surgeon in connection therewith.

If either such child shall, during his or her minority, suffer or sustain any illness from disease, ailment or accident, which illness shall be of such severe character as to affect the general soundness and healthfulness of the system of such child seriously and not a mere temporary indisposition which does not undermine and weaken the constitution of such child or seriously derange the vital functions of such child, then in that event the first party shall pay the reasonable costs of hospitalization and the reasonable costs of medical and surgical attention; provided, that such payments shall be made direct to the hospital and/or physician or surgeon, as the case may be, of the charges which shall be incurred; and, provided, further, that the first party shall not be required to pay any fees, bills or charges of dentists whatever or of any other doctor than those of duly licensed physicians and surgeons; and, provided that, except in cases of emergency, the parties hereto shall have agreed on the selection of the hospital and/or physicians and surgeons which shall care for such child.

IT IS SPECIFICALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED By and between the parties hereto that second party has in her possession and control certain separate property belonging to first party consisting of his personal effects, 3 tool chests with tools, fishing equipment and a camping mattress and that second party agrees to relinquish such possession to the first party at any time upon demand.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED By and between the parties hereto that the first party hereby transfers, conveys and sets over to the second party, as her separate property, all of the right, title and interest of the first party, as community property or otherwise, in and to that certain ranch in Canyon County, Idaho, particularly described as follows, to-wit:

This cause came on regularly for trial in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada on the 2nd day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, Glenn A. Coughlan, and no one appearing for or on behalf of the defendant, and the defendant not appearing in person; whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and plaintiff's testimony with regard to her residence in the State of Idaho having been corroborated; and the defendant having submitted no proof whatever for and in his behalf, the case was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, upon the testimony submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above named defendant was duly and regularly served by publication in the Idaho Daily Statesman, Boise, Idaho; that the defendant did not appear and plead thereto in the time allowed him by law and that default judgment was duly and regularly entered against him, after his time to appear and plead had expired; that the defendant was not in the Military Service or Armed Forces of the United States of America at any of the above mentioned times; that this court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the person of the above named plaintiff and of the person of the above named defendant; that the defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect and desertion and for said reasons the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in her Complaint on file herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Melva S. Toponce and the defendant, Ivan R. Toponce, be and the same is hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught; that the plaintiff and defendant and each of them be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single person.

This cause came on this day to be heard on plaintiff's complaint, taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not answering thereto has been duly entered. W. B. Bowler appeared as attorney for plaintiff, and on the testimony of the plaintiff, duly corroborated, as to residence, and it appearing to the court that the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the testimony and are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for, and in particular that the plaintiff is, and was for a period of six full weeks prior to filing her complaint, a resident of the State of Idaho,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Elsie M. Sullivan and the defendant Willis H. Sullivan be, and the same is, hereby dissolved upon the ground of defendant's extreme cruelty of said plaintiff, and the said parties are, and each of them is, freed from the bonds of matrimony and the obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, AJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff is awarded all of the community property of the parties including the Philco Refigerator and household goods and utensils, except the 1949 Chrysler Sedan which is awarded to the defendant.

DONE In open Court this 2nd day of December, 1949.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 9th day of December 1949, the plaintiff being represented by his Attorney, J. M. Lampert.

The time for answer having expired , and the record showing due service of process, and the defendant having filed her acknowledgment of service of summons and complaint, and having in said acknowledgment declared that she, the said defendant, is not now, and for more than six full months preceding the commencement of this action, has not been in any branch of the military service of the United States of America, and said defendant having also, in said acknowledgment of service, declined to answer or otherwise plead to the complaint on file herein, and the record showing that the defendant has not filed an answer or entered any other plea other than as hereinbefore stated, to the complaint herein, the default of the defendant has heretofore been entered.

Evidence having been presented to the Court for the plaintiff, and there having been corroboration as to plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to the filing of the complaint.

The Court finds that the defendant is guilty of desertion, having wilfully deserted this plaintiff, which said desertion has continued throughout the period of more then one full year prior to the commencement of this action; and that the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the evidence; and the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho fore more than six full weeks preceding the filing of this action.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and that the parties hereto be, and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

Done in open Court this 9th day of December, 1949.

This cause coming on regularly to be heard on the 9th day of December, 1949, before the Court without a jury, Elam and Burke, attorneys, appearing for said plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and that the time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired, and that the default of said defendant, Harry W. Johnson, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered herein.

WHEREUPON evidence, duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and the premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the court in the County Court House at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 9th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Edith I. Miller, attorney or record for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Einar Richard Magdiel, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed otherwise to appear, and having failed to answer demur, or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of said defendant, Einar Richard Magdiel, for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of Virginia Jenkins Magdiel, and in support of her complaint, and the cause was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing therefrom, the court finds on the issues in the cause in the favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than one year next immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

The court further finds that under date of the 22nd day of October, 1947, the parties hereto made and entered into a separation agreement which said separation agreement is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

AGREEMENT

THIS SEPARATION AGREEMENT Made and entered into this 22nd day of October, 1947, by and between Virginia Jenkins Magdiel, hereinafter designated as the wife, and Einar Richard Magdiel, hereinafter designated as the husband;

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are now wife and husband, and irreconcilable disputes and differences have arisen and do now exist between them as a result whereof they separated in the month of July, 1947, and since that time have been and are now living separate and apart from each other, and further, as a result whereof an action for divorce is now pending in the above entitled court, and the said parties have become firmly and finally convinced that it is impossible for them now or in the future to live together as wife and husband; and,

WHEREAS, there have been born as the issue of said marriage three minor children, to wit, Marilee Edel Magdiel, whose birth date is the 25th day of June, 1938; Gwen Kathleen Magdiel, whose birthday is the 22nd day of May, 1941; and Leslie Virginia Magdiel, who birth date is the 21st day of February, 1944, which said minor children are now in the care and custody of the wife, and the wife is a fit and proper person to have such care and custody; and,

WHEREAS, the parties mutually desire to provide for the care, custody, and control of the said minor children and for their support and maintenance; and,

WHEREAS, the said parties have accumulated certain real and personal property, hereinafter described, and desire to make a fair and equitable division between them of said property;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements, promises, releases and discharges hereinafter contained, the parties hereto have agreed and do hereby agree as follows:

FIRST. That the wife shall have the care, custody and control of the said minor children, and the husband shall have the privilege of visiting them at all reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time.

SECOND. That the husband shall pay to the wife, for the maintenance, support and education of the said minor child of the husband and wife, Marilee Edel Magdiel, the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per month, commencing on the first day of December, 1947, and continuing each month thereafter until the said child, Marilee Edel Magdiel, shall attain the age of majority.

THIRD. That the husband shall pay to the wife, for the maintenance, support and education of the said minor child of the husband and wife, Gwen Kathleen Magdiel, the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per month, commencing on the first day of December, 1947, and continuing each month thereafter until the said child, Gwen Kathleen Magdiel, shall attain the age of majority.

FOURTH. That the husband shall pay to the Wife, for the maintenance, support and education of the said minor child of the husband and wife, Leslie Virginia Magdiel, the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per month, commencing on the first day of December, 1947, and continuing each month thereafter until the said child, Leslie Virginia Magdiel, shall attain the age of majority.

FIFTH. That the said Einar Richard Magdiel, the husband herein, hereby conveys, transfers, and sets over to the said Virginia Jenkins Magdiel, the wife herein, as he own sole and separate property, and for her own sole and separate use, benefit and behoof, together with the rents, issues and profits thereof, the real property situate in Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows, to wit:

Lots 9 and 10 in Block 18
of North Locust Grove Addition to Boise City;

And the said Einar Richard Magdiel, the husband herein, hereby relinquishes forever to the said Virginia Jenkins Magdiel, the wife herein, all of his right, title and interest in and to the above described real property, as community property or otherwise; and the said Virginia Jenkins Magdiel hereby agrees to assume the indebtedness to the First Security Trust Company, in the approximate amount of $2,900.00, secured by a mortgage on said described real property.

SIXTH. That the husband does hereby assign, transfer and set over to the wife, as her own sole and separate property, all of his right, title and interest in and to all of the household furniture, fixtures, furnishings and equipment now owned by the parties hereto and situate upon said real property hereinbefore described, excepting only the personal property owned by the parties hereto and hereinafter particularly described and set over by the wife to the husband as his own sole and separate property.

SEVENTH. That the husband shall pay to the wife all costs and expenses and attorney fees of $75.00 incurred or hereafter to be incurred by the wife in the action for divorce now pending between the parties hereto.

EIGHTH. That in consideration thereof, the said Virginia Jenkins Magdiel, the wife herein, does hereby assign, transfer and set over to the said Einar Richard Magdiel, the husband herein, as his own sole and separate property, all of her right, title and interest in and to the personal property owned by the parties hereto, particularly described as follows, to wit; one 1935 Chevrolet sedan automobile, one desk, plumbing fittings, one platform rocker, one form designed by the father of the husband, and carpenter's and plumber's tools.

NINTH. It is further specifically understood and agreed that this agreement and the terms and provisions hereof are accepted by both and each of the parties in full and complete settlement of all the rights of either to the care, custody, control, support and maintenance of the said three minor children of the wife and husband, and whatsoever other rights and privileges with regard to said children as may arise out of or exist by virtue of said marital relationship.

TENTH. It is further specifically understood and agreed that this agreement may be approved, adopted, and confirmed by the court in any decree of divorce which may be entered, and that the terms and provisions hereof may be by any court incorporated in any such decree of divorce.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands as of the day and year herein first above written.

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the court at Boise, Idaho, on the 9th day of December, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney and his witness; the defendant neither appearing in person nor otherwise at all,

IT APPEARING TO THE satisfaction of the court that due and legal service of summons and complaint has been had and made for the time and in the manner provided by law and that the defendant Mary N. Swegart, has made no appearance herein in form or manner as required by law, within the time limited for such appearance; that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein and that order so establishing has been duly entered, and the default of said defendant in the premises has been duly and regularly entered,

NOW UPON the application of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to reception of testimony on the plaintiff's behalf and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the plaintiff, LeRoy Swegart and the defendant Mary N. Swegart be and they are absolutely divorced and restored to the status of single persons.

NO. 22514

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above-entitled court on the 16th day of December, 1949, the court sitting without a jury. Claude Marcus of Messrs. Hawley & Marcus, appeared for the Plaintiff, there being no appearance in person or by counsel for Defendant.

Whereupon, witnesses were sworn and examined by counsel. Evidence was introduced, and the cause was submitted to the court for consideration and decision, and the court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and to the facts, does hereby find as follows:

I

That the Plaintiff is now and has been for more than six full weeks next preceding the filing of the complaint herein a bona fide resident of the city of Boise, State of Idaho.

II

That Plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint by reason of the proof submitted and the corroboration thereof, fully establishing the allegations of said complaint as true, and she is hereby entitled to an absolute Decree of Divorce.

III

That the parties acquired during their marriage furniture, fixtures, and household equipment not exceeding in value the sum of $1,500.00 and that Plaintiff is entitled to said furniture, fixtures, and equipment.

NOW THEREFORE, THE COURT DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

I

That the Plaintiff is hereby granted a full and absolute decree of divorce from the said Defendant, Cleland C. Bull, upon the grounds of non-support and extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, terminated, and at an end, and each of the parties is restored to the status of single persons.

II

That Plaintiff is entitled to, and she is hereby awarded, all of the household furniture, fixtures, and equipment accumulated by the parties hereto since the date of their marriage, and she is entitled to and is awarded all of her personal clothing and jewelry.

This cause came regularly on for trial on the 16th day of December, 1949, before the Court without a jury, upon the verified complaint of the plaintiff, E.P. Barnes appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person nor by counsel, the default of the defendant having been duly entered after having entered his appearance and having refused to plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, after having been duly served personally with summons and complaint herein, as required by law, whereupon plaintiff and her corroborating witnesses were called, sworn and examined and oral and documentary evidence introduced in her behalf and the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision, and the Court having fully considered the same and being duly advised in all of the law and the premises, hereby finds and decides that all of the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for therein upon the ground of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony existing between said plaintiff Idillia Lorraine Alderson, and the said defendant Robert T. Alderson be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby decreed an absolute divorce from the said defendant.

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the court in the County Court House at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 16th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Edith I. Miller, the attorney of record for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, James W. Starnes, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed otherwise to appear and having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of said defendant, James W. Starnes, for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of Betty Jean Starnes, and in support of her complaint, and the cause was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing therefrom, the court finds on the issues in the cause in the favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than six weeks next immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

The court further finds that there has been born as the issue of said marriage one minor child, to wit, a girl, Nancy Lee Starnes, whose birth date was the 15th day of February, 1947, and that the defendant is not a fit nor proper person to have the custody or control of said minor child on account of cruelty and neglect, and that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of said minor child;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, Betty Jean Starnes, and the defendant, James W. Starnes, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, divorced from the defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff shall have the care, custody and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, Nancy Lee Starnes, and that the defendant be, and he hereby is permanently deprived of the custody and control of said minor child of the plaintiff and defendant.

BARBARA JEAN MARTIN (Plaintiff,)

vs. (

LAWRENCE B. MARTIN (Defendant,)

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS ACTION came on regularly to be heard before the court sitting without jury on this 30th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing by her attorney, J. F. Cromwell, of Boise, Idaho, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or otherwise.

It appearing to the court that the defendant was served personally with summons and a copy of complaint herein on the 5th day of December, 1949, in Payette, Payette County, Idaho, and that the default of said defendant for failure to appear and plead to plaintiff's complaint, was duly and regularly entered and filed herein on the 30th day of December, 1949, said defendant then being in default. The records and files hereof appearing to be in due, regular and proper form, the court proceeded with the trial of this cause. Witnesses were duly sworn and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff, the cause then being submitted to the court for consideration and decision.

It appearing further to the satisfaction of the court that plaintiff and defendant herein intermarried on or about the 30th day of August, 1947 at Weiser, Washington County, Idaho, and since said date continuously have been husband and wife; that the plaintiff herein for more than six full weeks immediately prior to the filing of this suit has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant have no children born as the issue of said marriage; that plaintiff, prior to said marriage, acquired as her sole and separate property a davenp and chair set, which now is in possession of the defendant; that plaintiff and defendant, during said marriage have acquired certain community personal property described as: one 1929 Model Ford; a bedroom suite consisting of bed, springs, mattress, chest of drawers, vanity, night stand and bench; a gas water heater; a gas floor furnace; a gas cooking range; and a rug. That all of said community personal property now is in possession of defendant. That said bedroom suite, gas water heater and gas floor furnace are being purchased on a conditional sales contract and are subject to the terms thereof.

It appearing further to the satisfaction of the court that all of the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and are supported by evidence introduced by, for and in behalf of plaintiff, and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty; and that plaintiff is entitled to have all of said personal property set over to her as her sole and separate property, subject however, to the terms of said conditional sales contract. The court being fully advised in the premises both as to the law and the facts:

NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of J. F. Cromwell, Attorney for plaintiff, and good cause appearing therefor,

It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Barbara Jean Martin and Lawrence B. Martin, plaintiff and defendant herein, be, and the same hereby are wholly dissolved and that the parties hereto are free from the obligations and duties thereof and that they, and each of them, are absolutely free from all marital restraint and obligation to each other.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the following personal property be, and the same hereby is, set over and awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property and that the defendant hereby is ordered and directed promptly to surrender possession of said property, and the whole thereof to the plaintiff; to wit:

One daveno and chair set; one 1929 Model Ford; one gas cooking range; one rug; one electric Frigidaire; and subject to the terms of the conditional sales contract under which purchases being made, one bedroom suite consisting of a bed, springs, mattress, chest of drawers, vanity, night stand and bench, and one gas water heater and one gas floor furnace.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that plaintiff's maiden name, to wit, Barbara Jean Everett, be restored to her.

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge, this 3rd day of December, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear at the hearing.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has filed an Appearance and Waiver in said cause, and has failed and refused to plead to the merits of said cause, and has consented that the trial of said cause may be had on this date, and that said cause is now ready for trial, and that the defendant has waived the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law by failing to plead in said cause.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections; that the defendant is engaged in the military services, to-wit, the United States Navy, but that he has waived all rights and privileges under the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and has consented that the proceedings herein may be had, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, Judge of the above entitled court, sitting at chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 3rd day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by counsel, C. V. Boyatt of Pocatello, Idaho, and the defendant appearing through her Guardian Ad Litem, P. A. McDermott, duly appointed by this court on the 9th day of November, 1949;

And it appearing to the court that the said defendant was duly served with summons and a copy of the complaint at Blackfoot, Idaho, on the 25th day of October, 1949, and that P. A. McDermott, Guardian Ad Litem, was duly served with a copy of said summons and complaint, and that an answer was filed in said cause by said Guardian Ad Litem on December 2, 1949;

Whereupon said plaintiff and witness were duly sworn and examined counsel for plaintiff and defendant and by the court, and it appearing to the court that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by competent evidence and that defendant has no defense thereto, and that said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle him to the relief prayed for in his complaint;

Now, on the motion of C. V. Boyatt, attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the parties restored to the status of unmarried persons.

2. That the community property of the parties described in said complaint, to-wit:

> The Southwesterly Seventy feet of Dots numbered One and Two in Block Eighty-five, in the City of Pocatello, Bannock County, State of Idaho, according to the official plat thereof returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff herein as his sole and separate property.

3. That the custody, care and control of the minor children of the parties, to-wit: Kenneth Ray Barrett, John Clair Barrett, Barbara Ann Barrett and Judy Barrett, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, subject to future modification by this court upon a showing of change of circumstances of any of the parties hereto.

4. That the support and maintenance of the defendant herein is considered by the court, and the court specifically reserves jurisdiction to make whatever future orders for the support and maintenance of the defendant as may appear to be equitable and just.

DECREE

Case No. 15657

This cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 7th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Henry McQuade, and the defendant not appearing but being represented by her counsel, Walter H. Anderson, Attorney at Law, Pocatello, Idaho,

It appearing to the Court that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint and failed to appear in the above entitled cause and action after the same having been set for trial by Order of this Court, said Order dated the 6th day of December, 1949,

Evidence was offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his Complaint from which it appears that each an every one of the allegations in the Complaint are true and such are found to be the facts; and that no evidence was introduced for and on behalf of the defendant.

Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law having been waived by counsel for the defendant,

Now, therefore, the law and the evidence being by the Court understood and considered;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Lawrence H. Tate and Gladys I. Tate, be, and the same are dissolved and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the care, custody and control of the said minor child of the parties in this action, Lester B. Tate, age seventeen (17) years, be awarded to the plaintiff with the right of reasonable visitation of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be awarded the following described realty:

> Lot 18, Block 86 of Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, Idaho, according to the Official Plat and Survey thereof, as the sole and separate property of the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant be awarded the following described realty:

> Lots 16 and 17, Block 86, of Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, Idaho, according to the Official Plat and Survey thereof, as the sole and separate property of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant be awarded the miscellaneous household furniture.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff pay to the defendant the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month for a period of eight (8) months, beginning with the 15th day of December, 1949, and that said payments shall not exceed a total of eight (8) payments in the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per payment.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the following life insurance policy be awarded as the sole and separate property of the defendant:

> Royal Neighbors of America, Benefit Certificate No. 218189, on the life of Gladys I. Tate, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the following insurance policies be awarded to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property:

> The Equitable Life Assurance Society, Individual Certificate (life) # 20278, in the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($3500.00) on the life of Lawrence H. Tate.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society, Individual Certificate (life) #20278-A, in the sum of One Thousand One Hundred Dollars ($1100.00), on the life of Lawrence H. Tate.

Kansas City Life Insurance Company, Kansas City, Missouri, Policy #627466, on the life of Lawrence H. Tate, in the sum of Two Thou-

C. P. A. Company of Detroit, Michigan, New Regular Policy (Non-assessable), on the life of Lawrence H. Tate, Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), and a Funeral Benefit.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff pay miscellaneous doctor bills which are existing, due and owing on the 7th day of December, 1949.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff shall be awarded a trunk and miscellaneous personal effects which are located at the home of the parties, to-wit: 140 North 12th Avenue, Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff pay a certain mortgage on the herein described premises awarded to the defendant, to the Guaranty Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n of Pocatello, Idaho, in the approximate sum of Nine Hundred Seventy Five Dollars ($975.00).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be awarded the 1928 Chevrolet 4-door Sedan and a 1936 Chevrolet 4-door Sedan.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard upon the 7th day of December, 1949, before the undersigned, one of the District Judges of the above entitled court, sitting as Judge thereof, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Hugh C. Maguire, Jr., the defendant appearing by her attorney Ralph H. Jones, and the parties announced that they were ready for trial.

Whereupon, the court proceeded to take evidence. The plaintiff in the action testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and his witness, Thelma Millward was duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations in the complaint. A Marriage Settlement Agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant was offered and received in evidence. The defendant refused to offer evidence in support of her answer, and the court, after hearing the testimony and examining the evidence offered and received, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in said complaint.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, both parties having waived findings of fact and conclusions of law, and the Court being fully advised herein,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the marriage heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved, and that each of the parties herein be, and they are, granted an absolute divorce and restored to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Marriage Settlement Agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant dated November 25th, 1949, be, and the same is hereby, approved and plaintiff awarded as his sole and separate property the following:

A. Lot 2 in Block 2 of Amended Plat of Fremont Heights, Bannock County, State of Idaho, as per the duly recorded plat thereof on file with the County Recorder of Bannock County, State of Idaho.

B. Commencing at the South Quarter corner of Sec. 15, Twp. 6 S., Rge. 34 EBM, Bannock County, Idaho, and running thence N. 0°37' W. 659 feet on the East boundary of the SE¼ SW¼ of said Sec. 15, thence S. 89°30' West 25 feet to the West boundary of the deeded portion of the Pole Line Road, thence South 89°30' West along the Southerly boundary of the James Matthews property and an extension thereof 740 ft. to the true point of beginning, thence South 0°20' East 101 feet, thence North 89°30' East 145 feet, thence North 0°37' West 101 feet, thence South 89°30' West 145 feet to the true point of beginning, same being embraced in the City of Pocatello, Idaho.

C. The 1940 De Soto Fordor Sedan Licence No. LB124.

D. All household furniture, furnishings and equipment located in the dwelling house situated on the property above described under "B".

Husband and wife are awarded as his or her own property personal possessions, such as clothing, jewelry, etc. which by their nature have been considered as belonging to him or to her.

The plaintiff, Harold L. Palmer, shall have the custody of the plaintiff's and defendant's minor children, Carol Ann and Marilyn, during the school year, and the defendant, Kleta Palmer, shall have the custody of the children during the summer months when the children are not going to school, and the plaintiff shall pay a reasonable amount for the support of said children during the time they are in the custody, care and control of the defendant; each of said parties shall be permitted to see the children at reasonable hours and time when they are in the custody of the other, and visit with them.

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this 15th day of December, 1949, before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, judge of the above entitled court, the plaintiff appearing by his counsel, P. A. Mc Dermott, and the defendant neither appearing in person nor by counsel, and it appearing that the defendant was duly and regularly served with summons and complaint in this action, and the defendant having appeared in said action by filing a Demurrer therein through her attorney of record, Robert M. Terrell, and that said Demurrer was later withdrawn by defendant's counsel, and defendant declined to plead further in said action, and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein

Whereupon the deposition of the plaintiff was offered and received in evidence on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his complaint, from which it appears that the allegations of said complaint are true, and said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle him to the relief prayed for in his complaint;

Now, on the motion of P. A. Mc Dermott, Attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the parties freed from all obligations thereof.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 16th day of December, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

It appearing to the court that no evidence was offered for and on behalf of the defendant, and evidence being offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and held for naught and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person. (2) That all of the community property mentioned in the complaint be awarded to the defendant, subject to the indebtedness against the electric stove, as her sole and separate property, and in no wise community property.

BANNOCK COUNTY, IDAHO

ESTHER PELLUM,) Plaintiff,)
vs.) JUDGMENT AND DECREE.
BARTLETT P. PELLUM,) Defendant.)

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 17 day of December, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty; that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce for the defendant, and that the parties hereto be, and they are, hereby restored to the status of single persons.

2. That the care, custody and control of the two minor children of the parties, namely, Geneva Laverne Pellum, now aged 9 years, and Kathleen Pellum, now aged 3 years, be, and it is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the right on the part of defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for the support and maintenance of the minor children of the parties, the first payment to be made the 20th of December, 1949, and a like payment to be made on the 20th day of each and every month thereafter until said children shall reach the age of majority, or until further order of the Court.

4. That there is hereby awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property, the following described real and personal property, to-wit:

REAL PROPERTY:

> Lots 33 and 34 of Block 3, Townsite of Fairview, now a part of the Village of Alameda, according to the official plat thereof. Said property being situated in Alameda, Bannock County, Idaho.

Also, it is decreed that the defendant shall pay the $175.00 balance due and unpaid on the contract of purchase of the above-described real property, payable as the same accrue, and said sum is to be paid to plaintiff for her to pay to B. M. Pellum as required by the contract of purchase from said B. M. Pellum.

PERSONAL PROPERTY:

> Household goods and furniture consisting of living room set, rug, dining room set, against which there is $125.00 owing to Southeast Furniture Company, also a radio, refrigerator, washing machine, coal stove, oil burner, rollaway bed, bed, chest of drawers, bedding, dishes and silverware.

It is hereby decreed that the plaintiff shall pay the unpaid portion remaining unpaid on the above-described household goods and furniture.

5. That there is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property the small trailer house located on the back or easterly end of the said lots, and the furnishings therein belonging to the parties hereto, with the provision that the defendant shall remove the said trailer house from the said property within 10 days from the date hereof, and defendant shall remove said trailer house without destroying or injuring the lawn over which the same will be moved.

6. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff or to her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho, the sum of $100.00 as attorneys fees for the prosecution of this action, and the further sum of $17.40 costs incurred in this action; said sums to be paid within 30 days of the date hereof.

Dated this 17 day of December, 1949.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable [illegible] Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 21st day of December, 1949; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Carl C. Christensen, and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with process in this cause and did appear and file a demurrer by and through her attorney, F. E. Tydeman, and that she has, through her said attorney, withdrawn her demurrer and filed a refusal to plead any further, and the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and his witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle him to the relief prayed for in his complaint, and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE; On motion of Carl C. Christensen, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, KENNETH DRAPER, and the defendant, ALICE DRAPER, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, KENNETH DRAPER, be and he hereby is awarded the permanent care, custody and control of the three minor children of the parties, namely Lauretta May Draper, a girl, LeRoy Draper, a boy, and Virgil Draper, a boy, for and during that part of the year when school is normally in session, and that the defendant, ALICE DRAPER, be and she hereby is awarded the care, custody and control of said children when school is in Summer recess or vacation, and provided that said children may be in the custody of either one of the parties during any of said times, provided the parties mutually agree on such change, and it is ordered that the plaintiff, KENNETH DRAPER shall at all times support and maintain said minor children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, ALICE DRAPER, be and she hereby is awarded the community interest in the following described real property:

> All of Lots Thirteen (13, Fourteen (14) and Fifteen (15) in Block Three Hundred Fifty-seven (357) of Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, Idaho.
> Lots 19 and 20 in Block 356 of Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, Idaho, according to the official plat of said premises returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

as her sole and separate property, free and clear off and from all claims of the plaintiff, KENNETH DRAPER therein or thereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That pursuant to a stipulation entered into between the parties, which stipulation is filed herein and approved by the Court, the defendant, ALICE DRAPER shall pay any and all community debts owing in Pocatello, Idaho, by the parties with the exception of the sum of $40.00 due to ~~the Bannock Lumber Company, which~~ sum shall be paid by the plaintiff, KENNETH DRAPER.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That all community personal property be and hereby is awarded to the parties respectively who now may have the same in his or her possession.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That each party to this action shall pay his own attorney's fees and Court costs.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled court, in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 23rd day of December, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by her attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint was filed in the above entitled matter, and that thereupon a summons was issued; and,

It further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the said summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court, and is now on file herein, and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons and is in default therefor; and

It further appearing that the clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the defendant's default, and the plaintiff being entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of his complaint, testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that the allegations thereof are true;

The court finds that the plaintiff has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of this complaint; that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Pocatello, Idaho, on August 10, 1949; that no children were born of said marriage; that the parties own no community property; and that during the married life of the parties hereto, the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

WILLIAM M. BUTLER, Plaintiff, vs. MYRTLE C. BUTLER, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled court in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 31st day of December, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by her attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint was filed in the above entitled matter, and that thereupon a summons was issued, and,

It further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the said summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court, and is now on file herein, and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons and is in default therefor; and

It further appearing that the clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the defendant's default, and the plaintiff being entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of his complaint, testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that the allegations thereof are true;

The court finds that the plaintiff has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of the complaint; that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Pocatello, Idaho, on September 8, 1949;

that no children were born of said marriage; that the parties own no community property; that prior to the marriage of the parties hereto the plaintiff was the owner of the following described property located in Bannock County, State of Idaho:

> The southerly 72½ feet of Lot 2, Block 1, Richland Townsite, a subdivision of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter, Section 22, Township 6 South, Range 34 E.B.M. according to the plat of the survey of said premises on file in the office of the recorder of Bannock County, State of Idaho.

that the property has remained the separate property of the plaintiff, and the defendant has no interest therein or rightful claim thereto; that during the married life of the parties hereto, the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

Dated this 31st day of December, 1949.

JOHN EDWARD MURRAY, :
Defendant. :

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Court sitting without a jury, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the day of December, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorneys, Merrill and Merrill. The defendant appeared in person and by his attorneys, Black and Black. Evidence was introduced upon the issues framed by the Amended and Supplemental Complaint of the plaintiff and the Answer of the defendant thereto, from which evidence it appeared that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been expressly waived in writing, and the Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge, and decree that the marriage existing between the plaintiff, Delores Ann Gregan Murray and the defendant, John Edward Murray, which marriage was solemnized at Pocatello, Idaho, on February 24, 1949, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects dissolved and held for naught, and the parties thereto are freed from all obligations thereof, and each of said parties is restored to the status of a single person.

BE IT FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the custody and control of the minor child of said marriage, to wit, Rebecca Louise Murray, be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Delores Ann Gregan Murray, with the right, nevertheless, on the part of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the defendant, John Edward Murray, pay to the plaintiff, Delores Ann Gregan Murray, for and on behalf of the support and care of said minor child, the sum of $40.00 per month, which said sum shall be paid in semi-monthly installments as follows, to wit: $20.00 on date hereof, and $20.00 on the 1st day of January, 1950, and $20.00 on the 15th day of June 1950 and $20.00 on the 1st and 15th of each succeeding month until further order of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the defendant furthermore pay to the plaintiff as additional counsel fees and suit money, the sum of $67.50, payable in installments as follows: $10.00 on the 1st day of January, 1950, and $10.00 on the 15th day of January, 1950, and $10.00 on the 1st and 15th of each succeeding month until said sum shall have been fully paid.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing, having been duly and regularly reached for trial, the plaintiff and cross defendant appeared in person and by C. M. Jeffery, his attorney, and the defendant and cross complainant appeared in person and by her attorneys Hugh C. Maguire, Jr., and Walter Anderson, and thereupon the parties announced themselves ready for trial, and the cause was tried upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer to the defendant thereto, and the cross complaint and the answer thereto, and the plaintiff and cross defendant offered testimony in support of his cause and rested his case, and the defendant and cross complainant offered testimony and rested her case.

And by leave of the court both parties entered into a Stipulation in open court as to the disposition of certain items of community property.

Furthermore, the parties hereto through their respective attorneys have entered into a Stipulation, waiving the findings of fact and conclusions of law.

NOW, THEREFORE, upon consideration of the testimony of the parties as given in open court, and the evidence and testimony introduced and given on behalf of each of the respective parties, the court awards an absolute decree of divorce to the cross-complainant, Mary Duccine Valentine, upon the grounds and for the reasons as set forth in her cross-complaint.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that pursuant to the Stipulation of the parties that the household goods, consisting of the following, are awarded to the plaintiff and cross-defendant; Tony Valentine: Awnings, hot water heater, monkey stove, monkey stove heater, trash-burner, and hot water heater, platform rocker, desk, electric fan, electric heating fan, kitchen air-conditioning fan, magazine rack, kitchen cabinet, toaster, saw and drill set, house safe, safe for shop, card table, breakfast table, drapes, refrigerator, table and chairs, new davenport, laundry tubs, folding bed and cabinet, electric range and electric washing machine; However, said plaintiff is to pay to the defendant and cross complainant, Mary Duccine Valentine, the sum of $550.00 therefor.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that in pursuance to the stipulation, the Nash automobile owned by the parties be awarded to the plaintiff, Tony Valentine. However, he is ordered to pay to Mary Duccine Valentine the sum of $450.00 for her interest therein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff TONY VALENTINE, pay to the defendant and cross complainant, Mary Duccine Valentine the sum of $500.00 for her interest in the improvements made by said Tony Valentine on the community property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all separate property of plaintiff and defendant acquired prior to their marriage shall remain their separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Tony Valentine, shall pay to Walter Anderson and Hugh C. Maguire, Jr. the sum of $200.00 additional attorneys fees as Mrs. Valentine's attorneys, together with witness fees and costs in the amount of $7.65.

FREDA ROBERTS,

Plaintiff,

vs.

H. L. ROBERTS, sometimes known as LENN ROBERTS,

Defendant.

- - - - - - - - - - - - -

The above entitled cause having come on regularly for hearing this day before the Honorable Preston Thatcher, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Robert M. Kerr, Jr., and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by attorney, and the defendant having been personally served with process and the time allowed by law for answering having expired, and an Affidavit having been filed, setting forth facts showing that the defendant is not in military service, and the default of the defendant having been entered according to law, and the defendant by such default, having waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law, and the Court having heard and considered the evidence introduced on behalf of the plaintiff, consisting of the oral testimony of certain witnesses and a Stipulation and Agreement duly executed by the parties, and it appearing satisfactorily to the Court that each and all of the material allegations and averments in the plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that the said Stipulation and Agreement is a just equitable and proper basis for the settlement of the property rights and the care, custody and control of the children of the parties;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court, being fully advised in the law and the premises, finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed in said Complaint and approves and confirms the said property settlement and agreement; and

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the said Freda Roberts and the said H. IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF BINGHAM

MARY DAVIS JONES, Plaintiff, -vs- HERBERT WILLIAM JONES, Defendant,	COPY FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action having been brought on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, on the 21st day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her counsel of record, Donald R. Good, Esq.; and the defendant failing to appear herein in person, or by counsel, and having failed to file any pleading in this action, and the default of the said defendant, Herbert William Jones, having been heretofore duly and regularly entered herein according to law, and it appearing that the defendant is not in the military or naval service of the United States within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court finds that all material allegations and averments of plaintiff's Complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to competency, admissibility, or sufficiency, and that said matters so alleged and proved by the testimony of two competent witnesses in behalf of said plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her said Complaint.

The Court finds that the plaintiff is a resident of the State of Idaho, and was such a resident of said State at the time of the commencement of this action, and for a period of more than six weeks immediately prior thereto, and that due and legal service of the Summons and Complaint in said action has been made upon the said defendant, Herbert William Jones, and that the time allowed by law has expired and that the said defendant has failed to appear herein or plead in person or by counsel, or otherwise, or at all, and the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, upon Motion of Donald R. Good, Esq., attorney of record for plaintiff, It is Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by this Court, by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the said Court does hereby Order, Adjudge and Decree that the marriage between the plaintiff, Mary Davis Jones, and the said defendant, Herbert William Jones, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is freed absolutely, and released from said bonds of matrimony, and all of the obligations thereof, and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the following described real and personal property, being the community property of the parties hereto, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property, free from all right, title, claim or interest of the plaintiff, in or to the same, or any part or portion thereof:

REAL PROPERTY

The above entitled cause cam duly on for hearing in the chambers of the undersigned District Judge, in Blackfoot, Idaho, on the 21st day of December 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney F. E. Tydeman, of Pocatello, Idaho.

The defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney.

The court having duly examined the files and records herein finds that a duly verified complaint was filed herein and that a summons was thereupon duly issued; that the said summons was duly served on the defendant; that thereupon the defendant entered in writing her appearance for all purposes, waiving her right to any further notice herein, consenting to the entry of her default and the entry of a decree in the manner and for prayed for in the complaint.

The court thereupon heard the evidence of the plaintiff and one other witness in support of the allegations of the complaint and therefrom finds;

That for more thansix weeks immediately preceeding the filing of the complaint herein the plaintiff was and now is an actual, bona fida resident of the State of Idaho; that the plaintiff and the defendant were married at Hanford, California, July 12th. 1944 and have been husband and wife at all times since said date;that two children have been born of said marriage, towit; James F. Tydeman and Ann Louise Tydeman; that there no property to be awarded to either party hereto; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty as defined in the laws of the State of Idaho relative to grounds for divorce and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the said complaint.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now exsisting between the parties hereto be and the same hereby are dissolved and set aside and the parties hereto are restored to the status of single persons.

That the property settlement set out in the complaint is approved.

The custody of James F. Tydeman is awarded to the defendant and the defendant do have and recover from the plaintiff the sum of $35.00 per month for the support of the said child,

The custody of Ann Louise Tydeman is awarded to the plaintiff.

That each of the parties hereto has the right of reasonable visitation of the children.

The court reserves the right, upon proper showing to change this decree relative to the custody of the said children during their minority.

Dated December 21ST 1949.

GWEN K. JENSEN, Plaintiff, -vs- DARWIN W. JENSEN, Defendant.	DECREE

In this cause the above-named defendant, Darwin W. Jensen, having been regularly served with process and having thereafter appear in said action and submitted to the jurisdiction of this Court and having consented that Default be entered against him and that said action be brought to trial by the plaintiff without further notice; and the Default of said defendant having been heretofore duly entered according to law, said cause came on regularly for hearing this day before the Judge of the above-entitled Court at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho; said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, H. William Furchner, and no appearance being made by the defendant either in person or by counsel; and the Court having heard the testimony of plaintiff, Gwen K. Jensen and of Mytha Kingsford, witness for the plaintiff, and having considered certain documentary evidence, to-wit, the property settlement agreement made and executed by the parties to said action on the 30th day of November, 1948, which said agreement was duly marked and admitted in evidence herein as plaintiff's exhibit "A"; said cause was submitted to the Court for consideration anddecision, and the Court being fully advised in the law and in the premises finds that each and all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and are proved by evidence free from any objections as to its admissibility, relevancy and materiality, and that the facts so proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her Complaint; and the Court further finds that said defendant is in the military service of the United States and has waived all rights and privileges granted to him on account of such service under the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff Gwen K. Jensen and the defendant, Darwin W. Jensen, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and that said parties be and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, namely, Kathryn Jensen, Danny Wood Jensen and Harold Ray Jensen, until further order of the Court, and that said defendant be and he hereby is required to pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor children the sum of $50.00 per month commencing January 1st, 1950, and until further order of the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said property settlement agreement of the parties made and executed by them on November 30th, 1948, and admitted in evidence herein as plaintiff's exhibit "A" be, and the same is hereby approved and adopted by the Court, and pursuant thereto the said plaintiff is hereby awarded all of the household furniture and equipment of the parties as her sole and separate property.

Lionel W. Hansen, Plaintiff,

Viola A. Hansen, Defendant.

In this action, the defendant having been duly and regularly personally served with summons and complaint within the County of Bingham, State of Idaho, and the time allowed by law for answering or pleading herein having expired, and the defendant having failed to appear and plead or answer to plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff having filed affidavit asserting that the defendant is not engaged in the military service of the United States or its Allies, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law, this cause came on regularly this day to be heard before Honorable Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the default of the defendant as aforesaid, J Blaine Anderson, Esq., appearing on behalf of the plaintiff and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence adduced on behalf of the plaintiff and received in evidence a written property settlement agreement of the parties with respect to property rights and the custody and support of the minor child of said parties, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court from said evidence and agreement that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are proved by competent evidence, free from exception or objection as to its sufficiency, relevancy, and admissibility, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for inthe complaint.

Now, therefore, the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff, Lionel W. Hansen, and defendant, Viola A. Hansen, be, and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, and said parties are and each of them is hereby released from the obligations thereof and said parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that a certain propeɔty settlement agreement made and entered into between the said parties hereto, on the 30th day of November, 1949, where and whereby a complete disposition of all of the property of the parties hereto was made, is equitable and fair, and the same is hereby confirmed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that until further order of the Court herein, that the custody of the minor child of said parties, namely Leola Joy Hansen, age eight years, be and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant with the provision however that the plaintiff may see and visit said child at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that until further order of this Court herein, the plaintiff pay to the defendant for the support, maintenance and education of said minor child, the sum of $40.00 per month, payable on the 1st day of each and every month hereafter until said child shall have attainedits majority, or unless sooner married, and that said payments shall commence on the 1st day of Janaury, 1950.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

IN THE DISTRICT COURT
BOISE COUNTY, IDAHO
Filed December 10, 1949
Katherine M. Brogan CLERK
By Aileen Mathis DEPUTY

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing this 2nd day of December, 1949 before the above-entitled court sitting in chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, the Honorable Chas. F. Koelsch presiding, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record John A. Carver, Jr., and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above-entitled action that the defendant herein, Argus L. Burns, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed otherwise to appear and having failed to answer, demur, or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so doing having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of said defendant, Argus L. Burns, for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law,

THEREUPON witnesses were sworn and testimony taken and evidence adduced, whereby it appeared to the satisfaction of the of the court that the allegations contained in the plaintiff's complaint are true and supported by competent and legal evidence; now therefore, in consideration of the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does order,

a) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be dissolved, set aside and declared for naught and that the plaintiff be granted a divorce of and from the defendant.

b) That the plaintiff be restored to the name MARIAN TALBOT.

CARRIE HOVINGHOFF, Plaintiff,	)
-vs-	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE
LYLE HOVINGHOFF, Defendant.	)

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing this 18th day of November, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with counsel, John M. Sharp, and her witness, Mrs. Mae Edelmeyer. The defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel; and it appearing to the court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process as prescribed by law in such cases made and provided; that the time for answering having expired and defendant has failed to plead thereto; that the default of the defendant has been duly entered and the Affidavit of Non-military Service duly filed; the plaintiff having submitted proofs touching the allegations of the Complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises; and it further appearing that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of cruelty, and it further appearing that plaintiff and defendant have entered into a written Stipulation regarding the settlement of property rights of every nature existing between them and the custody of their minor children.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I.

That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above-named plaintiff, Carrie Hovinghoff, and the above-named defendant, Lyle Hovinghoff, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught.

II.

That the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Doris Fay, Ethel, Dean and Paul, shall hereby be awarded to the plaintiff, subject to the right of defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places, and to have each of the said minor children visit with him in his home for a period of not to exceed sixty (60) days during the school vacation term; that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, for the support of each minor child, the sum of $37.50 per month, on the first day of December, 1949, and each succeeding month thereafter until and including December 1, 1950; that commencing with January 1, 1951, the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $22.50 per month for the support, maintenance and education of each child until he or she reaches the age of majority.

III.

That the plaintiff shall have, as her sole and separate property, the 1936 Chevrolet automobile and the household furniture and effects now owned by plaintiff and defendant. The defendant shall give to the plaintiff a Warranty Deed, subject to the presently existing mortgage, a piece of land containing approximately six (6) acres, described generally as follows:

> "Beginning at a point 1,000 feet West and 450 feet North of the Southeast corner of Section 32, Township 5 North, Range 37 E.B.M., thence North 1,010 feet, thence East 90 feet, thence in a Southerly direction following Highway No. 91, a distance of 1,070 feet, thence West 400 feet to the point of beginning," together with a proportionate share of the water rights now owned by plaintiff and defendant in connection with all property owned by plaintiff and defendant. The defendant shall pay off the mortgage presently existing on said property as the payments become due, and shall also pay the taxes on said property until such time as the mortgage is released.

IV.

The defendant shall have, as his sole and separate property, all of the other community property belonging to plaintiff and defendant not specifically herein mentioned.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on regularly to be heard and tried by the court on the 9th day of December, 1949, upon plaintiff's complaint; plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, W. Lloyd Adams of Rexburg, Idaho, and defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney, and

It appearing to the court that defendant was duly and regularly served with summons in the City of Portland, County of Multnomah, State of Oregon on the 14th day of November, 1949, and

It further appearing to the court that the defendant has failed to appear and plead in this cause and the time for answering having expired and no answer or demurrer having been entered herein, and

It appearing that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein and that the defendant is not now in the military service of the United States, and

It further appearing that Josephine Sorenson and Verla Sorenson were sworn and testified on behalf of plaintiff, and it appearing that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to the commencement of this action, and that the defendant for more than one year prior to the commencement of this action has failed to provide for his wife and child the common necessities of life, and

It further appearing that all of the allegations and averments in plaintiff's complaint are true, and

It further appearing to the court that Joseph A. Sorenson has paid to Josephine Sorenson the sum of $2,000.00 for and on behalf of the defendant in this action as settlement of all obligations of every kind and nature due and owing by Orville W. Sorenson to Josephine Sorenson, including past and future support and maintenance of their son, Ceoral J. Sorenson.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between plaintiff, Josephine Sorenson, and defendant, Orville W. Sorenson, be, and the same is forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught and the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from the obligations thereof and each of them is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That Orville W. Sorenson is hereby released and discharged from all obligations of every kind and nature owing to Josephine Sorenson for all past and future support and maintenance of the son of plaintiff and defendant, Ceoral J. Sorenson, and for the support and maintenance and alimony to the plaintiff, Josephine Sorenson.

3. Plaintiff is hereb y awarded the custody of the minor child, Ceoral J. Sorenson.

I

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of said Court in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint, filed herein as provided by law; that the defendant failed to appear or answer, or otherwise plead to said plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, either in person or by his attorney within the time required by law, or at all; that the time for answering having expires, the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law; that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, nor in any branch of the service thereof; that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action, and of the person of the above named plaintiff, and of the person of the above named defendant; that all the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein are true; that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in her Complaint filed herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff, the Court finds as follows:

I

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Joyce Loveland, and the above named defendant, Weston T. Loveland, be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that plaintiff and defendant and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff, be, and she is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, the household goods and furnishings set forth in plaintiff's Complaint herein.

III

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff, be and she is hereby restored to her former name of Joyce Asper.

MYRTICE RAY CLIFFORD, Plaintiff, vs. LUCILLE EDNA CLIFFORD, Defendant.	DECREE

This cause came on regularly for trial at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 23rd day of December, 1949, Holden & Holden appearing for and in behalf and as the attorneys of the above named plaintiff, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, whereupon plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in his own behalf, and thereupon LaVerl Clifford was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and thereupon the above named plaintiff rested, and the above named defendant having submitted no proof whatever, for or in her own behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

I

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of said Court, in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint filed herein; that defendant has filed herein an appearance, submitting herself to the jurisdiction of this Court, and has refused to plead further in said cause, and has consented to an immediate hearing of this case without further notice to her, either in term time or vacation, in open Court or in Chambers, and has waived the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, and has consented that default be entered against her, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a Stipulation with respect to the custody of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, Rae La Lucille Clifford, and the payment of a certain sum each month by the plaintiff to the defendant for the support and maintenance of said minor child, and with respect to the division of the community property of plaintiff and defendant, and it appearing to the Court that said Stipulation is in all respects fair, just and equitable, and the Judge having heard the evidence, and the matter having been submitted, and it appearing that all the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that the defendant is entitled to the custody of said minor child, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in plaintiff's Complaint, and it further appearing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, nor in any branch of service thereof, and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff:

I

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Myrtice Ray Clifford, and the above named defendant, Lucille Edna Clifford, be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant, and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the above named defendant, Lucille Edna Clifford, be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant; namely, Rae La

Lucille Clifford; and the plaintiff shall have the right to see and visit said minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant at reasonable times and places, provided, the said plaintiff pays the monthly support for said minor child as herein provided.

III

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said plaintiff, Myrtice Ray Clifford, pay to the defendant, Lucille Edna Clifford, the sum of $30.00 per month, beginning with the 20th day of December, 1949, and the sum of $30.00 on the 20th day of each and every month thereafter for the support of said minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant, Rae La Lucille Clifford, age fourteen months, until the further order of this Court, or until said minor daughter shall have attained the age of majority.

IV

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said plaintiff, be, and he is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, the following described personal property, to-wit:

> All his personal belongings, clothes and wearing apparel, one chest of drawers, one table and chairs, and the said defendant is hereby divested of all right, title and interest thereto.

V

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said defendant, be, and she is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, the following described personal property, to-wit:

> All her personal belongings, clothes, wearing apparel, all miscellaneous household goods and furniture owned by plaintiff and defendant, with the exception of one chest of drawers and one table and chairs, and the said plaintiff is hereby divested of all right, title and interest thereto.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

On this 12th day of December, 1949, this cause came regularly on for trial, the plaintiff appearing and with her witnesses and being represented by Geo. H. van de Steeg, her attorney, and the defendant appearing by Dean E. Miller, one of his attorneys of record in the cause, and thereupon the Court proceeded with the trial of the cause, and plaintiff and her witnesses were duly sworn to testify, and did testify, and the plaintiff having rested, the defendant declined to submit any evidence at all, and the Court being now fully advised in the premises, and counsel for the respective parties having stipulated in open court that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of law in writing be waived, finds that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are fully substantiated by competent evidence and are true, and further finds, in respect of the community property of the parties that the said property has been divided by mutual agreement of the parties and that each of the parties has now in his and/or her possession their respective shares or portions of said community property as so divided by and between them; that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce and to the care, custody and control of the minor child, the issue of the marriage between the said parties, and that the defendant should be required to contribute to the support of said child the sum of Thirty and 00/100 Dollars per month, and that division of the community property as made by the parties should be approved and confirmed by the court.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the said parties be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and set at naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted a divorce from and against the said defendant.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the custody of Deanna Lee Robinson, the minor child the issue of the marriage between the said parties, be and hereby is awarded to the plaintiff, Viola B. Robinson.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant be, and he hereby is, required and commanded to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said minor child the sum of Thirty and 00/100 Dollars ($30.00) per month, commencing from the date of this decree and continuing until the further order of this court.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the division of the community property as made by and between the parties by their own mutual agreement whereby each of the said parties took into possession the portion or share it was mutually agreed each was to have, be and hereby is confirmed and approved, and the said property as so divided shall henceforth be the sole and separate property of the said parties now having the possession thereof pursuant to their mutual agreement of the division thereof.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the above entitled court, this 26th day of December, 1949, Frank E. Meek appearing as counsel for the plaintiff and the defendant having been regularly and duly served with summons and complaint in said action, and it further appearing that the defendant is not a person in the military service of the United States of America, as defined by any Act of Congress, or State Legislation, and the defendant having failed to appear herein in person or by counsel, or to plead to said complaint within the time required by law, and his default for having failed to appear or plead to said complaint having been duly entered on the 26th day of December 1949.

Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and the court having considered all the evidence and testimony in this action, and it having been made to appear to the Court that the plaintiff and defendant were inter-married at Ozark, Missouri, on the 22nd. day of October, 1938, and ever since said date have been and now are wife and husband.

That the plaintiff is now and for more than six weeks last past immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that there are no property rights to be adjudicated in this action; that there has been one child born as the issue of said marriage, to-wit, Helen Judith King, seven years of age.

And the court being fully advised in the premises, and being of the opinion that all the material allegations contained in the complaint of the plaintiff on file herein are true and correct; that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff.

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, be dissolved and held for naught, and the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely divorced from each other.

That plaintiff be granted sole custody and control of said Helen Judith King, the minor child of the parties hereto, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable and proper times.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

THIS CAUSE coming on regularly to be heard on the 26 day of December, 1949, before the Court without a jury, and the Plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Thos. Y. Gwilliam, and the Defendant not appearing in person or by counsel and it appearing to the Court that summons, in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said Defendant, JIMMY GUNN CASPER, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered; and an affidavit stating the Defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States having been filed herein:

WHEREUPON, evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the Plaintiff, from which it appears that the allegations of Plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all obligations as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters in said complaint alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the Plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREE, and this does, ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between Plaintiff and Defendant be, annuled and held at naught.

2. That the Defendant's maiden name of Jimmy Gunn is hereby restored to her.

Dated and signed this 26 day of December, 1949.

EULA M. HANEY, PLAINTIFF, VS. WILLIAM HANEY, DEFENDANT.	DECREE OF DIVORCE .....

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard this 29th day of November, 1949 before Honorable Kales E. Lowe, one of the District Judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Cassia, at Burley, Idaho.

The plaintiff appeared with her attorney, Henry W. Tucker; and the defendant appeared neither in person nor by counsel; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant William Haney has been duly served personally with process herein, and has not made any appearance herein, or filed demurrer or answer herein; and that the time for appearing, demurring, or answering to the complaint herein has expired; and that the Clerk of the above-entitled Court has duly entered the default of the said defendant after filing the affidavit required by the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act as amended,

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to the hearing. Witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint were duly sworn and testified, and the evidence being closed, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, after deliberation did order plaintiff to have judgment against the defendant as herein set forth:

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff and defendant restored to the status of single persons, and released from all further obligations of and from said marriage.

2.

That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded sole control and custody of the child Dennis Haney, of the approximate age of nine years, adopted son of plaintiff and defendant, during the minority of said child; and that the defendant be permitted at reasonable times to visit said child.

Dated at Burley, Idaho this 29th day of November, 1949.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 1st day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Onis D. Carpenter had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved and that the plaintiff is entitled to have awarded to her the community property hereinafter described, NOW, THEREFORE;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Florence M. Carpenter and the defendant Onis D. Carpenter be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby divorced from said defendant;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff have and she is hereby awarded, to have and to hold the same as her sole and separate property, the following described personal property, to-wit:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

(COPY)

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the court on the 27th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with his attorneys, Louie Gorrono and J. P. Reed, and the defendant making no appearance. It appearing to the court that summons in this action was duly served upon the defendant and that the defendant has failed to appear herein and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff within the time allowed by law, and a proper affidavit of military status being on file herein showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America, thereupon, by order of this court, the default of the defendant has been duly entered and filed herein. Thereupon the court heard the evidence of plaintiff in support of his complaint, with due corroboration thereof, and from said evidence the court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief therein prayed for. Wherefore, pursuant to the law and the evidence, the court now renders judgment in favor of plaintiff and against the defendant as follows, to-wit:

I.

It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, be, and they are hereby, absolutely dissolved; amd plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to their former ststus of unmarried persons.

II.

It is hereby further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the custody of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit, Shirley Lee Hughes, Ernest Loyal Hughes, Donald Phillip Hughes and Richard Clark Hughes, be, and the same is, hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Loyal E. Hughes; but that the defendant, Nettie Hughes, shall have the right to visit said children at reasonable times and reasonable places and under reasonable circumstances.

III.

It is hereby further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the written property settlement agreement between plaintiff and defendant, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1949, now on file in this court in this action, be, and the same is, hereby approved, ratified and confirmed by this court and made a part of this decree.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on for hearing the 20 day of December, 1949 before the above entitled court, the Honorable Leo McCarty, District Judge, presiding, sitting in chambers at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing by her attorney John A. Carver, Jr., Esq., of Boise, Idaho and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records filed and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Rex M. Dyer, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed otherwise to appear and having failed to answer, demur, or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, the time for so doing having expired, and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the said defendant, Rex M. Dyer, for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law,

THEREUPON witnesses were sworn, testimony taken and evidence adduced, whereby it appeared to the satisfaction of the court that the allegations contained in the plaintiff's complaint are true and supported by competent and legal evidence; and it further appeared that the parties hereto have heretofore on the 9th day of December, 1949 entered into a separation agreement in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

SEPARATION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this 9 day of December, 1949, by and between JEAN R. DYER of Grangeville, Idaho County, Idaho, hereinafter known as the Wife, and REX M. DYER, of Grangeville, Idaho County, Idaho, hereinafter known as the Husband,

WITNESSETH:

(1) WHEREAS, the Wife and the Husband have heretofore ceased to live together, and irreconcilable differences which have arisen render it impossible for them hereafter to live together as husband and wife; and

(2) WHEREAS, the parties have as issue of said marriage minor children as follows, to-wit: Patricia Dyer, aged 10 years and Arch Newton Dyer II, aged 8 years; and

(3) WHEREAS, the parties have agreed among themselves on a settlement of all property rights and differences existing between them, and for the welfare of the said children, and for the purpose of settling all their differences, in consideration of the premises they have entered into the following agreement with each other, to-wit:

(4) That neither of them, the Wife and Husband, shall molest the other of them or compel or endeavor to compel the other of them to cohabit or dwell with him or her by any legal proceedings for restitution of conjugal rights or otherwise howsoever.

(5) It is understood and agreed that there are debts of the community, the following list of which is not exclusive:

Income Tax, State and Federal, 1949		$415.00 (Est.)
Note payable to A. N. Dyer		500.00
Property taxes, 1949		59.57
Current bills:
Bon Marche, Spokane (Rug)	$506.76
Hirzels Music (Clarinet for Patsy)	31.00
Style Shop (Clothes)	13.08
Dr. Soltman	23.00
Dairy	12.60
Owl Drug	3.35
Miller Hardware	23.99	663.68
		$1638.25 (Est.)

(6) The Husband agrees to pay and discharge, from 1949 savings so far as possible, and thereafter from the other liquid assets of the community, all of the community debts above listed, together with all the debts of the community not listed, and attorney's fees of the Wife as hereinafterprovided.

(7) The Husband agrees to execute and deliver to the Wife a quitclaim deed to the following described real property, being the premises occupied by the Wife and the Husband heretofore as a residence, to-wit:

> Lot 1, Idaho Addition to the City of Grangeville, Idaho, according to the plat thereof as the same is on file with the County Recorder of the County of Idaho, State of Idaho.
> Together with all the tenements, appurtenances, hereditaments thereunto appertaining, and including all furniture and fixtures and personal property therein, the same to be the sole and separate property of the wife, absolutely.

(8) The Husband agrees to pay to the Wife the sum of $450.00 as and for attorney's fees for the attorney of the said Wife for services heretofore rendered, of which amount $150.00 has previously been paid, receipt of the balance of which sum is hereby acknowledged.

(9) The Wife shall have the sole custody and control of the minor children of the Wife and Husband, subject to the rights of the Husband to visit the said children at the place where the said children and the Wife shall be living, at reasonable times and for reasonable periods, and to have the said children visit him at reasonable times and for reasonable periods at the home of the parents of the Husband at Grangeville, Idaho County, Idaho.

(10) The Husband shall pay to the Wife for her support and for the support and maintenance of the said minor children, as follows: The sum of $250.00 per month for 12 months, or until the Wife shall remarry, beginning on the 1st day of January, 1950; thereafter the sum of $150.00 per month until the older of the said minor children shall have attained the age of majority; thereafter $100.00 per month until the younger of the said children shall have attained the age of majority, at which time all obligation of the Husband to make payments to the Wife shall cease and terminate.

(11) The Husband shall pay for all medical and hospital and dental requirements of the said minor children, except routine charges which shall be paid by the Wife.

(12) The Husband shall pay all bills and charges for necessaries incurred by the Wife during the month of December, 1949, and shall pay her the sum of $50.00 for her support and for the support and maintenance of the said minor children during said month.

(13) The total amount of assets of the community, not hereinabove provided to be paid toward the discharge of community debts, or for attorney fees, or provided to be transferred to the Wife, is agreed to be the sum of $_____; it is agreed that this amount is now a credit of the Husband with the Brown Chevrolet

Company; the parties hereto agree that this amount shall remain to the credit of the Husband with the Brown Chevrolet Company, subject to being paid out on account of the support money payments hereinabove provided for, to the Wife, or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the children, on the following terms and conditions and none other, agreement to which is indicated by signature to this agreement appended of Fred Brown and Laura Brown, of the Brown Chevrolet Company and A. N. Dyer of Grangeville, Idaho;

(a) The said fund shall be subject to the order of A. M. Dyer, only, and shall be disbursed upon his order to the Wife, for the use and benefit of the children, or disbursed directly for the use and benefit of the said children by payments for emergency needs, or for educational purposes, or otherwise for them, in amounts and at times as said A. N. Dyer shall at his sole discretion determine. PROVIDED, however, that if the Husband shall be unemployed for a period of longer than one month, said A. N. Dyer will authorize the said fund to be disbursed to the Wife at monthly intervals as and for support payments as hereinbefore provided for so long as the Husband shall remain unemployed.

(b) The said fund shall be withdrawn from the Brown Chevrolet Company and deposited in a bank at any time the said A. N. Dyer determines such action to be for the best interests of the parties hereto, and the minor children, and in any event, if the ownership of Brown Chevrolet Company shall change.

(c) A. N. Dyer shall have the power to appoint by will a successor trustee.

(d) If any part of the said fund remains undisbursed at the time the younger of the two children shall reach the age of 21, such part shall be paid to the Husband.

(14) It is underst od and agreed that so long as the Husband shall remain employed by Brown Chevrolet, he shall authorize said employer to withhold the amount herein provided to be paid for support money and to disburse the same at the beginning of each month for the ensuing month to the Wife.

(15) PROVIDED, always, and it is hereby agreed, that if the Husband and Wife shall be reconciled and return to cohabitation, then, and in such case, all the covenants and provisions herein contained shall become void. In such case either parties applies for a divorce, this agreement shall be in full settlement of all property rights, and shall be offered as a part of the decree, which therein may be granted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands the day and year first above written.

DECREE.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in chambers at Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, this 9th day of September, 1949, before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled Court upon the complaint of plaintiff herein taken as confessed by defendant; Wayne A. Barclay appearing as counsel for plaintiff and no person appearing as counsel for defendant and the defendant not being present in Court and it appearing to the Court that said defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint as required by law and the order of this Court; that said defendant is in default and that the default of the said defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly entered against him, the cause proceeded to trial;

Testimony in behalf of plaintiff was presented and proofs taken and the testimony being closed the matter was submitted to the Court for his decision and the Court being fully advised in the premises and it appearing to the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections and exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency and that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to enable plaintiff to obtain the relief prayed for in her complaint; that plaintiff was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that there are no children living as the issue of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant; that there is no property, community or otherwise, belonging to the parties to this action; that plaintiff's former name was Alpha Small and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed in her complaint;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage of the said plaintiff, Alpha Small Bauthues, and the said defendant, Chester Bauthues, be dissolved and that the same is hereby dissolved accordingly and that the said parties are and each of the is hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations thereof and further that plaintiff be and she is hereby restored her former name, to-wit: Alpha Small.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in chambers at Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, Idaho, within said Eleventh Judicial District, on the 24th day of December, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Frank M. Rettig. The defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel. And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process and that he has failed to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint and that the time allowed by law for so appearing and answering has expired and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law, which said default is hereby ratified and confirmed.

Witnesses on the part of plaintiff were examined and testimony was submitted free from objection, and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by virtue of default; and

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are supported by competent evidence and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought in her complaint, and that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto should be dissolved and plaintiff be granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant; and the Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that plaintiff be, and she hereby is, granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Leonard Lawrence, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and each party is hereby released and freed from all obligations thereof.

Plaintiff, : 14594
vs. : DECREE
DOROTHY WETTERHOUSE NORMAN, :
Defendant. :

This matter having come on regularly to be heard this 15th day of December, 1949, before the undersigned District Judge, the plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by his attorney, Wm.S. Hawkins, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, the defendant having admitted and acknowledged service of a true and correct copy of the Complaint and Summons herein on December 6, 1949, and her acceptance of service being on file in the above entitled Court, and having filed herein her answer and waiver of notice of time and place of hearing said action on its merits, and the plaintiff and his witness having been duly and regularly sworn and examined, testified on behalf of himself in support of the allegations of his complaint and corroborative evidence having been submitted as to the residence of said plaintiff, the Court having heard and considered all of the evidence introduced and being fully advised in the premises and having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce upon the ground of Extreme Cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant.

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Wm. S. Hawkins, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS BY THIS COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, ROGER NORMAN, and the defendant DOROTHY WETTERHOUSE NORMAN, be, and the same are hereby vacated, dissolved and set aside upon the ground of Extreme Cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant's name of DOROTHY WETTERHOUSE sometimes known as DOROTHY WETTERHUS be, and the same is hereby restored to her.

Done in open Court this 15th day of December, 1949.

Plaintiff,

vs.

WILLIAM TAYLOR PACK

Defendant.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by publication of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein, and the defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. Hamilton, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff EVELYN PACK, and the defendant, WILLIAM TAYLOR PACK, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court sitting without a jury on the 7th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Jack McQuade, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney.

On said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that service of Summons herein was duly made by personal service within the County of Latah, State of Idaho, as more fully appears from the Certificat of Service of Summons on file herein, and the said defendant having failed to appear and answer said complaint of the plaintiff, and the time for answering having expired, and no appearance having been made by said defendant and no answer or demurrer having been filed by him, and the Default of said defendant, L. Clarke McClure, having been duly entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced on behalf of plaintiff and in support of her complaint, and the cause having been submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court having rendered and made and filed its decision in writing herein, consisting of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Grace D. McClure, and the defendant, L. Clarke McClure, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the said parties are free from the marriage relation.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said plaintiff should be, and she is hereby, awarded the care, control and custody of the minor child, Steven Clarke McClure.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded all community household furniture, fixtures and equipment.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant be, and he is hereby, awarded as his sole and separate property all of the community interest, equity, right and title in and to the 1948 Chevrolet automobile of the parties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, awarded the sum of $50.00 per month, beginning December 1, 1949 and continuing during the minority of the minor child, Steven Clarke McClure, or further order of the Court, for the support and maintenance of the said minor child, Steven Clarke McClure.

IT IS STILL FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, L. Clarke McClure, be, and he is hereby, directed and ordered to pay to the plaintiff herein the sum of $125.00 incurred in the employment of counsel for the prosecution of this action, together with the sum of $18.00 paid by plaintiff for the filing fee and service fee in said action, such payments to be due and payable on the date hereof.

LOU SMITH) Plaintiff)
vs) DECREE
EVERET M. SMITH)
Defendant)

This matter came on for hearing in Chambers in Gooding, Gooding County, Idaho, this 26th. day of October, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Ross B. Haddock, and the defendant appearing not, either in person, or by anyone for him. The court thereupon inspected the court files and the summons in this matter, and the sworn acceptance of service of summons by the defendant, and finds that the defendant accepted service of summons in Richfield, Lincoln County, Idaho, on October 5, 1949. The court finds that the statutory time allowed the defendant for making an appearance and pleading to said complaint has expired, and that the defendant is in default for want of an answer, and for failure to plead to the complaint on file herein. The court finds that a Clerk's default has been entered in this matter on October 26, 1949, and the court hereby ratifies and confirms the default of the defendant so entered.

Thereupon the plaintiff and Leonard E. McDermon were duly sworn and testified in behalf of the plaintiff, whereupon the plaintiff rested, and the court having seen and heard the testimony in behalf of the plaintiff, and having seen and inspected the files and records in this matter, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed in her complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, Lou Smith, and the defendant, Everet M. Smith, be and the same hereby is dissolved, and that the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, are freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and from all obligations thereof.

2. That the written property settlement and agreement for the custody of the three minor children of plaintiff and defendant, dated September 23, 1949, a copy of which has been admitted in evidence herein, marked: "Plaintiff's Exhibit A," and all the terms thereof be, and the same is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed by this court, and that plaintiff and defendant be awarded the custody of their three minor children: Eugene M. Smith, Eva Lou Smith and Susan Smith, as in said agreement set out, and that defendant pay to the plaintiff the monthly payments called for in said property settlement and agreement for the custoday of said minor children, in the manner and at the times therein specified. It is further ordered that the custody of said three minor children be so awarded to the parties hereto, and said monthly payments be ordered made by the defendant herein to the plaintiff herein until further agreement between the parties hereto, or until further order of this court.

3. The costs of this action be taxed to the plaintiff.

Ross Z. Andersen, Plaintiff	)
vs	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE
Thora Mary Andersen, Defendant	)

This cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court, sitting at Chambers, in Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, on the 23rd day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney T. W. Smith, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant herein Thora Mary Andersen, has been duly served with summons, by publication of summons, in the Rexburg Standard, a news paper published weekly in the said County of Madison, and of general circulation and most likely to give notice of summons and complaint to the defendant, for the time and in the manner prescribed by law and according to the order of this court; and the defendant having failed to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff, and the time for pleading and answering having expired and no answer or demurrer having been filed and the default of the defendant Thora Mary Andersen have been duly entered according to law and the court having heard the testimony introduced by the plaintiff in support of his complaint, and the cause having been submitted, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence finds and concludes as follows:

That all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true. That the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff.

That the plaintiff is and has been a bona fide resident of the County of Madison State of Idaho, for more than six months preceeding the commencement of this action.

That the defendant has never been in the military service of the

the United States and is not now in such service.

That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried in the City o Rigby, County of Jefferson, State of Idaho, on the 20th day of November, 1935, and ever since have been husband and wife.

That the following named children are the issue of said Mx marriage, Vern S. Anderson, a son, age 13 years
Elva Andersen, a daughter, age 12 years
Lois Andersen, a daughter, age 10 years
Shirley Andersen, a daughter, age 8 years and are all in the care and custody of the plaintiff, living on th farmstead hereinafter described.

That during the coverature of the plaintiff and defendant, they have acquired and accumulated certain real and personal property, all of which is located and situated in the County of Madison, State of Idaho, and described as follows, towit:

Real Property:

Commencing at a point eleven (11) rods North of the Southwest corner of the Northwest quarter of Section Fifteen (15) Township Five (5) North of Range Thirty-nine (39) East Boise Meridian, and running thence North Fifty-four (54) rods, thence East Thirty (30) rods, thence North Fifteen (15) rods, thence East One Hundred Thirty (130) rods, thence South Sixty-nine (69) rods, thence West One Hundred Sixty (160) rods to the place of beginning, together with Five (5) shares of the Capital Stock of the Liberty Park Canal Company.

Personal Property:

Included, but not limited to the following;
Livestock, four cows, two calves, three horses, one sow pig and a number of chickens;
A complete set of farm implements; a complete repair shop with tools and machinery; household furniture, utensils and equipment;
The following automobiles and truck:
1- 1949 Dodge Pickup, Title No. 642879
1- 1940 Chevolet Car, Title No, C 374510
1- 1942 Oldsmobile Car, Title No. A 423653

1949 unsold crops, hay, grain and potatoes of the value of approximately $2500.00, and stored on the premises.

That the plaintiff is the owner of and entitled to, two life insurance policies as follows;

Insurer: Beneficial Life Insurance Company, Policy No. 88607,
Dated January 9, 1929, Amount $500.00,
Beneficiary, Thora M. Andersen, wife

Beneficial Life Insurance Company, Policy No. 163199,
Dated December 1st, 1936, Amount $500.00,
Beneficiary, Thora M. Andersen, wife

That on the 31st day of October, 1949, without the consent or previous knowledge of the plaintiff, the defendant left her home, abandoned her husband and deserted her children above named; that on said day, aforesaid, she did then and there go away with a certain male person by the name of Roy O. Ladd, and with the exception of returning to her home on the 2nd day of November, 1949, to get her clothes, she has not returned, neither has she made her whereabouts known, all of which has caused the plaintiff great mental suffering, grievous unrest and mental pain;

As conclusions of law from the foregoing facts, the court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and decree, dissolving the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant; that the community property be set asisde to the plaintiff and that the plaintiff be awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children:

Wherefore, in accordance therewith, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff above named is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty; that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved; that all of the real and personal property hereinbefore described, and all other property belonging to the plaintiff and defendant and not herein specificly described be and the same is hereby set aside and decreed to the plaintiff; that the life insurance policies hereinbefore described be and the same are hereby decreed to the plaintiff; that the care, custody and control of the minor children hereinbefore named be and they are hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

CONRAD WERTH,
Defendant.

DECREE

The above-entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me in the regular November term of the above-entitled Court, on this 10th day of December, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and with witnesses and the defendant appearing not.

It appearing from the records and files of said cause that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that the time for appearance had expired and default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court after listening to all of said testimony, free of all legal objections thereto, and being fully advised in the premises, makes and enters its findings as follows:

1. The Court finds that the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. The Court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 11th day of November, 1909, and now are and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

3. The Court finds that there are two minor children the issue of said marriage; Donnald Werth, age 13 years and Donna Werth, age 15 years; the court finds that said minor children are now in the care, control and custody of the plaintiff and have been in the care, control and custody thereof for more than a year next preceding the commencement of plaintiff's action.

4. The Court finds that the only community property of the plaintiff and defendant is a small amount of household goods which is in the possession of the plaintiff and used by said plaintiff for maintainging a home for the minor children and said plaintiff.

5. The Court further finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of her complaint, that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that a decree of divorce be made and entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in Open Court on this 10th day of December, 1949, before the Hon. Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having accepted service of summons and complaint on November 17, 1949, in which Acceptance of Service the defendant certified that he is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity and not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the said defendant having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered for his failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint, and the Court having heard the evidence, both oral and documentary, FINDS:

That the defendant accepted service of summons and complaint in this action by an instrument in writing, duly acknowledged by the defendant on November 17, 1949; that the said defendant certified in said acceptance of service that he was not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended; that the defendant failed to appear within the time allowed by law, or at all, to answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint, and that his default was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court for his failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint;

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Harrisburg, Arkansas, on February 20, 1947, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife;

That the plaintiff is now and was for more than six weeks immediately prior to the commencement of this action a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That there has been born as issue of said marriage one child, to-wit, Warren McIntosh, Jr. of the age of one and one-half years, which child is presently with plaintiff;

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties to this action;

That the plaintiff and the defendant have acquired no community property and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action;

That during the existence of said marriage the defendant has treated this plaintiff in a cruel manner, to-wit:

> That this defendant has repeatedly told this plaintiff that he does not love her and does not wish to live with this plaintiff as his wife; that said defendant refuses to assume the responsibilities of marriage and refuses to support this plaintiff and their minor child; that said defendant refuses to live with this plaintiff; all of which has caused this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering

From the foregoing Findings the Court concludes:

1. That the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

2. That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of Warren McIntosh, Jr., the minor child of the parties to this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of Warren McIntosh, Jr., the minor child of the parties to this action, is hereby awarded to this plaintiff.

DONE in Open Court this 10th day of December, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Lee McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court, on the 12th day of December, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, on the 17th day of November, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

Docketed Vol. 12 Page 19

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Lewiston in Nez Perce County, Idaho, on the 17th day of November, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are found by the Court to be true and by reference thereto are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of wilful neglect and non-support.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Viola M. Earle, and the defendant, Ellis Edward Earle, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Court sitting without a jury at chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 27th day of December, 1949. Merrill & Merrill, attorneys at law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff and no one appeared for and on behalf of the defendant; and

It appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with summons; that the said defendant failed to appear and plead to plaintiff's complaint on file herein within the time allowed by law or at all, and that her default for failing to plead to plaintiff's complaint, has been duly and regularly entered; and

It further appearing to the Court that the defendant is not in the military or naval service of the United States within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940; and

It further appearing to the Court from the evidence offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and correct, and that a Decree of Divorce should be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the fault of the defendant; and

It further appearing to the Court that there has been no issue born of said marriage; and

It further appearing to the Court that there has been no community property accumulated during said marriage; and

The Court being fully advised in the law and the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, R. Dee Merrill, and the defendant, Marjorie Christensen Merrill, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the parties are freed from all obligations thereof and each of them is restored to the status of single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, Marjorie Christensen Merrill, be and she is hereby restored to her former name of Marjorie Christensen.

Dated this 27th day of December, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in open court, at Payette, Payette County, Idaho, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the Defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conslusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of extreme cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is;

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; and it is further;

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the care, custody and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, MILTON L. HOWTON, is awarded to the plaintiff, provided that the said defendant may visit said child during reasonable hours in the daytime; and that the defendant be required to pay the plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for the care and support of the said minor child of plaintiff and defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing in open court before the above entitled court on the 19 day of December, 1949, upon the plaintiff's complaint, service of the same and of the summons in this action having been duly and regularly and in the manner provided by law personally served upon the defendant herein in Canyon County, Idaho, on the 18th day of November, 1949, and the defendant failing to appear herein either by counsel or otherwise, or to plead in said action within the time allowed by law, as specified in said summons, or at all, application for entry of default of the said defendant for failure to so appear was duly made and

It appearing to the court that the said defendant, Betty N. Svehlak, is not in the military service of the United States of America or in the military service with the forces of any country with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of any war in which the United States is engaged, as provided by Sections 101 (1) and 104 of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, as amended, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, an order was duly issued directing the clerk of this court to enter the default of said defendant herein for failure to so appear or plead to said complaint.

Thereafter said default of said defendant for failure to so appear and plead, as aforesaid, pursuant to the order of this court, was duly and regularly entered in the above entitled action and prior to the hearing of this matter, said defendant then being in default, and the plaintiff appearing at said hearing in person and by Dunlap and Dunlap of Caldwell, Idaho, his attorneys, the court proceeded to the hearing thereof.

Witnesses were called, duly sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff, the cause was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and the court having heard and duly considered the evidence and being duly advised in the premises and finding that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true as shown by the evidence herein; and that plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Winnemucca, Nevada, on or about September 13, 1945, and ever since said time have been, and now are, husband and wife; that the plaintiff now is, and has been for more than six weeks last past, a bona fide resident of Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho; that the defendant now is, and has been for more than six weeks last past, a bona fide resident of Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho; that there are no children the issue of said marriage; that the parties hereto, under date of November 14, 1949, entered into a written post nuptial agreement wherein and whereby they divided and settled their community property; that said agreement was filed in this court at the hearing of this cause as plaintiff's Exhibit "A"; that for some time prior to the filing of the complaint herein the defendant, without cause or provocation on the part of the plaintiff, has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and to such an extent as to inflict upon him grevious mental pain and suffering and that said treatment continued from said time up to on or about the time of the filing of the complaint herein.

And the court further finding that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds hereinbefore stated and set forth in the complaint on file herein, and now existing between the plaintiff, Frank J. Svehlak, and the defendant, Betty N. Svehlak, be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and the parties hereto are both freed from the obligations thereof and the said plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty and the said parties are, after the entry of this decree, each restored to the status of single persons.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the division of property between the plaintiff and defendant provided for by that certain written post nuptial agreement made and executed by said parties on November 14, 1949, be, and the same hereby is, approved and confirmed.

ROBERT D. ROBINSON, Plaintiff, -vs- DORRIS ROBINSON, Defendant.

This cause came on regularly to be heard the 10th day of December, A. D. 1949, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above-entitled Court, sitting without a jury upon a complaint of the plaintiff herein taken as confessed by the defendant for failure to appear and answer to the verified complaint of plaintiff on file herein. W. L. Tuson appeared as attorney for plaintiff and defendant did not appear. It appeared to the above entitled court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process and that said service was duly made by being served upon the defendant personally and the default of the defendant for not appearing, answering or in anywise pleading in said cause, was duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his complaint and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, the court considering the aforesaid testimony together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been duly waived and the court having been fully advised in the premises,

Done in Open Court this 10th day of December, A. D. 1949.

vs.
RAYMOND R. BASSO,
Defendant.

NO. 10920

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, the 13th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Alden Hull, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been regularly served with Summons and Complaint and that he had failed to appear, answer or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default had been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

It further appearing from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint.

Thereupon the cause was submitted to the Court, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Helen Rogers Basso, and the defendant, Raymond R. Basso, are hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff's maiden name of Helen H. Rogers be, and it hereby is, restored.

WILMA JEAN FINN, Plaintiff, -vs- MICHAEL OSWALD FINN, Defendant.	No. 10918 DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action came on regularly to be heard by the Court sitting without a jury on the 17th day of December, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Dale Austin, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by an attorney;

Upon said hearing and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process with the summons herein, and the complaint herein;

That the defendant having failed to appear and answer said complaint and the time to answer having expired and no answer or demurrer having been filed, the default of said defendant was duly entered herein according to law; and the Court having heard the testimony introduced on the behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint and the cause having been submitted and the Court having heard the testimony of one witness other than the plaintiff as to plaintiff's residence within the State of Idaho, the Court duly considered the law and the evidence from which it appears satisfactorily to the Court by the legal evidence, duly corroborated that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; and the Court having heretofore entered its Finding of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT: The marriage between plaintiff, Wilma Jean Finn, and the defendant, Michael Oswald Finn, be, and the same is hereby dissolved.

Kenneth R. Arrington,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Georgia Juanita Arrington,

Defendant.

DECREE.

Entered DEC 2 - 1949
10:15 AM.

This cause came on regularly for trial before the above entitled Court, at the Court Room thereof, in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, upon the 25th day of November, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through his attorney of record, Arthur E. Babbel. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to the Court, and it hereby finds, that the defendant, Georgia Juanita Arrington, has been duly and regularly served with the summons in this action and, having appeared herein, and having thereafter withdrawn her appearance from this action and refused to plead further therein and consented that her default might be entered herein at any time thereafter, the default of the defendant, Georgia Juanita Arrington, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted, including a property settlement agreement, dated November 9, 1949, made and entered into between the parties hereto, wherein and whereby it is agreed that their property rights and interests have been settled and adjusted as hereinafter set forth and decreed, and the evidence, being closed, the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, said Court hereby finds and decides: That, for a long time last past, the defendant has willfully, wrongfully and intentionally treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty, and has inflicted grievous bodily injury and grievous mental suffering upon him by her acts and conduct; and that there is a minor child, namely, Farlin Wesley Arrington, aged six years, who is the issue of said Kenneth R. Arrington and Georgia Juanita Arrington, who intermarried on or a bout the 16th day of September, 1942, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife, one of the other; that said minor child is now in the care and custody of the plaintiff, within Twin Falls County, State of Idaho; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody and control of said minor child; that each and every allegation set forth or contained in the plaintiff's complaint on file herein is true and correct; and that the plaintiff is entitled to all of the relief prayed for in his said complaint now on file herein; and, being fully advised now, both in the law and in the premises, the Court hereby makes and enters its judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Kenneth R. Arrington, and the defendant, Georgia Juanita Arrington, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property settlement agreement, a copy of which is annexed to the complaint herein, be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and that said property settlement, as contained in said agreement, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects, approved and confirmed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of said minor child, namely Farlin Wesley Arrington, be, and the same are hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Kenneth R. Arrington, as long as he shall properly care for, rear, educate, support and maintain him, and that the defendant, Georgia Juanita Arrington, be, and she is hereby, given and granted the right to visit with said minor child, at any and all reasonable times; and that she be, and she is hereby given and granted the right to have said minor child visit with her for short periods of time from time to time, when such visits do not interfere with the care or education of said minor child; and that she be, and she is hereby given and granted the right to have said minor child visit with her for a period of six weeks, the weeks to run consecutively, during the summer months of June and July of each year, beginning in the year 1950, and continuing each of the years following for said six weeks period until said minor child reaches his majority.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described and/or mentioned property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the plaintiff, Kenneth R. Arrington, as his sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, Georgia Juanita Arrington, therein or thereto, to wit:

That certain personal property, now situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

> All household goods, furniture, fixtures, appliances, and equipment now owned by or belonging to the parties in this action, and each of them; one Farmall -M- 1949 Model Tractor, serial number 198800X1; one Kiest Beet Lifter-Loader; all bank accounts, cash, stocks, drafts, bonds, bills receivable, accounts receivable, and other property of every kind, character and/or description, now owned by and/or belonging to the parties hereto, excepting only said property hereinafter specifically set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the defendant, Georgia Juanita Arrington.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described and/or mentioned property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the defendant, Georgia Juanita Arrington, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the plaintiff, Kenneth R. Arrington, therein or thereto, to wit:

> That certain personal property, now situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows: One 1949 Model Ford Tudor Sedan automobile, motor number 98BA-54,424 now owned by or belonging to the parties, plaintiff and defendant, to this action.

ORDER MODIFYING DECREE OF DIVORCE

The verified petition of the above named defendant, praying for a modification of our decre of divorce made and entered herein on the 17th day of June, 1949, came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 2nd day of December, 1949.

The defendant appeared in person and with her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear. It appears to the Court that an order to show cause, addressed to the plaintiff, Victor C. Bowman, Jr., issued out of this Court on the 17th day of November, 1949; that thereafter the said Victor C. Bowman, Jr., now a resident of the State of Arizona, filed herein his affidavit of voluntary appearance, acknowledging the receipt of a copy of said verified petition and of said order to show cause; informing the Court that he had no objection to the granting of said petition and to the proposed change in said decree of divorce, and consenting that his default for failure to appear and contest said petition be entered; it further appears that on the 2nd day of December, 1949, the default of said plaintiff for failure to appear and contest said petition was duly entered by the Clerk of this Court. Now, on motion of defendant's attorney, it is ordered that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The defendant was sworn and testified, and witnesses were sworn and testified in cooberation of defendant's testimony as to the treatment accorded said infant child by the plaintiff since the entry of said decree of divorce; as to defendant's reputation and character; and as to her ability to give said child a good home and propert bringing up. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of said verified petition are true; that the plaintiff has not given said child proper care since its custody was awarded to him; that the defendant is a fit and proper person to have the custody of said child, and can give it a good home and proper bringing up.

The Court concludes that said verified petition ought to be granted and said decree of divorce modified in accordance therewith.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that our decree of divorce made and entered in the above entitled action on the 17th day of June, 1949, be and the same hereby is modified as follows: That the custody of the minor child of said marriage, Dennis Clinton Bowman, be and the same hereby is awarded to the defendant, Katherine V. Bowman, during the minority of said child, or until the further order of this Court.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court on this 2nd day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person 3:05 PM and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due and regular service of summons and complaint in said action has been made upon the defendant; and that the defendant has failed and refused to appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint, and the time allowed by law to the defendant for answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and the default of the said defendant having been heretofore duly entered; and evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint; and the matter having been fully submitted to the Court for decision, including a property settlement agreement, dated November 9th, 1949, made and entered into between the parties hereto, a copy of which is hereto attached and marked "Exhibit A"; and the Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, On Motion of Rayborn and Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are hereby wholly dissolved.

2. That the said property settlement agreement attached hereto and marked "Exhibit A" is equitable, fair and just, and that the same be, and is hereby, duly approved and confirmed.

3. That the following described property;

Lots 28 and 29 in Block 14 of Blue Lakes Addition West to Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, Idaho; and

Lot 23 in Block 119 of the Burley Townsite, City of Burley, Cassia County, Idaho; and Certain rooming house equipment and furniture, now located at 1236 Oakley St., Burley, Idaho, and be, and is hereby, decreed to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

4. That the care, custody and control of the minor children adopted by the parties, whose names and ages are as follows; Ganet Kay Summers, two years of age, and Dennis Patrick Summers, age three months; be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff.

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 2nd day of December, 1949, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M., before the undersigned District Judge sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, and the defendant failed to appear, either in person or by attorney. Defendant having been duly and regularly served with copies of the complaint and summons herein and the time allowed by law for him to plead thereto having expired and no pleading or appearnace having been filed, and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by and on behalf of the plaintiff. The Court, having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true; that Christina Terry and Loretta Terry, the minor daughters of the parties hereto are in the custody of the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the custody of said children herein; and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty, as prayed in her complaint.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of the said parties is restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of the said minor children be, and the same are, awarded to the plaintiff; and that the defendant be and he hereby is, required to pay to the plaintiff for her support the sum of $75.00 per month and the further sum of $37.50 per month for the support of each of the said minor children during minority, said payments to be made on the first day of each and every month beginning January 1, 1950.

It is further orddred, adjudged and decreed that the real estate owned by the parties hereto, to-wit:

> Southwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter and that part of Lot Five (5) lying South of the South rim rock of Snake River Canyon and lying South and East of the rim rock of the gorge of "I" Coulee where it crosses a part of Lot Five (5), all in Section Ten (10), Township Nine (9) South, Range Fifteen (15) East of the Boise Meridian, together with fifty (50) shares of water stock in the Twin Falls Canal Company, be, and the same hereby is, awarded tothe plaintiff as her sold and separate property, subject to the mortgage in favor of the United States in the approximate sum of $18000.00.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that all the community personal property of the parties hereto, including the household furniture, fixtures and equipment, and including the sum of approximately $140.00 due from the Pond Produce Company of Buhl, Idaho to the said parties for potatos raised on the above described premises, be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that defendant be, and hereby is required to pay through the plaintiff, the sum of $150.00 attorney fee for the prosectuin of this action and her costs of suit taxed at $_____.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

* * * * * * * * *

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on this 9 day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of summons in said action has been made upon the defendant, R. O. Camozzi, by publication in the Times News for five consecutive Thursdays, and that at least 26 days intervened between the first and last publication; but that the defendant has failed and refused to appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint, and the time allowed by law to the defendant for answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of said defendant having been heretofore duly entered.

Evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for decision, the Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, On Motion of Rayborn and Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are hereby, wholly dissolved, and the parties forever freed from the obligations thereof.

2. That such miscellaneous household equipment as the parties hereto own, consisting of electrical appliances, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, as her sole and separate property.

3. That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, restored to her maiden name of Helen Blythe.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 9th day of December, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant made no appearance. It is shown to the Court that, pursuant to affidavit and order, personal service of the summons and complaint in this action was had on the defendant in the State of California on the 2nd day of November, 1949. It appears that the defendant has made no appearance herein since the date of said service, and that his default for failure to appear and plead within the time allowed by law was entered by the Clerk of this Court on the 8th day of December. On motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ordered that said entry of default be approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and corroborated plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and concludes that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved; that the custody of the only child of said marriage, Gayle Ann Christopherson, be and it hereby is awarded to the plaintiff; that the defendant may visit said child at reasonable and proper times and places.

JUDGMENT and DECREE.

The above entitled matter came regularly on before the Court, Hon. Hugh A. Baker, District Judge, prsiding, at Twin Falls, in Twin Falls County, Idaho, on the 9th day of December, ~~194~~ 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Everett M. Sweeley, the defendant not appearing; and,

It being shown by the records and files of the said cause that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process in the said county, said service being upon defendant personally, and that upon his failure to appear his default was duly and regularly entered herein,

Witnesses were called, sworn and examined by and on behalf of plaintiff, and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived,

It appearing to the Court that the divorce herein sought by the plaintiff is the fault of the defendant, and that he has been guilty of extreme cruelty to and upon the plaintiff and that plaintiff is for that reason entitled to the relief sought by her,

It Is Therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they are hereby severed and terminated, and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby absolutely divorced from the defendant;

2. That in lieu of alimony and as a just and equitable division between and assignment to the parties of their property.

There is hereby assigned to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property Lot Sixty Four (64) of Buena Vista Addition to the townsite of Twin Falls, in Twin Falls County, Idaho, as the same is shown upon the official plat of said addition of record in the said county, subject to the unpaid portion of the purchase price therefor; and,

There is hereby assigned to the defendant as his sole and separate property that certain 8 cylinder, 1949 model Buick automobile, purchased on contract by the defendant on or about the month of July, 1949, subject to the unpaid portion of the purchase price therefor.

Now on this 16TH day of December, 1949, this matter came on for hearing before the Court. Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., her attorney. The defendant did not appear. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff after which the matter was submitted to the Court for its decision. Upon consideration of the files and of the evidence the Court finds that the defendant, Clifford L. Jones, has entered his voluntary appearance herein; that said defendant has not appeared herein although the time for so doing as provided by law has wholly expired; that the defendant is in default and that the defendant's default has been taken and entered against him herein by the Clerk of this Court. The Court further finds that the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true; that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody of Carolyn Jones, the minor child of the parties hereto; that the sum of $35.00 per month is a fair and reasonable sum to allow the plaintiff as against the defendant for the support of said minor child and that the defendant has the ability to make such payment.

WHEREFORE, It is Decreed by the Court:

1. That the plaintiff be and she hereby is divorced from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff be awarded the custody of Carolyn Jones, the minor child of the parties hereto.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $35.00 per month for the support of said minor child of the parties hereto, such payments to be made on the 1st day of each month beginning on the 1st day of January, 1950.

4. That the defendant have the right to visit said minor child at all reasonable times.

This cause came on regularly for trial before the undersigned, one of the judges of the above entitled Court, in the County Court House, in the City of Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho on this 23rd day of December, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Max G. Lloyd. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to said Judge, and he hereby finds, that the defendant, Clure D. Hall, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action and, having failed to plead to this action the default of said defendant, Clure D. Hall, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted, including a property settlement agreement, dated November 28th, 1949, made and entered into between the parties hereto, wherein and whereby it is agreed that their property rights and interests have been settled and adjusted as hereinafter set forth and decreed, and wherein and whereby it is agreed that their respective rights and interests with respect to the care, custody and control of a minor child, namely Betty Jean Hall, who is the issue of the marriage of Winifred Roseina Hall and Clure D. Hall have been settled and adjusted as hereinafter set forth and decreed, and the evidence, being closed, the cause was submitted to the said Judge for his consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, the said Judge hereby finds and decides: That for a long time past the defendant has wilfully, wrongfully, and intentionally treated the plaintiff in such a manner as to inflict upon her extreme mental cruelty, and has by his acts inflicted upon her grievous mental suffering; that there is now one minor child, who is the issue of plaintiff's marriage to defendant; that said minor child is of the age of fourteen years, and that her name is Betty Jean Hall; that said minor child is now in the care and custody of the plaintiff; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child; that each and every allegation set forth or contained in plaintiff's complaint herein is true and correct; and that the plaintiff is entitled to all the relief prayed for in her said complaint now on file herein, except as hereinafter modified; and, being now fully advised, both in the law and in the premises, the said Judge hereby makes and enters his judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Winifred Roseina Hall, and the defendant, Clure D. Hall, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligations thereof, and that a decree or absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property settlement agreement, be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and that said property settlement, as contained in said agreement, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects, approved and confirmed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody, and control of said minor child, namely Betty Jean Hall, be, and the same are hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Winifred Roseina Hall, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant shall contribute to the support and maintenance of said minor child, the sum of thirty dollars per month, by paying to the plaintiff such sum for said purposes on the fifteenth day of January, 1960, and shall pay to the plaintiff a like sum for said purposes on the fifteenth day of each and succeeding month until such time as the said minor shall have reached her majority.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described and/or mentioned property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the plaintiff, Winifred Roseina Hall, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, Clure D. Hall, therein or thereto, to-wit; That certain personal property, now situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

> One bed-room set, consisting of one double bed with springs and mattress, one single bed with springs and mattress, miscellaneous bed clothing, one washing machine, one electric roaster, one radio, miscellaneous cooking utensils, one davenport and one living room chair.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described and/or mentioned property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the defendant, Clure D. This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 23rd day of December, 1949, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M. before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, District Judge, sitting without a jury. The plaintiff, Amy Jensen, mother of Marla Hawley, and the said Marla Hawley appearing in person and by their attorney, J. W. Taylor, and the defendant failed to appear either in person or by attorney and the time for answering allowed by law having expired and no answer or other pleading having been filed for or in behalf of the defendant, and his default having been duly entered, witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds:

That said Amy Jensen is the mother of Marla Hawley; that Marla Hawley is a minorof the age of 17 years; that defendant, Robert E. Hawley, and said Marla Hawley were married and became husband and wife on the 2nd day of October, 1949, in Elko County, Nevada; that the parents of said minor, Marla Hawley, did not, nor did either of them, consent to her said marriage to defendant before said marriage, and did not afterwards approve or condone said marriage, and said Marla Hawley, by reason of her minority could not consent to said marriage.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said marriage be, and the same hereby is, annuled, set aside and held for not, and that said Marla Hawley be, and she hereby is, restored to her former name of Marla Marlatt.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly for hearing on the 30 day of Dec, 1949, before Honorable Hubert Lucas, one of the judges of the above entitled Court, sitting in open Court, the plaintiff being represented by his attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel.

And it appearing to the Court that the defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with summons and a copy of the complaint in the above entitled action, and has filed herein her appearance, and has refused to plead to or answer plaintiff's complaint, and has consented that her default may be entered herein, and that the default of said defendant for such failure to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint has been duly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled Court according to law.

Thereupon evidence was introduced and admitted from which it appears that each and all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint have been established by competent evidence, and the allegations of plaintiff's complaint as to his residence have been duly corroborated by competent testimony.

And the Court, being fully advised in the premises, on Motion of attorneys for plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows, to-wit:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Ted. Vaux, and the defendant, Mildred Vaux, be, and they are hereby dissolved, and the parties hereto restored to the status of unmarried persons.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, namely, Phyllis Vaux, daughter, aged five months, be, and it is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Ted Vaux.

Done in Open Court this 30th day of December, 1949.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF GOODING

LUELLA CUNNINGHAM,
Plaintiff,
-vs-
SIM CUNNINGHAM,
Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court at Gooding, Gooding County, Idaho, on the 7th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing in person or otherwise;

And upon said hearing it satisfactorily appearing to the said Court that the said defendant, Sim Cunningham, was duly and regularly served with the summons in the above entitled action together with and attached to a copy of the complaint on file in the above entitled action and the said defendant having failed to appear, answer, or otherwise plead to the complaint of plaintiff on file herein, and the time for so answering, or otherwise pleading to the said complaint having expired;

And it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the said defendant, Sim Cunningham, having been duly and regularly entered, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her said complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, the Court finds the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the said defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has resided in the State of Idaho for more than six continuous weeks immediately preceding the commencement of the action;

The Court further finds that plaintiff and defendant have made and entered into a property settlement agreement, is in words and figures as follows:

"THIS AGREEMENT MADE AND ENTERED INTO this 17th day of November, 1949, by and between LUELLA CUNNINGHAM, hereinafter referred to as the plaintiff and SIM CUNNINGHAM, hereinafter referred to as the defendant,

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are now and ever since the 22nd day of June, 1922, have been husband and wife and irreconcilable disputes and differences have arisen and do now exist between them as a result whereof, the said Luella Cunningham, as plaintiff, has heretofore filed in the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Gooding, an action for divorce against the said Sim Cunningham, as defendant, which said action is now pending in the said Court; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have acquired and do now own certain community and separate property and they do desire to settle between themselves amicably their respective rights and interests in and to all such property and their rights to support, maintenance, alimony and attorney's fees.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) to each in hand paid by the other and in further consideration of the mutual promises and agreements hereinafter contained, the parties have agreed and do hereby agree as follows:

That the said defendant has now in his possession the sum of Eight Hundred Dollars ($800.00) in a savings account, which said sum of Eight Hundred Dollars ($800.00) is his separate property and the said plaintiff does hereby forever relinquish any claim that she might have to the said sum of Eight Hundred Dollars ($800.00) which the said defendant now has;

That in exchange for all his rights of whatsoever nature or howsoever created in and to the community property or mixed property which the parties may have acquired and now own, whether the same be real, personal, or consist of monies in the possession of the said plaintiff, the said defendant shall have the sum of Four Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($4,700.00) which said sum shall be in addition to the Eight Hundred Dollars ($800.00) which he now has, and the said defendant in consideration of the monies so received by him does hereby forever release and relinquish any and all claims that he might have to any other property which the parties may own or claim, save and except that he shall receive coincident with the execution of this agreement and in addition to the said sums of money hereinabove set forth, his personal belongings and that he shall further have as his sole and separate property, free and clear from any claim on the part of the said plaintiff, a policy on his life issued by the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance Company, now the Standard Insurance Company.

In exchange for any other rights she might have or claim, the said plaintiff shall receive as her sole and separate property, the said residence home of the parties hereto, more particularly described as follows:

> Lot Four (4) Block Twenty One (21) McCarty's First Subdivision, Boise, Idaho, as the same appears on the official plat thereof on file and on record in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Ada, State of Idaho, together with all household furniture, equipment and effects situate thereon or used in connection therewith.

To have and to hold the said property as the separate property and in no wise community property for her own use and benefit forever free and clear from any claim or right on the part of the said defendant;

In addition to the said residence property, furnishings and effects hereinabove described, the said plaintiff shall further receive as her sole and separate property, free and clear from any claim on the part of the said defendant, that certain business consisting of a beauty shop known and designated as Cunningham's Beauty Shop and located at No. 220 North 10th Street, Boise, Idaho, together with all of the fixtures, equipment, stock in trade, effects and good will thereof and the said plaintiff shall receive such business free and clear from any claim or right on the part of the said defendant;

The said plaintiff shall further receive as her sole and separate property with full right to change beneficiary thereunder and to dispose of the same and clear from any claim or right on the part of the said defendant, two certain policies of insurance issued by the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance Company, now the Standard Insurance Company and more particularly described as follows:

Policy #99276 in the face amount of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) issued on the life of Luella Cunningham and dated March 21, 1944;

Policy #NM82081 in the face amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) issued on the life of Luella Cunningham and dated March 30, 1939;

The said plaintiff shall further receive as her sole and separate property, free and clear from any right or claim of the said defendant, the 1937 Chevrolet Coupe, Motor #582,188, Serial #2GA03-39683;

The said plaintiff shall further receive all cash accumulations in addition to those heretofore provided to be received by the said defendant, whether such cash accumulations be in her separate name or in joint accounts;

In further consideration of the payment to him and receipt by him of the said Five Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($5,500.00) as hereinabove set forth, the said defendant conveys and releases unto the said plaintiff all of their property rights of whatsoever nature and whether or not hereinabove described;

In consideration of the mutual promises hereinabove set forth, and that each of the parties hereto does hereby forever discharge the other from any and all obligations to support, maintenance, alimony or attorney's fees and any and all property hereinafter acquired by either of the parties shall be the sole and separate property of the parties so acquiring the same and each of the parties does hereby relinquish any and all rights if in error or otherwise, to the property hereby set over to the other party or hereafter acquired by such other party;

The said defendant further agrees to execute such instrument as may be necessary to fully effectuate the terms of this agreement;

It is specifically understood and agreed that this agreement, subject to the approval of the Court, shall be incorporated and made a part of any decree of divorce rendered by any Court to either of the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

(s) Luella Cunningham
Plaintiff

(s) Sim Cunningham
Defendant

The Court further finds that the said property agreement is in all respects fair and equitable and should be confirmed.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and set aside and that plaintiff be forever divorced from the said defendant.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the property agreement hereinabove set forth be, and the same is hereby approved and confirmed as a part of this decree.

Dated this 7th day of December, 1949.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF GOODING

MARCIA WEAVER,
Plaintiff,
vs.
WALTER E. WEAVER,
Defendant.

The above matter came on regularly for trial in open court before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury, on the 9th day of December, 1949, being one of the regular judicial days in the November, 1949 term of said Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Parry, Keenan, Robertson & Daly, her attorneys; the defendant did not appear in person or by attorney. And it appearing to the Court that the defendant in this action was duly and regularly served with summons and failed to appear or plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, and that the default of said defendant was duly and regularly entered according to law, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence offered by the plaintiff in support of her complaint; and the evidence having been concluded and the matter submitted to the Court for decision, the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises, finds from the evidence that all the facts stated in plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce and community property of the parties, as prayed for in said complaint.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved and set aside and the parties to this action are divorced and restored to the status of single persons.

VALERIE J. GUTHRIE Plaintiff vs. DOUGLAS W. GUTHRIE Defendant.	JUDGMENT AND DECREE

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly to be heard on the 10th day of December, 1949, before the Court without a jury, and plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by David Doane, her counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above-entitled cause has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process on said defendant had, and that the time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired, and that the default of Douglas W. Guthrie, the defendant, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has heretofore been duly entered herein;

Whereupon, evidence, duly corroborated as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that the allegations of plaintiff's cause of action, contained in the plaintiff's complaint on file herein, are sustained by the testimony, free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that the matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle plaintiff to judgment and decree in accordance with the complaint and that the plaintiff is entitled to have her name prior to her marriage to defendant, to-wit, the name of Valerie J. Cramer, restored to her, and the case being closed and the law and the premises being duly understood by the Court, the Court makes and enters this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant are forever dissolved and the said parties are, after the entry of this decree, each restored to the status of single persons and that plaintiff's name prior to her marriage, to-wit, Valerie J. Betty Jean Briggs (the same person as Tonia Briggs), Plaintiff, -vs- Charles L. Briggs, Jr., Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 10th day of December, 1949, before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. Plaintiff appeared personally and with Mary Schmitt, one of her attorneys. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon, the court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision; and the court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were married at El Paso, Texas on or about October 1, 1946; that plaintiff and defendant have no children; that plaintiff is entitled to adivorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty and wilful neglect, and that plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to the time of the filing of her complaint; that plaintiff is the same person as Tonia Briggs; and that plaintiff's name prior to her marriage was Betty Jean Bishop.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Betty Jean Briggs (the same person as Tonia Briggs), and the defendant, Charles L. Briggs, Jr., be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree that the plaintiff's former name of Betty Jean Bishop be restored to her.

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho this 15th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and personally served with process and that the defendant through is attorney M. F. Ryan, appeared in said cause and filed a demurrer therein. That on the date hereof said defendant and his attorney withdrew said demurrer and refused to plead further, whereupon the court ordered that default be entered against said defendant.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person, that the custody, care and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely,

Lester Hoobery and Glenn Hoobery be and is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, and further that the plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and seperate property the following described property, to-wit:

Lots 11 and 12, Block 18, Gooding Townsite, Gooding County, Idaho,

DECREE

This Cause came on regularly for hearing the 16th day of December, 1940, before the Court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said Cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Des Moines, Iowa, on the 5th day of October, 1937, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff great mental and physical suffering, pain and anguish, and is such as to constitute mental cruelty.

The Court ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This case came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable D. H. Sutphen, in the above-entitled court at Gooding, Idaho, on the 17th day of December, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, Claude Marcus, of Boise, Idaho.

Defendant, Jacqueline Rosandick, appeared by her attorney, Frank Langley, of Boise, Idaho.

Whereupon, testimony was introduced in behalf of Plaintiff, and no testimony was submitted on behalf of Defendant. The Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts, finds as follows:

I

That Plaintiff is now and has been for more than six full weeks preceding the filing of this action, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That the Defendant, Jacqueline Rosandick, is not now in the military service of the United States, or of any ally in any capacity whatsoever.

III

That no children have been born of conceived of this marriage.

IV

That the separation and property division agreement, a copy of which is marked Exhibit A, filed and introduced herein, is just and equitable and should be approved.

V

That the proof of Plaintiff, free from legal objection, fully establishes the allegations of ~~her~~ his complaint as true, and by reason thereof, Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from Defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the above findings, the court does hereby order, adjudge, and decree as follows:

I

That Plaintiff, George P. Rosandick, is entitled to, and she is hereby entitled to, a full and absolute decree of divorce from Jacqueline Rosandick, upon the ground of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

II

That the Separation and Property Division Agreement entered into between the Plaintiff and Defendant is hereby fully confirmed and approved by this court, and by reference is fully incorporated in this Decree.

Dated and signed this 17th day of December, 1949.

-vs-	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE
NINA MAE MORGAN, Defendant.	)

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 17th day of December, 1949, before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. Plaintiff appeared personally and with Mary Schmitt, one of his attorneys. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon, the court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision; and the court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Rockport, Missouri about the month of August, 1915; that plaintiff and defendant have no minor children; that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the grounds of desertion and that plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart without cohabitation for a period of five years.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Clyde Morgan, and the defendant, Nina Mae Morgan, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court at Gooding, Gooding County, Idaho, on the 20th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant appearing by his attorney, Don J. McClenahan;

The parties having announced themselves ready for trial, the plaintiff introduced evidence in support of the allegations of her complaint and thereupon rested, and the defendant failed to introduce evidence either oral or documentary, whereupon the matter was submitted to the Court and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

The Court finds upon the cause of action of plaintiff, the issues in favor of plaintiff and that the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be forever divorced from the said defendant.

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, on this 20th day of December, 1949, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by this Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are dissolved, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

It is further hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said defendant, Pete Echevarria, shall have the custody and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Pete Echevarria, Jr., personally, however, that the said plaintiff shall have the right to visit the said minor child and to have the said minor child visit her at any and all reasonable time and to have the said child with her at reasonable times, places and circumstances for short periods of time.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Copy

THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER came on regularly for hearing before the court at Gooding, Idaho, on the 30th day of December, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney and her witness; the defendant neither appearing in person nor otherwise at all,

IT APPEARING TO THE satisfaction of the court that due and legal service of summons and complaint has been had and made for the time and in the manner provided by law and that the defendant Clifford Maxwell, has made no appearance herein in form or manner as required by law, within the time limited for such appearance; and the default of said defendant in the premises has been duly and regularly entered,

NOW UPON the application of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to reception of testimony on the plaintiff's behalf and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the plaintiff, Naomi Maxwell and the defendant Clifford Maxwell be and they are absolutely divorced and restored to the status of single persons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF BEAR LAKE.

DORIS DAISY BARKER,
Plaintiff,
Vs.
EVERETT EARLY BARKER,
Defendant.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard before the court at Chambers, in the city of Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 16th day of December, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, D. E. Haddock, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel;

And it appearing to the court that the said defendant, Everett Early Barker, has heretofore been regularly served with Summons in this action, and that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all to Answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff,s complaint filed herein, and it further appearing from the affidavit of the plaintiff filed herein that said defendant is not in the Military or Naval service of the United States within the purview of the Soldiers, and Sailors, Relief Act of 1940, and that the court has heretofore ordered that default judgment be entered against said defendant for his failure thus to appear and Answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff,s complaint filed herein, and that such default has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

WHEREUPON, said plaintiff and a witness in her behalf were duly sworn and examined and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, from which testimony it appears to the court that all of the material allegations contained in plaintiff,s complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissability or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint, and the court being fully advised,

NOW, on motion of D. E. Haddock, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of Matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Doris Daisy

Barker and the defendant Everett Early Barker, Be, and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved and set aside and each freed from all the obligations thereof, and each restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff, Doris Daisy B arker, be, and she is hereby awarded the permanent custody, care and control of Milton B arker, Tyla Barker and Carolyn Barker, the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, with leave to the defendant to see and visit said children at all reasonable times and places,provided however that the defendant may,provided he has at all times lived up to and abided by all the terms and conditions of this decree, have the care, custody and control of said children during the summer months of June, July and August of each year, he to adequately support and care for s aid children during such period of time and provided further that said children shall not at any time during the time he has the care, custody and control of them be taken from the state of Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $45.00 per month for the support and maintenance of the said minor children of plaintiff and defendant such payments to be made on the First day of each and every month hereafter commencing on the first day of January, 1950, such payments however not to be made to plaintiff during the periods the defendant has the care, custody and control of said children.

Done and dated at Pocatello, Idaho, this ____ day of December, 1949.

L. E. Glennon
District Judge.

The above entitled cause came on duly and regularly for trial in open court without a jury on the 19th day of December, 1949, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney John R. Kemper, and no person or persons appeared before or on behalf of the defendant, George Lyons. It appeared to the court that the defendant, George Lyons, was duly, regularly and personally served with process of Summons and Complaint in the Village of Nezperce, Lewis County, State of Idaho on the 18th. day of October, 1949, and that said defendant has failed to demur, answer or otherwise plead within the time provided by law. That the said defendant having been in default and his default having been duly and regularly entered herein, and it appearing to the court upon reading and filing the affidavit of Florence Lyons, the plaintiff in the above entitled action, which said affidavit was filed in pursuance to the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, that the defendant, George Lyons, is not now in the military service of the United States of America, in accordance with the terms of said act; and that this cause having been duly and regularly set for trial and the evidence being fully submitted, and the cause having been fully submitted to the court, and the court having duly considered the same and being fully advised in the premises,

NOW, THEREFORE, based therein,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, DECREED, as follows:

(a) That the marriage of the plaintiff, Florence Lyons, and the defendant, George Lyons, be and the same is hereby dissolved and the plaintiff, Florence Lyons, is hereby granted and absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, George Lyons, and each of the parties are at the entry of this decree restored to the status of a single person.

(b) That the absolute care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, to-wit: Betty Lucile Lyons be and the same is hereby awared to the plaintiff, Florence Lyons, with the privilege hereby granted to the defendant, of visiting the child at all reasonable times and places.

(c) That until further order of this court the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, Florence Lyons, the sum of $35.00 per month for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child of the parties hereinabove named. Said payments to be made on or before the first day of each and every month, beginning with the month of January, 1950, and continue until said child shall have arrived at the age of majority, or until further order of this court.

Dated and signed this 19th. day of December, 1949.

Plaintiff,

vs.

WILLIAM D. HOMER,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

-o-

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 17th day of December, 1949 before the Honorable Vales C. Dowse, one of the Judges of the above-entitled court, in chambers, in Rupert, in the County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by Lawrence H. Duffin, her attorney, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for him. Thereupon it appeared in the Court that the said defendant was duly served with process herein, and that no appearance, answer, or demurrer had been made or filed herein by, or on behalf of, the defendant; that the default of the defendant having been duly entered in the manner provided by law by the Clerk of this Court. Thereupon witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested, and it further appearing to the Court that the parties herein had made and executed a property settlement disposing of all community property and settling, adjusting and compromising of all property questions, title, rights and interests of the said parties and it further appearing that the said property settlement was freely and voluntarily entered into by both parties thereto and that both parties were fully informed and advised as to their legal rights and obligations before such property settlement was made and it further appearing that the said property settlement was, and is, a fair and equitable settlement of property rights of the parties herein and the Court being fully advised to the premises, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant, and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that judgment be entered for the plaintiff in accordance with the said property settlement.

NOW, THEREFORE, By reasons of law and Findings afore - said, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff, Jean K. Homer, and Defendant, William D. Homer, be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, cancelled set aside, and held for naught, and the said plaintiff, Jean K. Homer, be, and she is hereby, forever divorced from the said defendant, William D. Homer, and the plaintiff and the defendant are hereby restored to the status of Single Persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the agreement so made and entered between the parties hereto for the settlement, adjustment and division of their property and property rights and interests, a copy of which is attached to plaintiff's complaint on file herein, be and the same is hereby in all respects approved, ratified and adopted as a fair, just, reasonable and equitable settlement and division of the property rights and interests of the parties hereto and by the way of enforcing and based upon said agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That any property that is acquired by either of the parties hereto, after the date of the execution of this decree, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear from any and all claims, demands or pretensions of the other party, and in the event that it shall become necessary for either party to procure the signature of the other to any instruments or documents to carry into effect any and all of the terms, conditions and provisions of this decree, the party whose signature is required will sign such instruments or documents that shall be or become necessary to be signed, in order to carry out all of the terms and conditions and provisions of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said defendant pay the community debts and obligations of the parties hereto and at all times and in all respects save and hold the plaintiff and the property decreed to her harmless therefrom.

ANDREW S. RUSSELL, Plaintiff, vs. HELEN JOHNSTON RUSSELL, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

-O-

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff in open court at Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho on this 17th day of December, 1949, before the Honorable H. A. Baker, Judge of said Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and the defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint upon her and had expressly waived the time allowed by law for appearance in said action, had refused to appear in said action except as stipulated by the said defendant through her attorneys, and that the Clerk of said Court upon the filing of said stipulation had regularly entered the default of the defendant.

Witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and certain evidence was offered and plaintiff rested and the cause was submitted to the Judge for consideration and decision and it appearing to the Judge that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint, as modified by the stipulation of the parties hereto, are true and are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to its competency, relevancy and admissibility and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant and to decree awarding to her the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto hereinafter named, findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived by the plaintiff, expressly, and by the defendant by stipulation,

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises aforesaid:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Andrew S. Russell, and the defendant, Helen Johnston Russell, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that each party hereto be and each of them is hereby released from all objections thereof, and that the care, custody and control of John Michael Russell, a son, born on the ____ day of July, 1948, be and the same is hereby given and awarded to the plaintiff, subject to a right on the part of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times, intervals and periods, so long as the plaintiff shall not be in default in the payment of the allowance provided by the Court to be paid for the support and maintenance of said child, it being further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant, as and for the support and maintenance of said child, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month, the first payment to be made on or before October 25, 1949, and a like payment on the 25th day of each month until said child reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

This cause having come on regularly to be heard before the court on the 6th day of May, 1949, at the court room of said court in Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel W.L. Dunn, Esq., and the defendant neither appearing in person or by counsel, but the defendant having theretofore caused his voluntary appearance to be filed in said court in said cause, whereby he expressley waived the service of summons upon him, admitted the receipt of a copy of the complaint on file in said cause, waived the statutory time within which to plead or answer said complaint and submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the above entitledcourt and consented that a default be entered against him therein, and the Clerk's default having been duly entered and approved by the court, the court thereupon proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaintand the matter being finally submitted and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty to the extent of causing plaintiff great and grievous mental and physical suffering and distress and that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained, Wherefore, NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of W.L. Dunn, counsel for the plaintiff it is Hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony.

This cause having come on retularly to be heard before the court on the 9th day of December, 1949, at the court room of said court in Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel W.L. Dunn, Esq., and the defendant neither appearing in person of by counsel, but having theretofore caused his voluntary appearance to be filed in said court in said cause, whereby he expressley waived the service of summons upon him, admitted the receipt of a certified copy of the complaint on file in said cause, waived the statutory time within which to plead to or answer the said complaint, submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the above entitled court and consented that a default be entered against him therein, whereupon the Clerk's default was duly entered and approved by the court, when the court proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaint, with the matter being finally submitted, and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds that the defendant has failed to provide the common necessaries of life to plaintiff for more than one year prior to the filing of said complaint, although the said defendant is and has been an able bodied man capable of earning sufficient money with which to have furnished such necessities, but for his neglect to do so, and that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained, Wherefore, NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of W.L. Dunn, counsel for the plaintiff it is Hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony. 2

2. That the care, custody and control of the infant daughter age nine (9) months at the date of the complaint, named Ginger Ann Martin be and is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, who is found to be a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said infant daughter.

3. That the household furnishings of the approximate value of Five hundred twenty-five ($525.00) dollars, together with a 1937 model DeSota Sedan of the approximate value of Two hundred ($200.00) dollars is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and seperate property.

4. That Lot Ten (10) Block One (1) Crowthers Amended Addition to the City of Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, with the appurtenances and improvements is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and seperate estate, subject to the balance due on the purchase price of said real estate.
